The Editor's column

When an editor is on vacation 1,000 miles away from his desk and has received no word of what is happening back home, he can do nothing other than to say something about his impressions of a week spent near San Diego, the oldest U. S. community on the Pacific Coast.

Spending a week in such a city, sleeping, eating and relaxing in a hotel that was the world's largest when it was built in 1886, we became an honorary member of the "Heaven on Earth Club" which issued us a million dollar bond that guaranteed its payment in golden sunshine, 357 days of every year.

There were a lot of interest coupons on that bond, but we will not be able to collect on them because an editor working in Illinois cannot collect the daily sunshine in San Diego. That million dollar bond is an example of good salesmanship on the part of a Chamber of Commerce of that city.

Illinois may have a few cloudy days, but we think that living in northwest Cook county is worth a million dollars. We just need a local Chamber of Commerce to let the world know.

To thousands of Americans, San Diego is the jumping-off place to Tijuana where bullfights are classed as an art, not a sport; where the fastest and most dangerous sport on earth, Jai Alai, is played by teams who hurl a granite ball at speeds of 100 miles an hour; the home of the Caliente race track, and where it is as easy to get a divorce as to get married. Large signs inform the incoming visitors that both are easily obtained.

Tijuana lives off the 10 million visitors from the U. S. — the more cars, the more visitors, the more money for the hundreds of small shops that offer everything from small trinkets to diamonds.

Every Sunday is a race day with a parking lot as crowded with cars bearing U. S. license plates as is Arlington Park.

Illinois has its Great Lakes and Ft. Sheridan, but they are insignificant compared to what is to be found in the harbor of San Diego. The hundreds of ships in mothballs are only a small part of the fighting power that the U. S. Navy stores up in the natural harbor of San Diego.

We saw everything from submarines to 6 giant carriers, visiting one of them, the Hornet. It is our opinion that an enemy would have a lot to shoot at if he attempted to stage a second Pearl Harbor.

We saw floating dry docks in operation and more classes of fighting and attacking boats than we knew existed.

We rather enjoyed associating with mink coats and diamonds in the Hotel del Coronado. No such camouflage was necessary for us to enjoy the hospitality of the management who welcomed us with a bouquet of long stemmed roses and a bottle of champagne.

The hotel when built in 1886 was the largest in the world. Its spaciousness, ornate ceilings and walls are the same today as when among its guests were Thomas Edison, Henry Ford, Harvey Firestone and Presidents Benjamin Harrison, William McKinley, Howard Taft and Franklin Roosevelt. Its lobby and grand stairway are constructed of solid Illinois oak. Individual bathrooms and other modern facilities have replaced the wall safes that were originally in every room.

A GI home could be placed inside one of the bedrooms. The Crown dining room seated 700; the Cornet room an additional 300 diners; the ballroom is 5 stories high; 400 outside rooms facing either the gardens, the ocean or the bay bespoke of luxury that the public expected in a resort hotel 60 years ago.

It was in the midst of such atmosphere that the editor was able to forget such problems as newsprint shortages, editor's columns and deadlines.

We did not spend all our time in the swimming pool, tennis courts, gardens and the ocean beach. We marveled at some of the services that San Diego county the size of the state of Connecticut, is able to give its residents until we were told how they do it.

The income tax graduating from the 1 to 6 per cent helps a bit. Auto owners pay their personal property tax when they purchase license plates in January. The realty tax rate is $5.79 for every $100 assessment, which in turn is based on 34 per cent of market value.

The California resident does not have to lie about personal property taxes on stocks and bonds because they are not taxable.

The marvelous highways are partly made possible by the state 8 cents a gallon gas tax. There is a sales tax of 3 per cent plus one-half per cent that can be levied by a municipality.

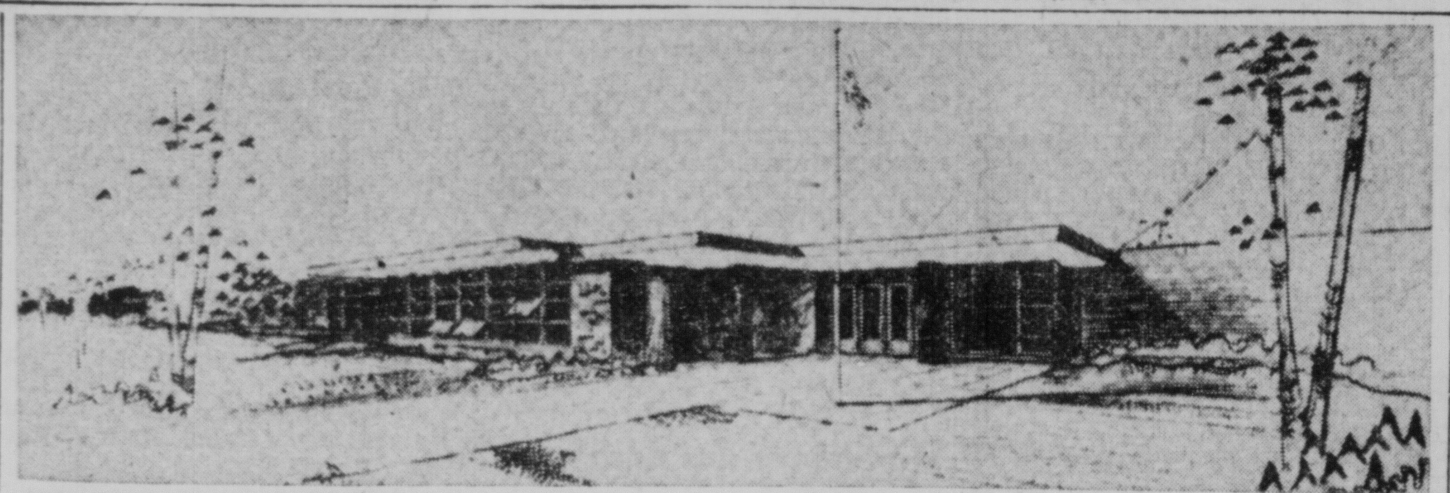
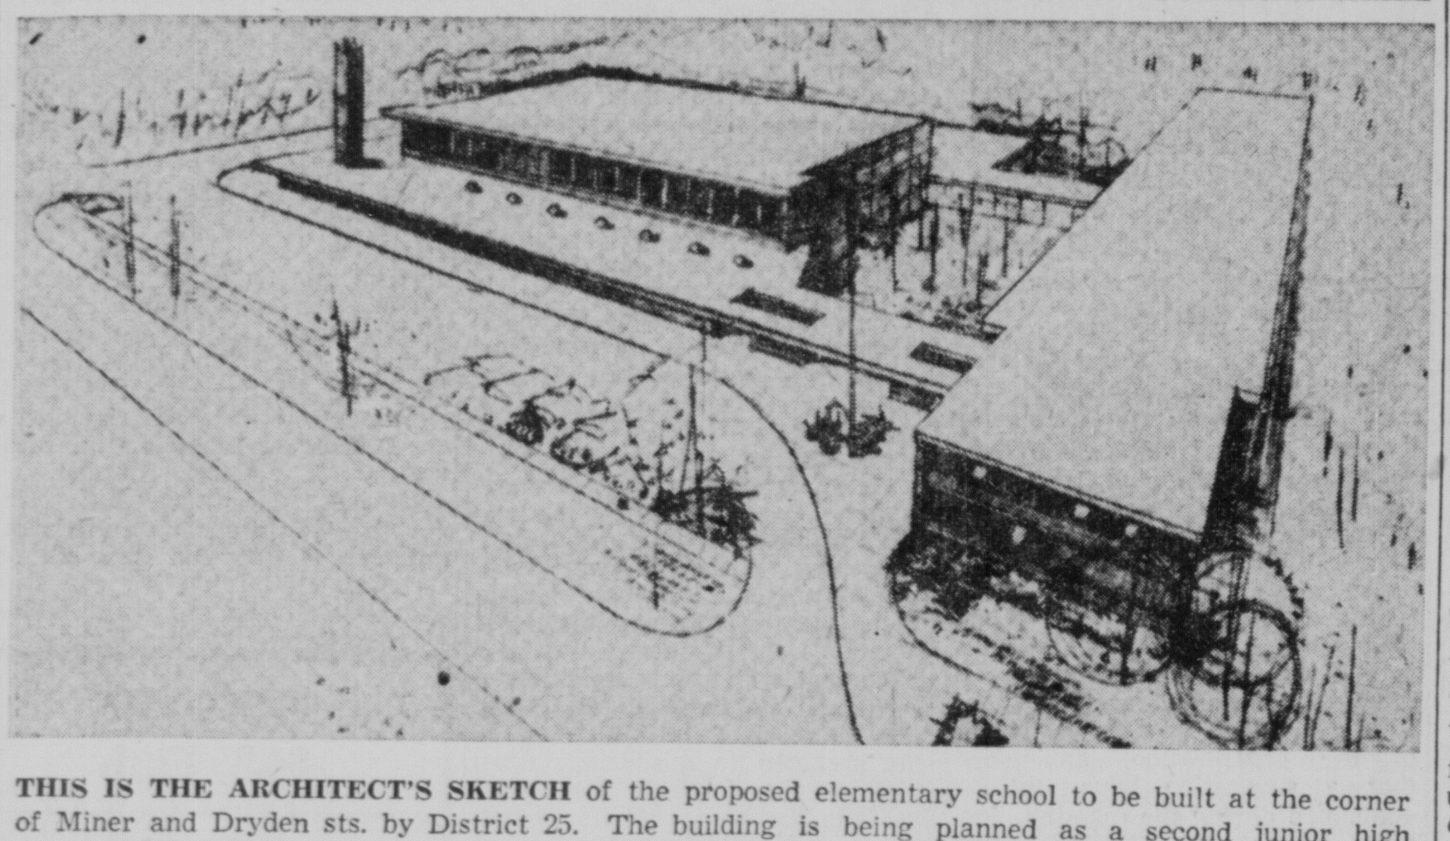
We rang the chimes on the historic old mission where Ramona was married. We visited Balboa park. The zoo located in ravines has a year round setting not found in other parts of the country. Within the park are buildings originally constructed for the 1915 and 1935 international expositions, some of them used as permanent art galleries and museums.



THE LOWER GRADE SCHOOL shown above is one proposed by district 25 to be built at Grove and Dwyer. This is a part of $1,050,000 referendum being submitted to voters January 28. Approval of the building program will provide classrooms for Arlington Heights' elementary school children throught June of 1958.



THIS IS THE ARCHITECT'S SKETCH of the proposed elementary school to be built at the corner of Miner and Dryden sts. by District 25. The building is being planned as a second junior high school, but will be occupied by both lower grades and junior high school children for the first 2 years. Voters will have the opportunity to approve this proposal at a referendum January 28, from noon to 7 p. m.

First 'R' Taught Well At Arlington

"Johnny" CAN read—at least he can if he's studied English at Arlington Heights high school.

The controversy currently sweeping the nation regarding deficiencies in reading and writing doesn't hold water here.

Students at Arlington are leaving class better prepared than ever before in the basic rudiments of reading, writing and speaking—and the school has facts to prove it.

Criticism?

IT'S GOOD," declares Alma Leonhard, head of the English department. "We haven't any pat answer to the complexities of education, and we're not complacent. Our program is ever open to change and evaluation to keep it abreast of the needs of our youth."

She added that there are students with difficulty in English, and these receive special attention.

But the high school refutes the blanket charge of sub-standard language instruction, particularly those critics in the press and at universities who challange the teaching of English today.

"Adults tend to romanticize the good old days when they went to school," explained Miss Leonhard. "They think grammar should be taught the same way today as it was a quarter century ago."

"PARSING" is a case in point. This is a familiar—and sometimes dread — term to old-time grammarians, but often a strange one to younger pupils.

There was a time when every students had to "parse" sentences—dissect each word, define its use, and explain its relation to other words in the sentence.

Arlington pupils are spared "parsing" because Miss Leonhard feels it "serves no purpose. It doesn't aid speaking, thinking or writing clearly."

Yet some adults blame faulty English on the absence of old fashioned "parsing."

Arlington Heights' modern English curriculum has succeeded in producing students who are reasonably well prepared for college work.

The 6 most recent classes have scored above average on national standardized tests in reading and language.

ALTHOUGH the University of Illinois and other colleges have complained bitterly about the English preparation of students, local graduates generally do well and are welcomed by most universities.

Eugene Oliver, administrative assistant at the high school, pointed out, however, that graduation from high school does not mean success in college.

"The role of the high school is different from college," he declared. "High schools must accept all students and do the best they can with them."

He said more students are attending college, partly because of less expensive state schools and higher incomes. It's no longer just the "cream of the crop" which can afford college.

Result?

Last year, the class of 1957 scored in the upper fourth nationally in effectiveness of expression, upper 10 per cent in reading social studies, and upper 5 per cent in interpreting natural science. This year's state tests placed Arlington in the upper half in both reading and writing.

"Secondary education is for all," said H. L. Slichenmyer, superintendent. "Some students, as a result, are able to come with good skills, others with skills not quite as good. But a better job on the whole is being done for this age group than has ever been done before. And we aren't through yet. We are constantly working to further our educational program to provide the youth of this community with the finest possible instruction."

Southside Paper Pickup Is Saturday

Another bi-monthly pick-up of scrap paper will be made Saturday on the south side of Arlington Heights. The pick-up will cover the area south of Northwest hwy. and start at 9 a.m.

Tied bundles should be placed on the curb before the paper trucks start rolling. Special handling can be arranged by calling CL 3-0508 before 9 a.m. Saturday.

Deadline Nears

"Don't be among those receiving arrest tickets for being delinquent," added Skoog.

LATTOF MOTOR SALES on Northwest highway was burglarized Monday night but safe-crackers punched the 2-foot hole seen above all for nothing. There was no money in the record safe but $79.95 was reported missing from a cash drawer and a strong box.

Debaters Place Fourth At Navy Pier Tourney

Arlington Heights debaters placed fourth among 16 schools participating in the annual Navy Pier debate tournament held Saturday. Eldon Krieder tied with a student from Downers Grove for individual honors and was awarded a medal.

The Arlington affirmative team of John Petersen and Pete Swanson went undefeated in its 3 debates, while the negative squad of Krieder and Bob Siegel won 1 and lost 2.

Downers Grove and East Rockford took first and second places. One more win for Arlington would have put them on top.

THE NAVY PIER tournament marked the opening of the regular tournament debate season. Metropolitan Debate Union competition among 16 Chicago Area schools got under way at LaGrange Wednesday night with the Arlington debaters attempting to better their last year's seventh place showing.

Other highlights of the season will be an invitational tournament at Augustana college February 3 and 4, and the Blue Island Lincoln Day tournament at which Arlington took 3 trophies last year. The sectional tournament will be held at West Rockford in March.

Police Crack Down On BB Gun Vandals

Parents were warned this week that Arlington Heights police are cracking down on vandals using BB guns at the expense of property owners and the village.

Nine windows, some of them thermopane on the east side of Ridge school were broken. BB pellets smashed a large front window at a home at 911 N. Kasper.

Eight street lights on W. Elm and windows and street lights on W. Oakton were broken as well as damage to street lamps in Stonegate and Scarsdale.

It is a state and village law that shooting an air gun is prohibited within village limits.

Chief Carl H. Skoog has issued an order to pick up air guns from any boy found using them in the village. The offenders will have to appear with their parents in juvenile court.

"I am requesting parents," declared the chief, "to supervise their son if he has a BB gun by having him shoot at a target in the basement or else take the gun away from him. Do not let him use the gun outside of the house unless his father is with him."

4 Lanes For Central Road

Central rd. will be widened to 4 lanes and resurfaced from State rd. to the Northwest hwy. during 1956.

A spokesman for William J. Mortimer, county superintendent of highways, gave out this information Wednesday, confirming persistent rumors that the project would get under way soon.

THE PROJECT was put into the county road budget for 1955. Mortimer's office said that the reason that the project was not begun during the past year was because the county had difficulty in purchasing the right-of-way. Purchases are now being completed, according to the spokesman. The highway will be 40 feet wide.

No date has been set for the letting out of bids nor have contractors been asked to submit bids yet. Hence a minimum of several months must elapse before work can begin.

34 Out For Cast Of One-Act Play

A record turnout of 34 students tried out for parts in the one-act which the speech department of Arlington Heights high school will enter in the state speech and forensics festival.

The play selected requires a cast of 14, and competition was keen for all parts.

Selected for the play were Pete Barnes, Larry Bowman, Margie MacCarron, Walter Christophersen, Scott Adam, Mary Jo Utt, Alice Olson, Judy Goble, Bob Lenz, Carol Beard, Sandy Froyd, Bob Siegel, Tom Johnson and Tom Farrand.

The cast will rehearse evenings and will perform in the district contest February 25. A win in the district contest is necessary to qualify for the state competition.

District 25 To Ask Voters For $1 Million

Arlington Jaycees Join Polio Drive

Members of the Arlington Heights Junior Chamber of Commerce will solicit local businessmen next week for contributions to the March of Dimes polio campaign.

A committee of 5 Jaycees, headed by Edward F. Koren, 1114 N. Dryden, will conduct a 10-day campaign starting Monday. The polio fund drive in Cook county runs from January 3 through 31.

In the 1955 March of Dimes campaign contributions in Arlington Heights totaled $8,003.14. Of that amount, the mothers' march on polio raised $5,084.02. Residents of suburban Cook county communities contributed $327,536.68 to the 1955 campaign.

DR. JOHN B. HALL, director of the Cook county public health department, revealed this week that Arlington Heights had a total of 16 cases of polio in 1955. He counted 2 cases among children under 5 years of age, 7 cases in the 5-14 bracket and 7 cases in the 15-and-over group. The onset date of the cases by month was: May, 1; July, 1; August, 6; September, 7; and October, 1. Dr. Hall said that cases in suburban Cook county fell from 488 in 1954 to 303 in 1955.

Dr. Hall said that the polio foundation supplied vaccine free for the first polio shots, given to Arlington Heights first-and-second grades during April and May. The local Nurses' club provided syringes and needles and local doctors contributed their services.

In November the second or booster doses of Salk vaccine were given to grade school children who had received the first injection. Under the procedure laid down by state officials in cooperation with medical societies, all vaccine entering Illinois until February 1 must go to complete the vaccination program in the schools, Dr. Hall related. After that the vaccine will probably be available to doctors, either through purchase or through supplies paid for by a federal grant. Doctors will then give the shots in their offices for a fee. Children from 5 through 14 will be taken care of first.

IN 1955 the national goal was $64,000,000. The amount collected was 52 million. This year the national goal is lower, $47,600,000.

Mrs. Muriel Rosene, general chairman of the campaign in Arlington Heights, explained how the money was spent.

Nationally about half of the funds go to aid polio victims, she said. If necessary the foundation will pay all the patient's expenses until recovery is complete. In 1955 the Cook county chapter spent $308,980 on direct medical care, including hospital expenses and medical and other fees. Miscellaneous medical expenses including outpatient physical therapy and convalescent care cost $54,277.

In past budgets about 14 per cent of the March of Dimes money went for research and education and 28 per cent for polio prevention. Less than 10 per cent went for administration and similar expenses.

Impressive as these facts are, Mrs. Rosene had a much more appealing reminder for Arlington Heights residents:

"Remember," she said, "when you receive your coin card that it was the March of Dimes that supported the research of Dr. Jonas Salk."

Safe Crackers Blast Wall at Lattof Motors

Safe crackers punched the concrete block wall of a record safe at Lattof Motor Sales Monday night only to find that there was no money in the safe.

But they did obtain $79.95 from a strong box in a desk and a cash drawer in the parts department of the auto firm at 800 E. Northwest hwy. in Arlington Heights.

Police said that probably several burglars were involved. They apparently gained entry through a window toward the rear on the east side of the building. After entering the body shop they made their way, according to police, into the parts shop, pulling a folding gate away from a counter and climbing over the counter into the parts office.

HINGES WERE KNOCKED off the safe, indicating that the burglars first tried to remove the door from the fireproof record safe, which is the size of a small closet. Failing to pry off the door, the men took a mechanic's sledge hammer and a 12 inch punch from a mechanic's bench and punched a hole 2 feet across in the safe wall. They ransacked the records but found no money, police reported.

Sixty dollars was taken from a strong box. It was money belonging to an employee's fund. Also missing was $19.95, removed from a cash drawer. No auto parts or accessories were reported missing by the firm.

The burglary was discovered by Richard Goedke, manager of the parts department, when he arrived Tuesday morning shortly before 8 a.m. Police said that the place usually closed near 9:30 p.m. Police noted that the parts department cannot be seen from the street and that Lattof employs no patrol service.

Mrs. E. J. Harris Will Give Book Review

Mrs. E. J. Harris, book reviewer of Arlington Heights, will be presented by the Third Monday Evening Book club January 16 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Charles Baker, 19 N. Pine st., Arlington Heights. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. George Granger of Palatine.

For her review, Mrs. Harris has chosen one of the best sellers, "Auntie Mame" by Patrick Dennis.

New Junior High School Part Of Proposed Building

At a meeting of the board of education of district 25 Tuesday, a resolution was adopted to hold a referendum on $1,050,000 school building bonds to build 2 new schools and needed additions and alterations to an existing building.

A new junior high school building will be constructed on the district's Miner street site, at an estimated cost of $740,000. This building will serve some 540 junior high school and lower grade pupils upon its occupancy in September, 1957.

Plans of the board of education call for construction of a lower grade building later on this same site, at which time the whole building will be devoted to the district's rapidly growing junior high school enrollment.

PLANS FOR the junior high building, being prepared by Ganster and Hennighausen, architects, will include gymnasium, cafeteria, and office and library facilities for eventually enlarging this building to house a maximum of 900 junior high school students.

The other building will be an 8-room lower grade school on the site in the Westgate subdivision recently donated to the district by the developer.

The rapid development of the south side of the district, and particularly the southwest section, is resulting in serious problems in the South School at Park and Mitchell and makes another building on the south side imperative, if the educational opportunities of lower grade youngsters in that area are not to be affected seriously.

Estimated cost of this building is $200,000.

Plans call for the conversion of the present office of the superintendent and business office to a library, with the library now in use in that building to be given over to the class for educable mentally handicapped children now housed in the South school. New offices which will more adequately provide for the central administration of the school system will be constructed adjoining the present Junior high school on the east. Also required is an expansion and modernization of the boiler room and heating system of this building and a small addition for storage and refrigeration space in the cafeteria of this building.

Total cost of all work to be done on this location is $110,000.

THE SCHOOL administration points out that this building program is conceived to relieve the problems of both lower grade and junior high school enrollments throughout the district.

It is obvious that more junior high school facilities will benefit all junior high school students in the district.

The Miner school will aso relieve the North school, where additional classrooms are badly needed. In the same way, the Westgate school will, of course, relieve the South school. In addition, more lower grade classrooms on both sides of the district will allow certain changes to be made in boundary lines between schools, if the facilities of the Ridge and Dryden schools becomes overtaxed.

Hold Funeral For Accident Victim, 9

Neighborhood friends and classmates of the fourth grade at Dryden school served as pallbearers at the funeral of 9-year-old Virginia Erickson Saturday. The girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Erickson, 601 S. Burton pl., Arlington Heights, died at Resurrection hospital Thursday following brain surgery.

Doctors attributed her death to a brain hemorrhage suffered Tuesday when the bicycle which she was riding skidded on a patch of ice and she was thrown to the pavement. At the time she was returning to school after the noon luncheon period. The accident happened in front of the Erickson home.

SEVERAL HUNDRED persons, including many children, attended the funeral Saturday afternoon at Arlington Heights Presbyterian church. The Rev. Paul Stumpf officiated at the services, with burial in Memory Gardens cemetery. The pallbearers were James Varnado, Don Elliott, Jay Hoder, Rickie Faner, Jack Lindstrom and Daniel Roble. The services were in charge of Lauterberg and Oehler.

The Erickson family moved to Arlington Heights from Ridgewood, N. J. 3½ years ago. Mr. Erickson is a supervisor of engineering economics at the Armour Research Foundation in Chicago. Virginia's brother, John, 6, is in the first grade at Dryden school.

A memorial fund has been established by the girl's grade school and Sunday school friends. In the words of friends, the memorial will be a tribute to "her happy disposition—always a source of joy to those who knew her—and her whole-hearted participation in life—which will be an example for her friends in the future."

Asks Earmarking Of Fund For Widening, Lights, Parking

The Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce is ready to support a comprehensive street widening, better lighting and off-street parking program. Its president thinks the first step may be the earmarking of funds for those purposes.

"Individual members of the village board have made several suggestions," says President Arnold E. Freise, "and it is time that the businessmen and general public gets behind enlarged program."

Freise stated at the Monday night chamber meeting of the board of directors that the community needs street-widening, street-lighting and off-street parking projects. He indicated that the members are solidly against a proposed ½% increase in the present 2½% sales tax. However, Freise declared, if the increase is adopted, the revenue should be earmarked for some specific use. Otherwise, he said, "the increase may be lost in the general fund."

How Many Aircraft?

The aircraft carrier USS Forrestal will carry a crew of 3,500 officers and enlisted men. The ship is expected to commence operations in early 1956.

Village Theatre To Present Suspense Drama February 9-11

"Angel Street," a dramatic thriller will be presented by Arlington Heights Village Theatre, Inc. at the Arlington Heights Junior high school February 9 and February 11 at 8:30 p.m. Arlington Heights Nurses club will sponsor this suspenseful play, which was known as "Gaslight" in its movie version.

Proceeds from the production will benefit the Northwest Community hospital center.

Mrs. Dennis Malcolmson will direct the production. Appearing in the cast are Mrs. Robert Hawley as Mrs. Manningham; Robert Tindall as Mr. Manningham; Mrs. Alfred Wilcox as Nancy; Mrs. Harold Houskeeper as Elizabeth; Alfred Wilcox as Rough and the policemen are Thomas Grisell and Robert Hawley.

Set designer is Maurice Geye, production manager is Mrs. Robert Tindall and Miss Anita Wilkins will act as stage manager.

Members of the theatre group will meet at 8 o'clock tonight, Thursday, at Arlington Heights field house. After a business meeting, cuttings from famous plays will be ready by Pauly and Larry Jenness.

Anyone interested in joining this theatre group is invited to attend.

Tied bundles should be placed on the curb before the paper trucks start rolling. Special handling can be arranged by calling CL 3-0508 before 9 a.m. Saturday.

Deadline Nears

"Don't be among those receiving arrest tickets for being delinquent," added Skoog.

Debaters Place Fourth At Navy Pier Tourney

Arlington Heights debaters placed fourth among 16 schools participating in the annual Navy Pier debate tournament held Saturday. Eldon Krieder tied with a student from Downers Grove for individual honors and was awarded a medal.

The Arlington affirmative team of John Petersen and Pete Swanson went undefeated in its 3 debates, while the negative squad of Krieder and Bob Siegel won 1 and lost 2.

Downers Grove and East Rockford took first and second places. One more win for Arlington would have put them on top.

THE NAVY PIER tournament marked the opening of the regular tournament debate season. Metropolitan Debate Union competition among 16 Chicago Area schools got under way at LaGrange Wednesday night with the Arlington debaters attempting to better their last year's seventh place showing.

Other highlights of the season will be an invitational tournament at Augustana college February 3 and 4, and the Blue Island Lincoln Day tournament at which Arlington took 3 trophies last year. The sectional tournament will be held at West Rockford in March.

Police Crack Down On BB Gun Vandals

Parents were warned this week that Arlington Heights police are cracking down on vandals using BB guns at the expense of property owners and the village.

Nine windows, some of them thermopane on the east side of Ridge school were broken. BB pellets smashed a large front window at a home at 911 N. Kasper.

Eight street lights on W. Elm and windows and street lights on W. Oakton were broken as well as damage to street lamps in Stonegate and Scarsdale.

It is a state and village law that shooting an air gun is prohibited within village limits.

Chief Carl H. Skoog has issued an order to pick up air guns from any boy found using them in the village. The offenders will have to appear with their parents in juvenile court.

"I am requesting parents," declared the chief, "to supervise their son if he has a BB gun by having him shoot at a target in the basement or else take the gun away from him. Do not let him use the gun outside of the house unless his father is with him."

District 25 To Ask Voters For $1 Million

Arlington Jaycees Join Polio Drive

Members of the Arlington Heights Junior Chamber of Commerce will solicit local businessmen next week for contributions to the March of Dimes polio campaign.

A committee of 5 Jaycees, headed by Edward F. Koren, 1114 N. Dryden, will conduct a 10-day campaign starting Monday. The polio fund drive in Cook county runs from January 3 through 31.

In the 1955 March of Dimes campaign contributions in Arlington Heights totaled $8,003.14. Of that amount, the mothers' march on polio raised $5,084.02. Residents of suburban Cook county communities contributed $327,536.68 to the 1955 campaign.

DR. JOHN B. HALL, director of the Cook county public health department, revealed this week that Arlington Heights had a total of 16 cases of polio in 1955. He counted 2 cases among children under 5 years of age, 7 cases in the 5-14 bracket and 7 cases in the 15-and-over group. The onset date of the cases by month was: May, 1; July, 1; August, 6; September, 7; and October, 1. Dr. Hall said that cases in suburban Cook county fell from 488 in 1954 to 303 in 1955.

Dr. Hall said that the polio foundation supplied vaccine free for the first polio shots, given to Arlington Heights first-and-second grades during April and May. The local Nurses' club provided syringes and needles and local doctors contributed their services.

In November the second or booster doses of Salk vaccine were given to grade school children who had received the first injection. Under the procedure laid down by state officials in cooperation with medical societies, all vaccine entering Illinois until February 1 must go to complete the vaccination program in the schools, Dr. Hall related. After that the vaccine will probably be available to doctors, either through purchase or through supplies paid for by a federal grant. Doctors will then give the shots in their offices for a fee. Children from 5 through 14 will be taken care of first.

IN 1955 the national goal was $64,000,000. The amount collected was 52 million. This year the national goal is lower, $47,600,000.

Mrs. Muriel Rosene, general chairman of the campaign in Arlington Heights, explained how the money was spent.

Nationally about half of the funds go to aid polio victims, she said. If necessary the foundation will pay all the patient's expenses until recovery is complete. In 1955 the Cook county chapter spent $308,980 on direct medical care, including hospital expenses and medical and other fees. Miscellaneous medical expenses including outpatient physical therapy and convalescent care cost $54,277.

In past budgets about 14 per cent of the March of Dimes money went for research and education and 28 per cent for polio prevention. Less than 10 per cent went for administration and similar expenses.

Impressive as these facts are, Mrs. Rosene had a much more appealing reminder for Arlington Heights residents:

"Remember," she said, "when you receive your coin card that it was the March of Dimes that supported the research of Dr. Jonas Salk."

New Junior High School Part Of Proposed Building

At a meeting of the board of education of district 25 Tuesday, a resolution was adopted to hold a referendum on $1,050,000 school building bonds to build 2 new schools and needed additions and alterations to an existing building.

A new junior high school building will be constructed on the district's Miner street site, at an estimated cost of $740,000. This building will serve some 540 junior high school and lower grade pupils upon its occupancy in September, 1957.

Plans of the board of education call for construction of a lower grade building later on this same site, at which time the whole building will be devoted to the district's rapidly growing junior high school enrollment.

PLANS FOR the junior high building, being prepared by Ganster and Hennighausen, architects, will include gymnasium, cafeteria, and office and library facilities for eventually enlarging this building to house a maximum of 900 junior high school students.

The other building will be an 8-room lower grade school on the site in the Westgate subdivision recently donated to the district by the developer.

The rapid development of the south side of the district, and particularly the southwest section, is resulting in serious problems in the South School at Park and Mitchell and makes another building on the south side imperative, if the educational opportunities of lower grade youngsters in that area are not to be affected seriously.

Estimated cost of this building is $200,000.

Plans call for the conversion of the present office of the superintendent and business office to a library, with the library now in use in that building to be given over to the class for educable mentally handicapped children now housed in the South school. New offices which will more adequately provide for the central administration of the school system will be constructed adjoining the present Junior high school on the east. Also required is an expansion and modernization of the boiler room and heating system of this building and a small addition for storage and refrigeration space in the cafeteria of this building.

Total cost of all work to be done on this location is $110,000.

THE SCHOOL administration points out that this building program is conceived to relieve the problems of both lower grade and junior high school enrollments throughout the district.

It is obvious that more junior high school facilities will benefit all junior high school students in the district.

The Miner school will aso relieve the North school, where additional classrooms are badly needed. In the same way, the Westgate school will, of course, relieve the South school. In addition, more lower grade classrooms on both sides of the district will allow certain changes to be made in boundary lines between schools, if the facilities of the Ridge and Dryden schools becomes overtaxed.

Hold Funeral For Accident Victim, 9

Neighborhood friends and classmates of the fourth grade at Dryden school served as pallbearers at the funeral of 9-year-old Virginia Erickson Saturday. The girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Erickson, 601 S. Burton pl., Arlington Heights, died at Resurrection hospital Thursday following brain surgery.

Doctors attributed her death to a brain hemorrhage suffered Tuesday when the bicycle which she was riding skidded on a patch of ice and she was thrown to the pavement. At the time she was returning to school after the noon luncheon period. The accident happened in front of the Erickson home.

SEVERAL HUNDRED persons, including many children, attended the funeral Saturday afternoon at Arlington Heights Presbyterian church. The Rev. Paul Stumpf officiated at the services, with burial in Memory Gardens cemetery. The pallbearers were James Varnado, Don Elliott, Jay Hoder, Rickie Faner, Jack Lindstrom and Daniel Roble. The services were in charge of Lauterberg and Oehler.

The Erickson family moved to Arlington Heights from Ridgewood, N. J. 3½ years ago. Mr. Erickson is a supervisor of engineering economics at the Armour Research Foundation in Chicago. Virginia's brother, John, 6, is in the first grade at Dryden school.

A memorial fund has been established by the girl's grade school and Sunday school friends. In the words of friends, the memorial will be a tribute to "her happy disposition—always a source of joy to those who knew her—and her whole-hearted participation in life—which will be an example for her friends in the future."

Safe Crackers Blast Wall at Lattof Motors

Safe crackers punched the concrete block wall of a record safe at Lattof Motor Sales Monday night only to find that there was no money in the safe.

But they did obtain $79.95 from a strong box in a desk and a cash drawer in the parts department of the auto firm at 800 E. Northwest hwy. in Arlington Heights.

Police said that probably several burglars were involved. They apparently gained entry through a window toward the rear on the east side of the building. After entering the body shop they made their way, according to police, into the parts shop, pulling a folding gate away from a counter and climbing over the counter into the parts office.

HINGES WERE KNOCKED off the safe, indicating that the burglars first tried to remove the door from the fireproof record safe, which is the size of a small closet. Failing to pry off the door, the men took a mechanic's sledge hammer and a 12 inch punch from a mechanic's bench and punched a hole 2 feet across in the safe wall. They ransacked the records but found no money, police reported.

Sixty dollars was taken from a strong box. It was money belonging to an employee's fund. Also missing was $19.95, removed from a cash drawer. No auto parts or accessories were reported missing by the firm.

The burglary was discovered by Richard Goedke, manager of the parts department, when he arrived Tuesday morning shortly before 8 a.m. Police said that the place usually closed near 9:30 p.m. Police noted that the parts department cannot be seen from the street and that Lattof employs no patrol service.

LATTOF MOTOR SALES on Northwest highway was burglarized Monday night but safe-crackers punched the 2-foot hole seen above all for nothing. There was no money in the record safe but $79.95 was reported missing from a cash drawer and a strong box.

4 Lanes For Central Road

Central rd. will be widened to 4 lanes and resurfaced from State rd. to the Northwest hwy. during 1956.

A spokesman for William J. Mortimer, county superintendent of highways, gave out this information Wednesday, confirming persistent rumors that the project would get under way soon.

THE PROJECT was put into the county road budget for 1955. Mortimer's office said that the reason that the project was not begun during the past year was because the county had difficulty in purchasing the right-of-way. Purchases are now being completed, according to the spokesman. The highway will be 40 feet wide.

No date has been set for the letting out of bids nor have contractors been asked to submit bids yet. Hence a minimum of several months must elapse before work can begin.

34 Out For Cast Of One-Act Play

A record turnout of 34 students tried out for parts in the one-act which the speech department of Arlington Heights high school will enter in the state speech and forensics festival.

The play selected requires a cast of 14, and competition was keen for all parts.

Selected for the play were Pete Barnes, Larry Bowman, Margie MacCarron, Walter Christophersen, Scott Adam, Mary Jo Utt, Alice Olson, Judy Goble, Bob Lenz, Carol Beard, Sandy Froyd, Bob Siegel, Tom Johnson and Tom Farrand.

The cast will rehearse evenings and will perform in the district contest February 25. A win in the district contest is necessary to qualify for the state competition.

Mrs. E. J. Harris Will Give Book Review

Mrs. E. J. Harris, book reviewer of Arlington Heights, will be presented by the Third Monday Evening Book club January 16 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Charles Baker, 19 N. Pine st., Arlington Heights. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. George Granger of Palatine.

For her review, Mrs. Harris has chosen one of the best sellers, "Auntie Mame" by Patrick Dennis.

Asks Earmarking Of Fund For Widening, Lights, Parking

The Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce is ready to support a comprehensive street widening, better lighting and off-street parking program. Its president thinks the first step may be the earmarking of funds for those purposes.

"Individual members of the village board have made several suggestions," says President Arnold E. Freise, "and it is time that the businessmen and general public gets behind enlarged program."

Freise stated at the Monday night chamber meeting of the board of directors that the community needs street-widening, street-lighting and off-street parking projects. He indicated that the members are solidly against a proposed ½% increase in the present 2½% sales tax. However, Freise declared, if the increase is adopted, the revenue should be earmarked for some specific use. Otherwise, he said, "the increase may be lost in the general fund."

How Many Aircraft?

The aircraft carrier USS Forestal will carry a crew of 3,500 officers and enlisted men. The ship is expected to commence operations in early 1956.

Village Theatre To Present Suspense Drama February 9-11

"Angel Street," a dramatic thriller will be presented by Arlington Heights Village Theatre, Inc. at the Arlington Heights Junior high school February 9 and February 11 at 8:30 p.m. Arlington Heights Nurses club will sponsor this suspenseful play, which was known as "Gaslight" in its movie version.

Proceeds from the production will benefit the Northwest Community hospital center.

Mrs. Dennis Malcolmson will direct the production. Appearing in the cast are Mrs. Robert Hawley as Mrs. Manningham; Robert Tindall as Mr. Manningham; Mrs. Alfred Wilcox as Nancy; Mrs. Harold Houskeeper as Elizabeth; Alfred Wilcox as Rough and the policemen are Thomas Grisell and Robert Hawley.

Set designer is Maurice Geye, production manager is Mrs. Robert Tindall and Miss Anita Wilkins will act as stage manager.

Members of the theatre group will meet at 8 o'clock tonight, Thursday, at Arlington Heights field house. After a business meeting, cuttings from famous plays will be ready by Pauly and Larry Jenness.

Anyone interested in joining this theatre group is invited to attend.

Will Add 1,000 Bleacher Seats At Arlington Hi Stadium

The 2 high schools in district 214 are to be known as Prospect and Arlington high schools from now on.

At its Tuesday night meeting the district board voted approval of the name "Prospect" for the 2-year high school to be built on Foundry road and also decided that the present school should be called "Arlington High school" rather than "Arlington Heights High school". No one seemed to know exactly what the official name of the school originally was but all approved the renaming.

The board gave its unanimous approval to raises in teachers' salaries in 1956-57. The increases will provide for higher minimum salaries and for salary increases of up to $500.

One thousand bleacher seats will be added to the stadium next summer, the board decided. The bleachers will be factory installed and will conform to those in use. The cost will be $12,500.

Dr. Joseph Brandt, a board member, pointed out that "the cost of the bleachers will be paid back from added revenues in less than 4 years." The capacity of the stadium will be 3,000 with the new seats.

IN A MOVE to provide operating revenues until the end of the spring term the board voted to issue $300,000 in tax warrants in $5,000 denominations. The interest rate will be 2½%, which is 1/4 of 1% higher than the last series but which members felt was in line with current short term interest rates.

Members considered purchase of metal-working lathes, demonstration panels and an exhaust system for the industrial arts program but took no action. A proposal to construct a garage for the high school was delayed when Slichenmyer said that the architects were still working on plans for the new high school building.

Secretary Alma Fontaine proposed that drapes and new benches be purchased for the choral room. She said that the room faced the sun and needed drapes. When someone suggested that the windows be blackened she replied:

"Educators say that children in rooms with windows they can't see out of get frustrated."

A COMMITTEE will consider the matter further before benches or drapes are purchased. The assembly room will be used as a classroom in the future and the board is waiting for bids for new overhead lights.

Other business during the 3½-hour-long session included discussion of the type of survey group needed to do research on long-term school needs in the district and out-of-state field trips for student groups. On the first matter the consensus of opinion was that both an outside consultant and a local lay group would be useful. On the second, the debating squad was granted permission to make out-of-state trips.

Outside lighting will be improved soon as the board approved the idea of adding 4 mercury vapor lamps around the school building and added that the village will be asked to install better lighting facilities on Walnut st.

Brotherhood To Sponsor Showing Of 'Martin Luther'

The Brotherhood of Our Saviour United Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, is sponsoring the showing of the film, "Martin Luther," in the multi-purpose room of Dryden school Sunday evening at 7:45. The program is open to the public.

Richard Almquist, president of the Brotherhood, and Kenneth Machacek, program chairman, have been in charge of arrangements for the showing of the film. Refreshments and a social hour have been planned to follow the program.

The first annual congregational dinner and business meeting will be held Sunday, Jan. 22, at 5:30 p.m. in Dryden school. The Rev. John P. Petersen, pastor, is urging every family in the congregation to attend this important meeting.

The Rev. Mr. Petersen officiated Sunday morning at the baptism of 2 infants during the 11 o'clock worship service. Linda Marie Fritsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Werner Fritsch, 2105 Eastman st., and Cindy Ann Selan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Selan, 706 S. Dunton st., were received into the fellowship of Our Saviour through the sacrament of baptism.

Missionary League To Meet Friday

The Lutheran Women's Missionary league of St. Peter Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, will meet Friday after the business session of the Mothers club in the St. Peter Activity building.

A color sound movie of Concordia Publishing house, St. Louis, Mo., will be shown entitled "The Work of Our Hands." "All women of St. Peter church are considered members of the Mission League," Pastor Stephan stated.

Reports on the work of the district and national league will be made by Mrs. Mary Frances Gieseke, secretary, and Mrs. Dorothy Stephan, chairman. Refreshments will be served by the Mothers club.

St. Peter Mothers Club To Meet Friday

The regular monthly meeting of the St. Peter Lutheran Mothers club, Arlington Heights, will meet on Friday, Jan. 13 at 8 p.m. with a full-length movie on the activities of the Concordia publishing house as the feature of the evening.

Mrs. Luther V. Stephan, president of the Women's Missionary league will present the program after the business meeting. Mrs. Leonard C. Reckwerdt, president of the organization, announced that a suggestion hour will be conducted during the meeting. Any ideas for the improvement of the meetings will be presented at that time.

Hostesses for the refreshments are Mesdames F. Mueller, and Carl Weinrich, co-chairmen, assisted by Mesdames Walter Krambeer, Ben Maschoff, Adolph Obermann, M. Chabracek, Evertt Themer, E. Sass and G. Bozee.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Ronald Henrichsen and Mrs. Frank J. Orzolek of Arlington Heights and Miss Rose Marie Stupka and Miss Lisa Walendy of Palatine. Twenty-five guests were present and a buffet supper was served at 10 p.m.

Miss Nightingale, daughter of the William C. Nightingales of Church rd., and Mr. McGlynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. McGlynn of Bellwood, will be married January 21 at St. John Lutheran church, Church rd., with the Rev. F. L. Gehrs officiating.

Home From Georgia

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stroberg, 504 S. Lincoln, and sons, David and Eric, returned last week from a 2-week trip to Macon, Ga. where they spent the recent holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. L. Stroberg and Mrs. Grady Gillon.

The local auxiliary of the Park Ridge school for girls met last Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Robert Cowen, 504 S. Belmont. An election of officers for the coming year was held and plans were discussed for the group's early summer benefits.

Southern Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Reese Hubbard, 627 S. Lincoln, and daughter, Christine, returned Monday from a southern trip. The Hubbards vacationed for 2½ weeks at North Redington Beach, located on the Gulf of Mexico near St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Shannon, 444 S. Beverley, have been entertaining as their house guests the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morse Brink of Afton, Minn. The Brinks, who arrived in Arlington Heights December 8 are leaving Monday to spend the remainder of the winter in Florida. The Shannons entertained Mrs. Shannon's cousin, Donald Blanchard of Middlebank, N. J., last Tuesday.

Between Christmas and New Year's Miss Marilyn Fernstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fernstrom, 1219 Watling rd., was hostess to 6 house guests, all fellow students at Lawrence college, Appleton, Wis. The group attended the theatre, a basketball game and numerous parties. Guests were Dick Weber of Shawano, Wis.; Jon Peterson of Winneconne, Wis., Paul Ramsey of Ft. Atkinson, Wis., Miss Maricoe Wemple of East DePere, Wis., Miss Sue Faber of Norwood Park, Chicago and Miss Nancy Schroeder of Mt. Prospect.

Mrs. Gertrude Berschet of Mt. Prospect was taken to St. Joseph hospital Tuesday to undergo an operation.

Friends and neighbors of Mrs. Aubrey Voaden, 349 Bristol, are sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Voaden's father, N. M. Rice of Evansville, Ind., who had been ill for some time. He died in an Evansville hospital January 9 and Mr. and Mrs. Voaden attended the funeral services.

Mrs. Murell Allison, 920 S. Vail ave., suffered a broken arm as the result of a fall last week in her back yard. Her neighbors and friends hope the break will soon mend.

Missionary To Speak

The Rev. Herbert Beecken, missionary to Japan, will bring the sermon at the 10:30 a.m. worship service at St. John church, North Evergreen at St. James, Arlington Heights, this Sunday.

Pastor Beecken, who serves under the board of international missions of the Evangelical and Reformed church, is currently doing post graduate work at McCormick theological seminary in Chicago. His father, the Rev. Peter Beecken, is pastor of St. John church near Palatine and Immanuel church near Elgin.

International Missions Sunday which comes during the Epiphany season will be observed at the church Sunday. An executive board of the Women's guild will be installed as part of the service. The guest speaker is being brought to the church by one of the women's circles.

The Rev. Herbert Beecken was graduated from Elmhurst college in the same class as the local pastor, J. G. Meiners, and also graduated with him from Eden theological seminary in St. Louis. After study at Yale university, he was assigned to missionary work in China. Returning to the United States in 1949 he served as interim pastor of a large congregation at Bath, Pa., which had been served by the world-renowned church leader Reginald Helforich. In 1950 the Beeckens were reassigned to Japan where he studied at Kyoto and served as a teacher and evangelist in the town of Annaka.

Friends of the church and the public are invited. (AP

The board gave its unanimous approval to raises in teachers' salaries in 1956-57. The increases will provide for higher minimum salaries and for salary increases of up to $500.

One thousand bleacher seats will be added to the stadium next summer, the board decided. The bleachers will be factory installed and will conform to those in use. The cost will be $12,500.

Dr. Joseph Brandt, a board member, pointed out that "the cost of the bleachers will be paid back from added revenues in less than 4 years." The capacity of the stadium will be 3,000 with the new seats.

IN A MOVE to provide operating revenues until the end of the spring term the board voted to issue $300,000 in tax warrants in $5,000 denominations. The interest rate will be 2½%, which is 1/4 of 1% higher than the last series but which members felt was in line with current short term interest rates.

Members considered purchase of metal-working lathes, demonstration panels and an exhaust system for the industrial arts program but took no action. A proposal to construct a garage for the high school was delayed when Slichenmyer said that the architects were still working on plans for the new high school building.

Secretary Alma Fontaine proposed that drapes and new benches be purchased for the choral room. She said that the room faced the sun and needed drapes. When someone suggested that the windows be blackened she replied:

"Educators say that children in rooms with windows they can't see out of get frustrated."

A COMMITTEE will consider the matter further before benches or drapes are purchased. The assembly room will be used as a classroom in the future and the board is waiting for bids for new overhead lights.

Other business during the 3½-hour-long session included discussion of the type of survey group needed to do research on long-term school needs in the district and out-of-state field trips for student groups. On the first matter the consensus of opinion was that both an outside consultant and a local lay group would be useful. On the second, the debating squad was granted permission to make out-of-state trips.

Outside lighting will be improved soon as the board approved the idea of adding 4 mercury vapor lamps around the school building and added that the village will be asked to install better lighting facilities on Walnut st.

Brotherhood To Sponsor Showing Of 'Martin Luther'

The Brotherhood of Our Saviour United Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, is sponsoring the showing of the film, "Martin Luther," in the multi-purpose room of Dryden school Sunday evening at 7:45. The program is open to the public.

Richard Almquist, president of the Brotherhood, and Kenneth Machacek, program chairman, have been in charge of arrangements for the showing of the film. Refreshments and a social hour have been planned to follow the program.

The first annual congregational dinner and business meeting will be held Sunday, Jan. 22, at 5:30 p.m. in Dryden school. The Rev. John P. Petersen, pastor, is urging every family in the congregation to attend this important meeting.

The Rev. Mr. Petersen officiated Sunday morning at the baptism of 2 infants during the 11 o'clock worship service. Linda Marie Fritsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Werner Fritsch, 2105 Eastman st., and Cindy Ann Selan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Selan, 706 S. Dunton st., were received into the fellowship of Our Saviour through the sacrament of baptism.

Missionary League To Meet Friday

The Lutheran Women's Missionary league of St. Peter Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, will meet Friday after the business session of the Mothers club in the St. Peter Activity building.

A color sound movie of Concordia Publishing house, St. Louis, Mo., will be shown entitled "The Work of Our Hands." "All women of St. Peter church are considered members of the Mission League," Pastor Stephan stated.

Reports on the work of the district and national league will be made by Mrs. Mary Frances Gieseke, secretary, and Mrs. Dorothy Stephan, chairman. Refreshments will be served by the Mothers club.

St. Peter Mothers Club To Meet Friday

The regular monthly meeting of the St. Peter Lutheran Mothers club, Arlington Heights, will meet on Friday, Jan. 13 at 8 p.m. with a full-length movie on the activities of the Concordia publishing house as the feature of the evening.

Mrs. Luther V. Stephan, president of the Women's Missionary league will present the program after the business meeting. Mrs. Leonard C. Reckwerdt, president of the organization, announced that a suggestion hour will be conducted during the meeting. Any ideas for the improvement of the meetings will be presented at that time.

Hostesses for the refreshments are Mesdames F. Mueller, and Carl Weinrich, co-chairmen, assisted by Mesdames Walter Krambeer, Ben Maschoff, Adolph Obermann, M. Chabracek, Evertt Themer, E. Sass and G. Bozee.

Home From Georgia

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stroberg, 504 S. Lincoln, and sons, David and Eric, returned last week from a 2-week trip to Macon, Ga. where they spent the recent holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. L. Stroberg and Mrs. Grady Gillon.

The local auxiliary of the Park Ridge school for girls met last Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Robert Cowen, 504 S. Belmont. An election of officers for the coming year was held and plans were discussed for the group's early summer benefits.

Southern Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Reese Hubbard, 627 S. Lincoln, and daughter, Christine, returned Monday from a southern trip. The Hubbards vacationed for 2½ weeks at North Redington Beach, located on the Gulf of Mexico near St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Shannon, 444 S. Beverley, have been entertaining as their house guests the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morse Brink of Afton, Minn. The Brinks, who arrived in Arlington Heights December 8 are leaving Monday to spend the remainder of the winter in Florida. The Shannons entertained Mrs. Shannon's cousin, Donald Blanchard of Middlebank, N. J., last Tuesday.

Between Christmas and New Year's Miss Marilyn Fernstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fernstrom, 1219 Watling rd., was hostess to 6 house guests, all fellow students at Lawrence college, Appleton, Wis. The group attended the theatre, a basketball game and numerous parties. Guests were Dick Weber of Shawano, Wis.; Jon Peterson of Winneconne, Wis., Paul Ramsey of Ft. Atkinson, Wis., Miss Maricoe Wemple of East DePere, Wis., Miss Sue Faber of Norwood Park, Chicago and Miss Nancy Schroeder of Mt. Prospect.

Mrs. Gertrude Berschet of Mt. Prospect was taken to St. Joseph hospital Tuesday to undergo an operation.

Friends and neighbors of Mrs. Aubrey Voaden, 349 Bristol, are sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. Voaden's father, N. M. Rice of Evansville, Ind., who had been ill for some time. He died in an Evansville hospital January 9 and Mr. and Mrs. Voaden attended the funeral services.

Mrs. Murell Allison, 920 S. Vail ave., suffered a broken arm as the result of a fall last week in her back yard. Her neighbors and friends hope the break will soon mend.

Missionary To Speak

The Rev. Herbert Beecken, missionary to Japan, will bring the sermon at the 10:30 a.m. worship service at St. John church, North Evergreen at St. James, Arlington Heights, this Sunday.

Pastor Beecken, who serves under the board of international missions of the Evangelical and Reformed church, is currently doing post graduate work at McCormick theological seminary in Chicago. His father, the Rev. Peter Beecken, is pastor of St. John church near Palatine and Immanuel church near Elgin.

International Missions Sunday which comes during the Epiphany season will be observed at the church Sunday. An executive board of the Women's guild will be installed as part of the service. The guest speaker is being brought to the church by one of the women's circles.

The Rev. Herbert Beecken was graduated from Elmhurst college in the same class as the local pastor, J. G. Meiners, and also graduated with him from Eden theological seminary in St. Louis. After study at Yale university, he was assigned to missionary work in China. Returning to the United States in 1949 he served as interim pastor of a large congregation at Bath, Pa., which had been served by the world-renowned church leader Reginald Helforich. In 1950 the Beeckens were reassigned to Japan where he studied at Kyoto and served as a teacher and evangelist in the town of Annaka.

Friends of the church and the public are invited. (AP

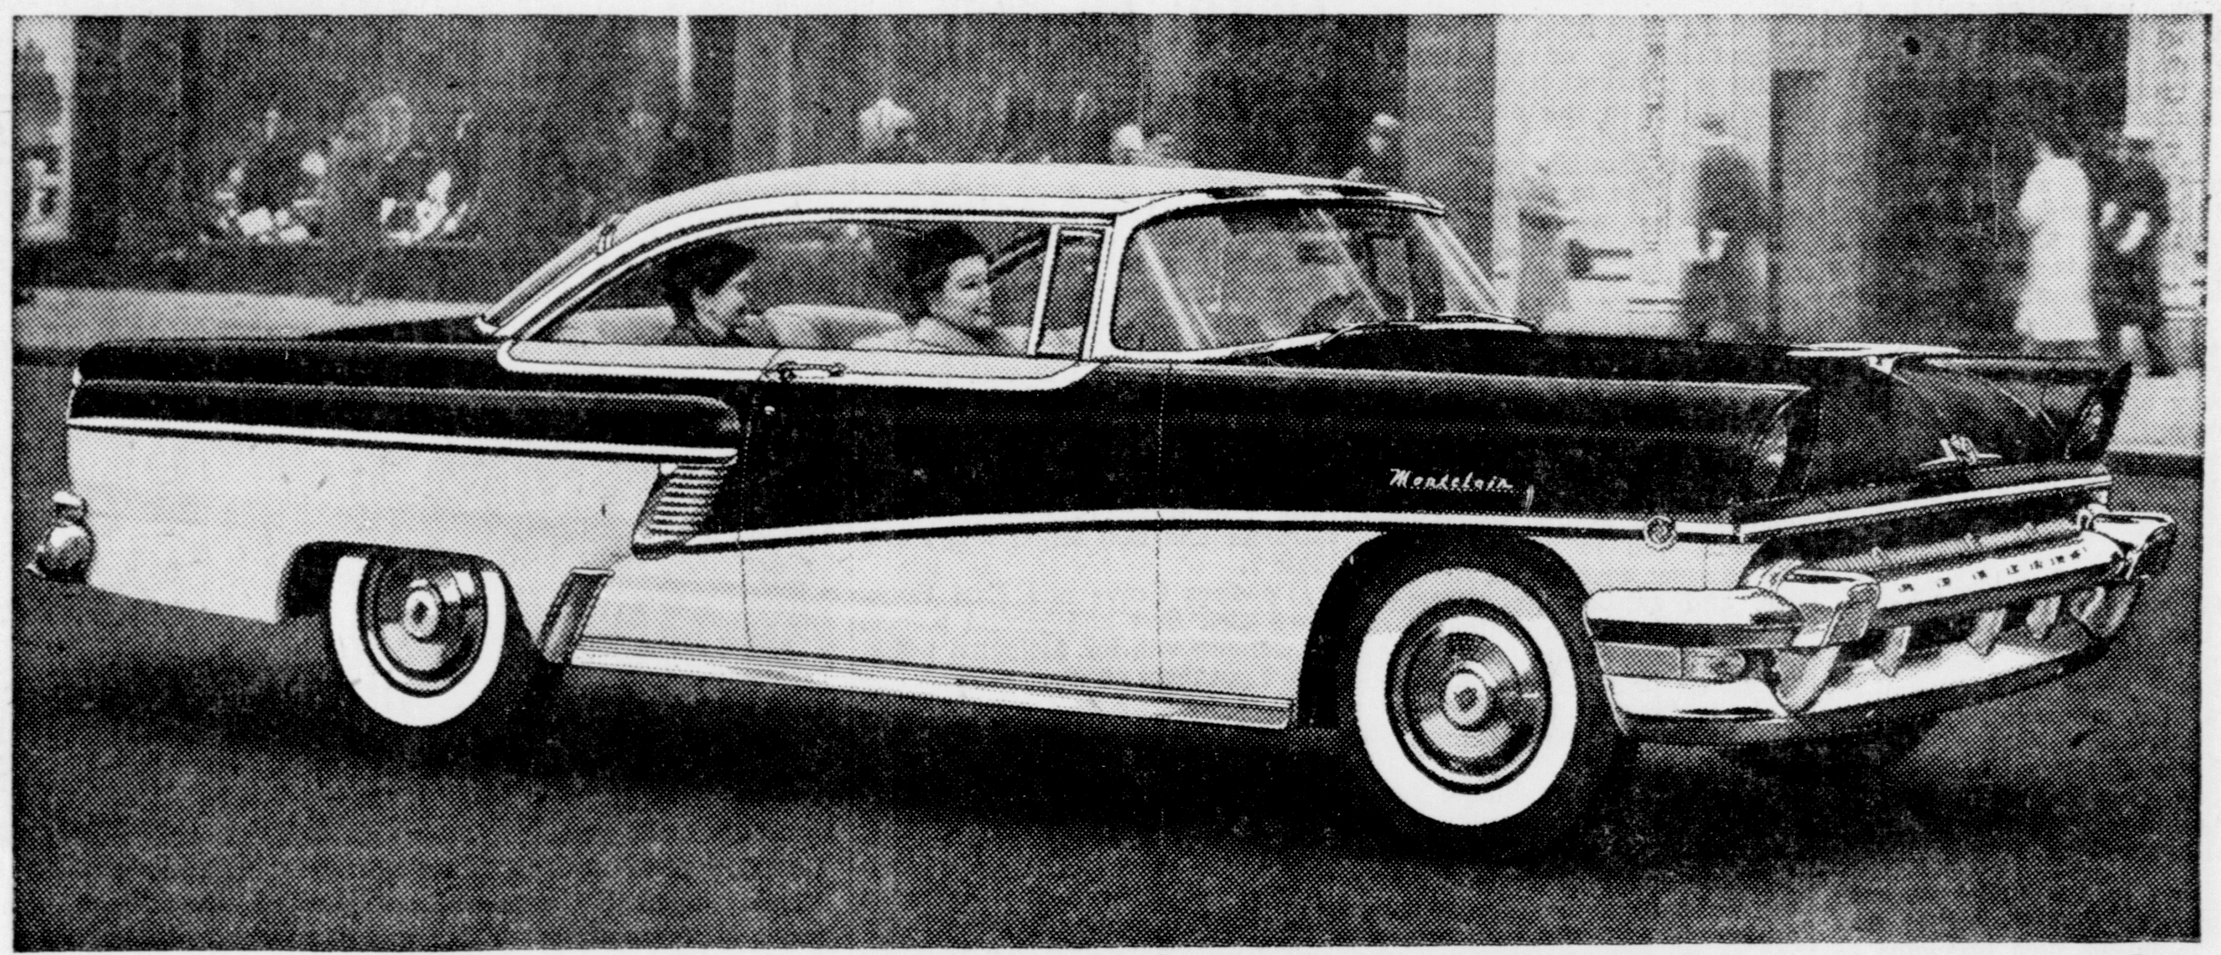
ONE 5-MILE DRIVE WILL PROVE IT

Your driving is easier _ you feel safer _ in THE BIG M



The stunning Mercury Montclair 2-door hardtop with distinctive low profile and Flo-Tone color styling.

Co-op

Easier riding and handling on sharp turns—new comfort on bumpy roads—widest choice of safety features in its field help explain why THE BIG M is the big buy for 1956.

Riding is so much better than reading. That's why we invite you to take a demonstration drive in our BIG M.

Then you'll feel THE BIG M's reflex action firsthand—how ball-joint front suspension adjusts itself instantly to rough roads, ruts, and curves.

And you'll experience the reflex-action response of THE BIG M's new SAFETY-SURGE V-8 engine—how it takes the tension out of passing, makes hill-climbing as effortless as breathing.

You'll discover the new peace of mind provided by THE BIG M's new Safety-First Design. For this year Mercury offers 10 new safety features, including the only impact-absorbing steering wheel in its field.

So see us for a test ride. Compare our prices and you'll find that THE BIG M is as easy to own as it is to drive.

BIG 4 OF THE BIG M

1 NEW REFLEX-ACTION PERFORMANCE. THE BIG M responds to your every command—go, stop, climb, pass—quick as an athlete's reflex. On all roads and curves, Mercury adjusts instantly, automatically, for your ease and comfort.

2 BIG M BEAUTY. New long, low profile. Distinctive Flo-Tone color styling. Clean-lined beauty for young-minded people.

3 NEW SAFETY-FIRST DESIGN. Widest choice of safety features; impact-absorbing steering wheel, safety door locks at no extra cost; padded instrument panel, safety belts, optional.

4 PROVABLE VALUE. Low price when you buy—low cost while you drive. For 4 years best resale value in its field. Many dividend features for greater performance and convenience.

For 1956 _ the big move is to THE BIG MERCURY

No Injuries Yet In 1956: Police Report

The new year has gotten off to an excellent start traffic safety-wise. Arlington Heights police report that no one was injured in auto accidents during the first 10 days of 1956.

Minor accidents involved only damage to autos. A car driven by Barbara Swartz, 1513 Kensington rd., Arlington Heights, collided with a Hill-Behan Lumber truck driven by Adolph Meyer, 36, a company employee, in front of the lumber firm on State rd. Police said that apparently Meyer was attempting to back the truck into the lumber yard when the accident occurred, at 1 p. m. January 4.

One car had a crumpled fender and another a pushed-in side as a result of an accident January 9 at 7:30 p. m. at Euclid and the Northwest highway. Police said that apparently Arthur J. Braun of Wilmette was attempting to turn right off the highway and collided with another auto driven by Robert J. Moler of Mt. Prospect.

Highland, entertained at a dinner party at their home at 5 p.m. Sunday for 15 guests following the baptism of their son, Richard Vernon, at 3:30 p.m. by the Rev. Luther Stephan at St. Peter Lutheran church. The guests included the sponsors who were Mrs. Alfred Harz, the baby's maternal grandmother of Palatine, William Beu, Dundee, Erwin Clausing and Otto Linde, both of Arlington Heights.

Miss Nightingale was honored at a miscellaneous pre-nuptial shower December 11 at 3 p.m. at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Arthur Nightingale of Palatine rd. Twenty-five guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. McFadin, 517 Banbury, are entertaining as their house guest the latter's mother, Mrs. Josephine Metzger of Harrisburg, Pa.

No Injuries Yet In 1956: Police Report

The new year has gotten off to an excellent start traffic safety-wise. Arlington Heights police report that no one was injured in auto accidents during the first 10 days of 1956.

Minor accidents involved only damage to autos. A car driven by Barbara Swartz, 1513 Kensington rd., Arlington Heights, collided with a Hill-Behan Lumber truck driven by Adolph Meyer, 36, a company employee, in front of the lumber firm on State rd. Police said that apparently Meyer was attempting to back the truck into the lumber yard when the accident occurred, at 1 p. m. January 4.

One car had a crumpled fender and another a pushed-in side as a result of an accident January 9 at 7:30 p. m. at Euclid and the Northwest highway. Police said that apparently Arthur J. Braun of Wilmette was attempting to turn right off the highway and collided with another auto driven by Robert J. Moler of Mt. Prospect.

Virginia Terrace News

There was a directors' meeting of the Virginia Terrace Improvement association held Monday evening. The membership drive for the year 1956 is now in full swing and dues are $2. Plans are being made for a general meeting of the members of the association this month. Residents will be notified later.

Residents are reminded to drop off or mail their entries to name the bi-monthly newsletter to Doris Silver, 1247 N. Chicago. Entries must be in by February 1. The publicity committee hopes that the newsletter was enjoyed and they are open to suggestions for future letters.

Lynn and Tom Smith, 1610 Olive, had a party last Saturday night. Those present were Eliz and Joe Silverman, Bee and Don Harper, Carolyn and Bob Menick, Dorothy and Charlie Catlin, Jan and Claude Batuk and Margaret and Hank Schluter.

A New Year's eve party was given by Mary Ann and John Geer, 1515 Clarendon. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ludwig, Hinsdale; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Keil, LaGrange; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Matson, Western Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dvorak, Berwyn; Mr. and Mrs. Don Marquis, Evanston; Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford, Bloomington; Robert Stocker, Western Springs and Miss Nancy Friel, Pleasant Ridge, Mich.

Florence and Max O'Brien, 1405 N. Race, had 13 family guests for Christmas dinner. Among the guests were Florence's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Grudzien, and Max's mother, Mrs. John O'Brien. Other guests were Florence's brothers, Robert and Don Smith, her sister, Dolores Smith, and a friend, Lorraine Schultz, and Max's sister, Rosemary O'Brien.

Guests at Jo and Bob Hults, 1108 N. Chicago, last weekend were William Bealmer and his daughters, Kara and Alison, of Springfield.

Mrs. Eunice Carlson of Sioux Falls, S. Dak., spent Christmas through New Year's as a guest of Margaret and Don Walters, 1614 Oakton.

A guest last weekend at Sandy and Dave Yates, 1522 W. Oakton, was Paul Jenkens of Cincinnati. Mr. Jenkens is Leslie's godfather.

New arrivals in Virginia Terrace are Polly and Charles Millhouser, 1702 W. Oakton. The family moved into their home from Evanston December 22. They have 3 children, Mary, 9, who is in fourth grade at Wilson school, Bob, 6, who is in first grade, and Jean, 4. Mr. Millhouser is with Rhodes, Inc.

The "Mothers March for Polio" will take place Tuesday, Jan. 31. Jen Kline, 1710 W. Oakton, CL 3-8581, is chairman of this drive for Virginia Terrace. Anyone wishing to work for the drive is asked to contact Mrs. Kline.

The seventh and eighth grades of Wilson school are earning money for the 2 grades to take a trip to Springfield. They sponsored a bake sale last Tuesday night before the PTA meeting and are selling ice cream after lunch at school.

Presbyterian Men To Show Culinary Skill February 4

Men of First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights will once again demonstrate their culinary skill when they stage their annual "turnabout dinner" February 4 in the church dining room.

Members of the Presbyterian men's group, under the direction of James Webster, will plan, prepare and serve a full-course meal, as has been their custom over the past 3 years. Last year marked their largest and most successful dinner thus far, with nearly 400 meals served to church members and guests. As in previous years, tickets will also be available to the general public.

Mr. Websted, who is a food service executive with a major hotel chain, enlists his help from the church men's club, and serves meals that have been highly praised. His key assistants for the February 4 meal will include Bob Hutchinson, Vic Bernthal, John Hall, James Moore and Howard Lips. A staff of 20 waiters is now being lined up and a clean-up crew will be appointed to return the church kitchen to normalcy after the diners have left.

Tickets will soon be placed on sale through members of the Presbyterian Men's club and at the First Presbyterian church office.

This Week with PTA

Janus, the 2-faced god, is paying his annual visit, with frivolous recollections of the festive season just past, and stern admonitions for the New Year. His forward look is tempered with the promise of good things to come, particularly as regards the program fare for the January PTA meetings.

Elementary school PTAs, which meet next Tuesday evening at 8:15, will each have as an added attraction a visit from a member of the board of education, who will speak briefly on the subject of the coming bond referendum January 28.

Ridge To Hear Noted Educator

DR. WILBUR YAUCH

Dr. Wilbur A. Yauch, professor of education and head of the department of education at Northern Illinois university for the past 3 years, will speak to Ridge PTA on the subject, "How Good Are Your Schools?" Dr. Yauch has written a book on this subject (as well as other books on school-related themes) which was published by Harper's in 1951, and selected by Parents' magazine as one of the outstanding books of that year.

Born in 1904, Dr. Yauch was graduated from Springfield college, Mass., in 1929, with a BS degree; received an MA degree in educational psychology from Columbia University teachers' college in 1930, and obtained an Ed. D. degree in elementary education from the same institution in 1946. He also spent the year 1939 in post-doctoral study at Ohio State university.

Dr. Yauch has had 14 years of practical experience in teaching and supervising in elementary schools, which he followed with 11 years of teaching education at various universities (including summer courses). In addition to his books, he has written articles for American magazine, National Parent-Teacher, Reader's Digest, and a number of professional publications in the field of education.

Mothers of sections 1 and 2 of the fourth grade will serve refreshments following the program.

Modern Schools Topic At North

DR. JACK CHILDRESS

"How the Modern School Helps Every Child Develop" will be discussed at North school PTA meeting by Dr. Jack R. Childress, associate professor of education and assistant dean of the department of education at Northwestern university.

A resident of Morton Grove and father of 2 daughters, Dr. Childress was graduated from Illinois State Normal in 1941 with a B. E. degree, received his M. S. from the University of Illinois in 1945, and his Ph.D. from Northwestern university in 1950.

Before joining the faculty of Northwestern in 1947, Dr. Childress coached and taught business education in Illinois high schools, serving as principal-superintendent for 2 years at Downs community high school.

His many professional affiliations and activities, too numerous to mention, include those not only in the field of education but in social welfare as well. He has participated in or directed more than 15 surveys of building and curriculum programs of school districts in the middle west.

Following what promises to be an outstanding program, mothers of sections 1, 2 and 3 of the fourth grade will serve refreshments.

Old Friend To Speak At South

Members of Dryden school PTA who heard Franklin R. Fitch, M. D., speak on sex education for children last year, will attest to his warmly human and frank approach to this often disturbing question. A member of Northwestern university's medical school faculty, and an acknowledged authority on social hygiene education, Dr. Fitch will illustrate his talk at South school with the film, "Human Growth."

The film, prepared especially for the instruction of children in the facts of human reproduction, is shown each year (with the permission of parents) to sixth and eighth graders in junior high school. With 4 grown children and 7 grandchildren, Dr. Fitch has a personal acquaintance, as well as 26 years of experience in working, with the problems of young people in regard to sex education.

Dr. Fitch is executive director of the Illinois Social Hygiene league and vice-president of the department of health and home service of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers. Last year Dr. Fitch allowed parents to submit written questions to which he gave complete and understanding answers. It is expected he will follow the same procedure this year.

Mothers of sections 1, 2 and 3 of the fourth grade will serve refreshments following the meeting.

Dryden To Hear Panel Discussion

"Better Reading for Better Schools" and tips on how parents can help to educate their children will be the subject at Dryden PTA, when the second in a school-wide series of panel discussions will be presented.

With Superintendent of Schools Ralph E. Clabaugh acting as moderator, panel members will include Mrs. Barbara Walberg, fourth grade teacher; Miss Lois Stachnik, second grade teacher; Mrs. Frances Sorokin, head librarian and Mrs. Agnes Scadberg, reading consultant for the district.

A social hour will follow the meeting, with mothers of sections 1 and 2 of the fourth grade presiding over refreshments.

Read Your Mail!

Watch the newspaper and your mail for news of the bond referendum January 28 which is of utmost importance to all parents, and particularly those of elementary school children. A brochure is being prepared which will be mailed about January 16, describing the proposals in detail. It deserves your careful reading and consideration.

St. James Guild To Hold Fathers' Night

The Mothers club of St. James Catholic Womans guild is having its annual potluck supper and father's night January 12 in St. James school basement.

Starting at 7 p.m., mothers of fourth grade students, under Mrs. J. Buckley and Mrs. E. Merges, will be hostesses. An Olympic film will follow, commentated by William Haarlow, All-American basketball and baseball player from the University of Chicago who traveled the first Western conference team to Japan. He has been with the Big 10 for 15 years as basketball official and the last 7 years has been supervisor of officials in the Big 10 and assistant to Tug Wilson, commissioner of Western conference.

Eastwood Events

Board Meeting

At the Eastwood board meeting held last Thursday evening, a review of the coming meetings and social events for 1956 was made. The big event will be the Eastwood dance scheduled for Saturday, April 7, at Rolling Green country club. This date had previously been announced as February 18, but because of the Lenten season was canceled in favor of the April reservation at the club. More details on the affair will be given from time to time as Hank Wallace, dance chairman, gets them "ironed out." Also on the agenda this year will be a men's stag party. It has been close to 2 years since 1 of these parties has been in session so it ought to be a welcome event, report the men.

New Year Baby

As far as we know, the first baby of the new year in Eastwood is Susan Kay Schaefer, first child of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schaefer, 218 N. Dryden. Susan, born January 7 at Resurrection hospital, weighed 7 pounds. Her grandparents are Mrs. Mabelle Schaefer of Lake Worth, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Haase of Des Plaines.

Francine Schneller did not start out the New Year too well, as she has been confined with chicken pox since the middle of last week. Her twin brother had them last year, but Francine must have decided to be different.

Third Birthday

Ellen Fill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fill, 642 N. Beverly, had a luncheon party last Friday in celebration of her third birthday. Linda Manchee, Wally Berglund and Carolyn Rush, along with their mothers, were on hand for the party.

Greg Inman celebrated his ninth birthday January 11 at a dinner party at home with family members and a few friends.

Moving

Before they leave town, neighbors and friends would like to wish Mr. and Mrs. Don Shaw the best of luck in their move to Davenport, Ia.

The community extends a welcome to new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bolin who moved into their new home at 406 N. Beverly in December. Their son, Lon, is a seventh grade student at the Junior high school.

An incident that occurred in the late afternoon 1 day last week on 1 of our side streets should be a warning to all parents. An 8-year-old school girl was accosted by a man who flattered her then tried to bribe her to his car with money. Luckily the child had been cautioned enough at home and knew trouble was ahead if she did not make a quick dash. Arriving home safely and unharmed, the police were called and immediately a search was made of the neighborhood. No trace was found of the man or car, but it could happen again. Let's be sure to frequently remind our children of such dangers so they too will know what to do in such a situation.

Meter Collections

Arlington Heights parking meter collections to date amount to $33,584.86 according to the December report submitted last week to the village board.

The car says GO and the price won't stop you!

get a Bonus in Go!

You can buy it on its name alone—this big, high-powered '56 Pontiac—and be safe in the knowledge that you couldn't have made a better investment in years of dependable, carefree motoring.

The good things you've been hearing about Pontiac for years assure you that.

But "go" is the word for '56! Performance so new and dramatic it must be experienced to be believed!

A short spell behind the wheel will nail that statement down as a fact. Come along for a drive and see.

Waiting for the light to change, you can't hear the engine. But touch your toe to the accelerator and in a split second there's a torrent of power, sparked by the most advanced engine of them all—the blazing 227-h.p. Strato-Streak V-8.

Team this terrific power plant with Pontiac's all-new Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic* and you've got the smoothest take-off that ever brightened a highway.

And remember—this easy handling dream is actually among the biggest, huskiest cars built!

Now for the final test—head for the open road and some landmarks you can challenge. Wipe out a hill. Straighten a curve. Smooth out a stretch of rough road that's bothered you for years.

Now see why they're calling this the greatest "go" on wheels?

More than that—it's the greatest buy on wheels! And that too, is easy to prove.

Then take a look at the price tag—a check on our deal.

Nothing will stop this powerful beauty from being yours!

*An extra-cost option.

You can actually have a big, glamorous Pontiac 860 for less than you would pay for 44 models of the low-priced three!

Plans are being made for a general meeting of the members of the association this month. Residents will be notified later.

Residents are reminded to drop off or mail their entries to name the bi-monthly newsletter to Doris Silver, 1247 N. Chicago. Entries must be in by February 1. The publicity committee hopes that the newsletter was enjoyed and they are open to suggestions for future letters.

Lynn and Tom Smith, 1610 Olive, had a party last Saturday night. Those present were Eliz and Joe Silverman, Bee and Don Harper, Carolyn and Bob Menick, Dorothy and Charlie Catlin, Jan and Claude Batuk and Margaret and Hank Schluter.

A New Year's eve party was given by Mary Ann and John Geer, 1515 Clarendon. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ludwig, Hinsdale; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Keil, LaGrange; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Matson, Western Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dvorak, Berwyn; Mr. and Mrs. Don Marquis, Evanston; Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford, Bloomington; Robert Stocker, Western Springs and Miss Nancy Friel, Pleasant Ridge, Mich.

Florence and Max O'Brien, 1405 N. Race, had 13 family guests for Christmas dinner. Among the guests were Florence's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Grudzien, and Max's mother, Mrs. John O'Brien. Other guests were Florence's brothers, Robert and Don Smith, her sister, Dolores Smith, and a friend, Lorraine Schultz, and Max's sister, Rosemary O'Brien.

Guests at Jo and Bob Hults, 1108 N. Chicago, last weekend were William Bealmer and his daughters, Kara and Alison, of Springfield.

Mrs. Eunice Carlson of Sioux Falls, S. Dak., spent Christmas through New Year's as a guest of Margaret and Don Walters, 1614 Oakton.

A guest last weekend at Sandy and Dave Yates, 1522 W. Oakton, was Paul Jenkens of Cincinnati. Mr. Jenkens is Leslie's godfather.

New arrivals in Virginia Terrace are Polly and Charles Millhouser, 1702 W. Oakton. The family moved into their home from Evanston December 22. They have 3 children, Mary, 9, who is in fourth grade at Wilson school, Bob, 6, who is in first grade, and Jean, 4. Mr. Millhouser is with Rhodes, Inc.

The "Mothers March for Polio" will take place Tuesday, Jan. 31. Jen Kline, 1710 W. Oakton, CL 3-8581, is chairman of this drive for Virginia Terrace. Anyone wishing to work for the drive is asked to contact Mrs. Kline.

The seventh and eighth grades of Wilson school are earning money for the 2 grades to take a trip to Springfield. They sponsored a bake sale last Tuesday night before the PTA meeting and are selling ice cream after lunch at school.

Presbyterian Men To Show Culinary Skill February 4

Men of First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights will once again demonstrate their culinary skill when they stage their annual "turnabout dinner" February 4 in the church dining room.

Members of the Presbyterian men's group, under the direction of James Webster, will plan, prepare and serve a full-course meal, as has been their custom over the past 3 years. Last year marked their largest and most successful dinner thus far, with nearly 400 meals served to church members and guests. As in previous years, tickets will also be available to the general public.

Mr. Websted, who is a food service executive with a major hotel chain, enlists his help from the church men's club, and serves meals that have been highly praised. His key assistants for the February 4 meal will include Bob Hutchinson, Vic Bernthal, John Hall, James Moore and Howard Lips. A staff of 20 waiters is now being lined up and a clean-up crew will be appointed to return the church kitchen to normalcy after the diners have left.

Tickets will soon be placed on sale through members of the Presbyterian Men's club and at the First Presbyterian church office.

This Week with PTA

Janus, the 2-faced god, is paying his annual visit, with frivolous recollections of the festive season just past, and stern admonitions for the New Year. His forward look is tempered with the promise of good things to come, particularly as regards the program fare for the January PTA meetings.

Elementary school PTAs, which meet next Tuesday evening at 8:15, will each have as an added attraction a visit from a member of the board of education, who will speak briefly on the subject of the coming bond referendum January 28.

Ridge To Hear Noted Educator

DR. WILBUR YAUCH

Dr. Wilbur A. Yauch, professor of education and head of the department of education at Northern Illinois university for the past 3 years, will speak to Ridge PTA on the subject, "How Good Are Your Schools?" Dr. Yauch has written a book on this subject (as well as other books on school-related themes) which was published by Harper's in 1951, and selected by Parents' magazine as one of the outstanding books of that year.

Born in 1904, Dr. Yauch was graduated from Springfield college, Mass., in 1929, with a BS degree; received an MA degree in educational psychology from Columbia University teachers' college in 1930, and obtained an Ed. D. degree in elementary education from the same institution in 1946. He also spent the year 1939 in post-doctoral study at Ohio State university.

Dr. Yauch has had 14 years of practical experience in teaching and supervising in elementary schools, which he followed with 11 years of teaching education at various universities (including summer courses). In addition to his books, he has written articles for American magazine, National Parent-Teacher, Reader's Digest, and a number of professional publications in the field of education.

Mothers of sections 1 and 2 of the fourth grade will serve refreshments following the program.

Modern Schools Topic At North

"How the Modern School Helps Every Child Develop" will be discussed at North school PTA meeting by Dr. Jack R. Childress, associate professor of education and assistant dean of the department of education at Northwestern university.

A resident of Morton Grove and father of 2 daughters, Dr. Childress was graduated from Illinois State Normal in 1941 with a B. E. degree, received his M. S. from the University of Illinois in 1945, and his Ph.D. from Northwestern university in 1950.

Before joining the faculty of Northwestern in 1947, Dr. Childress coached and taught business education in Illinois high schools, serving as principal-superintendent for 2 years at Downs community high school.

His many professional affiliations and activities, too numerous to mention, include those not only in the field of education but in social welfare as well. He has participated in or directed more than 15 surveys of building and curriculum programs of school districts in the middle west.

Following what promises to be an outstanding program, mothers of sections 1, 2 and 3 of the fourth grade will serve refreshments.

Old Friend To Speak At South

Members of Dryden school PTA who heard Franklin R. Fitch, M. D., speak on sex education for children last year, will attest to his warmly human and frank approach to this often disturbing question. A member of Northwestern university's medical school faculty, and an acknowledged authority on social hygiene education, Dr. Fitch will illustrate his talk at South school with the film, "Human Growth."

The film, prepared especially for the instruction of children in the facts of human reproduction, is shown each year (with the permission of parents) to sixth and eighth graders in junior high school. With 4 grown children and 7 grandchildren, Dr. Fitch has a personal acquaintance, as well as 26 years of experience in working, with the problems of young people in regard to sex education.

Dr. Fitch is executive director of the Illinois Social Hygiene league and vice-president of the department of health and home service of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers. Last year Dr. Fitch allowed parents to submit written questions to which he gave complete and understanding answers. It is expected he will follow the same procedure this year.

Mothers of sections 1, 2 and 3 of the fourth grade will serve refreshments following the meeting.

Dryden To Hear Panel Discussion

"Better Reading for Better Schools" and tips on how parents can help to educate their children will be the subject at Dryden PTA, when the second in a school-wide series of panel discussions will be presented.

With Superintendent of Schools Ralph E. Clabaugh acting as moderator, panel members will include Mrs. Barbara Walberg, fourth grade teacher; Miss Lois Stachnik, second grade teacher; Mrs. Frances Sorokin, head librarian and Mrs. Agnes Scadberg, reading consultant for the district.

A social hour will follow the meeting, with mothers of sections 1 and 2 of the fourth grade presiding over refreshments.

Read Your Mail!

Watch the newspaper and your mail for news of the bond referendum January 28 which is of utmost importance to all parents, and particularly those of elementary school children. A brochure is being prepared which will be mailed about January 16, describing the proposals in detail. It deserves your careful reading and consideration.

St. James Guild To Hold Fathers' Night

The Mothers club of St. James Catholic Womans guild is having its annual potluck supper and father's night January 12 in St. James school basement.

Starting at 7 p.m., mothers of fourth grade students, under Mrs. J. Buckley and Mrs. E. Merges, will be hostesses. An Olympic film will follow, commentated by William Haarlow, All-American basketball and baseball player from the University of Chicago who traveled the first Western conference team to Japan. He has been with the Big 10 for 15 years as basketball official and the last 7 years has been supervisor of officials in the Big 10 and assistant to Tug Wilson, commissioner of Western conference.

Meter Collections

Arlington Heights parking meter collections to date amount to $33,584.86 according to the December report submitted last week to the village board.

Eastwood Events

Board Meeting

At the Eastwood board meeting held last Thursday evening, a review of the coming meetings and social events for 1956 was made. The big event will be the Eastwood dance scheduled for Saturday, April 7, at Rolling Green country club. This date had previously been announced as February 18, but because of the Lenten season was canceled in favor of the April reservation at the club. More details on the affair will be given from time to time as Hank Wallace, dance chairman, gets them "ironed out." Also on the agenda this year will be a men's stag party. It has been close to 2 years since 1 of these parties has been in session so it ought to be a welcome event, report the men.

New Year Baby

As far as we know, the first baby of the new year in Eastwood is Susan Kay Schaefer, first child of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schaefer, 218 N. Dryden. Susan, born January 7 at Resurrection hospital, weighed 7 pounds. Her grandparents are Mrs. Mabelle Schaefer of Lake Worth, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Haase of Des Plaines.

Francine Schneller did not start out the New Year too well, as she has been confined with chicken pox since the middle of last week. Her twin brother had them last year, but Francine must have decided to be different.

Third Birthday

Ellen Fill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fill, 642 N. Beverly, had a luncheon party last Friday in celebration of her third birthday. Linda Manchee, Wally Berglund and Carolyn Rush, along with their mothers, were on hand for the party.

Greg Inman celebrated his ninth birthday January 11 at a dinner party at home with family members and a few friends.

Moving

Before they leave town, neighbors and friends would like to wish Mr. and Mrs. Don Shaw the best of luck in their move to Davenport, Ia.

The community extends a welcome to new neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bolin who moved into their new home at 406 N. Beverly in December. Their son, Lon, is a seventh grade student at the Junior high school.

An incident that occurred in the late afternoon 1 day last week on 1 of our side streets should be a warning to all parents. An 8-year-old school girl was accosted by a man who flattered her then tried to bribe her to his car with money. Luckily the child had been cautioned enough at home and knew trouble was ahead if she did not make a quick dash. Arriving home safely and unharmed, the police were called and immediately a search was made of the neighborhood. No trace was found of the man or car, but it could happen again. Let's be sure to frequently remind our children of such dangers so they too will know what to do in such a situation.

The car says GO and the price won't stop you!
Invest in Dependability... get a Bonus in Go!
You can buy it on its name alone—this big, high-powered '56 Pontiac—and be safe in the knowledge that you couldn't have made a better investment in years of dependable, carefree motoring.
The good things you've been hearing about Pontiac for years assure you that.
But "go" is the word for '56! Performance so new and dramatic it must be experienced to be believed!
A short spell behind the wheel will nail that statement down as a fact. Come along for a drive and see.
Waiting for the light to change, you can't hear the engine. But touch your toe to the accelerator and in a split second there's a torrent of power, sparked by the most advanced engine of them all—the blazing 227-h.p. Strato-Streak V-8.
Team this terrific power plant with Pontiac's all-new Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic* and you've got the smoothest take-off that ever brightened a highway.
And remember—this easy handling dream is actually among the biggest, huskiest cars built!
Now for the final test—head for the open road and some landmarks you can challenge. Wipe out a hill. Straighten a curve. Smooth out a stretch of rough road that's bothered you for years.
Now see why they're calling this the greatest "go" on wheels?
More than that—it's the greatest buy on wheels! And that too, is easy to prove.
Then take a look at the price tag—a check on our deal.
Nothing will stop this powerful beauty from being yours!
*An extra-cost option.
You can actually have a big, glamorous Pontiac 860 for less than you would pay for 44 models of the low-priced three!

Name Cemetery Expert To New Randhill Post

Chester J. Sparks, president of National Cemetery Consultants, Inc., of Washington, D. C., has been appointed administrative assistant of Randhill Park, Rand and Wilke rds.

Sparks, who advises cemeteries across the nation on sales, administration, advertising, and public relations, has been in this field for 25 years. Among the cemeteries he has advised are Forest Lawn in Los Angeles, Ft. Lincoln in Washington, D C., and West View in Atlanta, Ga.

A director for 3 terms of the National Cemetery association, he flies more than 100,000 miles a year in conjunction with his consulting work.

Randhill was founded 31 years ago by Max Wittelle and was purchased in September, 1954, from his estate. Executive vice president and general manager of Randhill is now Jerome J. Greenberg.

The cemetery firm hopes to make Randhill one of the finest in the midwest. Among improvements already started or soon to be initiated is the Lutheran section including the garden with a bronze picture of Luther and a Masonic section.

Sparks' office is 888 E. Northwest hwy., Mt. Prospect.

Marketing Expert Speaker Tonight At Realtors' Meeting

Dr. Arthur J. Mertzke, chairman of the department of marketing at DePaul university and an authority on advertising and selling, will speak to the Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors tonight.

The dinner meeting will begin at 7 p.m. at the Colonial Homestea don Waukegan rd. Dr. Mertzke is well qualified to speak on real estate and salesmanship, having studied real estate and land economics at Wisconsin and Northwestern universities. He was formerly director of research for the National Association of Real Estate Boards and is the author of the book, "Real Estate Appraisals." He has also served as economic analyst for the Bureau of Standards and has been chief economist for the Federal Home Loan bank.

The realty board anticipates a large attendance and those interested in attending are urged to notify Charles H. Wilson, board vice-president, at CL 3-250. (B7 Mrs. Fred W. Waswo, 1204 W. Euclid ave., Arlington Heights, was elected December 14 to the board of Camp Reinberg, camp for underpriviledged children located near Palatine. Mrs. Waswo's term, which is for a year, begins in January 1956. (AP

THURSDAY, JAN. 12, 1956

Past Year A Bad One — Weather-Wise

In its year-end weather roundup last week the weather bureau summarized the year 1955 as "warm and dry." Chicagoans were reminded that the past summer was "extremely hot."

There were 46 days with readings of 90 degrees or above, a new record, as the old one set in 1952 was 42 days. Thirteen daily maximum temperature records were established, the highest temperature, 100.4 degrees, was set on July 27.

TWO MINIMUM temperature records were set and the lowest temperature, 9.7 degrees below zero, was set on January 27th. Average temperature for the year was 52.2 degrees, or 2.1 degrees above normal. Total precipitation was 30.96 inches, 1.76 inches below normal. The total number of days with measurable amount of precipitation was 118, compared with the normal of 124. Snowfall was 26.2 inches or 7.7 inches below normal. Days with 1 inch or more of snowfall totalled 13, 3 below normal. Sunshine was 59 per cent of possible and normal for the year.

December was cold and dry with the average temperature of 25.7 running 2.3 degrees below normal. It was the driest December since 1943 and the 7th driest December in the last 85 years. Precipitation was .52 of an inch compared with the normal 1.95 inches. Snowfall measured only 2.1 inches against a normal of 7.3 inches. The month was deficient in sunshine with only 32 per cent, 9 per cent less than normal.

AN AVERAGE 24.9 degrees is predicted for January, normally the coldest month. The normal daily range in temperature is from 33 to 17, although extremes of 67 and -20 have been reached. Normal precipitation is 1.84 inches; average snowfall is 8.6 inches. (B7

Northwest Symphony Invites Local Musicians To Join

With the holidays over, rehearsals for Northwest Symphony orchestra's second concert of the season, March 4, are in full swing.

"Local musicians wishing to join the orchestra may do so now and play this next concert," Perry Crafton, musicial director, announced this week. "It will be a pop-type concert; the music will all be familiar and not too difficult. This will be a good time for new players to get started."

There are openings in the trumpet, trombone, violin, viola, cello, string bass and percussion sections.

Anyone interested is invited to contact Mrs. Dale Taylor, personnel director, at VA 4-4431, or to 7:45 p.m. in the Orchestra room Tuesday evening. Rehearsals are held every Tuesday evening at 7:45 p.m. in the Orchestra room at Maine township high school.

Association Meeting

The Arlington Terrace Owners' association will meet Wednesday, Jan. 18, at 8:30 p.m. in the field house. Maurice Umbdenstock of the Cook county farm bureau will speak on agricultural problems as related to the home gardener. Plans for the spring dance will be discussed and any suggestions or ideas to make this a success will be welcomed.

The Phil Haags, 611 E. Frederick, held open house at their home January 2. The Jake Herrs, the Ted Guttenbergers, the Jim Garrisons, the George Coles and the Erwin Hofers enjoyed the afternoon watching the Rose Bowl game after which refreshments were served.

Birthday

James Irmen celebrated his fourth ibrthday January 4. Michael Elwart, Warren Johns, David and Donny Spink, Jeffrey Guttenberger, Paul Greene, Mickey Herr and Emmett Quill came to the party. The guests played games and mother, Mrs. John Irmen, served lunch and birthday cake.

The Fred Dufelmeiers, 837 N. Hickory, had guests for Sunday dinner. Their guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Contos and children, were former neighbors of the Dufelmeiers when they lived in Chicago.

Hi Neighbors!

New neighbors at 525 Fredericks are Mrs. and Mrs. John Kavanagh formerly of Chicago. The Kavanaghs have 3 children Maureen, 3, Kevin, 2, and Patricia, 6 months. Mrs. Kavanagh's given name is Veronica, but her friends call her Vera. Mr. Kavanagh works for the Peoples Gas Light and Coke Co. in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rehm have taken up residency in their new home at 517 Frederick. The Rehms formerly lived in Wilmette. Their children are Donald, 17, Carol, 14, who attends Arlington high school and Sharon, 9, who attends St. James. Mrs. Rehm's first name is Eleanor. Mr. Rehm is an excavator and works for Country Service.

P.S.

Amy Marie Klicker made her debut into the world at 4 o'clock in the afternoon January 9 at Sherman hospital, Elgin. She is the first child for Mr. and Mrs. Everett Klicker, 1013 N. Beverley. Amy Marie weighed 7 pounds 4 ounces and both mother and baby are doing fine.

New Year's eve brought a party at the home of Esther and Al Gebhardt, [illegible]6 W. Fremont. It was attended by neighbors and friends. Al nearly missed his own party as he spent a good portion of the day going from house to house to secure enough chairs to accommodate all his guests.

The Graczyks, 1417 W. Fremont, gave the holidays an early start with a party for 24 neighbors.

Newcomers

New to Westgate, but not to Arlington Heights, are Mr. and Mrs. George Timson and family, 1706 W. Fremont. They formerly lived on North Hickory in Arlington Crest.

At 1505 W. Euclid Bill and Fran Johnston along with Renee, 5, Cecile, 4, Cathy, 3 and Billy, 18 months, have taken up residence. They moved to Arlington from St. Louis. Bill is a sales engineer for Minneapolis-Honeywell and is a graduate of Marquette university in Milwaukee.

Ruth and Stefan Stein along with Stefanie and Stevie have moved from New Haven, Conn. to the house at 1518 W. Fremont, formerly owned by Mary Lou and Ed Dahl. Stefan is a patent attorney for the Toni company and is a graduate of Cornell and George Washington universities.

A Bright Spot

Tim Comeford, who contacted polio during the summer, was able to spend the Christmas and New Year's holidays at home with his parents, Mary and Bill and his sister, Mary. Tim is very much improved and during the next few months his parents hope to have him home permanently.

The first organized meeting for the formulation of a Home Owners association for Westgate will be held January 18 at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria of the Junior high school, (South school on Highland and South sts.) This week every family will receive a notice of the meeting along with a copy of the proposed bylaws. This meeting is for husbands and wives. A big turnout is expected.

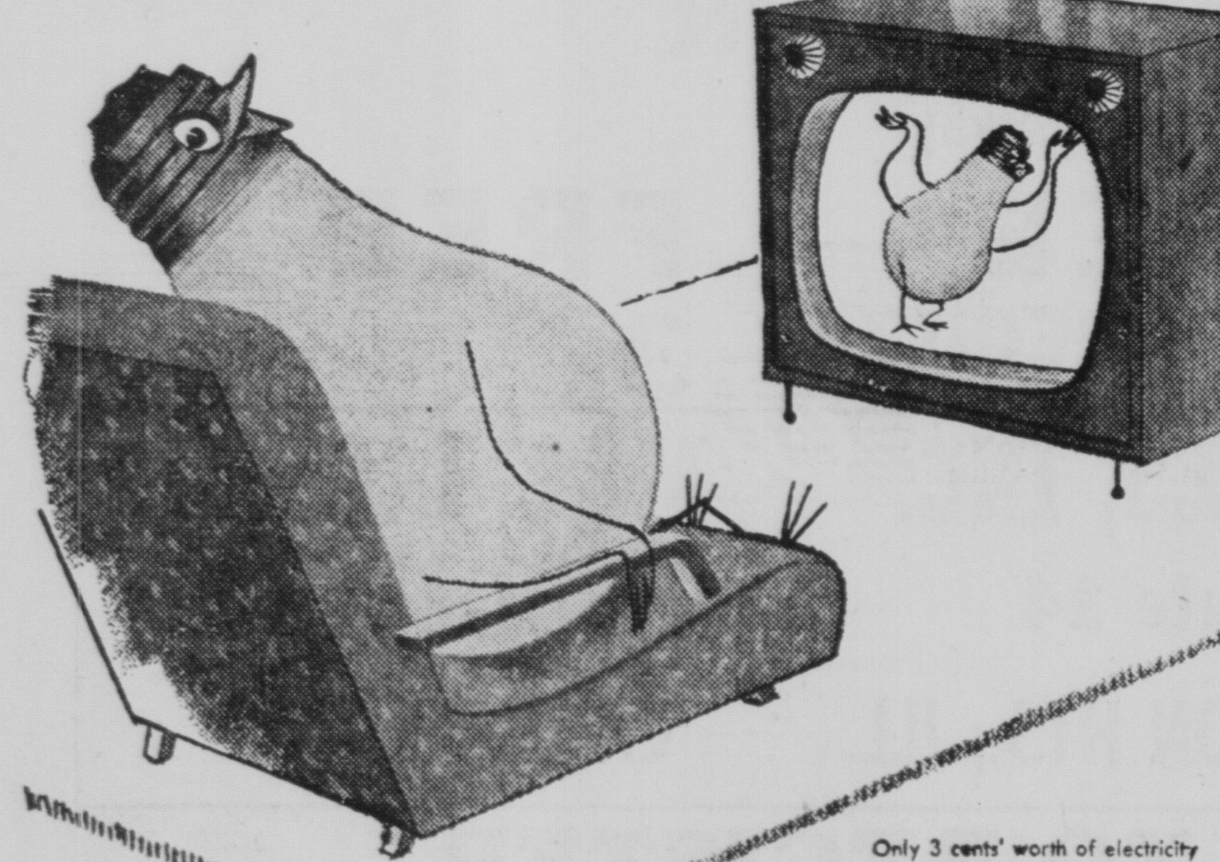
"LITTLE BILL" your electric friend, says:

"Hours of entertainment for just pennies!"



Only 3 cents' worth of electricity brings you 4 hours of the best in drama, sports, and comedy on TV.

How Public Service Company keeps your electric bill down (while everything else goes up)

Most things have doubled in price... but not electricity. Although you're using far more of it today, electricity actually costs you less per kilowatt-hour than in 1930.

One way we keep your electric bill low is through continuing research. Our engineers have found many ways of increasing efficiency of all kinds of standard equipment. Recently, for example, they added 15% to the load-carrying capacity of "pipe-type" cable simply by burying the line deeper.

As a result of this constant search for a "better way", today you're getting almost twice as much electricity for your money as you did 25 years ago.

Barney and Bernice Callahan, 1510 W. Fremont, celebrated New Year's eve at the Billy Carldwell Legion post in Chicago at a party given by Bernice's club.

A potluck dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Vork, 415 N. Yale, New Year's eve. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. E. Kabat and Mr. and Mrs. V. Hannaford.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Nicol of Wilke ave. turned their regular bridge party into a Christmas celebration and included 18 friends and neighbors from Arlington.

Joyce and Skip Akerlund, 1509 W. Fremont, entertained at 2 open house parties during the holidays. December 16, they had a group of friends from Chicago and December 21 Westgate neighbors were invited.

The Arlington Heights Junior Womans club dance was preceeded by cocktail parties given by Barbara and Mike McDonald, 1601 W. Fremont, and Esther and Al Gebhardt, 1416 W. Fremont.

Jeanne Huster of Fremont ave. had a group of girls in for coffee and during the yule season.

December 16 and 22 saw open house at Betty Lou and Bill Townsends, 1517 W. Fremont. One party was for Chicago friends and the other for Westgate neighbors.

New Year's eve brought a party at the home of Esther and Al Gebhardt, [illegible]16 W. Fremont. It was attended by neighbors and friends. Al nearly missed his own party as he spent a good portion of the day going from house to house to secure enough chairs to accommodate all his guests.

The Graczyks, 1417 W. Fremont, gave the holidays an early start with a party for 24 neighbors.

Newcomers

New to Westgate, but not to Arlington Heights, are Mr. and Mrs. George Timson and family, 1706 W. Fremont. They formerly lived on North Hickory in Arlington Crest.

At 1505 W. Euclid Bill and Fran Johnston along with Renee, 5, Cecile, 4, Cathy, 3 and Billy, 18 months, have taken up residence. They moved to Arlington from St. Louis. Bill is a sales engineer for Minneapolis-Honeywell and is a graduate of Marquette university in Milwaukee.

Ruth and Stefan Stein along with Stefanie and Stevie have moved from New Haven, Conn. to the house at 1518 W. Fremont, formerly owned by Mary Lou and Ed Dahl. Stefan is a patent attorney for the Toni company and is a graduate of Cornell and George Washington universities.

A Bright Spot

Tim Comeford, who contacted polio during the summer, was able to spend the Christmas and New Year's holidays at home with his parents, Mary and Bill and his sister, Mary. Tim is very much improved and during the next few months his parents hope to have him home permanently.

The first organized meeting for the formulation of a Home Owners association for Westgate will be held January 18 at 8 p.m. in the cafeteria of the Junior high school, (South school on Highland and South sts.) This week every family will receive a notice of the meeting along with a copy of the proposed bylaws. This meeting is for husbands and wives. A big turnout is expected.

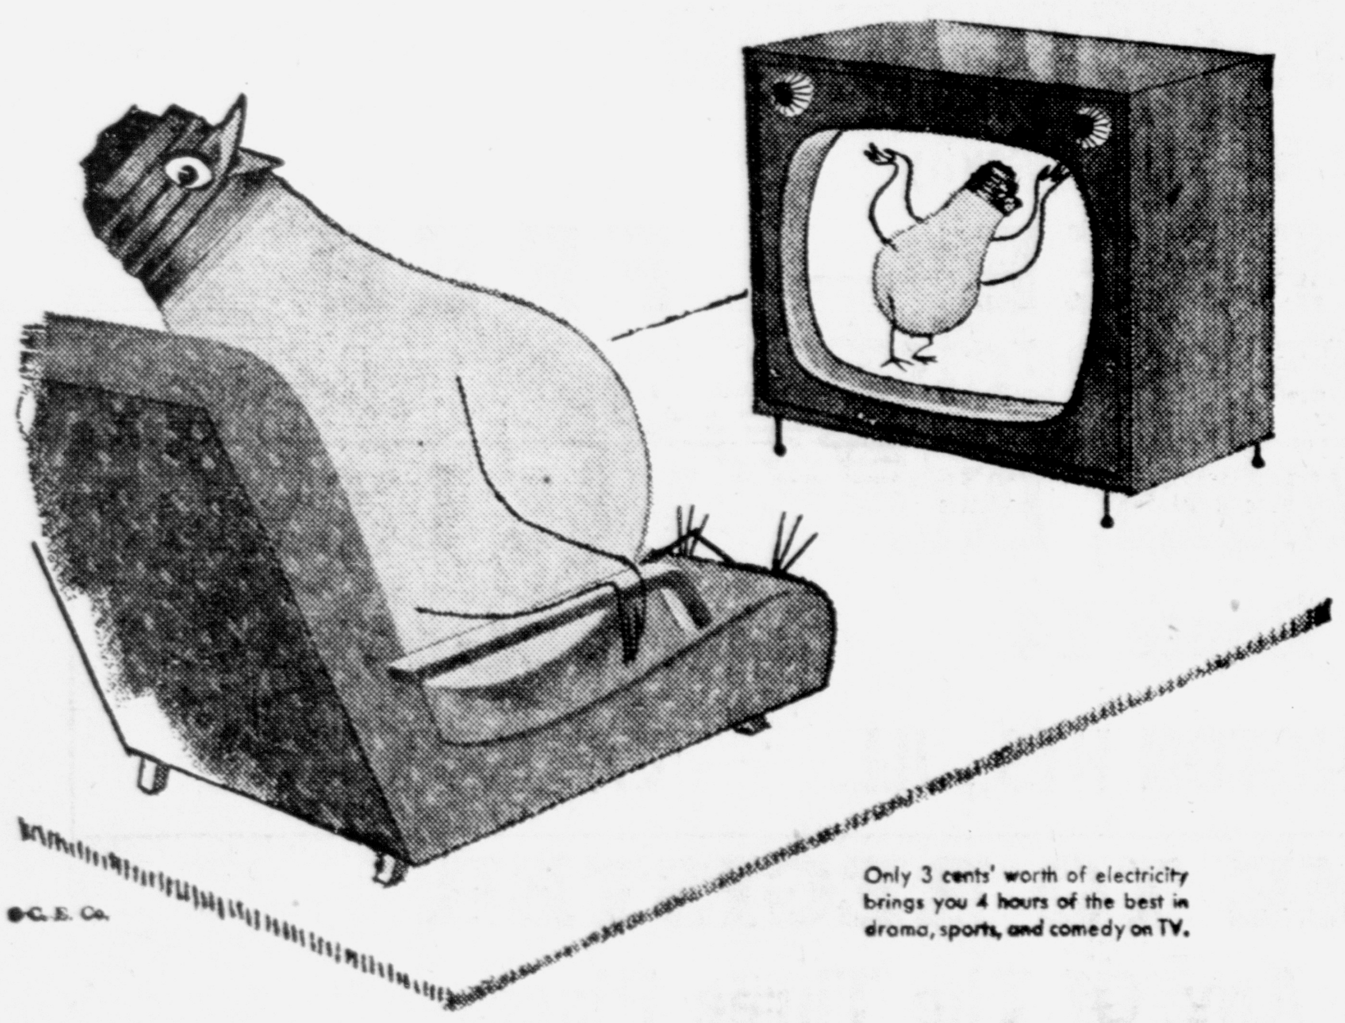
"LITTLE BILL" your electric friend, says:

"Hours of entertainment for just pennies!"



Only 3 cents' worth of electricity brings you 4 hours of the best in drama, sports, and comedy on TV.

How Public Service Company keeps your electric bill down (while everything else goes up)

Most things have doubled in price ... but not electricity. Although you're using far more of it today, electricity actually costs you less per kilowatt-hour than in 1930.

One way we keep your electric bill low is through continuing research. Our engineers have found many ways of increasing efficiency of all kinds of standard equipment. Recently, for example, they added 15% to the load-carrying capacity of "pipe-type" cable simply by burying the line deeper.

As a result of this constant search for a "better way", today you're getting almost twice as much electricity for your money as you did 25 years ago.

Floral Design, Decorating Offered By Evening School

Adults who enjoy adding to their skills and hobbies, furthering their education in business and cultural fields, and who seek recreational activities are registering in the 67 classes for the adult evening school at Arlington Heights high school for the spring term. It begins January 30.

While the office will be open for registrations the evening of Jan. 23, 24 and 25, mail registrations are accepted in advance at the high school business office when accompanied by full payment of registration and tuition fees.

Mrs. Irene Haberkamp has taught one of the popular classes in the evening school for several years, and will again instruct students in the art of effective flower arranging with the use of seasonal materials, using her own floral shop as the studio for the class.

TWO SECTIONS of the class in interior decorating will be offered in the spring term on Monday and Tuesday evenings. This class meets in a local interior decorating studio, where specialized materials are available for the group. Enrollment for these courses is limited, and is usually completed with the advance mail registrations.

The classes in art have been increased for the spring season. In addition to a class in ceramics for beginners and one for intermediate students, there are classes for beginners in art and for those with previous experience who wish more specific training ,as well as a class in enameling on copper for the production of jewelry and small art objects.

PERSONS in the business world who wish to add to their skills will note the classes in algebra, bookkeeping, effective English, mechanical and engineering drawing, typing, and salesmanship. Many business executives find that the volume of material they are required to read is a chore, and welcome the opportunity to increase reading speed and comprehension through instruction and practice with the use of rate accelerators and study materials. Reading rate can often be doubled through the course in improvement in reading.

This class is offered on Monday and Tuesday evenings, and since the enrollment is limited in each section, advance registrations are wise to assure acceptance.

Gregg shorthand students who have not used the skill recently and wish to review, or who wish an opportunity to increase speed may register for the shorthand refresher class. Beginning classes in shorthand are offered only in the fall, since the class must continue for the full year to cover sufficient material to be worth while.

SEWING CLASSES almost always reach the limits of their enrollment by the first evening of class. Instruction is offered to aid persons at all levels of competence.

There are classes for beginners in basic techniques, simple alterations, changing waistbands and zippers and making children's clothing. The intermediate classes are designed for those familiar with the sewing machine and fundamentals but who wish assistance in a specific project, or more advanced methods. There are also 2 sections in tailoring dealing with advanced problems in the making of suits and coats, fitting and finishing.

General sewing classes are available for persons wishing to work on a project under supervision and with expert advice; both beginners and those with some experience are eligible to register for these classes.

THE BEGINNING bridge class will meet on Wednesday nights with Dr. Copeland. Fundamentals of the game are taught to beginners who wish to learn the Goren point count system.

The intermediate class in Goren bridge will meet with Mr. Crabbs on Tuesdays, and in the spring term will offer instruction in advanced play of the hands with emphasis on playing situations and problems. Both instructors are highly qualified and are participants in the annual Chicago bridge tournament.

Classes for high school credit will be offered in 3 subjects. Credit may be earned toward a high school diploma in English, mathematics or typing. Candidates for these classes must be at least 22 years of age and either have attended Arlington Heights high school or have been a resident of the district for 1 year. Further information on credit work can be obtained from the director of adult education. (AMC

SES Viking Sponsored By VFW Post 981

Sea Explorer Ship 5 the SES Viking of the Sea Scouts of America, chartered Noverber 30, 1955 with 16 young men as charter members, is the newest scout organization in Arlington Heights and sponsored by Arlington Post 981 VFW. This unit is the only Sea Scout organization in this vicinity and as such, is a tribute to the VFW of Arlington Heights.

Scouting in all forms tries to help young men become a better citizen through teachings that will build sound minds, sound bodies and a love of home and country.

Young men from 14 to 16 years of age are invited to become members of this ship. The ship meets the 3rd Wednesday of each month from 7 to 9 p.m. at VFW Post 981 club house, 811 N. Yale ave. The ship is being limited to 30 young men as its crew. If your son would like to join, he can receive complete information by contacting Walter Petelle, 341 Bristol, Arlington Heights — phone: CLearbrook 3-6395 or William Miller, 2505 George, Rolling Meadows. Phone CLearbrook 3-8568.

SES Viking will soon be the recipient of a 33 foot craft which will be harbored in the Wilmette Harbor on which week-end cruises will be enjoyed by ship members. This boat is being donated by the U. S. Coast Guard.

Ship crew members will learn to become expert canoers under the guidance and instructions of qualified instructors.

Dances, roller skating parties, parent nights and outings are but a few of the many activities being planned for the ship's crew.

All meetings and activities will be under the supervision of the scout committee.

There is no organization like scouting and no scouting organization like the sea scouts.

Do not deprive your young men of a chance of a life-time — encourage him to become a sea scout.

Large Turnout For Christian Science Lecture At Arlington Heights Church

World chaos and confusion are yielding to spiritual growth and progress said Mary C. Holloway of Shreveport, La. in a Christian Science lecture in Arlington Heights, January 8.

Those who gain a spiritual understanding of God's power and goodness have no reason to fear the atomic age, the lecturer stated.

Mrs. Holloway, a member of The Christian Science board of lectureship, spoke in the church edifice at 401 S. Evergreen st. under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist. Her subject was "Christian Science: Man's Divine Destiny Revealed." She was introduced by Kenneth E. Arnold, first reader.

LASTING PEACE, health, and harmony result from spiritually correct knowledge of the things of God, Mrs. Holloway declared. She defined these "things" as God's loving laws which operate to bring humanity freedom and security.

"They are forever ours, by divine decree, to reflect," she said, adding that "as we do reflect them, we are healed of the deflections, the distractions or delusions, which hold mankind in bondage."

To illustrate the lecturer told about the healing of a little 3-year-old girl who found and ate a quantity of lye. When a Christian Science practitioner answered the parents' frantic call for help, she said, the child's throat was almost closed.

"A short while later she was free and playihg happily. No slightest trace of ill remained," the lecturer said.

COMMENTING on this quick and permanent healing she asked, "What had happened to set aside the dreaded effect of the caustic on the baby's body?"

She explained that the "things of God had been demonstrated as laws of omnipotent love, and these laws had set aside the belief in destructive material laws of chemistry and so forth. Thus a spiritual understanding of God and His man was in a degree established where before had been a shadow of ignorance and fear."

Despite the material world's denial of the supremacy of God, Spirit, God's power is established, the lecturer maintained.

"BEFORE YOUR EYES," she said, "are all the evidences of physical illness, lack, discouragement, sin, that point to matter as causation. But the God who is Principle, or the perfect cause and Lawgiver, must be the God who is Love. And Love alone is the lawgiver to the children of God."

She added that the perfect man of God's creating reflects God as His image and likeness and possesses freedom, dominion, and strength.

"Under God's law, one is never placed in circumstances where the things of God are not present to meet the need," Mrs. Holloway declared.

All may avail themselves, she said, of the practical power of God's law.

"THE SIMPLEST truth, understood and embodied as one's thought, acts powerfully as divine law in every situation, for it becomes a law to it," she declared.

She added that the final proof of the practical power of divine law was set forth by Christ Jesus who showed its operation in human experience as the effect of supreme love for God and man.

TURNING TO world problems, the lecturer said that the material beliefs of time and space are crumbling away so rapidly that human thought cannot keep pace with the change.

"It cries out that disaster is upon us! But," she said, "the inspired thought looks up and out with rejoicing, knowing that the Science of God, good, is at work in humanity's behalf, destroying the most cherished and revered beliefs about the reality and power of matter and evil."

Peace and salvation may be acquired here and now, she declared, "in the degree that one identifies himself as God's perfect child and demonstrates this true status."

Newcomers Plan Valentine Dance

Board members of Arlington Heights Newcomers club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. R. Gray to discuss plans for the Valentine dance scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 11. The dance will be held at Chevy Chase for members and their friends.

Tickets for the dance are now available and further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. E. J. Dominque at CLearbrook 3-2814. The number of tickets is limited so those planning to attend are reminded to purchase their tickets early.

All newcomers to Arlington Heights are invited to join the club. Further information about membership may be obtained by calling Mrs. J. R. Turner, CLearbrook 3-1396.

Trust Executive To Speak To Arlington Women January 19

Mrs. W. E. Fritz, chairman of the family finance study group of Arlington Heights Womans club, will be hostess for the next meeting at her home, 301 N. Douglas ave., Thursday, Jan. 19, at 1:30 p.m.

Speaker for the program will be William L. Blake, assistant vice president of the Chicago Title and Trust Co., who will talk on "Who Owns Your Property?"

Mr. Blake is a native of Rochester, Minn., and is a graduate of the Rochester junior college and St. Paul college of law; graduate of the Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers university where he majored in trust law and also completed courses in public speaking and public relations at Northwestern university.

He was admitted to practice law in Minnesota and Illinois, and is a member of the Chicago Bar association and a member of the post-admission education committee of that association, and a member of the Illinois State Bar association.

At the Chicago Title and Trust Co. Mr. Blake has been a title examiner and an assistant trust officer. He is presently an assistant vice president in the title division.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Albert C. Peters, Mrs. Richard Fox, Mrs. Ray Sander and Mrs. Ted Fonfara.

Anyone planning to attend is asked to call Mrs. Fritz, CL 3-5956.

THE BEGINNING bridge class will meet on Wednesday nights with Dr. Copeland. Fundamentals of the game are taught to beginners who wish to learn the Goren point count system.

The intermediate class in Goren bridge will meet with Mr. Crabbs on Tuesdays, and in the spring term will offer instruction in advanced play of the hands with emphasis on playing situations and problems. Both instructors are highly qualified and are participants in the annual Chicago bridge tournament.

Classes for high school credit will be offered in 3 subjects. Credit may be earned toward a high school diploma in English, mathematics or typing. Candidates for these classes must be at least 22 years of age and either have attended Arlington Heights high school or have been a resident of the district for 1 year. Further information on credit work can be obtained from the director of adult education. (AMC

Sea Explorer Ship 5 the SES Viking of the Sea Scouts of America, chartered Noverber 30, 1955 with 16 young men as charter members, is the newest scout organization in Arlington Heights and sponsored by Arlington Post 981 VFW. This unit is the only Sea Scout organization in this vicinity and as such, is a tribute to the VFW of Arlington Heights.

Scouting in all forms tries to help young men become a better citizen through teachings that will build sound minds, sound bodies and a love of home and country.

Young men from 14 to 16 years of age are invited to become members of this ship. The ship meets the 3rd Wednesday of each month from 7 to 9 p.m. at VFW Post 981 club house, 811 N. Yale ave. The ship is being limited to 30 young men as its crew. If your son would like to join, he can receive complete information by contacting Walter Petelle, 341 Bristol, Arlington Heights — phone: CLearbrook 3-6395 or William Miller, 2505 George, Rolling Meadows. Phone CLearbrook 3-8568.

SES Viking will soon be the recipient of a 33 foot craft which will be harbored in the Wilmette Harbor on which week-end cruises will be enjoyed by ship members. This boat is being donated by the U. S. Coast Guard.

Ship crew members will learn to become expert canoers under the guidance and instructions of qualified instructors.

Dances, roller skating parties, parent nights and outings are but a few of the many activities being planned for the ship's crew.

All meetings and activities will be under the supervision of the scout committee.

There is no organization like scouting and no scouting organization like the sea scouts.

Do not deprive your young men of a chance of a life-time — encourage him to become a sea scout.

Large Turnout For Christian Science Lecture At Arlington Heights Church

World chaos and confusion are yielding to spiritual growth and progress said Mary C. Holloway of Shreveport, La. in a Christian Science lecture in Arlington Heights, January 8.

Those who gain a spiritual understanding of God's power and goodness have no reason to fear the atomic age, the lecturer stated.

Mrs. Holloway, a member of The Christian Science board of lectureship, spoke in the church edifice at 401 S. Evergreen st. under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist. Her subject was "Christian Science: Man's Divine Destiny Revealed." She was introduced by Kenneth E. Arnold, first reader.

LASTING PEACE, health, and harmony result from spiritually correct knowledge of the things of God, Mrs. Holloway declared. She defined these "things" as God's loving laws which operate to bring humanity freedom and security.

"They are forever ours, by divine decree, to reflect," she said, adding that "as we do reflect them, we are healed of the deflections, the distractions or delusions, which hold mankind in bondage."

To illustrate the lecturer told about the healing of a little 3-year-old girl who found and ate a quantity of lye. When a Christian Science practitioner answered the parents' frantic call for help, she said, the child's throat was almost closed.

"A short while later she was free and playihg happily. No slightest trace of ill remained," the lecturer said.

COMMENTING on this quick and permanent healing she asked, "What had happened to set aside the dreaded effect of the caustic on the baby's body?"

She explained that the "things of God had been demonstrated as laws of omnipotent love, and these laws had set aside the belief in destructive material laws of chemistry and so forth. Thus a spiritual understanding of God and His man was in a degree established where before had been a shadow of ignorance and fear."

Despite the material world's denial of the supremacy of God, Spirit, God's power is established, the lecturer maintained.

"BEFORE YOUR EYES," she said, "are all the evidences of physical illness, lack, discouragement, sin, that point to matter as causation. But the God who is Principle, or the perfect cause and Lawgiver, must be the God who is Love. And Love alone is the lawgiver to the children of God."

She added that the perfect man of God's creating reflects God as His image and likeness and possesses freedom, dominion, and strength.

"Under God's law, one is never placed in circumstances where the things of God are not present to meet the need," Mrs. Holloway declared.

All may avail themselves, she said, of the practical power of God's law.

"THE SIMPLEST truth, understood and embodied as one's thought, acts powerfully as divine law in every situation, for it becomes a law to it," she declared.

She added that the final proof of the practical power of divine law was set forth by Christ Jesus who showed its operation in human experience as the effect of supreme love for God and man.

TURNING TO world problems, the lecturer said that the material beliefs of time and space are crumbling away so rapidly that human thought cannot keep pace with the change.

"It cries out that disaster is upon us! But," she said, "the inspired thought looks up and out with rejoicing, knowing that the Science of God, good, is at work in humanity's behalf, destroying the most cherished and revered beliefs about the reality and power of matter and evil."

Peace and salvation may be acquired here and now, she declared, "in the degree that one identifies himself as God's perfect child and demonstrates this true status."

Newcomers Plan Valentine Dance

Board members of Arlington Heights Newcomers club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. R. Gray to discuss plans for the Valentine dance scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 11. The dance will be held at Chevy Chase for members and their friends.

Tickets for the dance are now available and further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. E. J. Dominque at CLearbrook 3-2814. The number of tickets is limited so those planning to attend are reminded to purchase their tickets early.

All newcomers to Arlington Heights are invited to join the club. Further information about membership may be obtained by calling Mrs. J. R. Turner, CLearbrook 3-1396.

Trust Executive To Speak To Arlington Women January 19

Mrs. W. E. Fritz, chairman of the family finance study group of Arlington Heights Womans club, will be hostess for the next meeting at her home, 301 N. Douglas ave., Thursday, Jan. 19, at 1:30 p.m.

Speaker for the program will be William L. Blake, assistant vice president of the Chicago Title and Trust Co., who will talk on "Who Owns Your Property?"

Mr. Blake is a native of Rochester, Minn., and is a graduate of the Rochester junior college and St. Paul college of law; graduate of the Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers university where he majored in trust law and also completed courses in public speaking and public relations at Northwestern university.

He was admitted to practice law in Minnesota and Illinois, and is a member of the Chicago Bar association and a member of the post-admission education committee of that association, and a member of the Illinois State Bar association.

At the Chicago Title and Trust Co. Mr. Blake has been a title examiner and an assistant trust officer. He is presently an assistant vice president in the title division.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Albert C. Peters, Mrs. Richard Fox, Mrs. Ray Sander and Mrs. Ted Fonfara.

Anyone planning to attend is asked to call Mrs. Fritz, CL 3-5956.

Back To College

Mrs. Ray Johnson and Paul drove Mary back to Beloit college Tuesday evening.

The Ed Ostrowski family had a surprise visit Friday evening from a cousin, Robert Jurgensen, and his mother, Mrs. Laura Jurgensen. Robert was on furlough from Ft. Sill, Okla.

Pinky and Pamela Blakeley had their tonsils and adenoids removed 2 days before Christmas. Both had minor infections after the operations but have now recovered. Mrs. Blakeley suffered a second degree burn when she spilled hot grease on her foot New Year's day, so she also has been under doctor's care.

Entertain

The Ted DePalmas entertained 30 friends and relatives at their home New Year's eve.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ostrowski were guests at a New Year's eve party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Lindahl in Chicago. After the party, they spent the night with Mr. Ostrowski's mother in Chicago and New Year's day called on relatives and friends. A cousin, Gene Wenglowski, visited at the Ostrowski home Sunday night and Monday.

In Florida

Darla Jean Fessler, a former resident on Biesterfeld rd., and student at Elk Grove school, who is temporarily residing in Winter Park, Fla., is continuing her study of dancing there. She has appeared before audiences and on TV. January 14, she will appear in a ballet group in conjunction with the Florida symphony orchestra at Orlando, Fla. This is one of the outstanding events of its type in central Florida. Performers are selected through standard professional auditions and competition for this honor is keen.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zender were luncheon guests at the home of Mrs. Tom Martineau of Des Plaines Thursday.

On Sick List

Mike Brezinski has been ill with chicken pox during the past week.

Celebrating birthdays this week are Margie Moder, who was 6 January 10; Donald Albiniak, who will be 4 January 14; Paul Johnson, January 15 and Mary Johnson, January 17.

Suburbs' Boom Will Hike Property Value

The continued high rate of residential construction in the Chicago area should make the average value of all housing greater in the years ahead, according to a recent study.

"A greater investment in home ownership will tend to preserve the stability of communities," said Morton Bodfish, president of First Federal Savings and Loan assn., and Ralph J. Lueders, executive vice-president, who conducted the study.

"This will add further to the attractiveness of home ownership and establish practical reasons why home ownership will become more popular in the Chicago area," they said in the Association's monthly news-letter.

DURING THE LAST 5 years about 210,000 new homes were built in the Chicago Metropolitan area, they said. This new construction, plus increasing construction costs and land values, has considerably increased the value of homes since 1950.

The present average home value pattern in the Chicago metropolitan area is a circle with the center comprised of the 7 communities immediately west and south of the Loop with 3 belts radiating from the center, according to the study. The central communities represent the lowest average home valuation of the city, from $7,500 to $9,999.

The first belt of communities around the low value core is in the $10,000 to $12,499 valuation group. This area does not touch the Lake to the north because of the higher valuation of areas near the lake.

THE SECOND BAND of communities, in which the average home value is from $12,500 to $14,999, is broken on the west only by Cicero and on the south by the Auburn Greshen community, according to the study.

The third circle of communities, in the $15,000 to $17,499 group, extends from uptown on the north to Avalon Park on the south, and includes the suburbs of Oak Park, Berwyn, Cicero and Oak Lawn.

Average home values in the Chicago Metropolitan area's 164 communities range from $7,500 to $9,999 near the Loop to $25,000 and above for the North Shore communities, observed Bodfish and Lueders.

A total of 144 of Chicago area communities, or 88 per cent, have an average value of homes in the range from $10,000 to $19,999, according to the study.

"This is indeed impressive, and indicates that Chicago area communities boast homes which are of relatively good quality," commented Bodfish and Lueders.

SINCE CHICAGO proper has more communities in the lowest value group, and no defined residential area in the highest group, it is apparent that the dynamic growth of the city has pushed the more highly valued residences further away from the city.

As Chicago grows, and industry moves farther outward to secure more space, the more highly valued homes will move at a similar pace, predicted Bodfish and Lueders.

Even though the ever-continuing force of growth and the need for space forces the new, high priced residences into the suburbs, they do not envision Chicago as a city where no new homes will be built, or where there will be no growth in population.

Since 1950, the population in Chicago's suburbs has risen 25 per cent as compared to 8 per cent in the city. However, they believe a population increase for Chicago of 8 per cent to be impressive, and certainly indicates that the central city will continue to be a major residential area.

It is certain that the suburbs will continue to show a rate of growth which is above that of the city. The construction of new highways, coupled with the need for more space and the desire for suburban living will give further impetus to this movement.

Gay Cruise Next Stop On Travel & Adventure Series

The color and gaiety of "Caribbean Cruise" will provide a welcome respite from the winter scene for members of the Travel and Adventure lecture series at Arlington Heights high school Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Anne and Albert Johannsen traveled some 10,000 miles by land, air, and sea to prepare the film which will be narrated by Mrs. Johannsen.

The Johannsens not only bring the beauty of scene and music, they seem to take the viewer with them to Puerto Rico and St. Thomas, 2 American possessions in the Caribbean, and to Antigua and Trinidad, 2 British possessions, then to the Spanish Main for visits in Venezuela and Columbia. The film is concluded in a cruise ship, a luxury liner steaming through Caribbean waters on the way back to New York.

PINEAPPLE AND sugar cane are seen growing. The traveler visits places where pirates built their castles; where Admiral Lord Nelson had his West Indian naval base. The Caribbean celebration of Christmas and the New Year season provides a gay sequence.

At Trinidad is a wonder-lake of asphalt, where Sir Walter Raleigh caulked his ships during his voyages of adventure. Also in this land of anachronisms are representatives of every culture, and a population of which one-thiird are Moslems and Hindus.

One of the scenes of beauty which enlivens the film is the Isle of Margarita and the pearl fleet at work off the shores of Venezuela. The New Year street festivities of this South American country are shown, and the capital city of Caracas is visited before the journey continues to the anciety city of Cartagena in Colombia.

THE FILM is concluded on a luxury cruise ship returning to New York where the film makes the viewer a part of the enjoyable life of the trip through Caribbean waters back to New York.

By means of deft and skillful handling of his camera, Mr. Johannsen has caught the color, action, charm and beauty of the Caribbean. At the same time, Mrs. Johannsen brings it all vividly to life in the scintillating way she describes the scenes which come to the screen. Thus with their combined talents and efforts the Johannsens present a program vibrant as the tropics themselves in color, life, action and beauty.

Never Get Caught

A man was filling out a job application blank and came to the question: "Have you ever been arrested?" His answer was, "No." The next question was, "Why?" and was intended for those who answered in the affirmative. Nevertheless he anwered it with, "Never got caught."

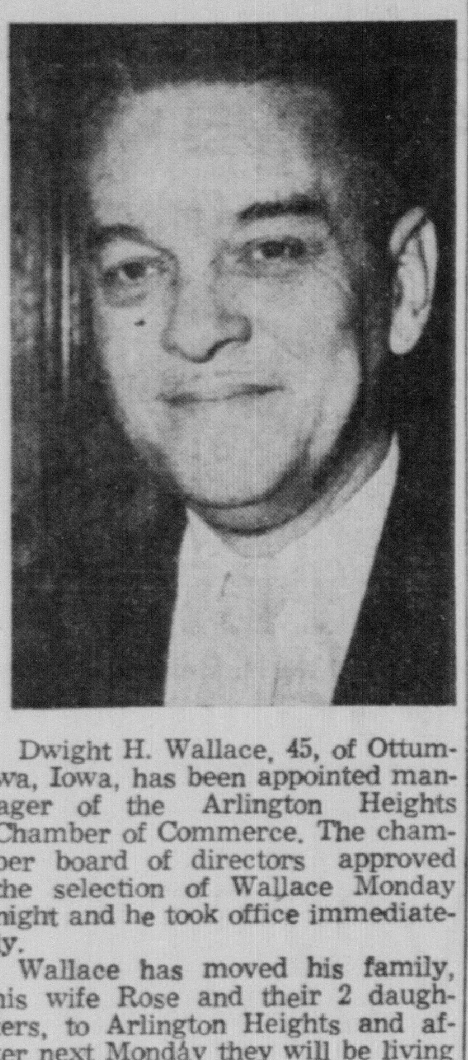
Iowan Named Manager Of Chamber Of Commerce



Dwight H. Wallace, 45, of Ottumwa, Iowa, has been appointed manager of the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce. The chamber board of directors approved the selection of Wallace Monday night and he took office immediately.

Wallace has moved his family, his wife Rose and their 2 daughters, to Arlington Heights and after next Monday they will be living at 816 N. Dunton st. He replaces Nelson Hauff, who resigned after serving the chamber for a number of years.

THE NEW MANAGER has had 17 years of chamber of commere experience and was president of the Iowa Junior Chamber of Commerce during 1946-47. He was born and reared in Ottumwa and was associated with his father there for many years in a printing and office supply business. He graduated from high school and business college at Ottumwa.

In Ottumwa he was active in many community service groups and intends to continue this interest in Arlington Heights. His other interests are stamp collecting and fishing. He will transfer his affiliation to a local Lutheran church.

After a week in Arlington Heights Wallace noted that the community has abundant "natural beauty in its large trees and park-like atmosphere." He added that "being an Iowan, this natural beauty appeals to me."

Wallace's wife Rose emigrated from Germany 7 years ago and the couple met in Ottumwa, where she had gone to live after the death of her husband. The 2 children are Patsy, a 6-year-old in kindergarten, and Charlotte, a 4-year-old at home.

'Y' Plans Trips For Members

The first meeting of the YMCA Fun club this Saturday will feature a magic show by teen-agers Tom and Jim Tourvile.

Roller skating at the Arlington Roller Rink is the next feature for both beginners and experienced skaters. For the outdoor enthusiasts, a morning of tobogganing is scheduled on January 28. The following Saturday is an all day trip to the Museum of Science and Industry, and on February 11, a historical movie is planned.

The annual Sport and Outdoor show will be another outstanding treat for the children. They will see the famous water show featuring a trained seal and other thrilling acts.

A wild west stage play is the feature attraction February 25 and the final Saturday is devoted to the thrills and spills of roller skating.

The children are transported by chartered buses from pick-up points in Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect and Des Plaines. They are under the supervision of adults at all times. Registrations will be taken this week at the Northwest Suburban YMCA office at 1488 Miner st. in Des Plaines or by phoning VA 4-4156.

Boys and girls from 8 to 11 may join the club. Each session consists of 8 trips of educational and recreational value.

Girl Scout News

Troop 4

Alfred Martin, Mt. Prospect beautician, will address girl scout troop 4 of Arlington Heights at the group's meeting Monday, Jan. 16, at 3:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Wier Swanson, 901 S. Highland ave.

Mr. Martin will discuss different types of hair styles and good grooming.

Mrs. Arthur Trever, 714 S. Dunton, is leader of the group and Mrs. Gustav D. Soltz, 908 S. Evergreen, is co-leader.

Troop 32

Girl scout troop 32 of the Methodist church in Arlington Heights plans to attend a performance of the ice show matinee. Thirty-one girls, 6 mothers and the girls' scout leader, Mrs. Thomas Mathews, 71 N. Dunton, will attend.

Brownie Troop 260

December was a busy month for brownie troop 260. Their service project was tray favors for the children's ward at County hospital, also books and toys they had outgrown. Hot pad mats were made for their mothers and presented to them at their Christmas party December 20 at which time they staged a play, "Christmas Toy Shop." Refreshments were served by the troop committee.

With The Blue Birds

Friendly Bluebirds

Friendly Bluebirds had a Christmas party December 20, at the home of Mrs. Flodin. The group also had a ceremony in which each girl received a bluebird pin. As each girl's name was called, she lit a blue candle as her mother pinned the bluebird pin on her vest. After the ceremony the girls and their mothers enjoyed Christmas cookies and fruit punch.

January 3 was the first meeting of the year for the group. New officers elected were president, Cindy Flodin; vice president, Diane Lorenzen; secretary, Ellen Laughrin; treasurer, Cheryl Maley; song leader, Linda Nicol; game leader, Linda Vetter; handicraft, Patsy McCarthy; scrapbooks, Linda Pollitz; candle lighter, Marjian Mell; candle snuffer, Rhonda Aagaard; clean up, Jean Ann Collins and wish leader, Geralin Dezonna.

After the election, the girls played a paper relay race and scarf relay race and learned some new songs.

Blue Angels

Blue Angels used a variety of small dolls at their last meeting and acted out situations pertaining to every day living such as accepting a new girl in the neighborhood, going to the grocery store and going to the doctor. Hostess for the day was Joyce Gulbrandson.

Teacher Of Arlington Handicapped Attends Evanston Conference

Robert Stein, teacher of the educable mentally handicapped in Arington Heights public schools, will attend a meeting of the International Society for Exceptional Children Thursday at Evanston public library.

Stein is membership chairman of the Northshore chapter of the Society.

The program, which will begin at 8 p.m., is a panel entitled "The Team Approach to a Hearing Problem." Staff members from Children's Memorial hospital will make up the panel and will include Alice Saar, director of the clinic, Dr. Irving Leiden, chief psychologist, William Waldrop, chief audiologist, and Delores Bernath, psychiatric social worker.

The society meetings are open to the public.

'Y' Plans Trips For Members

The first meeting of the YMCA Fun club this Saturday will feature a magic show by teen-agers Tom and Jim Tourvile.

Roller skating at the Arlington Roller Rink is the next feature for both beginners and experienced skaters. For the outdoor enthusiasts, a morning of tobogganing is scheduled on January 28. The following Saturday is an all day trip to the Museum of Science and Industry, and on February 11, a historical movie is planned.

The annual Sport and Outdoor show will be another outstanding treat for the children. They will see the famous water show featuring a trained seal and other thrilling acts.

A wild west stage play is the feature attraction February 25 and the final Saturday is devoted to the thrills and spills of roller skating.

The children are transported by chartered buses from pick-up points in Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect and Des Plaines. They are under the supervision of adults at all times. Registrations will be taken this week at the Northwest Suburban YMCA office at 1488 Miner st. in Des Plaines or by phoning VA 4-4156.

Boys and girls from 8 to 11 may join the club. Each session consists of 8 trips of educational and recreational value.

FOR THE ANSWER TO THIS QUESTION

There are always some youngsters who will go through new homes and pilfer tools or building materials. Sometimes they will do vandalism or cause fires that destroy the building. Does Builders Risk Insurance cover a builder for such losses?

LEGAL PUBLICATIONS

An Ordinance

AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING AND DIRECTING THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS OF THE VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS, TO THE AMOUNT OF $115,000.00 FOR THE PURPOSE OF OBTAINING MONEY FOR THE PURCHASE OF LAND AND ERECTING AN ADDITIONAL FIRE STATION OR BUILDING THEREON, PURCHASING AN ADDITIONAL FIRE PUMPER AND FULLY EQUIPPING SUCH FIRE STATION, AND PROVIDING FOR THE COLLECTION OF A DIRECT ANNUAL TAX FOR THE PAYMENT OF THE PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST OF SAID BONDS.

WHEREAS due to the extension of the heavily populated areas within the Village of Arlington Heights and the consequent increase in residential and other structures within said Village it has become necessary to provide an additional fire station and to equip the same with fire engine and other fire fighting apparatus; and,

WHEREAS the present fire station of the Village is located south of the right-of-way and tracks of the Chicago and North Western Railway, which bisects the Village, and the operation of trains of said railway company has at times interfered with prompt arrival of fire fighting equipment in the areas of the Village north of said railway right-of-way; and,

WHEREAS the President and Board of Trustes of the Village upon investigation have determined that it will be necessary and to the best interests of the Village and its inhabitants further to improve its fire fighting equipment and facilities, and to that end to purchase the necessary land for a site of an additional fire fighting station and building to be located in the northerly part of said Village, and to construct thereon a fire fighting station or building, together with landscaping, and to equip the same, and to purchase additional fire fighting equipment consisting of a 1000 gallon per minute fire pumper, complete with all auxiliary equipment; 3800 feet of 2½ inch double jacket fire hose; 6 Type N gas masks; 2 oxygen masks and 1 fire hose dryer, and other necessary incidental equipment; and,

WHEREAS the President and Board of Trustees have determined that the cost of acquiring such additional land and site, erecting a building or fire station thereon and equipping and landscaping the same, and acquiring the above named necessary additional fire fighting equipment, is the sum of $115,000.00, and as there are no funds available for the payment of the cost thereof, that it is necessary there be borrowed by, for and on behalf of the Village of Arlington Heights the said sum of $115,000.00, and that to evidence said loan negotiable coupon bonds of said Village be issued, with interest at not to exceed three and one-half (3½%) per cent per annum, payable over a period of not to exceed fifteen (15) years, all as provided for by the laws of the State of Illinois thereunto enabling; and

WHEREAS the said President and Board of Trustees of said Village did on the 18th day of October, 1955, pass and approve an ordinance calling a special election to be held in said Village of Arlington Heights on the 19th day of November, 1955, for the purpose of submitting to the legal voters of said Village the following proposition:

"Shall bonds in the amount of $115,000.00 be issued by the Village of Arlington Heights, Cook County, Illinois, for the purpose of purchasing the land for the site of an additional fire fighting station or building, to be located in the northerly part of said Village, and constructing thereon a fire fighting station or building, together with necessary landscaping, and to equip the same, and to purchase additional fire fighting equipment consisting of a 1000 gallon per minute fire pumper, complete with all auxiliary equipment, 3800 feet of 2½ inch double jacket fire hose, 6 type N gas masks, 2 oxygen masks and 1 fire hose dryer, to afford sufficient fire protection to the inhabitants of said Village and their property, maturing $5,000.00 on the 1st day of December of each of the years 1957, 1959, 1961, 1963 and 1965, and $10,000.00 on the 1st day of December of each of the years 1958, 1960, 1962, 1964, and the years 1966 to 1970, both inclusive, bearing interest at the rate of not to exceed 3½ per cent per annum?"

and,

WHEREAS said special election was held and conducted in the form and manner and time as provided by law and the result of said election has been properly canvassed by said President and Board of Trustees, and it is hereby determined that all legal requirements in connection with said election were duly complied with, and that a majority of the legal voters voting at said special election voted in favor of said proposition, and that the President and Board of Trustees have been authorized to borrow the sum of $115,- [illegible] the credit of said [illegible] bonds therefor [illegible] of purchasing land [illegible] fire fighting station [illegible] thereon an additional fighting station and [illegible] same as hereinbefore [illegible] proposition more [illegible] this Board has [illegible] necessary for [illegible] to borrow [illegible] $115,000.00 and issue [illegible] now, therefore,

COME ...... MORE [illegible] ORDAINED BY THE [illegible] BOARD OF [illegible] VILLAGE [illegible] HEIGHTS, [illegible] AND STATE

[illegible] That it be and it is [illegible] determined that [illegible] and Board of Trustees [illegible] Village have been authorized [illegible] of all the [illegible] proposition submitted [illegible] election called and held for that purpose to borrow the sum of $115,000.00 upon the credit of this Village, and as evidence of such indebtedness to issue bonds of this Village in that amount.

SECTION 2. That there be borrowed by, for and on behalf of the Village of Arlington Heights the said sum of $115,000.00 for the purpose of purchasing land for the site of an additional fire fighting station or building, to be located in the northerly part of said Village, and construct thereon a fire fighting station or building, together with necessary landscaping, and to equip the same, and to purchase additional fire fighting equipment consisting of a 1000 gallon per minute fire pumper, complete with all auxiliary equipment; 3800 feet of 2½ inch double jacket fire hose; 6 Type N gas masks; 2 oxygen masks, and 1 fire hose dryer; and that to evidence said loan negotiable coupon bonds of said Village be issued. Said bonds shall be designated "Fire Department Equipment Bonds of 1956," be 115 in number, numbered 1 to 115, inclusive, and shall be of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, all to be dated February 1, 1956, and shall become due and payable as follows: $5,000.00 on the 1st day of December of each of the years 1957, 1959, 1961, 1963 and 1965, and $10,000.00 on the 1st day of December of each of the years 1958, 1960, 1962, 1964 and the years 1966 to 1970, both inclusive. Said bonds shall bear interest from date at the rate of 3 per cent per annum, payable on the 1st day of December 1957, and semi-annually thereafter on the 1st day of June and December of each year until paid, which interest payments to date of maturity of principal shall be evidenced by proper interest coupons attached to each bond and maturing on the dates herein provided, and both principal and interest shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the HARRIS TRUST & SAVINGS BANK, Chicago, Illinois. The seal of said Village shall be affixed to each of said bonds and said bonds shall be signed by the President and attested by the Clerk of the Village and said coupons shall be signed and attested by said officials respectively by their facsimile signatures, and said officials, by the execution of said bonds shall adopt as and for their respective proper signatures their respective facsimile signatures appearing on said coupons.

SECTION 3. That the bonds hereby authorized shall be subject to registration as to principal in the name of the holder upon the books of the Village Treasurer, such registration to be evidenced by a notation of said Village Treasurer upon the back of such bonds so registered. No bonds so registered shall be subject to transfer except upon such books and similarly noted on the back of the bond as registered, unless the last registration shall have been to bearer. Such registration of any of said bonds shall not, however, affect the negotiability of the coupons attached to said bonds, but such coupons shall continue negotiable by delivery merely, notwithstanding registration of said bonds.

SECTION 4. That each of said bonds and each of the interest coupons to be thereto attached shall be in substantially the following form:

(FORM OF BOND)

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
STATE OF ILLINOIS
COUNTY OF COOK

VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

FIRE DEPARTMENT EQUIPMENT
BOND OF 1956

Know All Men By These Presents: That the Village of Arlington Heights, in the County of Cook and State of Illinois, hereby acknowledges itself to owe and for value received hereby promises to pay to bearer, or if this bond be registered then to the registered holder hereof, the sum of

on the first day of December, 19...., together with interest on said sum at the rate of three (3%) per cent per annum from date hereof until paid, payable June 1, 1957, and semi-annually thereafter on the first days of June and December in each year, on presentation and surrender of the interest coupons hereto attached as they severally become due. Both principal and interest on this bond are hereby made payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the HARRIS TRUST & SAVINGS BANK, in Chicago, Illinois.

For the prompt payment of this bond, both principal and interest as aforesaid, at maturity and for the levy of taxes sufficient for that purpose, the full faith, credit and resources of said Village are hereby irrevocably pledged.

This bond is one of an authorized issue of $115,000.00, all of the same tenor and effect, except as to maturity, and issued by said Village for the purpose of paying the cost of purchasing additional land for the site of an additional fire fighting station, constructing thereon a fire fighting station or building, together with necessary landscaping, equipping the same and purchasing additional fire fighting equipment consisting of a 1,000 gallon per minute fire pumper, complete with auxiliary equipment, fire hose, gas masks, oxygen masks and fire hose dryer, to afford additional fire protection to the inhabitants of said Village and their property, pursuant to and under the authority of an Act of the General Assembly of the State of Illinois, entitled: "Revised Cities and Villages Act," and all acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, and in pursuance to and in conformity with an ordinance of said Village of Arlington Heights duly and properly passed by the President and Board of Trustees thereof, approved and published as required by law and pursuant to the approval thereof by a majority of the voters voting on the question of the approval at a special election called and held in said Village on the 19th day of November, 1955.

AND IT IS HEREBY CERTIFIED AND RECITED that it appears from the records, of said Village that all acts, conditions and things required by the constitution and laws of the State of Illinois, to exist or to be done precedent to and in the issuance of this bond and of the issue of which it forms a part, do exist and have been properly done, happened and have been performed in regular and due form and time as required by law; that the total indebtedness of said Village, including this bond, does not exceed any constitutional or statutory limitation, and that provision has been made for the collection of a direct annual tax, in addition to all other taxes, on all of the taxable property in said Village sufficient to pay the interest hereon as the same becomes due, and also to pay and discharge the principal hereof at maturity.

THIS BOND is subject to registration as to principal in the name of the holder on the books of the Village Treasurer of said Village, such registration to be evidenced by notation by said Village Treasurer on the back hereof and after such registration no transfer hereof, except upon such books and similarly noted hereon, shall be valid, unless the last registration shall have been to bearer. Registration of this bond shall not affect the negotiability of the coupons hereto attached, which shall continue negotiable by delivery merely, notwithstanding registration hereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the said VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, by its President and Board of Trustees, has caused its corporate seal to be hereto affixed, and this bond to be signed by the President of said Village and attested by the Village Clerk and the coupons hereto attached to be signed and attested by said officials by their respective facsimile signatures, and said officials by the execution hereof do adopt as and for their own proper signatures their respective facsimile signatures appearing on said coupons, all as of the first day of February, 1956.

Mothers Create Party Air For Guys & Dolls Meetings

With the assistance of mothers through the Big Sisters club, the Guys and Dolls teen club meetings have taken on a party atmosphere.

Not only are parents cooperating in the roles of advisors at club meetings, but refreshments of infinite variety have been provided as well.

The meeting Thursday saw Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deering acting as advisors. The devils food cake provided by Mrs. Fred Kunz and the Polish pastry provided by Mrs. Deering were completely consumed, as well as the 3 gallons of milk served.

There will be another regular meeting of the club at the Barn tonight at 8 p.m. Constructive work of the club at the last meeting included the primary painting of the new ping-pong tables donated by the local Lions club. The painting was done by Mike Locascio, Jerry Browning and Bob Karman.

In an effort to make the club even more interesting for the members, an interview project has been set up by the Youth Council. Starting last Tuesday evening, a series of individual interviews is being held for all club members at the home of Youth Council president Ray Walker.

The interviews will deal with finding the main interests of the teenagers, what the members want from the club, what the club feels as its responsibility to the community, and various other problems. K)

Rolling Meadows Nurses Attend Palatine Meeting

A special invitation has been extended to all registered nurses in Rolling Meadows to attend the Palatine Nurses club meeting Monday, January 16, at 8 p.m., in the fire hall, Palatine.

Acting as hostesses for that evening will be a group of Rolling Meadows women, all members of the club. They are Lorraine Van Wazer, Phylis Noet and Ruth Gruenbaum.

Membership in the club is open to any registered nurse in the community. The club programs are generally planned for the interest of nurses or those with medical training. Practical functions of the club include a medical supply lending closet, supplying medical equipment without charge to residents of the area.

Another important work of the club is the school nursing program carried on in cooperation with the local grammar school district and local PTA units. The program this past year has included polio shots, hearing tests, eye tests and general physical examinations. K)

Urge OES Women To Join Together

With the success of the newly-formed Masonic Fellowship group in Rolling Meadows, it has been suggested that members of the Order of Eastern Star might also be interested in joining together in some manner.

All members of the O.E.S. who are residents of the city are invited to contact Mrs. Winifred Jones, 3101 Hawk lane, CLearbrook 5-3827.

It is hoped that response to this invitation will be sufficient to make a meeting of the women possible to acquaint O.E.S. members with other members in the community. K)

An Ordinance

AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING AND DIRECTING THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS OF THE VILLAGE OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS, TO THE AMOUNT OF $115,000.00 FOR THE PURPOSE OF OBTAINING MONEY FOR THE PURCHASE OF LAND AND ERECTING AN ADDITIONAL FIRE STATION OR BUILDING THEREON, PURCHASING AN ADDITIONAL FIRE PUMPER AND FULLY EQUIPPING SUCH FIRE STATION, AND PROVIDING FOR THE COLLECTION OF A DIRECT ANNUAL TAX FOR THE PAYMENT OF THE PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST OF SAID BONDS.

WHEREAS due to the extension of the heavily populated areas within the Village of Arlington Heights and the consequent increase in residential and other structures within said Village it has become necessary to provide an additional fire station and to equip the same with fire engine and other fire fighting apparatus; and,

WHEREAS the present fire station of the Village is located south of the right-of-way and tracks of the Chicago and North Western Railway, which bisects the Village, and the operation of trains of said railway company has at times interfered with prompt arrival of fire fighting equipment in the areas of the Village north of said railway right-of-way; and,

WHEREAS the President and Board of Trustes of the Village upon investigation have determined that it will be necessary and to the best interests of the Village and its inhabitants further to improve its fire fighting equipment and facilities, and to that end to purchase the necessary land for a site of an additional fire fighting station and building to be located in the northerly part of said Village, and to construct thereon a fire fighting station or building, together with landscaping, and to equip the same, and to purchase additional fire fighting equipment consisting of a 1000 gallon per minute fire pumper, complete with all auxiliary equipment; 3800 feet of 2½ inch double jacket fire hose; 6 Type N gas masks; 2 oxygen masks and 1 fire hose dryer, and other necessary incidental equipment; and,

WHEREAS the President and Board of Trustees have determined that the cost of acquiring such additional land and site, erecting a building or fire station thereon and equipping and landscaping the same, and acquiring the above named necessary additional fire fighting equipment, is the sum of $115,000.00, and as there are no funds available for the payment of the cost thereof, that it is necessary there be borrowed by, for and on behalf of the Village of Arlington Heights the said sum of $115,000.00, and that to evidence said loan negotiable coupon bonds of said Village be issued, with interest at not to exceed three and one-half (3½%) per cent per annum, payable over a period of not to exceed fifteen (15) years, all as provided for by the laws of the State of Illinois thereunto enabling; and

WHEREAS the said President and Board of Trustees of said Village did on the 18th day of October, 1955, pass and approve an ordinance calling a special election to be held in said Village of Arlington Heights on the 19th day of November, 1955, for the purpose of submitting to the legal voters of said Village the following proposition:

"Shall bonds in the amount of $115,000.00 be issued by the Village of Arlington Heights, Cook County, Illinois, for the purpose of purchasing the land for the site of an additional fire fighting station or building, to be located in the northerly part of said Village, and constructing thereon a fire fighting station or building, together with necessary landscaping, and to equip the same, and to purchase additional fire fighting equipment consisting of a 1000 gallon per minute fire pumper, complete with all auxiliary equipment, 3800 feet of 2½ inch double jacket fire hose, 6 type N gas masks, 2 oxygen masks and 1 fire hose dryer, to afford sufficient fire protection to the inhabitants of said Village and their property, maturing $5,000.00 on the 1st day of December of each of the years 1957, 1959, 1961, 1963 and 1965, and $10,000.00 on the 1st day of December of each of the years 1958, 1960, 1962, 1964, and the years 1966 to 1970, both inclusive, bearing interest at the rate of not to exceed 3½ per cent per annum?"

and,

WHEREAS said special election was held and conducted in the form and manner and time as provided by law and the result of said election has been properly canvassed by said President and Board of Trustees, and it is hereby determined that all legal requirements in connection with said election were duly complied with, and that a majority of the legal voters voting at said special election voted in favor of said proposition, and that the President and [illegible] of Trustees have been authorized to borrow the sum of $115,- [illegible] the credit of [illegible] bonds therefor [illegible] of purchasing land [illegible] fire fighting station [illegible] thereon an ad- [illegible] fighting station and [illegible] same as hereinbe- [illegible] proposition more [illegible] this Board has [illegible] necessary for [illegible] to borrow [illegible] $115,000.00 and issue [illegible] now, therefore,

COME .... MORE

[illegible] NED BY THE [illegible] BOARD OF [illegible] VILLAGE [illegible] HEIGHTS, [illegible] AND STATE

[illegible] That it be and it is [illegible] determined that [illegible] Board of Trustees [illegible] Village have been authorized [illegible] of all the [illegible] proposition submitted [illegible] election called [illegible] for that purpose to [illegible] the sum of $115,000.00 upon the credit of this Village, and as evidence of such indebtedness to issue bonds of this Village in that amount.

SECTION 2. That there be borrowed by, for and on behalf of the Village of Arlington Heights the said sum of $115,000.00 for the purpose of purchasing land for the site of an additional fire fighting station or building, to be located in the northerly part of said Village, and construct thereon a fire fighting station or building, together with necessary landscaping, and to equip the same, and to purchase additional fire fighting equipment consisting of a 1000 gallon per minute fire pumper, complete with all auxiliary equipment; 3800 feet of 2½ inch double jacket fire hose; 6 Type N gas masks; 2 oxygen masks, and 1 fire hose dryer; and that to evidence said loan negotiable coupon bonds of said Village be issued. Said bonds shall be designated "Fire Department Equipment Bonds of 1956," be 115 in number, numbered 1 to 115, inclusive, and shall be of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, all to be dated February 1, 1956, and shall become due and payable as follows: $5,000.00 on the 1st day of December of each of the years 1957, 1959, 1961, 1963 and 1965, and $10,000.00 on the 1st day of December of each of the years 1958, 1960, 1962, 1964 and the years 1966 to 1970, both inclusive. Said bonds shall bear interest from date at the rate of 3 per cent per annum, payable on the 1st day of December 1957, and semi-annually thereafter on the 1st day of June and December of each year until paid, which interest payments to date of maturity of principal shall be evidenced by proper interest coupons attached to each bond and maturing on the dates herein provided, and both principal and interest shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the HARRIS TRUST & SAVINGS BANK, Chicago, Illinois. The seal of said Village shall be affixed to each of said bonds and said bonds shall be signed by the President and attested by the Clerk of the Village and said coupons shall be signed and attested by said officials respectively by their facsimile signatures, and said officials, by the execution of said bonds shall adopt as and for their respective proper signatures their respective facsimile signatures appearing on said coupons.

SECTION 3. That the bonds hereby authorized shall be subject to registration as to principal in the name of the holder upon the books of the Village Treasurer, such registration to be evidenced by a notation of said Village Treasurer upon the back of such bonds so registered. No bonds so registered shall be subject to transfer except upon such books and similarly noted on the back of the bond as registered, unless the last registration shall have been to bearer. Such registration of any of said bonds shall not, however, affect the negotiability of the coupons attached to said bonds, but such coupons shall continue negotiable by delivery merely, notwithstanding registration of said bonds.

SECTION 4. That each of said bonds and each of the interest coupons to be thereto attached shall be in substantially the following form:

(FORM OF BOND)

Mothers Create Party Air For Guys & Dolls Meetings

With the assistance of mothers through the Big Sisters club, the Guys and Dolls teen club meetings have taken on a party atmosphere.

Not only are parents cooperating in the roles of advisors at club meetings, but refreshments of infinite variety have been provided as well.

The meeting Thursday saw Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deering acting as advisors. The devils food cake provided by Mrs. Fred Kunz and the Polish pastry provided by Mrs. Deering were completely consumed, as well as the 3 gallons of milk served.

There will be another regular meeting of the club at the Barn tonight at 8 p.m. Constructive work of the club at the last meeting included the primary painting of the new ping-pong tables donated by the local Lions club. The painting was done by Mike Locascio, Jerry Browning and Bob Karman.

In an effort to make the club even more interesting for the members, an interview project has been set up by the Youth Council. Starting last Tuesday evening, a series of individual interviews is being held for all club members at the home of Youth Council president Ray Walker.

The interviews will deal with finding the main interests of the teenagers, what the members want from the club, what the club feels as its responsibility to the community, and various other problems. K)

Rolling Meadows Nurses Attend Palatine Meeting

A special invitation has been extended to all registered nurses in Rolling Meadows to attend the Palatine Nurses club meeting Monday, January 16, at 8 p.m., in the fire hall, Palatine.

Acting as hostesses for that evening will be a group of Rolling Meadows women, all members of the club. They are Lorraine Van Wazer, Phylis Noet and Ruth Gruenbaum.

Membership in the club is open to any registered nurse in the community. The club programs are generally planned for the interest of nurses or those with medical training. Practical functions of the club include a medical supply lending closet, supplying medical equipment without charge to residents of the area.

Another important work of the club is the school nursing program carried on in cooperation with the local grammar school district and local PTA units. The program this past year has included polio shots, hearing tests, eye tests and general physical examinations. K)

Urge OES Women To Join Together

With the success of the newly-formed Masonic Fellowship group in Rolling Meadows, it has been suggested that members of the Order of Eastern Star might also be interested in joining together in some manner.

All members of the O.E.S. who are residents of the city are invited to contact Mrs. Winifred Jones, 3101 Hawk lane, CLearbrook 5-3827.

It is hoped that response to this invitation will be sufficient to make a meeting of the women possible to acquaint O.E.S. members with other members in the community. K)

News Of Prospect Meadows

Birthday

Jim Kandul, son of Ed and Lois Kandul, celebrated his ninth birthday with a party at his home January 1. His guests were playmates Debbie and Donna Walsh, Diane Klein, Wayne Harland, Larry, Ronnie and Joanne Richardson and brother Barry. To further celebrate Jimmy and Barry and Ed and Lois spent the following day, Monday, at the Museum of Science and Industry.

Warren Bischoff, son of Andy and Kay Bischoff, entertained friends, Ronnie and Larry Richardson, Jim Gutzmer, Susan Finch, Diane Klein and Dorothy Schons, at a Christmas holiday ice skating party that was turned into a theatre party because of the warm weather. The group met at Warren home where they were served lunch before proceeding to see a movie at a local theatre.

Susan Finch, Diane Klein and Ellen Kay Edwards have recently become members of the YMCA in Des Plaines and for the coming 8 weeks will be taking archery lessons. Beginning January 21 they will learn the art of puppet making and presenting puppet shows. These classes meet every Saturday morning at the Masonic hall in Des Plaines.

John and Mary Jane Norris were hosts at a gigantic Christmas tree burning party January 5. At 6:30 p.m. neighborhood children on on Oriole and Larkdale gathered and John began burning the 41 trees that had been collected by his children and other children in the neighborhood for the party. The children made a gala afair of it roasting weenies and marshmallows and enjoying other refreshments furnished by neighbors.

Sunday a similar affair, on a smaller scale, however, was conducted by Ed and Lois Kandul for their boys and a few other neighborhood children.

Cub Scouts

The only scouts meeting last week were members of den 12. Present last Thursday at the home of den dad, Ed Moeller, were Dick Moeller, Bobby Webber, Tommy Hemesath, Dean Valentine, Dan Wills and Richard Hehnen. Present also were new members, Bruce Blim and Gregory Wehrheim, who will be inducted at the pack meeting January 27.

The boys conducted their meeting, discussed handicraft plans for the January "pirate" theme, played games and enjoyed refreshments furnished by Dean Valentine.

Former member, Evans Wells, has advanced into a Webelos troop and attended a meeting of the Webelos at the home of Don Traver in Arlington Heights Thursday evening.

Baptized

Kim, 1-month-old son of Ray and Dorothy Doyle was baptized Sunday at St. Raymond church with Father McCormick of Oak Forest officiating. The godparents were Mary Katherine Burgess and Erwin MacDonald. After the ceremony Ray and Dorothy entertained the following relatives with dinner and supper at their home: grandmothers, Mrs. Doyle and Mrs. Boyer; Mr. and Mrs. Roy MacDonald and son Bob Burgess; Mrs. E. MacDonald; Mrs. Eleanor Duffy and daughters, Sharon and Joy; Roger Kreft and Gail Beady. Also enjoying the festivities were Kim's brothers and sisters, Michael, Richard, Maryann, Sharon and Suzanne.

Sincere condolances are extended to the Ray Seeber family on the recent death of Ray's father, Jos. W. Seeber. Mr. Seeber died January 1 after a very brief illness. Internment was January 5 at Eden cemetery in Shiller Park.

Recuperating

Vi Manda has taken a leave of absence from the Ohmite Manufacturing Co. in Skokie where she is employed, and has been home for 2 weeks with a heart condition. Vi was hospitalized during the Christmas holidays and her doctor recommended a long rest before going back to work.

Time off from work was also necessary for Art Nelson who has spent the last week at home, in bed, with influenza.

Connie Stanke, daughter of Barney and Marie Stanke and Bobby Orlowski, son of Henry and Peggy Orlowski were both ill last week with similar symptoms of a fever and light rash, but have now both completely recovered.

Anne Incinelli was bedridden 1 day last week with the flu. To the above and all others in the Meadows who may be ill, friends and neighbors extend sincere "get well wishes".

Weddings,

John and Dollie McGivney attended a wedding in Wilmette Saturday when John's cousin, Robert Nicholson, was married to Patricia Bolton at St. Francis church. After the ceremony, a reception for 500 guests was held at the Michigan Shores club. After a honeymoon in Mexico, the young couple will make their home in Wilmette.

Also attending a wedding and reception Saturday were Don, Rosemary and Susan Finch. They were present when Don's co-worker at Harrig Manufacturing Co. in Niles, Jerry Gardeck, was married to Bonnie Ossler at St. Priscilla church in Chicago. The reception was held at Belmont Park Post, Chicago.

Entertaining

Art and Betty Nelson and children enjoyed the company of Mr. and Mrs. John Mikos of Chicago and their children, Susan, Karen, John and Jeffrey for dinner January 2 to climax their holiday entertaining.

Last Tuesday evening John and Eileen McNaughton were guests at the home of Henry and Marie Robotkay where they were entertained with a late supper.

January 2, Henry and Marie Robotkay entertained Marie's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. Shell, and her mother, Mrs. Rose Thibedeau, all of Chicago. Mrs. Thibedeau is staying with the Robotkays to be with them for their expected blessed event.

Guests at the home of Ed and Lois Kandul last Wednesday evening were Lois' brothers and their families, Mr. and Mrs. George Seidel and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Seidel of Braodview.

Evans and Lisa Wells entertained Mr and Mrs. C. H. Thode of McHenry and Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Kriebel, Chicago, Saturday evening. The group spent the evening playing cards after which light refreshments were served.

The New Year's weekend was a busy time for Charles and Rita Durec and their chilrden. Chuck and Rita spent New Year's eve with a group of friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dudesek in Elmhurst. Sunday the Durecs entertained Mr. and Mrs. Mikal and their 3 children at their home with a turkey dinner. Monday Chuck and Rita and their children spent the day in Park Ridge at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buzas.

Joyce Ruther entertained neighbors Millie Webber, Connie Heurlin, Marge Murdock, Vi Manda, Kay Sepke, Ruby Polly, Rita Durec and Pat Wrath Tuesday evening at an hors d' oeuvre party. Each guest brought her favorite hors d' oeuvre recipe and some samples for the group.

Sunday Andy and Kay Bischoff and sons, Warren and Scott, entertained Andy's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox, and daughters, Carol and Jean of Park Ridge. The group went ice skating in the afternoon at Old Orchard and came back to the Bischoffs for Sunday supper.

Vising at the home of Chuck and Lorrie Brazeau last Sunday was Chuck's uncle, O. J. Manthey of Chicago.

Card Clubs

Helena Woodruff was hostess at the meeting of the Grandmothers' canasta club January 3. Gathered for an evening of canasta followed by refreshments were Edna Vantanian, Janet Nye, Myrtle Stickrod, Frances Schulz and Catherine Coughlin. A guest of the grandmothers for the evening was Mrs. Louise Miners of 613 Larkdale.

The pinochle club, with all members present, which included Ruby Polly, Kay Sepke, Irma Ehlke, Joyce Ruther, Ginny Jenkins, Lisa Wells and Marge Blim, were entertained Thursday evening for their third meeting by Gedrt Derning who served refreshments to the group after an evening spent playing pinochle.

The Bob-O-Link canasta club held their monthly meeting January 4 at the home of Lisa Wells. An evening of cards followed by refreshments was enjoyed by members Marge Blim, Nora Roths, Ruth Burt and Chris Pelletier.

Out-of-Town

Bert Ruther spent several days this week in Milwaukee attending the annual sales meeting of the Certain-teed Products Corp.

Saturday evening Lou and Lynn Nye were entertained in Prospect Heights at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dunham. Also present for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. R. Gericke of Racine and Mr. and Mrs. Sargent of Vollo. The friendship of Lynn, Mrs. Dunham and Mrs. Gericke goes back to college days when they attended Northwestern university together.

Henry and Peggy Orlowski and their children Bobby, Connie and Jimme spent last Sunday in Rolling Meadows at the home of Henry's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wikarski and daughter, Phyllis. In the afternoon Bobby, Phyllis and their dads took a trip to Lake Shangralia, Wis. While there all enjoyed some ice skating.

Saturday evening Andy and Kay Bischoff and Jack and Ginny Richardson attended the KPS sorority dinner dance at the Orphei club in Chicago.

Frances Shillington CL 3-9521

Free Church Marks Third Anniversary January 8th

The third anniversary of Arlington Heights Evangelical Free church was observed last Sunday with 3 services. Sunday school attendance reached an all-time high with 217 children and adults.

The morning worship service held at 11 a.m. had as its principal speaker. Dr. Kenneth S. Kantzer of Wheaton college. Dr. Kantzer told the congregation that it is now the socially accepted thing to belong to a church and that it is the responsibility of the Free church to be of all the help it can in getting the increased attendance under the sound of the gospel. The speaker emphasized, however, that the paramount factor is the personal responsibility to Jesus Christ. At this service, Pastor Charles G. Will announced plans of the Great Lakes district of the Free church in organizing a new Free church in Wheeling. After a few brief remarks by Dr. Irving Hedstrom, chairman of the district, Pastor Will led the congregation in a dedicatory prayer for the pastor of the new church and his assistants.

THE EVENING service was held in the sanctuary of the present Methodist church. The Free church will take over the property at Dunton and St. James after completion of the new Methodist church on E. Euclid. Attendance at this service was also an all-time high as announced by Norman Cook, chairman of the services committee.

Many members and friends at the Sunday evening service recalled that just 3 years ago, meeting in the North school, Dr. Torrey Johnson addressed the then much smaller group. Dr. Johnson, in addressing the congregation last Sunday evening, stated that the success of the Free church will be dependent upon the inward unity of the spirit of Christ. This is because, Dr. Johnson said, so many of the members come from many different backgrounds.

BOTH THE backward look and the forward look were in evidence as George Travers led the congregation in singing "Great Is Thy Faithfulness" and later directed the choir in singing "God Leads Us Along." As he did 3 years ago, Dr. Torrey Johnson, founder of Youth for Christ, International, asked the congregation to join him in the closing hymn "Amazing Grace."

When asked "Just What is the Free Church?" Rev. Will stated: "The Evangelical Free Church of America is a nation-wide group of local independently governed churches and is a member of the National Association of Evangelicals. The position of the Free church, in the words of its president, Dr. Arnold T. Olson, is that a church can be fundamental without being fanatical

"At Last!"

That is what the Louis Sylvesters are saying now that they are at home in their new house at 302 S. Elmhurst rd. It has been over a year since their home was first started. There have been a number of causes for this, but they can be forgotten now while they enjoy the home which has been constructed according to the plans of Mr. Sylvester.

The Sylvesters are in Wedgewood because Mrs. Sylvester's sister and family, the Ralph Garofolos, became Prospect Heights residents in October of 1954. They were Chicagoans before this time.

In the first grade is their older son, John. In the city he attended the John Crerar school. Rocky, whose real name is Rocco, is 2½ and keeps his mother company at home.

Mr. Sylvester is a partner in the Addison Building Materials company.

Sewing, embroidery, and crocheting are handwork activities in which Mrs. Sylvester likes to engage. Right now she is crocheting a bedspread, her first venture as large as this.

New Year's day dinner guests of the Joe Wartsmans were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Merrit and family, neighbors in Wedgewood, and the Vern Keppen family of Arlington Heights.

Two close-together birthdays in the Jack Chronic family were that of Sandra, 8, January 3, and Steven, 9, January 6. To honor both there was a party on the weekend with guests coming from Sioux City. They were the children's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack King.

To help again in the Mothers' March in Wedgewood is Mrs. Oscar Miller. She has assisted as captain since it has been held in Prospect Heights and the Wedgewood area. Many thanks come from the reporter, Mrs. Raymond Dietrich, to her for her willing assistance. The chairman's job is so much simpler because of the grace with which people say yes to a request for their services. And that thanks will go to the workers who help her by making the collection, this year to be January 31.

News Of Prospect Meadows

Birthday

Jim Kandul, son of Ed and Lois Kandul, celebrated his ninth birthday with a party at his home January 1. His guests were playmates Debbie and Donna Walsh, Diane Klein, Wayne Harland, Larry, Ronnie and Joanne Richardson and brother Barry. To further celebrate Jimmy and Barry and Ed and Lois spent the following day, Monday, at the Museum of Science and Industry.

Warren Bischoff, son of Andy and Kay Bischoff, entertained friends, Ronnie and Larry Richardson, Jim Gutzmer, Susan Finch, Diane Klein and Dorothy Schons, at a Christmas holiday ice skating party that was turned into a theatre party because of the warm weather. The group met at Warren home where they were served lunch before proceeding to see a movie at a local theatre.

Susan Finch, Diane Klein and Ellen Kay Edwards have recently become members of the YMCA in Des Plaines and for the coming 8 weeks will be taking archery lessons. Beginning January 21 they will learn the art of puppet making and presenting puppet shows. These classes meet every Saturay morning at the Masonic hall in Des Plaines.

John and Mary Jane Norris were hosts at a gigantic Christmas tree burning party January 5. At 6:30 p.m. neighborhood children on on Oriole and Larkdale gathered and John began burning the 41 trees that had been collected by his children and other children in the neighborhood for the party. The children made a gala afair of it roasting weenies and marshmallows and enjoying other refreshments furnished by neighbors.

Sunday a similar affair, on a smaller scale, however, was conducted by Ed and Lois Kandul for their boys and a few other neighborhood children.

Cub Scouts

The only scouts meeting last week were members of den 12. Present last Thursday at the home of den dad, Ed Moeller, were Dick Moeller, Bobby Webber, Tommy Hemesath, Dean Valentine, Dan Wills and Richard Hehnen. Present also were new members, Bruce Blim and Gregory Wehrheim, who will be inducted at the pack meeting January 27.

The boys conducted their meeting, discussed handicraft plans for the January "pirate" theme, played games and enjoyed refreshments furnished by Dean Valentine.

Former member, Evans Wells, has advanced into a Webelos troop and attended a meeting of the Webelos at the home of Don Traver in Arlington Heights Thursday evening.

Baptized

Kim, 1-month-old son of Ray and Dorothy Doyle was baptized Sunday at St. Raymond church with Father McCormick of Oak Forest officiating. The godparents were Mary Katherine Burgess and Erwin MacDonald. After the ceremony Ray and Dorothy entertained the following relatives with dinner and supper at their home: grandmothers, Mrs. Doyle and Mrs. Boyer; Mr. and Mrs. Roy MacDonald and son Bob Burgess; Mrs. E. MacDonald; Mrs. Eleanor Duffy and daughters, Sharon and Joy; Roger Kreft and Gail Beady. Also enjoying the festivities were Kim's brothers and sisters, Michael, Richard, Maryann, Sharon and Suzanne.

Sincere condolances are extended to the Ray Seeber family on the recent death of Ray's father, Jos. W. Seeber. Mr. Seeber died January 1 after a very brief illness. Internment was January 5 at Eden cemetery in Shiller Park.

Recuperating

Vi Manda has taken a leave of absence from the Ohmite Manufacturing Co. in Skokie where she is employed, and has been home for 2 weeks with a heart condition. Vi was hospitalized during the Christmas holidays and her doctor recommended a long rest before going back to work.

Time off from work was also necessary for Art Nelson who has spent the last week at home, in bed, with influenza.

Connie Stanke, daughter of Barney and Marie Stanke and Bobby Orlowski, son of Henry and Peggy Orlowski were both ill last week with similar symptoms of a fever and light rash, but have now both completely recovered.

Anne Incinelli was bedridden 1 day last week with the flu. To the above and all others in the Meadows who may be ill, friends and neighbors extend sincere "get well wishes".

Weddings,

John and Dollie McGivney attended a wedding in Wilmette Saturday when John's cousin, Robert Nicholson, was married to Patricia Bolton at St. Francis church. After the ceremony, a reception for 500 guests was held at the Michigan Shores club. After a honeymoon in Mexico, the young couple will make their home in Wilmette.

Also attending a wedding and reception Saturday were Don, Rosemary and Susan Finch. They were present when Don's co-worker at Harrig Manufacturing Co. in Niles, Jerry Gardeck, was married to Bonnie Ossler at St. Priscilla church in Chicago. The reception was held at Belmont Park Post, Chicago.

Entertaining

Art and Betty Nelson and children enjoyed the company of Mr. and Mrs. John Mikos of Chicago and their children, Susan, Karen, John and Jeffrey for dinner January 2 to climax their holiday entertaining.

Last Tuesday evening John and Eileen McNaughton were guests at the home of Henry and Marie Robotkay where they were entertained with a late supper.

January 2, Henry and Marie Robotkay entertained Marie's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. Shell, and her mother, Mrs. Rose Thibedeau, all of Chicago. Mrs. Thibedeau is staying with the Robotkays to be with them for their expected blessed event.

Guests at the home of Ed and Lois Kandul last Wednesday evening were Lois' brothers and their families, Mr. and Mrs. George Seidel and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Seidel of Braodview.

Evans and Lisa Wells entertained Mr and Mrs. C. H. Thode of McHenry and Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Kriebel, Chicago, Saturday evening. The group spent the evening playing cards after which light refreshments were served.

The New Year's weekend was a busy time for Charles and Rita Durec and their chilrden. Chuck and Rita spent New Year's eve with a group of friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dudesek in Elmhurst. Sunday the Durecs entertained Mr. and Mrs. Mikal and their 3 children at their home with a turkey dinner. Monday Chuck and Rita and their children spent the day in Park Ridge at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buzas.

Joyce Ruther entertained neighbors Millie Webber, Connie Heurlin, Marge Murdock, Vi Manda, Kay Sepke, Ruby Polly, Rita Durec and Pat Wrath Tuesday evening at an hors d' oeuvre party. Each guest brought her favorite hors d' oeuvre recipe and some samples for the group.

Sunday Andy and Kay Bischoff and sons, Warren and Scott, entertained Andy's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox, and daughters, Carol and Jean of Park Ridge. The group went ice skating in the afternoon at Old Orchard and came back to the Bischoffs for Sunday supper.

Vising at the home of Chuck and Lorrie Brazeau last Sunday was Chuck's uncle, O. J. Manthey of Chicago.

Card Clubs

Helena Woodruff was hostess at the meeting of the Grandmothers' canasta club January 3. Gathered for an evening of canasta followed by refreshments were Edna Vantanian, Janet Nye, Myrtle Stickrod, Frances Schulz and Catherine Coughlin. A guest of the grandmothers for the evening was Mrs. Louise Miners of 613 Larkdale.

The pinochle club, with all members present, which included Ruby Polly, Kay Sepke, Irma Ehlke, Joyce Ruther, Ginny Jenkins, Lisa Wells and Marge Blim, were entertained Thursday evening for their third meeting by Gedrt Derning who served refreshments to the group after an evening spent playing pinochle.

The Bob-O-Link canasta club held their monthly meeting January 4 at the home of Lisa Wells. An evening of cards followed by refreshments was enjoyed by members Marge Blim, Nora Roths, Ruth Burt and Chris Pelletier.

Out-of-Town

Bert Ruther spent several days this week in Milwaukee attending the annual sales meeting of the Certain-teed Products Corp.

Saturday evening Lou and Lynn Nye were entertained in Prospect Heights at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dunham. Also present for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. R. Gericke of Racine and Mr. and Mrs. Sargent of Vollo. The friendship of Lynn, Mrs. Dunham and Mrs. Gericke goes back to college days when they attended Northwestern university together.

Henry and Peggy Orlowski and their children Bobby, Connie and Jimme spent last Sunday in Rolling Meadows at the home of Henry's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wikarski and daughter, Phyllis. In the afternoon Bobby, Phyllis and their dads took a trip to Lake Shangralia, Wis. While there all enjoyed some ice skating.

Saturday evening Andy and Kay Bischoff and Jack and Ginny Richardson attended the KPS sorority dinner dance at the Orphei club in Chicago.

Ed and Pearl Moeller and son Dicky spent last Sunday in Marengo, visitng friends Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schultz and their son, Dale.

Free Church Marks Third Anniversary January 8th

The third anniversary of Arlington Heights Evangelical Free church was observed last Sunday with 3 services. Sunday school attendance reached an all-time high with 217 children and adults.

The morning worship service held at 11 a.m. had as its principal speaker, Dr. Kenneth S. Kantzer of Wheaton college. Dr. Kantzer told the congregation that it is now the socially accepted thing to belong to a church and that it is the responsibility of the Free church to be of all the help it can in getting the increased attendance under the sound of the gospel. The speaker emphasized, however, that the paramount factor is the personal responsibility to Jesus Christ. At this service, Pastor Charles G. Will announced plans of the Great Lakes district of the Free church in organizing a new Free church in Wheeling. After a few brief remarks by Dr. Irving Hedstrom, chairman of the district, Pastor Will led the congregation in a dedicatory prayer for the pastor of the new church and his assistants.

THE EVENING service was held in the sanctuary of the present Methodist church. The Free church will take over the property at Dunton and St. James after completion of the new Methodist church on E. Euclid. Attendance at this service was also an all-time high as announced by Norman Cook, chairman of the services committee.

Many members and friends at the Sunday evening service recalled that just 3 years ago, meeting in the North school, Dr. Torrey Johnson addressed the then much smaller group. Norwegians Live Frugally, Turn The Lights Off At 11 For Saving

by BILL DILLINGHAM

Are the Europeans lazily smoking fat cigars supplied by the distant U. S. taxpayer? Is Uncle Sam getting a raw deal in spending so many billions on European countries that claim not to be able to aid themselves?

Here is a brief picture of Norway, a typical NATO country, seen from the pocket-book of the ordinary man:

The Norwegian of today is living in the most economical manner possible. He's scraping the barrel, and there isn't a sign of a luxury anywhere. After his huge tax payments and minimum existence expenses, he rarely has enough cash left over for a new toothbrush.

THIS WINTER in Oslo the electricity for the entire city is being shut off at eleven o'clock each night in order to conserve energy. After that hour, people are using candles in Norway's capital city.

The housing situation around Oslo is so bad that people are forced to live so far away that they spend as much on carfare as they do on rent. The government just doesn't have the money with which to build.

The cheapest cigarettes cost the equivalent of fifty cents (U.S.). A gallon of gasoline costs about fifty-five cents. But a Norwegian is relatively lucky because in France the price is currently eighty cents a gallon! And perhaps the Frenchman is relatively lucky, because in Italy the cheapest oil is over a dollar a quart!

A TELEVISION antenna is rarely seen on the roof of a Norwegian or an European home. A radio in a car is extremely rare. (An American medium-priced car in Norway costs about $50, or double in value). Refrigerators in apartments are very unusual, either in Norway or in other NATO countries. Proportionately few homes have washing machines.

In socialist-minded Norway, everything is taxed to the very limit — with the exception of the bare food essentials that people need in order to avoid visiting the state-supported hospitals.

IN SPITE of this threadbare existence, the government is able to contribute only about 25 per cent of its budget to defense (remember that Norway has a border on Russia), and after that there isn't a cent left over for big cigars.

Americans, in extreme contrast, are contributing 70 per cent of their budget to defense, and sending billions of those dollars to Europe.

Perhaps our NATO allies are guilty of inefficiency in handling their economic affairs, but they certainly are not guilty of extravagance.

Audrey Wittbrod Wed To Harold Meinke

In a 10 a.m. nuptial mass November 19 in Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic church, Chicago, Harold Meinke took Miss Audrey Wittbrod as his bride. The new Mrs. Meinke is the daughter of Mrs. Clara Wittbrod of Chicago and Mr. Meinke is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Meinke, 347 E. Parallel ave., Palatine.

Father Casimir Kozien officiated at the double ring ceremony amid a setting of red roses.

For her marriage the bride chose a gown of white lace on net over satin, fashioned with floor-length skirt. Her fingertip veil was of white French net and fastened to a tiara crown trimmed with rhinestones and sequins. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

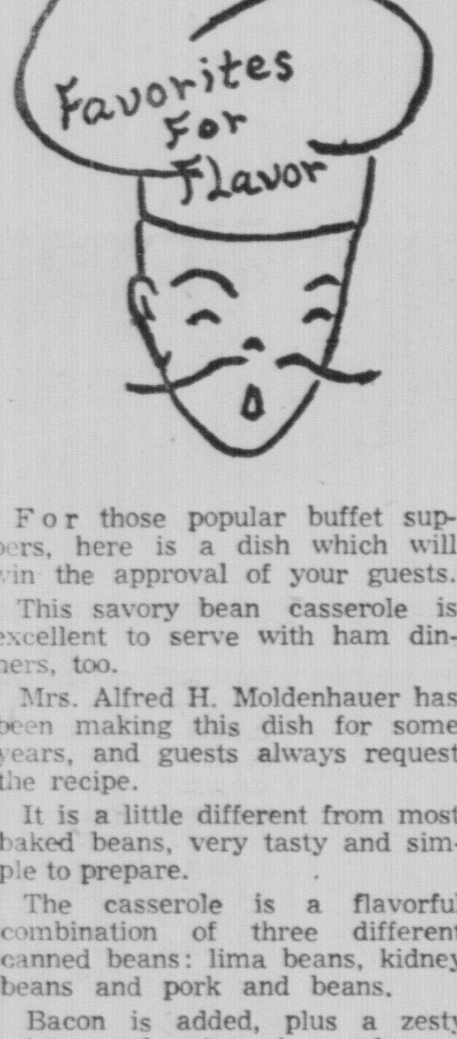
Miss Geraldine Wittbrod was her sister's maid of honor. Her gown was of iridescent purple crystal-length skirt. She wore a juliet cap of gold velvet and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow and purple pom pons.

Mrs. Wittbrod received in an orchid lace and net street-length dress with corsage of white carnations while Mrs. Meinke received in an aqua jersey dress with a corsage of white carnations. The reception was held at the Meinke home in Palatine for 50 guests.

Robert Schneider of Menasha, Wis., brother-in-law of the bride, was best man.

Mr. Meinke and his bride are now residing at 347 E. Parallel ave., Palatine. The bride was graduated from Alvernia high school and is employed by Croname, Inc., Chicago. The bridegroom, who was graduated from Schurz high school, Chicago, is with Busch's Service station, Palatine.

(Bak Studio



For those popular buffet suppers, here is a dish which will win the approval of your guests.

This savory bean casserole is excellent to serve with ham dinners, too.

Mrs. Alfred H. Moldenhauer has been making this dish for some years, and guests always request the recipe.

It is a little different from most baked beans, very tasty and simple to prepare.

The casserole is a flavorful combination of three different canned beans: lima beans, kidney beans and pork and beans.

Bacon is added, plus a zesty mixture of onion rings, chopped garlic, dry mustard, vinegar and brown sugar.

The dish is baked for 45 minutes, and the total effect is tempting and delicious.

The Moldenhauers live at 104 N. Lancaster in Mt. Prospect. They have 2 children: Melody Sue, 3, and George, 16 months.

Bean Casserole

1 can green lima beans
1 can kidney beans
1 large can pork and beans
3 slices cut-up bacon
2 large onions, cut in rings
2 cloves garlic, chopped
¾ teaspoon dry mustard
¼ cup vinegar
¼ to ½ cup brown sugar, to taste.

Combine beans in a two-quart casserole.

Fry cut-up bacon until almost crisp. Remove bacon. Add to beans.

Fry onions and garlic in fat until tender. To this add the dry mustard, vinegar and brown sugar. sugar.

Simmer a few minutes until brown sugar is dissolved. Pour over beans; mix well.

Bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes.

Lawrence Hall To Benefit From Puppet Shows Saturday

Puppet shows will be presented Saturday afternoon, Jan. 21, at Arlington Heights Junior high school to benefit Lawrence hall, non-demominational home for boys from broken families.

Identical performances of "Punch and Judy" and "Br'er Rabbit and Tar Baby" will be given at 1 and 3 o'clock. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Arlington Heights Junior Womans club whose Lawrence hall committee has arranged the benefit, by contacting Mrs. C. B. Owen, 218 Drury lane, Arlington Heights, CL 3-6702 or Mrs. William Eilbracht, 107 Wa Pella, Mt. Prospect, CL 3-7187. Tickets may also be purchased at the door.

Puppeteers for the benefit from church are Mrs. Lloyd R .Church, Mrs. Donald R. Poor, Mrs. Richard W. Bogan, Mrs. Stanley Lind and Mrs. James R. Hoatson Jr.

IFWC To Sponsor Program At Chicago State Hospital

The mental health department of seventh district of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs is sponsoring a meeting for members of the 36 clubs of the district at the Chicago State hospital January 18 at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Charles W. Stigman of Chicago is department chairman.

The program for the afternoon will include a vocal solo by one of the patients, a panel discussion of volunteer hospital workers and musical selections by Miss Dorothy Kraman, volunteer piano teacher, and some of her students. Dr. Herbert Malta, chief of male chronic service, will speak informally to the group.

Tea will be served at 3 p.m.

Zetas To Present Children's Show

Joseph Palen, "The Children's Story-Telling Magician," will be featured at the annual children's magic show sponsored by the North Shore Alumnae association of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority. The show, for the benefit of the Illinois Children's home, will be given at the active chapter house at Northwestern university Saturday, Jan. 14, at 2 p.m.

Diane Perry Becomes Mrs. Ronald Malcolm

Christmas trees and white poinsettias decorated St. Mark Lutheran church in Mt. Prospect for the marriage of Miss Diane Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Perry, 205 S. Pine st., Mt. Prospect, and Ronald Malcolm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Chilson of Blue Earth, Minn. The ceremony took place at 7 p.m., December 30 with the Rev. H. J. Rasmussen officiating. Organist was Louis Langpop who accompanied soloist, Donna Nelson of Willmar, Minn., as she sang "Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a white satin brocade dress fashioned with full-length skirt, three-quarter sleeves, scooped neckline trimmed with seed pearls and a princess waistline. Her fingertip veil of white illusion was fastened to a headpiece trimmed with pearls. Amazon lilies with stephanotis made up her bridal bouquet.

Janet Perry, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Jeanne Seberg of Chicago, Barbara Schroeder of Mt. Prospect and Mrs. Jean Nesset of Northfield, Minn., were bridesmaids. All the attendants were gowned identically in red faille street-length dresses made with full skirts and buttoned bodices with three-quarter sleeves. They wore matching pill box hats and carried white mums with holly and red berries.

The bridegroom's brother, Robert Malcolm, was best man and Alvin Malcolm, Donald Malcolm and Richard Chilson, all of Blue Earth, Burton Nesset of Northfield, Minn. and Allan Okins of Revere, Minn. were ushers.

A buffet supper was served in the church parlors to 200 guests. Mrs. Perry received the guests wearing a navy blue brocade dress with white hat and gloves and a corsage of white roses with holly and berries. Mrs. Chilson was in a wine wool dressmaker suit with black hat and gloves and a corsage of white roses with holly and berries.

After a brief wedding trip, Mr. Malcolm and his bride are at home at 614 W. First st., Northfield, Minn. where the new Mrs. Malcolm is attending St. Olaf college. Favorites For Flavor

For those popular buffet suppers, here is a dish which will win the approval of your guests.

This savory bean casserole is excellent to serve with ham dinners, too.

Mrs. Alfred H. Moldenhauer has been making this dish for some years, and guests always request the recipe.

It is a little different from most baked beans, very tasty and simple to prepare.

The casserole is a flavorful combination of three different canned beans: lima beans, kidney beans and pork and beans.

Bacon is added, plus a zesty mixture of onion rings, chopped garlic, dry mustard, vinegar and brown sugar.

The dish is baked for 45 minutes, and the total effect is tempting and delicious.

The Moldenhauers live at 104 N. Lancaster in Mt. Prospect. They have 2 children: Melody Sue, 3, and George, 16 months.

Bean Casserole

1 can green lima beans
1 can kidney beans
1 large can pork and beans
3 slices cut-up bacon
2 large onions, cut in rings
2 cloves garlic, chopped
¾ teaspoon dry mustard
¼ cup vinegar
¼ to ½ cup brown sugar, to taste.

Combine beans in a two-quart casserole.

Fry cut-up bacon until almost crisp. Remove bacon. Add to beans.

Fry onions and garlic in fat until tender. To this add the dry mustard, vinegar and brown sugar. sugar.

Simmer a few minutes until brown sugar is dissolved. Pour over beans; mix well.

Bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes.

At the January 18 meeting, reports will be made from the group's chairmen for the annual Chicago area Tri Delta benefit, to be held February 10 in the Blackstone hotel ballroom. The event will feature dessert and fashions, plus entertainment by The Singing Fashionettes.

Proceeds from the benefit will go to The Cleft Palate institute of Northwestern university, philanthropic project of all Tri Delta alliances in the Chicago area. Northwest Suburban Tri Deltas working on the benefit committee include Mrs. Bushnell Fullerton, ticket chairman, and Mrs. George R. Bussee, 111 S. Maple st., Mt. Prospect, gift chairman.

Tickets to the benefit may be obtained from any member of the Northwest Suburban alliance or by calling Mrs. Fulletron, TAlcott 3-8282. Reservations for the January 18 meeting should be phoned to Mrs. William De Huszar, program chairman, CL 3-7059.

Prof. John Coryell Will Speak To African Violet Clubs

Professor John F. Coryell, nationally known grower of African Violets, and at present associated with the Golden Greenhouses and Flower farms in Colorado, will be the speaker at a special meeting of the African Violet Societies of Northern Illinois, in the auditorium of the Commonwealth Edison building, 140 S. Dearborn, at 1:30 p.m., January 16.

Professor Coryell also is publisher of "The Saintpaulian," a widely read magazine dealing with the many varieties of the plant and the new methods of propagation. He will talk on his own experiences in growing and hybridizing.

Mrs. Merrill C. Hoefer of Evanston has been in charge of all arrangements. Mrs. G. P. McGraw, Downers Grove, is president of the African Violet district council of northern Illinois, which is sponsoring this meeting.

Rose Society To Hold Dinner Meeting

Chicago Regional Rose society, district 2 will have a dinner meeting at the Community Congregational church of Villa Park January 16 at 6:45 p.m.

Clyde Stocking of San Jose, Cal., will give an illustrated talk on "Commercial Growing of Rose Plants for your Garden." Mr. Stocking is vice president of the American Association of Nurserymen and has been a member of the American Rose society for 28 years.

Guests wishing to attend should make reservations by calling R. G. Holtz, 4811 Wolf rd., Western Springs, CHestnut 6-3663.

Serita Humphner And Leslie R. Inglis Wed

Miss Serita Claire Humphner daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Walter Humphner of River Forest, became the bride of Leslie Robert Inglis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Joseph Inglis of Inverness Countryside, Palatine, in a 4:30 p.m. ceremony December 17 in Christ Episcopal church, River Forest. The candlelight service was performed jointly by the Rev. Richard Hayes and the Rev. Sheldon B. Foote, pastor of St. Philip Episcopal church in Palatine.

White crysanthemums and white gladioli decorated the church for the double ring ceremony during which Mr. Humphner gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore a white satin gown appliqued with imported lace, seed pearls and sequins fashioned with chapel-length train. Her fingertip veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried white carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Beverly Fox of Chicago was maid of honor to the bride and bridesmaids were the Misses Julie Gunnis and Kay Kinne, both of Milwaukee. All the attendants' gowns were of red rouge crystalette fashioned in princess lines with bouffant skirts. Their flowers were white poinsettias.

Five-year-old Jane Manly of Denver was flower girl wearing a white self-patterned organdy dress with crown of white flowers. She carried a basket of red roses.

John Birmingham of Barrington was the bridegroom's best man and ushers were Robert Snyder of Oak Park, John Popp of Evanston and Frank Rutland of Chicago.

Following the service a reception for 150 guests was held at the Lake Shore club in Chicago after which Mr. Inglis and his bride left on a motor trip for their honeymoon. As of December 23, they have been at home in their apartment at 1763 W. Highland, Chicago.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Humphner wore a gold colored peau de soie dress with matching hat and a brown orchid corsage. the bridegroom's mother wore a light blue taffeta dress with matching hat and a pink camellia corsage.

The new Mrs. Inglis was graduated from Lindenwood college in St. Charles, Mo. The bridegroom is a senior at the Institute of Technology at Northwestern university.

Among the out-of-town guests present for the ceremony and reception were Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Manly of Denver, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Manly of Crawfordsville, Colo., Mrs. R. B. Kennedy of West Palm Beach, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Baskin of Cleveland and Mrs. Donald Krause of Greenwich, Conn.

Diane Perry Becomes Mrs. Ronald Malcolm

Christmas trees and white poinsettias decorated St. Mark Lutheran church in Mt. Prospect for the marriage of Miss Diane Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Perry, 205 S. Pine st., Mt. Prospect, and Ronald Malcolm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Chilson of Blue Earth, Minn. The ceremony took place at 7 p.m., December 30 with the Rev. H. J. Rasmussen officiating. Organist was Louis Langpop who accompanied soloist, Donna Nelson of Willmar, Minn., as she sang "Wedding Prayer" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a white satin brocade dress fashioned with full-length skirt, three-quarter sleeves, scooped neckline trimmed with seed pearls and a princess waistline. Her fingertip veil of white illusion was fastened to a headpiece trimmed with pearls. Amazon lilies with stephanotis made up her bridal bouquet.

Janet Perry, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Jeanne Seberg of Chicago, Barbara Schroeder of Mt. Prospect and Mrs. Jean Nesset of Northfield, Minn., were bridesmaids. All the attendants were gowned identically in red faille street-length dresses made with full skirts and buttoned bodices with three-quarter sleeves. They wore matching pill box hats and carried white mums with holly and red berries.

The bridegroom's brother, Robert Malcolm, was best man and Alvin Malcolm, Donald Malcolm and Richard Chilson, all of Blue Earth, Burton Nesset of Northfield, Minn. and Allan Okins of Revere, Minn. were ushers.

A buffet supper was served in the church parlors to 200 guests. Mrs. Perry received the guests wearing a navy blue brocade dress with white hat and gloves and a corsage of white roses with holly and berries. Mrs. Chilson was in a wine wool dressmaker suit with black hat and gloves and a corsage of white roses with holly and berries.

After a brief wedding trip, Mr. Malcolm and his bride are at home at 614 W. First st., Northfield, Minn. where the new Mrs. Malcolm is attending St. Olaf college. A senior in the college's nursing program, the bride was graduated from Arlington Heights township high school in 1952. The bridegroom is a senior in education at the University of Minnesota.

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by Bob Paddock

Dick Brodnan

COLD WEATHER used to mean snow, ice and skiing in these parts, though maybe we are the only ones around that think the snow is never as deep as it used to be. But to Dick Brodnan of Arlington Heights winter means skiing, plenty of it. A senior at Arlington Heights high school, Dick will be jumping at Cary ski slide Sunday, competing in Class C. for 16-17 year olds. Dick competed in 7 meets last year, finishing first twice, third and seventh. He recently completed a week's training at Ishpeming, Michigan, to get in shape for the Norge meet at Cary.

Dick's brother, 13-year-old Dave, copped second in a recent meet at Navariano, Wisconsin, but will not be competing at Cary. Third member of the skiing triumvirate of Arlington Heights is Larry Schroeder, who broke his leg at Ishpeming last year, and is "sitting out" this season.

Sunday's meet at Fox River Grove is bringing the usual number of outstanding jumpers, including 2 Finns. In the old days the Swedes and Norwegians set the style of skiing. Now the Finns have developed a new style of "flattening out, almost touching the forward points of the skis with the nose, when in flight." This enables the skier to stretch for every possible foot of distance, though it's not a style for the faint-hearted jumper. The Finns so dominated the last world championship meet at Falun, Sweden, that skiers everywhere are attempting to copy their style.

UNITED STATES GOLF ASSOCIATION has made some new rules for 1956, designed to speed up play. After 1955 the penalty for hitting the flagstick from within 20 yards of the hole will be abolished unless the pin is attended. Another change makes the shooter the only one to decide whether it shall be attended or not.

At present, in match play, the opponent as well as the player may have the flagstick removed.

To reduce the present excessive amount of lifting the ball near the hole when it lies on the putting green, the new rules provide that only the player who is about to putt may control temporary lifting of the opponent's ball and then only if he thinks it might interfere with his play.

IF THE COMPETITOR nearest the hole believes his ball might assist the competitor he may elect to play first. The present rule gives the player and his competitor equal right to have the ball nearer the hole lifted or played first.

The penalty for violation of the 14-club rule has been reduced from disqualification to loss of each hole in which a violation occurred in match play, and two strokes for each hole in which a violation occurred in medal play.

Except on the putting green, opponent's ball may be temporarily lifted when within two club-lengths—currently one—of player's ball. Only the player may direct this. To halt the delay which might take place when a putt hangs on the lip of the cup, the other player may now knock away the opponent's ball any time and concede the next stroke.

A NEW SYSTEM of picking the United States Olympic basketball squad for 1956 will be in effect according to Doug Mills, Illinois athletic director and secretary of the selection committee. A team of college all-stars and teams from AAU and service circles will meet in a round-robin tournament April 3 and 4 at Kansas City. The winning team will provide at least five and not more than seven for the Olympic squad and the others will come from the other teams. The coach of the winning team will continue as coach of the Olympics.

One problem confronting the committee is to get the top college seniors to refrain from post-season activity which will destroy their eligibility for the Olympics.

A case in point is Bill Russell of San Francisco, probably the No. 1 player in the country right now. After the season ends Russell, and others are certain to be offered a chance at one or more of the glamorous and financially profitable tours such as the ones sponsored by Abe Saperstein of the Globetrotters.

If they accept they will not be eligible for Olympic play and the strength of the United States will be lessened. In case the round-robin selection tournament results in a tie the winner will be decided by the international system which settles such differences on the basis of point spreads.

SANGAMON FIELD TRIAL CLUB has experimented with what some folks think is one way of getting future hunting, the shooting dog field trial. The club wanted to find out if shooters would go for this method of getting additional hunting and if dog owners would be interested in additional gun training. Two trials were held near Champaign with about 25 shooters and dog owners participating. The decision was unanimously in favor of more.

Both cocks and hens were shot as the trials were under permits from the department of conservation and the birds were purchased from commercial breeders. Each shooter paid $6.50 for a heat which gave him a chance to shoot two birds over a good dog.

Illinois federation of sportsmen's clubs is urging sportsmen's groups to experiment with this type of activity to determine whether or not it may provide a partial answer to the ever increasing hunter demand. The federation co-sponsored the two trials at Champaign

If the synthetic pheasant shoot meets with sportsman approval there is no limit, no season, no reason why any sportsman cannot have all the shooting he is willing to pay for.

DEKALB COLLEGE wrestling team has lost the services of Jim Murawska of Leyden, letterman for 2 years, due to a neck injury . . . On the Illini fencing team is Gerald Haselhuhn of Maine, specializing in the epee . . . Moline sports writers, where LaGrange played during the holidays, acclaimed the Lions Sweet 16 caliber, saying "they've got speed, handle the ball well, have good eyes" . . . We'd call this blanket coverage: Michigan State swimming team includes 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners in 1954 50-yard free style high school championships.

Change of policy at Fenton has brought election of Bob Heinrich honorary football captain for the season recently completed, and Lars Henriksen for next year.

Arlington Heights high school's state gymnastics champs will put on an exhibition before the national convention of American association of health, physical education and recreation March 27 at the Conrad Hilton . . . Antioch's Jim McMillen, who earned frosh football numerals at Illinois, is now wrestling heavyweight on the Illinois frosh team termed by its coach "the finest group of wrestlers to ever come to this school" . . . The squad doesn't appear to have outstanding individuals, but has over-all balance.

Young Palatine Improving, But Need Still More

Palatine and Fenton will both play at home Friday night in Northwest conference games as the Pirates hope for that first victory in 14 games against a revived Grayslake team and Fenton takes on Grant in a change in schedule due to the Grant gym not being ready. Friday's games conclude the first round of 7 games in the conference. Other games find Wauconda at Glenbrook and Antioch at Ela-Vernon.

Hopes of Wauconda and Ela-Vernon maintaining their first place status will be given a severe test. Wauconda lost earlier in a holiday tournament to Glenbrook and the game should be a toss up. Glenbrook's upset defeat at Grayslake last week may make them a tougher opponent that would ordinarily be the case. On paper Wauconda rules a slight favorite. Antioch was very sharp against Palatine last week and may be ready to show the class expected of them in pre-season predictions. Ela rates a 10 point favorite on the basis of the records to date.

PALATINE IS getting better each week but still has much improvement needed to cash in on conference games weak as the league is this season. Terry Moore broke into the lineup at Antioch and came through well as a scorer which should help. Gerry Segebrecht and Dick Wisner at guards are sophs who have scored well against non-league opponents but contributed few points in conference games.

Pete Trenchard and Bob Coates have been the most consistent as the senior performers in Moylan's rebuilt squad. Grayslake got a terrific scoring job from Gale Peregrin last week and that is not likely to be a regular thing. Friday is Palatine's best chance of the season to finish to top and many fans will be out to see if it can be done.

Haseman Truckers Win 3rd Paddock Bowling Title

THE CHAMPIONS, who may not have the top average in the House league at Palatine, but who win the right games at the right time, Haseman Truckers, won the Paddock tournament for the third time. First year of the tournament, 1952, promoters state that any sponsor winning the title 3 times could have permanent possession of the large, handsome trophy.

The truckers set their sights on this, and made it in championship style, hitting 941, 884 and 865 for a 2690 net, 2999 gross. Showing smiles in the front row are Marvin Perry and Howard Olson. Back row, Vince Shubat, Irv Hahnfeldt and Warren Perry.

They bowled like champions.

That was the verdict of bowling fans at Beverly Lanes, Arlington Heights, when they watched Haseman Truckers set their sights on 3,000 and permanent possession of the Paddock bowling trophy.

They opened with 941 with Irv Hahnfeldt and Warren Perry in the 180s, Howard Olson, Vince Shubat and Marvin Perry in the 190 bracket. The team slowed down the second game but Hahnfeldt's 215 and Marv's 191 helped to hit 884. Irv kept up the pace with 190 the third game with Shubat striking 199 for 865.

THAT WAS IT. The squad netted 2690, plus 309 handicap, for 2,999. The goal was just 1 pin away, but it stood through the blasts of the final shift of 16 more teams and Haseman Truckers had walked off with another Paddock tournament. Winners' check will be $122.93.

Sander Mason Contractors of St. Peter Lutheran league, bowling on their home alleys, rolled above their 760 average to cop second place with 2971 and $81.95. Contractors opened with 866, followed with 781 and finished with 820. Melvin Remus was high with 529, Vernon Deeke hit 520 and Al Sander 513.

HARRIS DRUG of Palatine took third with 2926, and will receive a check for $55.88. Miller High Life of Wood Dale finished in fourth with 2916. In fifth spot was Turf Billiards of Friday night league at Beverly Lanes. Other winners were Busse Gift Box of Mt. Prospect. Dohe Landscaping of Bensenville and Red's Garage of Wheeling. High game out of the money went to Duerkop Pharmacy of Bensenville.

That was the story of the fifth annual Paddock tournament, this time at the new Beverly Lanes, Arlington Heights. Fifty-one teams bowled for the eight prize winning honors with hundreds of fans watching, particularly when the 5:30 and 7:45 shifts overlapped.

THE TRUCKERS won the first Paddock tournament in 1952. They won again in 1955. This time it was their third victory and the large traveling trophy will make just 1 more trip to the office of owner Ed Haseman, to remain for all time.

The tournament finished a bit late, but the bowlers didn't appear to mind. Assisting Bob Paddock directing operation were Al Walter, Irv Kehe and George Kusch. Adding beauty to the affair were scorekeepers Elsie Weidner, Hilda Paveza, Laura Skoog, Helen Duenn, Mickey Curratti, Betty Schoepke, Marg Flanders, Mary Duenn, June Nebel and Doris Remus.

Flu Hits 3 Regulars, May Not See Action

It's the doctors, not the coaches, who may determine the winners in Friday night's basketball games in the eWst Suburban conference.

Mr. Flu Bug has hit Arlington Heights high school squads, and hit them hard. The flu isn't selective, either, and is presumed to have struck other schools as well.

At Heights 3 basketball starters were out of school Monday and Tuesday, with Coach Howard Lester uncertain when they'd be back. Seven of Coach Dick Mudge's 12 starting varsity wrestlers were out Monday, 5 Tuesday. Two of Coach Gay Hughes gymnasts were also out Tuesday.

THE CAGERS home with the flu were John Sujack, Ron Ashley and Bill Palmer. Coach Lester is hoping they'll be well in time to regain strength for Friday night's game at York.

That York contest is certain to be a toughie. The Dukes have been improving steadily, largely through the efforts of Louis Lario and Don Zersen. Lario is a good outside shot, with Zersen's rebounding particularly fine.

The Dukes haven't fared too well in early season games, but have improved. They knocked off Maine Friday night, lost to Downers Saturday.

AT ARLINGTON it's hard to tell just who will start against York. Dennis Striegel looked good in both Glenbard and Riverside games, and will definitely be there when the whistle blows. Jim Summers may be listed, too. Bill Randag will be on hand.

Tom Jacobsen, who has been scoring well in JV games, has been seeing some action, could be in the starting lineup if he continues to improve his defense.

An Arlington victory could put the Cardinals in the first division, coupled with a Riverside loss to Glenbard. Feature game of the weekend is the LaGrange at Hinsdale affair where the Red Devils will attempt to knock the Lions from off their perch into a tie for the lead.

THE ARLINGTON frosh-sophs appeared a bit too confident over the weekend as they lost to Glenbard but whipped Riverside. The locals started fast in December, have had some rough going as other squads improved.

Riverside, losers in 6 games including a 1-pointer to league leading LaGrange, has initiated a slow, deliberate style of play and is confusing the enemy. Young Cardinals were troubled by it, but managed to win by 4 points.

LaGrange currently holds a 2-game margin over Heights, tied with Glenbard for second.

Basketball For Boys' Resumed In Mt. Prospect

by BETTY KIRCHHOFF

Basketball for Boys program was under way again in Central school gym, Mt. Prospect Saturday morning. Central school lightweights and all other 7th graders had the floor between 8:30 and 9:30. In one game the Blues whipped the Whites 30-24 with Bob Hendon and Chuck Staral capturing scoring honors. The other contest saw the Maroons landing on the top of a 28-22 score against the Whites. Bob Hammarley was high in the scoring department.

The 6th graders, for some unknown reason, ended up with low scoring games. The Maroons edged the Whites 7-5 and the Whites beat the Blues 13-1. Mike Francek was the number 1 scorer for the victors.

CENTRAL SCHOOL heavyweights and the 8th graders of all other schools had themselves quite a basket picnic. In the first contest the Whites overthrew the Blues 44-33 with both teams collecting a number of fouls. Keith Grams tallied the most baskets for the Whites and George Bork was number 1 man for the Blues.

In the other game, the Maroons defeated the Whites 35-26. Al Kruse and Gene Dahlquist were high scorers. Your reporter wishes to thank Mr. Mercer from Central school and Mr. Fasick from Lincoln school for serving as referees.

Any boy in Mt. Prospect between 6th and 8th grade, who hasn't ccome to join in the fun as yet, is invited to do so this Saturday. The schedule:

8:30 to 9:30 — Central school lightweights and 7th graders of all other schools.
9:30 to 10:30 — All 6th graders.
10:30 to 11:30 — Central school heavy weights and 8th graders of all other schools.

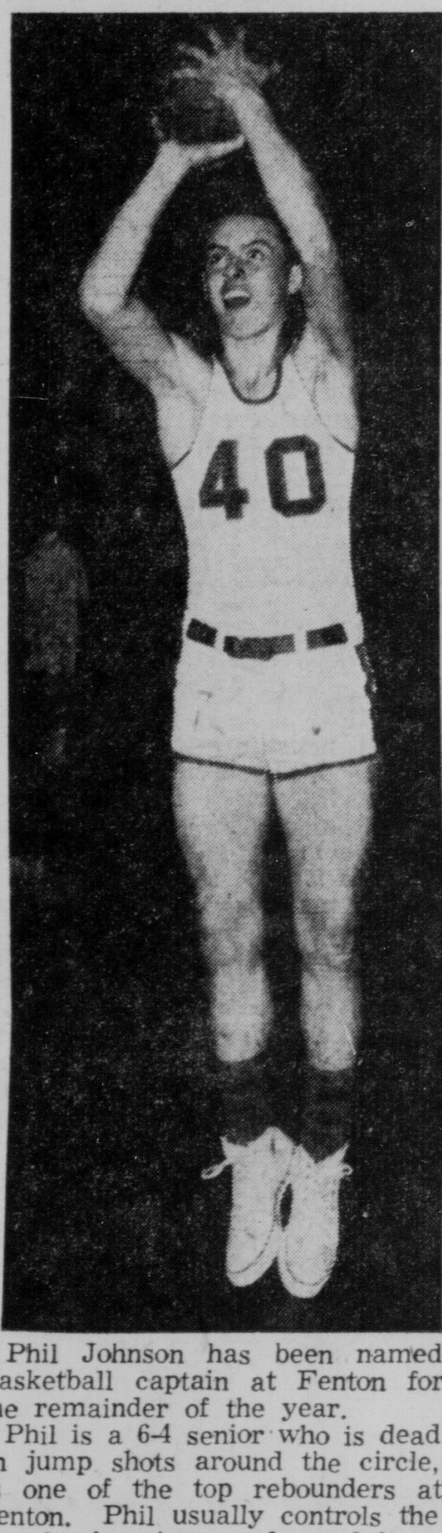
Good Rebounder



Phil Johnson has been named basketball captain at Fenton for the remainder of the year.

Phil is a 6-4 senior who is dead on jump shots around the circle, is one of the top rebounders at Fenton. Phil usually controls the boards, has improved on defense this year.

Phil currently has scored 100 points in 6 league games, just 3 behind teammate Lars Henriksen.

Heights Frosh Teams Win 2 From Niles

Arlington's freshman "A" and "B" teams both defeated Niles Monday, the "A" team winning, 47-37, and the "B" squad, 46-35. Both contests were played at Heights.

Coach Ken Schaller's first squad had an easy time of it after a 14-3 opening quarter stretched to 26-9 at the half. Tally was 36-17 going into the final period. Leading scorers for Arlington were Bob Barbour with 13 and Pat Cortein with 11. Henrici was high for the losers with 18.

Scoring for Coach Bob Baker's squad was divided among 8 boys. Dave Varnado scored 16, Don Ahmer 8, Roy Garr 7 and Jon Benrud 6. The team scored 22 of 26 free throws, an unusual figure which included 100 percenters Benrud and Varando with 6 each, Ahmer with 4, and Pat Buick with 4 of 5.

Heights gained an 11 point margin the opening period, 17-6, then hung on for the ultimate victory.

Women To Bowl Sunday At Bensenville

The scene changeth, the women replace the men.

This Sunday, Jan. 15, Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap bowling tournament for women will be held at Trausch-Linden Recreation, Bensenville, with 26 teams vying for honors.

There'll be 5 more individual trophies, plus the large traveling trophy won by Riviera of Wheeling last year. There'll also be prize money, with first place expected to yield about $60.

ONCE AGAIN being on time is important. First squad of lady keglers will tee off at 1 p.m., sharp. Other squads will follow at 3:30, 6:00 and 8:30.

Women's teams having substitutes need not report them until "signing in" time at the alleys. Tourney promoters urge the ladies to all be on time for late bowlers will receive zero for missing frames. Bowlers will not be permitted to catch up on any frames.

Starting times and alleys are listed elsewhere on this page. Bowlers will find Trausch-Linden easily by remembering the alleys are just a half block west of York road, a long block south of the Milwaukee road tracks, in the heart of Bensenville.

Dick competed in 7 meets last year, finishing first twice, third and seventh. He recently completed a week's training at Ishpeming, Michigan, to get in shape for the Norge meet at Cary.

Dick Brodnan

Dick's brother, 13-year-old Dave, copped second in a recent meet at Navariano, Wisconsin, but will not be competing at Cary. Third member of the skiing triumvirate of Arlington Heights is Larry Schroeder, who broke his leg at Ishpeming last year, and is "sitting out" this season.

Sunday's meet at Fox River Grove is bringing the usual number of outstanding jumpers, including 2 Finns. In the old days the Swedes and Norwegians set the style of skiing. Now the Finns have developed a new style of "flattening out, almost touching the forward points of the skis with the nose, when in flight." This enables the skier to stretch for every possible foot of distance, though it's not a style for the faint-hearted jumper. The Finns so dominated the last world championship meet at Falun, Sweden, that skiers everywhere are attempting to copy their style.

UNITED STATES GOLF ASSOCIATION has made some new rules for 1956, designed to speed up play. After 1955 the penalty for hitting the flagstick from within 20 yards of the hole will be abolished unless the pin is attended. Another change makes the shooter the only one to decide whether it shall be attended or not.

At present, in match play, the opponent as well as the player may have the flagstick removed.

To reduce the present excessive amount of lifting the ball near the hole when it lies on the putting green, the new rules provide that only the player who is about to putt may control temporary lifting of the opponent's ball and then only if he thinks it might interfere with his play.

IF THE COMPETITOR nearest the hole believes his ball might assist the competitor he may elect to play first. The present rule gives the player and his competitor equal right to have the ball nearer the hole lifted or played first.

The penalty for violation of the 14-club rule has been reduced from disqualification to loss of each hole in which a violation occurred in match play, and two strokes for each hole in which a violation occurred in medal play.

Except on the putting green, opponent's ball may be temporarily lifted when within two club-lengths—currently one—of player's ball. Only the player may direct this. To halt the delay which might take place when a putt hangs on the lip of the cup, the other player may now knock away the opponent's ball any time and concede the next stroke.

A NEW SYSTEM of picking the United States Olympic basketball squad for 1956 will be in effect according to Doug Mills, Illinois athletic director and secretary of the selection committee. A team of college all-stars and teams from AAU and service circles will meet in a round-robin tournament April 3 and 4 at Kansas City. The winning team will provide at least five and not more than seven for the Olympic squad and the others will come from the other teams. The coach of the winning team will continue as coach of the Olympics.

One problem confronting the committee is to get the top college seniors to refrain from post-season activity which will destroy their eligibility for the Olympics.

A case in point is Bill Russell of San Francisco, probably the No. 1 player in the country right now. After the season ends Russell, and others are certain to be offered a chance at one or more of the glamorous and financially profitable tours such as the ones sponsored by Abe Saperstein of the Globetrotters.

If they accept they will not be eligible for Olympic play and the strength of the United States will be lessened. In case the round-robin selection tournament results in a tie the winner will be decided by the international system which settles such differences on the basis of point spreads.

SANGAMON FIELD TRIAL CLUB has experimented with what some folks think is one way of getting future hunting, the shooting dog field trial. The club wanted to find out if shooters would go for this method of getting additional hunting and if dog owners would be interested in additional gun training. Two trials were held near Champaign with about 25 shooters and dog owners participating. The decision was unanimously in favor of more.

Both cocks and hens were shot as the trials were under permits from the department of conservation and the birds were purchased from commercial breeders. Each shooter paid $6.50 for a heat which gave him a chance to shoot two birds over a good dog.

Illinois federation of sportsmen's clubs is urging sportsmen's groups to experiment with this type of activity to determine whether or not it may provide a partial answer to the ever increasing hunter demand. The federation co-sponsored the two trials at Champaign

If the synthetic pheasant shoot meets with sportsman approval there is no limit, no season, no reason why any sportsman cannot have all the shooting he is willing to pay for.

DEKALB COLLEGE wrestling team has lost the services of Jim Murawska of Leyden, letterman for 2 years, due to a neck injury . . . On the Illini fencing team is Gerald Haselhuhn of Maine, specializing in the epee . . . Moline sports writers, where LaGrange played during the holidays, acclaimed the Lions Sweet 16 caliber, saying "they've got speed, handle the ball well, have good eyes" . . . We'd call this blanket coverage: Michigan State swimming team includes 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners in 1954 50-yard free style high school championships.

Change of policy at Fenton has brought election of Bob Heinrich honorary football captain for the season recently completed, and Lars Henriksen for next year.

Arlington Heights high school's state gymnastics champs will put on an exhibition before the national convention of American association of health, physical education and recreation March 27 at the Conrad Hilton . . . Antioch's Jim McMillen, who earned frosh football numerals at Illinois, is now wrestling heavyweight on the Illinois frosh team termed by its coach "the finest group of wrestlers to ever come to this school" . . . The squad doesn't appear to have outstanding individuals, but has over-all balance.

Young Palatine Improving, But Need Still More

Palatine and Fenton will both play at home Friday night in Northwest conference games as the Pirates hope for that first victory in 14 games against a revived Grayslake team and Fenton takes on Grant in a change in schedule due to the Grant gym not being ready. Friday's games conclude the first round of 7 games in the conference. Other games find Wauconda at Glenbrook and Antioch at Ela-Vernon.

Hopes of Wauconda and Ela-Vernon maintaining their first place status will be given a severe test. Wauconda lost earlier in a holiday tournament to Glenbrook and the game should be a toss up. Glenbrook's upset defeat at Grayslake last week may make them a tougher opponent that would ordinarily be the case. On paper Wauconda rules a slight favorite. Antioch was very sharp against Palatine last week and may be ready to show the class expected of them in pre-season predictions. Ela rates a 10 point favorite on the basis of the records to date.

PALATINE IS getting better each week but still has much improvement needed to cash in on conference games weak as the league is this season. Terry Moore broke into the lineup at Antioch and came through well as a scorer which should help. Gerry Segebrecht and Dick Wisner at guards are sophs who have scored well against non-league opponents but contributed few points in conference games.

Pete Trenchard and Bob Coates have been the most consistent as the senior performers in Moylan's rebuilt squad. Grayslake got a terrific scoring job from Gale Peregrin last week and that is not likely to be a regular thing. Friday is Palatine's best chance of the season to finish to top and many fans will be out to see if it can be done.

Haseman Truckers Win 3rd Paddock Bowling Title

THE CHAMPIONS, who may not have the top average in the House league at Palatine, but who win the right games at the right time, Haseman Truckers, won the Paddock tournament for the third time. First year of the tournament, 1952, promoters state that any sponsor winning the title 3 times could have permanent possession of the large, handsome trophy.

The truckers set their sights on this, and made it in championship style, hitting 941, 884 and 865 for a 2690 net, 2999 gross. Showing smiles in the front row are Marvin Perry and Howard Olson. Back row, Vince Shubat, Irv Hahnfeldt and Warren Perry.

Prize Winners In Men's Tourney

Prize winners in Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap men's tournament, subject to verification of averages. Also included is prize money for the eight places, plus high game out of the money:

1—Haseman Trucking, House league, Palatine	2999	$122.93
2—Sander Mason Cont., St. Peter, Arlington	2971	81.95
3—Harris Drug, Thursday Handicap, Palatine	2926	55.88
4—Miller High Life, Wood Dale Scratch	2916	37.25
5—Turf Billiards, Friday Men, Arlington	2893	29.80
6—Busse Gift Box, St. Paul Men, Mt. Prospect	2877	22.35
7—Dohe Landscaping, Bensenville Suburban	2857	14.90
8—Red's Garage, Thursday Men, Wheeling	2851	7.45
High game out of money
Duerkop Drugs, Bensenville Merchants	889	10.00

They bowled like champions.

That was the verdict of bowling fans at Beverly Lanes, Arlington Heights, when they watched Haseman Truckers set their sights on 3,000 and permanent possession of the Paddock bowling trophy.

They opened with 941 with Irv Hahnfeldt and Warren Perry in the 180s, Howard Olson, Vince Shubat and Marvin Perry in the 190 bracket. The team slowed down the second game but Hahnfeldt's 215 and Marv's 191 helped to hit 884. Irv kept up the pace with 190 the third game with Shubat striking 199 for 865.

THAT WAS IT. The squad netted 2690, plus 309 handicap, for 2,999. The goal was just 1 pin away, but it stood through the blasts of the final shift of 16 more teams and Haseman Truckers had walked off with another Paddock tournament. Winners' check will be $122.93.

Sander Mason Contractors of St. Peter Lutheran league, bowling on their home alleys, rolled above their 760 average to cop second place with 2971 and $81.95. Contractors opened with 866, followed with 781 and finished with 820. Melvin Remus was high with 529, Vernon Deeke hit 520 and Al Sander 513.

HARRIS DRUG of Palatine took third with 2926, and will receive a check for $55.88. Miller High Life of Wood Dale finished in fourth with 2916. In fifth spot was Turf Billiards of Friday night league at Beverly Lanes. Other winners were Busse Gift Box of Mt. Prospect, Dohe Landscaping of Bensenville and Red's Garage of Wheeling. High game out of the money went to Duerkop Pharmacy of Bensenville.

That was the story of the fifth annual Paddock tournament, this time at the new Beverly Lanes, Arlington Heights. Fifty-one teams bowled for the eight prize winning honors with hundreds of fans watching, particularly when the 5:30 and 7:45 shifts overlapped.

THE TRUCKERS won the first Paddock tournament in 1952. They won again in 1955. This time it was their third victory and the large traveling trophy will make just 1 more trip to the office of owner Ed Haseman, to remain for all time.

The tournament finished a bit late, but the bowlers didn't appear to mind. Assisting Bob Paddock directing operation were Al Walter, Irv Kehe and George Kusch. Adding beauty to the affair were scorekeepers Elsie Weidner, Hilda Paveza, Laura Skoog, Helen Duenn, Mickey Curratti, Betty Schoepke, Marg Flanders, Mary Duenn, June Nebel and Doris Remus.

Flu Hits 3 Regulars, May Not See Action

It's the doctors, not the coaches, who may determine the winners in Friday night's basketball games in the eWst Suburban conference.

Mr. Flu Bug has hit Arlington Heights high school squads, and hit them hard. The flu isn't selective, either, and is presumed to have struck other schools as well.

At Heights 3 basketball starters were out of school Monday and Tuesday, with Coach Howard Lester uncertain when they'd be back. Seven of Coach Dick Mudge's 12 starting varsity wrestlers were out Monday, 5 Tuesday. Two of Coach Gay Hughes gymnasts were also out Tuesday.

THE CAGERS home with the flu were John Sujack, Ron Ashley and Bill Palmer. Coach Lester is hoping they'll be well in time to regain strength for Friday night's game at York.

That York contest is certain to be a toughie. The Dukes have been improving steadily, largely through the efforts of Louis Lario and Don Zersen. Lario is a good outside shot, with Zersen's rebounding particularly fine.

The Dukes haven't fared too well in early season games, but have improved. They knocked off Maine Friday night, lost to Downers Saturday.

AT ARLINGTON it's hard to tell just who will start against York. Dennis Striegel looked good in both Glenbard and Riverside games, and will definitely be there when the whistle blows. Jim Summers may be listed, too. Bill Randag will be on hand.

Tom Jacobsen, who has been scoring well in JV games, has been seeing some action, could be in the starting lineup if he continues to improve his defense.

An Arlington victory could put the Cardinals in the first division, coupled with a Riverside loss to Glenbard. Feature game of the weekend is the LaGrange at Hinsdale affair where the Red Devils will attempt to knock the Lions from off their perch into a tie for the lead.

THE ARLINGTON frosh-sophs appeared a bit too confident over the weekend as they lost to Glenbard but whipped Riverside. The locals started fast in December, have had some rough going as other squads improved.

Riverside, losers in 6 games including a 1-pointer to league leading LaGrange, has initiated a slow, deliberate style of play and is confusing the enemy. Young Cardinals were troubled by it, but managed to win by 4 points.

LaGrange currently holds a 2-game margin over Heights, tied with Glenbard for second.

Basketball For Boys' Resumed In Mt. Prospect

by BETTY KIRCHHOFF

Basketball for Boys program was under way again in Central school gym, Mt. Prospect Saturday morning. Central school lightweights and all other 7th graders had the floor between 8:30 and 9:30. In one game the Blues whipped the Whites 30-24 with Bob Hendon and Chuck Staral capturing scoring honors. The other contest saw the Maroons landing on the top of a 28-22 score against the Whites. Bob Hammarley was high in the scoring department.

The 6th graders, for some unknown reason, ended up with low scoring games. The Maroons edged the Whites 7-5 and the Whites beat the Blues 13-1. Mike Francek was the number 1 scorer for the victors.

CENTRAL SCHOOL heavyweights and the 8th graders of all other schools had themselves quite a basket picnic. In the first contest the Whites overthrew the Blues 44-33 with both teams collecting a number of fouls. Keith Grams tallied the most baskets for the Whites and George Bork was number 1 man for the Blues.

In the other game, the Maroons defeated the Whites 35-26. Al Kruse and Gene Dahlquist were high scorers. Your reporter wishes to thank Mr. Mercer from Central school and Mr. Fasick from Lincoln school for serving as referees.

Any boy in Mt. Prospect between 6th and 8th grade, who hasn't ccome to join in the fun as yet, is invited to do so this Saturday. The schedule:

8:30 to 9:30 — Central school lightweights and 7th graders of all other schools.

9:30 to 10:30 — All 6th graders.

10:30 to 11:30 — Central school heavy weights and 8th graders of all other schools.

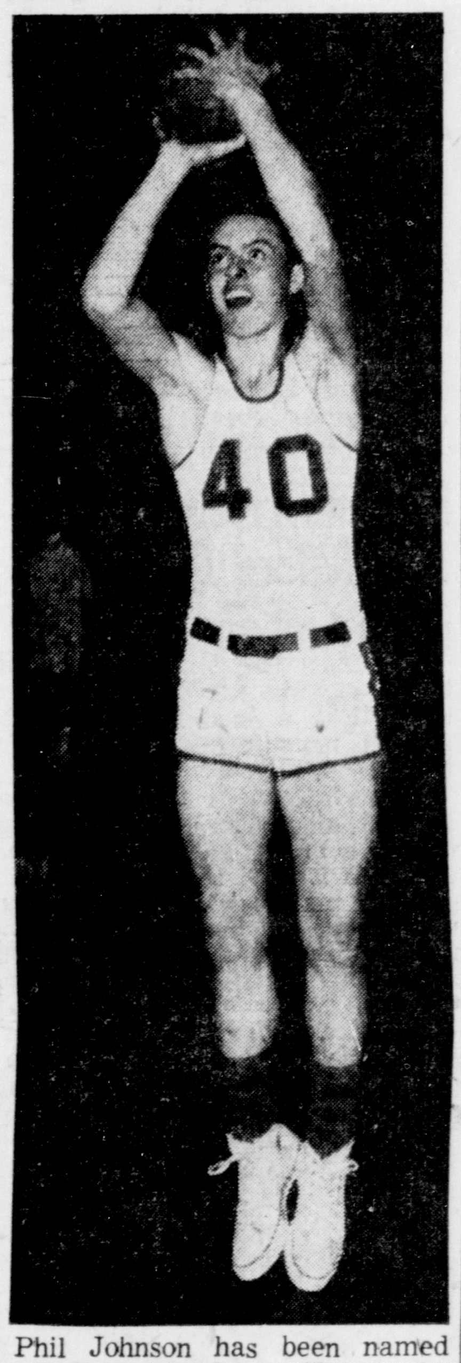
Good Rebounder



Phil Johnson has been named basketball captain at Fenton for the remainder of the year.

Phil is a 6-4 senior who is dead on jump shots around the circle, is one of the top rebounders at Fenton. Phil usually controls the boards, has improved on defense this year.

Phil currently has scored 100 points in 6 league games, just 3 behind teammate Lars Henriksen.

Heights Frosh Teams Win 2 From Niles

Arlington's freshman "A" and "B" teams both defeated Niles Monday, the "A" team winning, 47-37, and the "B" squad, 46-35. Both contests were played at Heights.

Coach Ken Schaller's first squad had an easy time of it after a 14-3 opening quarter stretched to 26-9 at the half. Tally was 36-17 going into the final period. Leading scorers for Arlington were Bob Barbour with 13 and Pat Cortein with 11. Henrici was high for the losers with 18.

Scoring for Coach Bob Baker's squad was divided among 8 boys. Dave Varnado scored 16, Don Ahmer 8, Roy Garr 7 and Jon Benrud 6. The team scored 22 of 26 free throws, an unusual figure which included 100 percenters Benrud and Varando with 6 each, Ahmer with 4, and Pat Buick with 4 of 5.

Heights gained an 11 point margin the opening period, 17-6, then hung on for the ultimate victory.

Women To Bowl Sunday At Bensenville

The scene changeth, the women replace the men.

This Sunday, Jan. 15, Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap bowling tournament for women will be held at Trausch-Linden Recreation, Bensenville, with 26 teams vying for honors.

There'll be 5 more individual trophies, plus the large traveling trophy won by Riviera of Wheeling last year. There'll also be prize money, with first place expected to yield about $60.

ONCE AGAIN being on time is important. First squad of lady keglers will tee off at 1 p.m., sharp. Other squads will follow at 3:30, 6:00 and 8:30.

Women's teams having substitutes need not report them until "signing in" time at the alleys. Tourney promoters urge the ladies to all be on time for late bowlers will receive zero for missing frames. Bowlers will not be permitted to catch up on any frames.

Starting times and alleys are listed elsewhere on this page. Bowlers will find Trausch-Linden easily by remembering the alleys are just a half block west of York road, a long block south of the Milwaukee road tracks, in the heart of Bensenville.

Palatine Wrestlers Shut Out Waukegan

Palatine wrestlers shut out Waukegan 48-0 Tuesday night while the frosh-sophs were beating the Waukegan underclassmen 37-11. Billed and scheduled as varsity and frosh-soph matches Waukegan again this year left their varsity regulars at home and brought second string grapplers who were no match for the Pirates.

Dan Kusek (95), Jack Pollien (103), Allen Danforth (138), and Leonard Rohde (heavy) pinned their opponents; Jim McCreery (127) and Dennis Lundgren (145) won on forfeits; and Andrew Anderson (112), Eric Bessemer (120) Karl Schwenk (133), John Dilks (154), Dick Lundgren (165), and Frank Kiraly (175) won decisions in a clean sweep of all the points.

In the frosh-soph matches Dick Brodkorb (95), Mearl Hamilton (103), Dick Schollz (120), John Gerling (133), and Bill Rogers (heavy) pinned their opponents while Eligio Patlan (127), William Sailer (138), Tony Mastroianni (165) and Don Funston (175) won decisions. Jerry Meyer (112) was pinned and Peter Mulvey (145) and Don Teegan (154) lost decisions.

Palatine Freshmen Fold Before Glenbrook

by JOE GODDARD

Palatine's freshman basketball team, playing at Glenbrook last week, lost a lead of five points and fell under a last quarter Spartan attack, 50 to 42.

The Pirates led throughout the first three quarters but weakened and Glenbrook gained the lead and held it until the end.

Three pirates hit the double figures as Pete John and Bill Baumrucker totaled 11 points apiece and Dave Hodgson hit for 10. Two Palatine players Earl Stutzman and John Hicks, fouled out towards the end of the game. (Sp

MAC SAYS

by G. A. McElroy

OUR ATTENTION was called last weekend by a Palatine sports fan to the fact so few parents of Palatine high athletes come to games to watch their sons perform. Out of 24 boys who represented Palatine on the basketball squads at Antioch Friday night there were 4 parents present to watch them play. The percentage was a little better but not 25% in the case of those watching the wrestling matches which Arlington Heights held at home.

An encouraging note may be found, however, in the much larger percentage of parents of freshmen boys who have shown interest in their sports activities.

Family interest in schol activities of children is one of the important factors in student success whether it be athletics, music, dramatics or anything else. This is one of the basic ideas in the program of the Palatine high parents club, recently organized, and headed by "Tony" Schubert. The new parents club president is swimming coach at Niles township high school in Skokie, but he is interested in all school activities and the program of the club is to promote such interest on the part of parents, a most worthy objective.

PROBABLY NO TEAM was more thoroughly scouted than was Palatine's wrestlers by Dick Mudge, coach of the Arlington Cardinals. We think this good scouting job was the main factor in Arlington winning a close match which hinged on the outcome of the final bout.

Mudge, who lives only five blocks from Palatine high school, had a chance to watch most of the Palatine wrestlers compete 3 times during the holiday tournament.

PALATINE'S BEST CHANCE of the season to get that first cage victory was supposed to be this Friday night when Grayslake comes to town. The fact that Grayslake won their first conference game by upsetting Glenbrook out of the league lead last Friday, 72-70, makes Friday night's assignment appear quite a bit tougher than anticipated.

The Pirates have lost 13 straight but oddly their closest game was against the strongest team when they lost by only 42-36 to Crystal Lake Saturday night, a team with a 13-1 record.

IN REVIEWING ACCOMPLISHMENTS in sports in the Northwest conference for the year 1955 we mentioned a conference scoring record for frosh-sophs of 70 points by the Bensenville, now Fenton Bisons. The Bathrick brothers of Ela-Vernon, however, remind us indirectly that Ela scored 83 against Grayslake frosh-sophs 2 years ago when Ela tied for the championship. If anyone knows of a higher frosh-soph cage score we will stand corrected a second time.

Hero of the week in Northwest basketball is Gale Peregrin of Grayslake who made 11 field goals and 9 free throws for 31 points, the top total for one game in the league this season. This unusual effort helped Grayslake get out of the cellar and dump Glenbrook from the league lead.

Hats off also to Al Bathrick of Ela who tallied 26 as the Bears whipped Fenton in a crucial first place game. Also orchids for Gene Jaskot who led Wauconda with 21 points to a victory over Grant which kept the Bulldogs in first place. Jaskot was ailing during the holiday tournament and Wauconda lost third place to Glenbrook.

This week we think Wauconda, with Jaskot back in form, will take the Spartans. At this point Wauconda looks like the best bet to win the championship with Fenton second choice.

Harlem Globetrotters At Heights Feb. 16

Men's club of Arlington Heights Methodist church will once again present the original Harlem Globetrotters in action in the local high school gym. The Trotters, who have been entertaining basketball fans 29 years, will oppose the Chicago Majors.

The Globetrotters entered the current season with a 28-year record of 5,041 victories against 283 defeats.

Their 1954-55 season was one of their finest. The celebrated magicians of the hardwood court rolled to 163 consecutive triumphs during their regular winter season, followed this with a sixth successive World Series victory over the season's College All-Americans, this time by a 14-10 game margin, in a whirlwind transcontinental trek made in 21 days by chartered plane, scored 92 more wins in a 20-city sixth annual tour of Europe, North Africa and the Near East, and polished up the campaign on Labor day by taking 12 straight from the Honolulu Surfriders of Hawaii," their overseas traveling companions, on an outdoor homecoming series in America upon their return.

The Men of Saperstein have set their sights for this season on surpassing the 1954-55 record of 281 victories against 10 defeats, and are off to a good start in that direction.

Admission is $1.50 for adults and $1 for students. Watch for an announcement as to where the limited supply of tickets can be purchased in advance.

Antioch Sophs Bump Palatine

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Antioch's fresh-soph team, led by Bob Horton's 21 points, delivered Palatine their 11th defeat of the season by the score of, 69-44, at Antioch last Friday night.

The first quarter was a seesaw battle until the Sequiots took a two point lead as the first quarter ended 12-10. Antioch began to increase their lead during the second quarter as Palatine's defense loosened up. Palatine still managed to score 13 points, but Antioch still held the lead of, 33-23, as the half ended.

IN THE THIRD quarter and fourth Palatine pressed Antioch considerably, but Antioch broke the press and took a third quarter lead of 44-31. The fourth quarter was a complete loss to Palatine because Antioch scored 25 points to whip Palatine, 69-44.

High scorers for Antioch were Horton and Behrens with 21 and 15 points, respectively. Palatine's scoring was highlighted by Bruce King's 20 points. Palatine was very much outclassed due to Antioch's height and offense.

Antioch Freshmen Whip Palatine, 61-26

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Antioch's freshmen basketball team, led by Jim Gallagher's 24 points, whipped Palatine, 61-26, Saturday morning at Palatine.

Antioch, who had considerably more height than Palatine, took an early lead and continued increasing it until they had a 35 point lead as the game ended. In the first quarter Palatine seemed to have Antioch under control. However in the second quarter Antioch went all out and collected 16 points over Palatine's 7 points to take a half time lead of 28-15.

In the third and fourth quarters Palatine seemed to let down and Antioch scored 18 points in the third quarter 15 points in the fourth quarter to win the game 61-26.

Jim Gallagher's 24 points gave him scoring honors for Antioch, while Dave Hodgson and Johnny Hicks collected 7 points each to lead Palatine's individual scoring.

Crystal Lake Stalls For 6½ Minutes To Hold Off Palatine

by JO EGODDARD

Palatine's Pirates, winless in 11 previous games and unusually inexperienced, played their finest game of the season last Saturday when they forced Crystal Lake's Tigers to go into a 6½ minute stall in order to win the game, 42 to 36. Crystal Lake, with 13-1 record and one of the finest teams in the area, found themselves in a fix when a Palatine spurt had whittled their lead to 6 points.

The game had progressed as expected as a 32 to 20 lead at half time by the Tigers had seemed comfortable enough. However, Palatine's drive, led by Pete Trenchard, had narrowed the difference to 8 points and when Gerry Segebrecht hit for a basket to start the final quarter, Crystal Lake called time-out to talk things over.

WHEN THEY emerged from their huddle, they immediately went into a stall in which both guards and forwards took part by just passing the ball back and forth. Five minutes later, Rich Wisner, like the rest of his teammates, surprised and nervous, committed a foul. When the shot was missed, Crystal Lake regained the ball and wasted the final minute and a half to end the game and preserve their record.

Crystal Lake was led by veterans at all positions. Towering center Burhows, who led all players with 16 points, 12 in the first half, and guard Jacobs with 13 points were the high point men.

Trenchard and Bob Coates each had 10 points to lead the Pirates. Segebrecht, Wisner and Terry Moore rounded out the Pirate five for the remainder of the game.

Fenton Sophs Win 7th In Row

by MAX ZOLLNER

Fenton's red hot frosh-soph squad notched their seventh victory in a row by defeating the Ela-Vernon Bears, 49-38, Friday night on the Bisons' court.

Terry Biefeld, Fenton guard, led all scoring with 27 points sinking 10 baskets and 7 free throws. Other top scorers were Fenton's Bernie Sell and the Bears' Gallaugher with 14 and 13 points respectively.

FIRST HALF play was dominated by Fenton Bisons as they led at the intermission, 24-13. In the first period Fenton's offense and defense clicked as made 14 points while holding Ela to only 4 tallies. Terry Biefeld scored 8 for the Bison team.

The second quarter Fenton's sophs notched 10 points to Ela's and took an 11 point halftime advantage.

TERRY BIEFELD sparked the Bisons in the third stanza hitting 5 buckets and 3 out of 4 free throws. Ela's shooting was off as they scored only 3 markers. The score stood at the end of the period 42-16, Fenton.

Ela fought back hard in the final period outscoring Fenton's reserves 22-7. Steinken led the Bear aggragation with 10 points. This flurry of baskets wasn't enough as Fenton won 49-38.

Fenton Passing Drops Bisons From 1st With Loss To Ela

by BILL RIPPERGER

Fenton dropped from the first place tie as a result of their 70-67 loss Friday night to the Ela-Vernon Bears. The Bears led throughout the game and were never in any really serious trouble. Poor passing, rather than Ela's full court press defense, was the downfall of the Bisons. They lost many scoring opportunities when bad passes were grabbed by the Bears.

Ela's Al Bathrick, who is currently averaging over 20 points per game, was the top scorer in the game. He tallied 10 baskets and 6 free throws for 26 points. Lynn Becker, a Bear forward, also scored 14. As in previous games, Fenton's scoring was well balanced with four men getting over ten points. At the head of the line for the Bisons was Lars Henriksen, who dumped in 8 baskets and 6 free throws, a total of 22 points. Following him were Bob Heinrich with 17, Tony Tecza with 15, and Phil Johnson with 11 points.

ELA SURGED to a big lead in the opening minutes of the game but the Bisons had closed the gap and trailed 21-19 at the end of the first quarter. Tony Tecza and Lars Henriksen each collected 6 points for Fenton while Becker of Ela also tallied six.

Al Bathrick found the range in the second period and poured in 10 points while Ela expanded their lead to 7 points, 37-30. Bob Heinrich's four points was high for the Bisons.

Following the halftime intermission, the Bears added another point to their advantage and they were ahead 55-47. Bathrick again was Ela's high scorer for the period with 8 points. Bob Heinrich hit two baskets and two free throws for Fenton.

In the closing stanza Henriksen led Fenton as they outscored the Bears 20-15, but this was not enough. Lynn Becker dropped in three baskets to keep Ela ahead until the final horn sounded, while they were leading 70-67.

Grayslake Vacates Cellar By Upsetting Glenbrook

Grayslake vacated the conference cellar Friday night when least expected by outpointing Glenbrook's league leaders 72-70 in a game which was nip and tuck all the way. The Rams were led by the scoring of forward Gale Peregrin who dropped in 31 points on 11 field goals and 9 free throws.

The score was tied with 55 seconds to put but Tom Anderson sank two free throws and a field goal and Peregrin dropped two free throws while Glenbrook was sinking a pair of field goals. Grayslake led 22-21 the first period and the next two quarters found both teams scoring the same number of points. The Rams got another point advantage in the last period. Boyd had 22 and Spaulding 19 to lead the Spartans who dropped to a second place tie with a 4-2 record.

WAUCONDA had an easy time beating Grant Friday 74-41 and retaining a tie with Ela-Vernon for the league lead with a 5-1 record. The Bulldogs and Grant were tied at 26 all at the half but Haley coached Wauconda team outpointed their opponents 26-6 in the third quarter to turn the game into a rout.

Gene Jaskot, injured during the recent holiday tournament, was back in form getting 21 points. Denny Hodge, junior guard, was the only player who could find the range for Grant getting eight of their 15 field goals and a total of 19 points.

Crystal Lake Beats Palatine Frosh-Sophs

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Crystal Lake's frosh-soph team, with only one loss this season, whipped Palatine, 66-35, before a thousand spectators at Palatine last Saturday night.

Palatine started out the first quarter playing very well, but they let down in the second quarter. The first quarter was a close game in the first few minutes but the Tigers slowly collected a six point lead as the first quarter ended with the Tigers ahead, 13-7. Crystal Lake started a scoring rampage in the second quarter as they scored 19 points to take a half time lead of 32-20.

CRYSTAL LAKE completely dominated play in the second half, as they loosened Palatine's defense with expert ball handling and deadly jump shots. The third quarter was a complete loss to Palatine as they scored four points. Palatine played better in the last quarter as did Crystal Lake. Palatine scored 11 points, but it wasn't enough as Crystal Lake won 66-35.

Again height was the main factor against Palatine. Palatine's Bruce King and Bruce Crane did considerable rebounding for Palatine, but Crystal Lake's height and offense was too much for Palatine.

Palatine's Bruce King and Ron Hess highlighted Palatine's scoring with 10 points a piece. Rasina of Crystal Lake highlighted the Tigers scoring with 12 points.

Palatine Wrestlers Shut Out Waukegan

Palatine wrestlers shut out Waukegan 48-0 Tuesday night while the frosh-sophs were beating the Waukegan underclassmen 37-11. Billed and scheduled as varsity and frosh-soph matches Waukegan again this year left their varsity regulars at home and brought second string grapplers who were no match for the Pirates.

Dan Kusek (95), Jack Pollien (103), Allen Danforth (138), and Leonard Rohde (heavy) pinned their opponents; Jim McCreery (127) and Dennis Lundgren (145) won on forfeits; and Andrew Anderson (112), Eric Bessemer (120) Karl Schwenk (133), John Dilks (154), Dick Lundgren (165), and Frank Kiraly (175) won decisions in a clean sweep of all the points.

In the frosh-soph matches Dick Brodkorb (95), Mearl Hamilton (103), Dick Schollz (120), John Gerling (133), and Bill Rogers (heavy) pinned their opponents while Eligio Patlan (127), William Sailer (138), Tony Mastroianni (165) and Don Funston (175) won decisions. Jerry Meyer (112) was pinned and Peter Mulvey (145) and Don Teegan (154) lost decisions.

Palatine Freshmen Fold Before Glenbrook

by JOE GODDARD

Palatine's freshman basketball team, playing at Glenbrook last week, lost a lead of five points and fell under a last quarter Spartan attack, 50 to 42.

The Pirates led throughout the first three quarters but weakened and Glenbrook gained the lead and held it until the end.

Three pirates hit the double figures as Pete John and Bill Baumrucker totaled 11 points apiece and Dave Hodgson hit for 10. Two Palatine players Earl Stutzman and John Hicks, fouled out towards the end of the game. (Sp

MAC SAYS

by G. A. McElroy

OUR ATTENTION was called last weekend by a Palatine sports fan to the fact so few parents of Palatine high athletes come to games to watch their sons perform. Out of 24 boys who represented Palatine on the basketball squads at Antioch Friday night there were 4 parents present to watch them play. The percentage was a little better but not 25% in the case of those watching the wrestling matches which Arlington Heights held at home.

An encouraging note may be found, however, in the much larger percentage of parents of freshmen boys who have shown interest in their sports activities.

Family interest in schol activities of children is one of the important factors in student success whether it be athletics, music, dramatics or anything else. This is one of the basic ideas in the program of the Palatine high parents club, recently organized, and headed by "Tony" Schubert. The new parents club president is swimming coach at Niles township high school in Skokie, but he is interested in all school activities and the program of the club is to promote such interest on the part of parents, a most worthy objective.

PROBABLY NO TEAM was more thoroughly scouted than was Palatine's wrestlers by Dick Mudge, coach of the Arlington Cardinals. We think this good scouting job was the main factor in Arlington winning a close match which hinged on the outcome of the final bout.

Mudge, who lives only five blocks from Palatine high school, had a chance to watch most of the Palatine wrestlers compete 3 times during the holiday tournament.

PALATINE'S BEST CHANCE of the season to get that first cage victory was supposed to be this Friday night when Grayslake comes to town. The fact that Grayslake won their first conference game by upsetting Glenbrook out of the league lead last Friday, 72-70, makes Friday night's assignment appear quite a bit tougher than anticipated.

The Pirates have lost 13 straight but oddly their closest game was against the strongest team when they lost by only 42-36 to Crystal Lake Saturday night, a team with a 13-1 record.

IN REVIEWING ACCOMPLISHMENTS in sports in the Northwest conference for the year 1955 we mentioned a conference scoring record for frosh-sophs of 70 points by the Bensenville, now Fenton Bisons. The Bathrick brothers of Ela-Vernon, however, remind us indirectly that Ela scored 83 against Grayslake frosh-sophs 2 years ago when Ela tied for the championship. If anyone knows of a higher frosh-soph cage score we will stand corrected a second time.

Hero of the week in Northwest basketball is Gale Peregrin of Grayslake who made 11 field goals and 9 free throws for 31 points, the top total for one game in the league this season. This unusual effort helped Grayslake get out of the cellar and dump Glenbrook from the league lead.

Hats off also to Al Bathrick of Ela who tallied 26 as the Bears whipped Fenton in a crucial first place game. Also orchids for Gene Jaskot who led Wauconda with 21 points to a victory over Grant which kept the Bulldogs in first place. Jaskot was ailing during the holiday tournament and Wauconda lost third place to Glenbrook.

This week we think Wauconda, with Jaskot back in form, will take the Spartans. At this point Wauconda looks like the best bet to win the championship with Fenton second choice.

Harlem Globetrotters At Heights Feb. 16

Men's club of Arlington Heights Methodist church will once again present the original Harlem Globetrotters in action in the local high school gym. The Trotters, who have been entertaining basketball fans 29 years, will oppose the Chicago Majors.

The Globetrotters entered the current season with a 28-year record of 5,041 victories against 283 defeats.

Their 1954-55 season was one of their finest. The celebrated magicians of the hardwood court rolled to 163 consecutive triumphs during their regular winter season, followed this with a sixth successive World Series victory over the season's College All-Americans, this time by a 14-10 game margin, in a whirlwind transcontinental trek made in 21 days by chartered plane, scored 92 more wins in a 20-city sixth annual tour of Europe, North Africa and the Near East, and polished up the campaign on Labor day by taking 12 straight from the Honolulu Surfriders of Hawaii, their overseas traveling companions, on an outdoor homecoming series in America upon their return.

The Men of Saperstein have set their sights for this season on surpassing the 1954-55 record of 281 victories against 10 defeats, and are off to a good start in that direction.

Admission is $1.50 for adults and $1 for students. Watch for an announcement as to where the limited supply of tickets can be purchased in advance.

Antioch Sophs Bump Palatine

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Antioch's fresh-soph team, led by Bob Horton's 21 points, delivered Palatine their 11th defeat of the season by the score of, 69-44, at Antioch last Friday night.

The first quarter was a seesaw battle until the Sequiots took a two point lead as the first quarter ended 12-10. Antioch began to increase their lead during the second quarter as Palatine's defense loosened up. Palatine still managed to score 13 points, but Antioch still held the lead of, 33-23, as the half ended.

IN THE THIRD quarter and fourth Palatine pressed Antioch considerably, but Antioch broke the press and took a third quarter lead of 44-31. The fourth quarter was a complete loss to Palatine because Antioch scored 25 points to whip Palatine, 69-44.

High scorers for Antioch were Horton and Behrens with 21 and 15 points, respectively. Palatine's scoring was highlighted by Bruce King's 20 points. Palatine was very much outclassed due to Antioch's height and offense.

Antioch Freshmen Whip Palatine, 61-26

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Antioch's freshmen basketball team, led by Jim Gallagher's 24 points, whipped Palatine, 61-26, Saturday morning at Palatine.

Antioch, who had considerably more height than Palatine, took an early lead and continued increasing it until they had a 35 point lead as the game ended. In the first quarter Palatine seemed to have Antioch under control. However in the second quarter Antioch went all out and collected 16 points over Palatine's 7 points to take a half time lead of 28-15.

In the third and fourth quarters Palatine seemed to let down and Antioch scored 18 points in the third quarter 15 points in the fourth quarter to win the game 61-26.

Jim Gallagher's 24 points gave him scoring honors for Antioch, while Dave Hodgson and Johnny Hicks collected 7 points each to lead Palatine's individual scoring.

Grayslake Vacates Cellar By Upsetting Glenbrook

Grayslake vacated the conference cellar Friday night when least expected by outpointing Glenbrook's league leaders 72-70 in a game which was nip and tuck all the way. The Rams were led by the scoring of forward Gale Peregrin who dropped in 31 points on 11 field goals and 9 free throws.

The score was tied with 55 seconds to put but Tom Anderson sank two free throws and a field goal and Peregrin dropped two free throws while Glenbrook was sinking a pair of field goals. Grayslake led 22-21 the first period and the next two quarters found both teams scoring the same number of points. The Rams got another point advantage in the last period. Boyd had 22 and Spaulding 19 to lead the Spartans who dropped to a second place tie with a 4-2 record.

WAUCONDA had an easy time beating Grant Friday 74-41 and retaining a tie with Ela-Vernon for the league lead with a 5-1 record. The Bulldogs and Grant were tied at 26 all at the half but Haley coached Wauconda team outpointed their opponents 26-6 in the third quarter to turn the game into a rout.

Gene Jaskot, injured during the recent holiday tournament, was back in form getting 21 points. Denny Hodge, junior guard, was the only player who could find the range for Grant getting eight of their 15 field goals and a total of 19 points.

Crystal Lake Beats Palatine Frosh-Sophs

by GEOFFREY JOHN

Crystal Lake's frosh-soph team, with only one loss this season, whipped Palatine, 66-35, before a thousand spectators at Palatine last Saturday night.

Palatine started out the first quarter playing very well, but they let down in the second quarter. The first quarter was a close game in the first few minutes but the Tigers slowly collected a six point lead as the first quarter ended with the Tigers ahead, 13-7. Crystal Lake started a scoring rampage in the second quarter as they scored 19 points to take a half time lead of 32-20.

CRYSTAL LAKE completely dominated play in the second half, as they loosened Palatine's defense with expert ball handling and deadly jump shots. The third quarter was a complete loss to Palatine as they scored four points. Palatine played better in the last quarter as did Crystal Lake. Palatine scored 11 points, but it wasn't enough as Crystal Lake won 66-35.

Again height was the main factor against Palatine. Palatine's Bruce King and Bruce Crane did considerable rebounding for Palatine, but Crystal Lake's height and offense was too much for Palatine.

Palatine's Bruce King and Ron Hess highlighted Palatine's scoring with 10 points a piece. Rasina of Crystal Lake highlighted the Tigers scoring with 12 points.

Crystal Lake Stalls For 6½ Minutes To Hold Off Palatine

by JO EGODDARD

Palatine's Pirates, winless in 11 previous games and unusually inexperienced, played their finest game of the season last Saturday when they forced Crystal Lake's Tigers to go into a 6½ minute stall in order to win the game, 42 to 36. Crystal Lake, with 13-1 record and one of the finest teams in the area, found themselves in a fix when a Palatine spurt had whittled their lead to 6 points.

The game had progressed as expected as a 32 to 20 lead at half time by the Tigers had seemed comfortable enough. However, Palatine's drive, led by Pete Trenchard, had narrowed the difference to 8 points and when Gerry Segebrecht hit for a basket to start the final quarter, Crystal Lake called time-out to talk things over.

WHEN THEY emerged from their huddle, they immediately went into a stall in which both guards and forwards took part by just passing the ball back and forth. Five minutes later, Rich Wisner, like the rest of his teammates, surprised and nervous, committed a foul. When the shot was missed, Crystal Lake regained the ball and wasted the final minute and a half to end the game and preserve their record.

Crystal Lake was led by veterans at all positions. Towering center Burhows, who led all players with 16 points, 12 in the first half, and guard Jacobs with 13 points were the high point men.

Trenchard and Bob Coates each had 10 points to lead the Pirates. Segebrecht, Wisner and Terry Moore rounded out the Pirate five for the remainder of the game.

Fenton Sophs Win 7th In Row

by MAX ZOLLNER

Fenton's red hot frosh-soph squad notched their seventh victory in a row by defeating the Ela-Vernon Bears, 49-38, Friday night on the Bisons' court.

Terry Biefeld, Fenton guard, led all scoring with 27 points sinking 10 baskets and 7 free throws. Other top scorers were Fenton's Bernie Sell and the Bears' Gallaugher with 14 and 13 points respectively.

FIRST HALF play was dominated by Fenton Bisons as they led at the intermission, 24-13. In the first period Fenton's offense and defense clicked as made 14 points while holding Ela to only 4 tallies. Terry Biefeld scored 8 for the Bison team.

The second quarter Fenton's sophs notched 10 points to Ela's and took an 11 point halftime advantage.

TERRY BIEFELD sparked the Bisons in the third stanza hitting 5 buckets and 3 out of 4 free throws. Ela's shooting was off as they scored only 3 markers. The score stood at the end of the period 42-16, Fenton.

Ela fought back hard in the final period outscoring Fenton's reserves 22-7. Steinken led the Bear aggragation with 10 points. This flurry of baskets wasn't enough as Fenton won 49-38.

Bradley, Rangy Louisville At The Stadium Saturday

Two of the nation's leading dark-horse squads feature the resumption of collegiate basketball double-headers at Chicago Stadium Saturday, Jan. 14.

The rising Braves of Bradley and the rangy Cardinals of the University of Louisville already have attained national ranking, with greater things likely in view of their youth.

Louisville will oppose a scrappy young team from nearby Valparaiso university in the 7:45 opener while Bradley will renew its 15-year old rivalry with DePaul in the windup. De Paul has won 11 and Bradley nine in the traditionally rugged series.

VICTORIOUS in seven of their first 10 starts, the Braves have the most size and team speed they've boasted in several seasons.

Coach Bob Vanatta has 11 sophomores on his 17-man sauad, three of them in the starting lineup along with Jack Gower and Lee Utt, seniors.

Shellie McMillon, 6-5 sophomore from Chicago's DuSable high school, is the team's leading scorer with a 16.8 average for 10 games, followed by Utt (13.5) and Gower (13.3). Barney Cable, 6-7 center from New Brighton, Pa., will start at center, having averaged 12.7 points thus far, with either Don Groves of Marion, Ill. or Charles Sedgwick of LaGrange at the other guard spot. Cable, Groves and Sedgwick are sophomores.

Other Chicago area second year men include Curley Johnson, Du Sable high teammate of McMillon's; and Dave Emerson 6-7 alternate at center from Aurora.

DEPAUL BROKE even in the first 10 games of a typical suicide schedule, with Capt. Ron Sobieszczyk making a strong bid for All-American honors at forward with his shooting and rebounding.

Coach Ray Meyer will field a unit composed of four seniors and a junior, with this experience favoring the Demons.

Louisville, which won 9 of its first 10 starts, losing only to Western Kentucky in the Kentucky Invitational tournament. could field a starting five averaging more than 6-7 in height.

Coach Peck Hickman, however, usually starts 6-8 Charlie Tyra at center, 6-5 Bill Darragh and 6-2 Jerry Moreman at forwards, and 6-2 Phil Rollins and 6-1 Jim Morgan at guards.

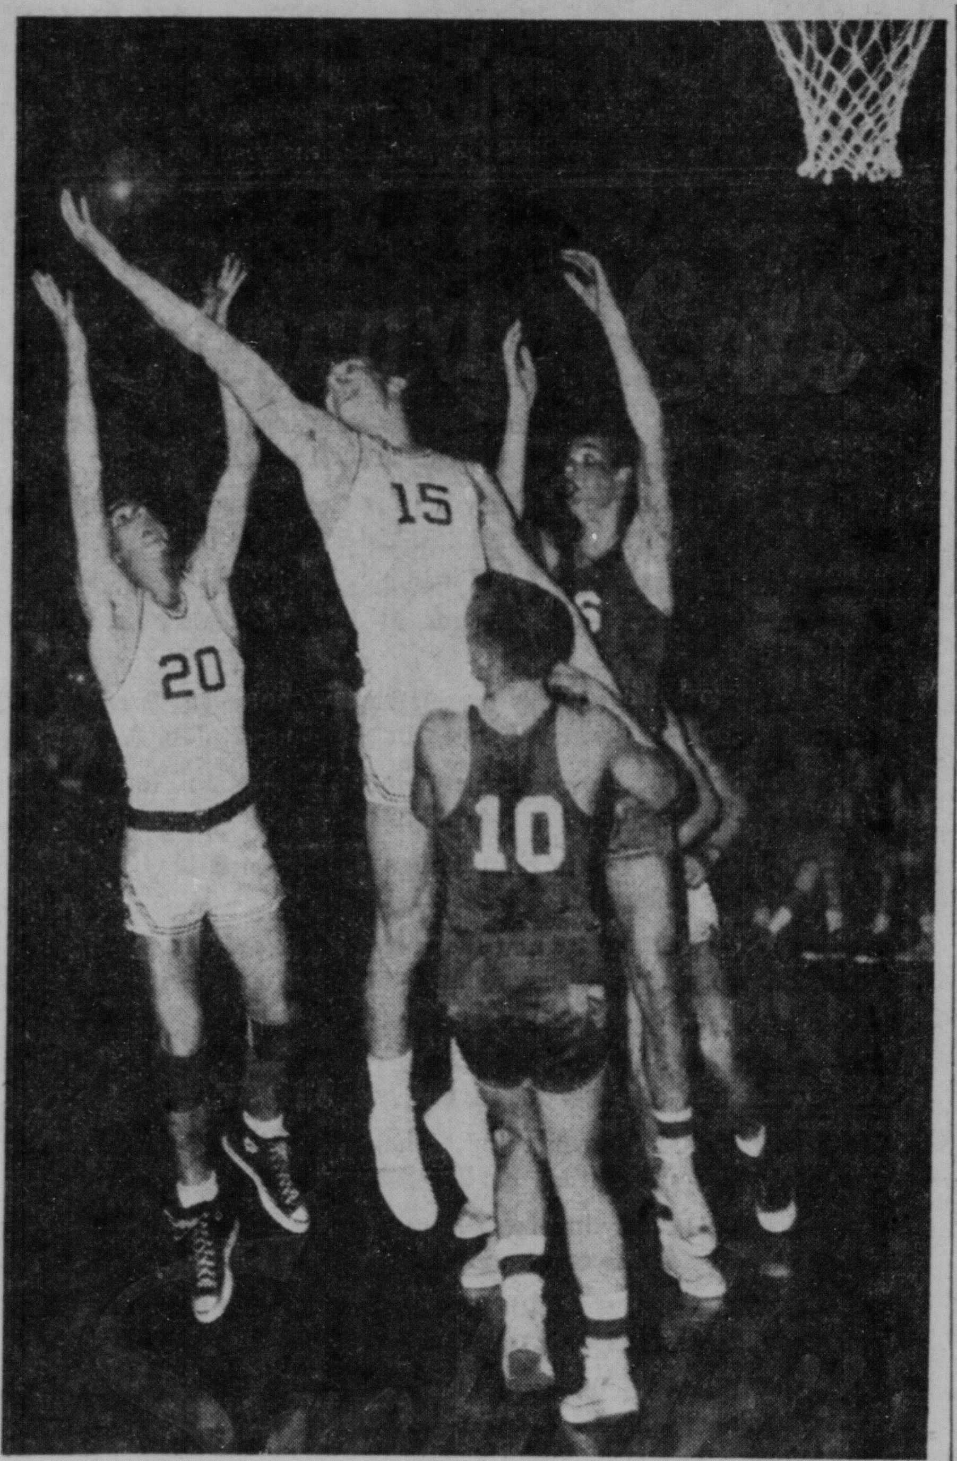
FOR BENCH strength, this leaves, among others, 6-10 sophomore Jerry DuPont who sometimes works with Tyra in the double pivot; 6-9 Jim Heeren, 6-6 Al Glaza, 6-5 John Varoscak, and 6-5 Harold Pike. Glaza is a junior from Tilden Tech of Chicago.

McMillon and Cable of Bradley, Valparaiso's 6-5 Bob Jarm, who hails from Riverside-Brookfield high school and Tyra are further exhibits in the Stadium program's parade of All-American candidates.

Arlington Sophs Lose At Glenbard, But Win At Home



JACK WEBER (15) snagged this one for Arlington frosh-sophs Saturday night as the young Cardinals had a rough night, but won, 45-41, over Riverside-Brookfield. Just out of reach is Sam Caltagirone (20) for Arlington. Missing the rebound for Riverside are Denker (10) and Marton (6). —Staff Photo

by PETE SWANSON

Hopes for a championship were dimmed Friday night as Arlington's frosh-sophs suffered a 62-48 loss to Glenbard. The home team led all the way, their excellent shooting enabling them to put down all Cardinal threats.

The Ponies broke in front early, scoring the first 7 points before Arlington got the lid off. The Glenbard quintet shot much better than the Cards and presented a tough defense. This pattern continued throughout the ball game.

BETTER REBOUNDING brought the locals into contention in the second period. But just when it appeared the Cards would catch the leaders, the Ponies scored and widened the lead. A late flurry gave the home team a 7 point edge at the intermission.

Third period saw the Glen Ellyn 5 holding a lead that ranged from 8 to 10 markers most of the time. The Ponies continued to shoot well, while the Cards were cold in the middle of the quarter. Two baskets in the final minute reduced the lead to 46-40 entering the final seven minutes.

EARLY in the last stanza the Cards pulled within 4 points, 48-44. Then Arlington started missing chances, shooting poorly and making mistakes. The young Cards remained cold during the quarter, and the Ponies pulled away. The visitors pressed in the final minutes, but Glenbard overcame this on sleeper plays and by finding holes in a groggy Arlington defense.

Scoring for the winners was balanced. Jim Jordan was tops with 19 markers, while Larry Pieterzak and Skip Domville each added 14. Bob Lockwood with 17 points was the only Arlington player to score consistently. Besides being out-shot from the field, the Cards shot very poorly from the foul line. At times the Cards were dead on their feet and failed to hustle.

A HOME GAME against Riverside-Brookfield Saturday brought poor basketball in both squads. The young Bulldogs had dropped a 33-32 game to LaGrange the previous night, and had they played the same type of ball Saturday night would have beaten the young Cards.

The visitors played a slow, deliberate type of ball game. Arlington started pressing in the opening quarter, and Riverside missed shots and threw the ball away. Bjorklund and Lockwood helped the Cards take the lead midway in the period and surge ahead.

DURING SECOND stanza the young Bulldogs drew close. After both teams played listless ball in the early minutes, the shooting began to pick up. Arlington scored the next basket whenever the lead was challenged and led by five at halftime.

The Cards maintained their margin in the third period as their outside shooting was good. Both teams made defensive lapses, and the Cards led 39-32 entering the final quarter.

ARLINGTON was cold in this period and made a lot of mistakes. Riverside reduced the margin but failed to take advantage of many of their opportunities. The Cards stalled the final 2 minutes to win, 45-41.

The game was marked by mistakes and an absence of fouls, only 5 personals being charged against the visitors. Scoring for Arlington showed Lockwood with 13, Bjorklund with 12, and Weber with 10. Nogal paced Riverside with 13 tallies.

Heights F-S Grapplers Look Good To Beat Oak Lawn

Oak Lawn provided the toughest competition yet for Coach Maurice Kellogg's frosh-soph wrestlers, but didn't have quite enough "stuff." Arlington won, 23-21.

It was a thrilling finish with heavyweight Dean Schneck competing under pressure in final bout of the day. Heights was down 3 points. A decision by Schneck meant a tie for Arlington. A pin meant victory.

First round was scoreless. Webb took 1 point the second round, then Schneck scored 2 on a take down. Dean copped 3 more points the third round before pinning his man with just 20 seconds left.

THE OUTLOOK for frosh-soph wrestling continues to brighten at Arlington. Replacements for the "first string" have been developed all along the line with boys ready to step in and take over for the regulars in event of sickness or other causes.

Clark was moved up to the varsity, for example, for the Oak Lawn meet. John Amann stepped in and took a 9-5 decision at 127 pounds. Ed Schumacher hurt his shoulder at Palatine. Ray Vesillus took over at 133 and did a good job, though losing.

Gaining pins at Oak Lawn were Roger Farleigh, Tom Kennicott and Schneck.

Bradley, Rangy Louisville At The Stadium Saturday

Two of the nation's leading darkhorse squads feature the resumption of collegiate basketball doubleheaders at Chicago Stadium Saturday, Jan. 14.

The rising Braves of Bradley and the rangy Cardinals of the University of Louisville already have attained national ranking, with greater things likely in view of their youth.

Louisville will oppose a scrappy young team from nearby Valparaiso university in the 7:45 opener while Bradley will renew its 15-year old rivalry with DePaul in the windup. De Paul has won 11 and Bradley nine in the traditionally rugged series.

VICTORIOUS in seven of their first 10 starts, the Braves have the most size and team speed they've boasted in several seasons.

Coach Bob Vanatta has 11 sophomores on his 17-man sauad, three of them in the starting lineup along with Jack Gower and Lee Utt, seniors.

Shellie McMillon, 6-5 sophomore from Chicago's DuSable high school, is the team's leading scorer with a 16.8 average for 10 games, followed by Utt (13.5) and Gower (13.3). Barney Cable, 6-7 center from New Brighton, Pa., will start at center, having averaged 12.7 points thus far, with either Don Groves of Marion, Ill. or Charles Sedgwick of LaGrange at the other guard spot. Cable, Groves and Sedgwick are sophomores.

Other Chicago area second year men include Curley Johnson, Du Sable high teammate of McMillon's; and Dave Emerson 6-7 alternate at center from Aurora.

DEPAUL BROKE even in the first 10 games of a typical suicide schedule, with Capt. Ron Sobieszczyk making a strong bid for All-American honors at forward with his shooting and rebounding.

Coach Ray Meyer will field a unit composed of four seniors and a junior, with this experience favoring the Demons.

Louisville, which won 9 of its first 10 starts, losing only to Western Kentucky in the Kentucky Invitational tournament. could field a starting five averaging more than 6-7 in height.

Coach Peck Hickman, however, usually starts 6-8 Charlie Tyra at center, 6-5 Bill Darragh and 6-2 Jerry Moreman at forwards, and 6-2 Phil Rollins and 6-1 Jim Morgan at guards.

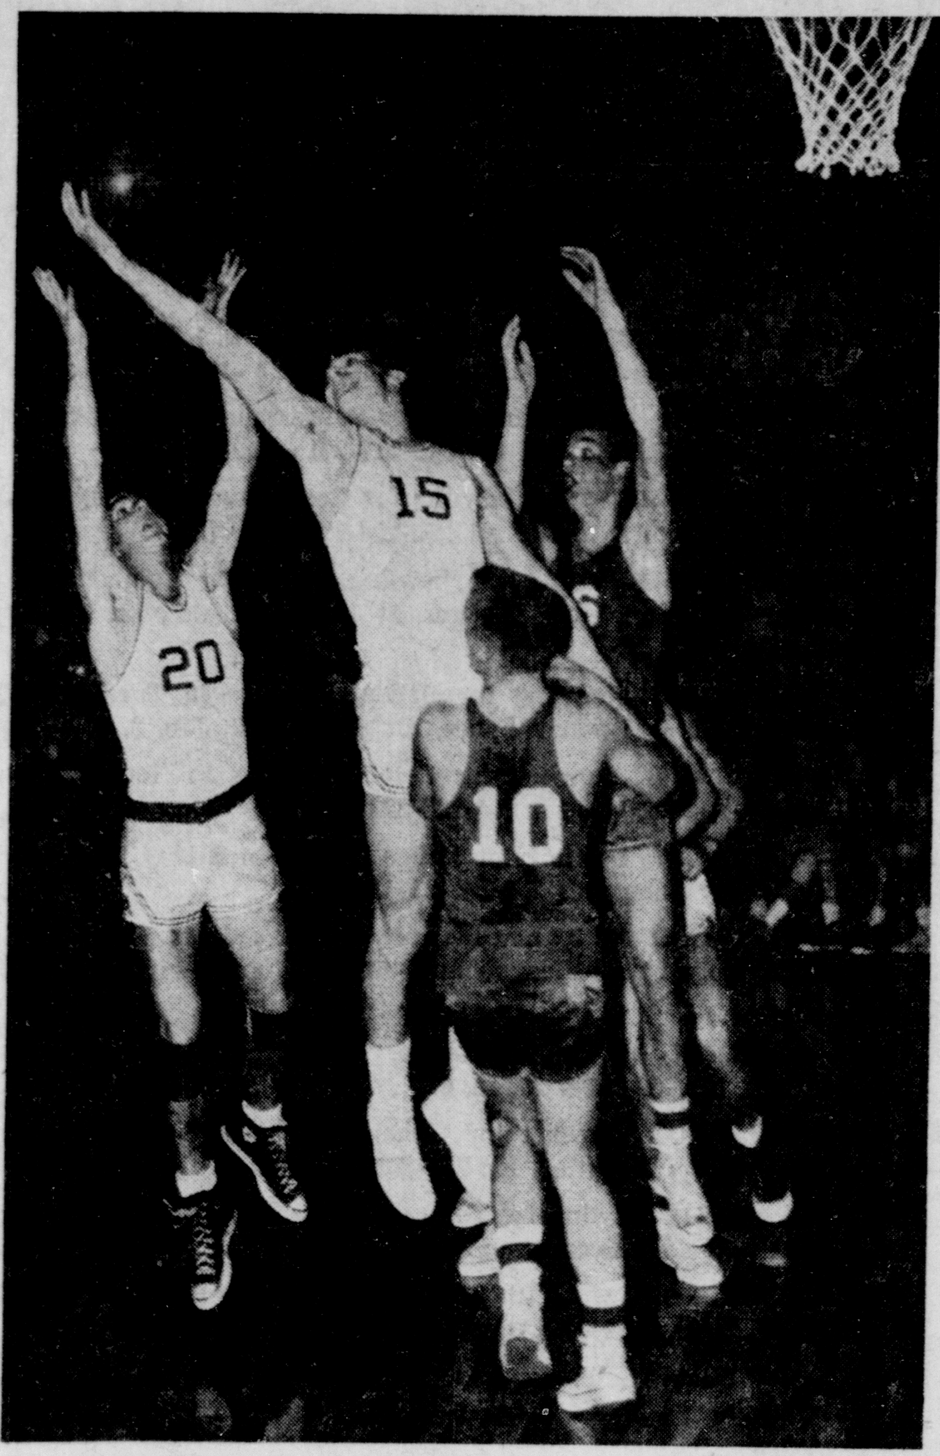
FOR BENCH strength, this leaves, among others, 6-10 sophomore Jerry DuPont who sometimes works with Tyra in the double pivot; 6-9 Jim Heeren, 6-6 Al Glaza, 6-5 John Varoscak, and 6-5 Harold Pike. Glaza is a junior from Tilden Tech of Chicago.

McMillon and Cable of Bradley, Valparaiso's 6-5 Bob Jarm, who hails from Riverside-Brookfield high school and Tyra are further exhibits in the Stadium program's parade of All-American candidates.

Arlington Sophs Lose At Glenbard, But Win At Home



JACK WEBER (15) snagged this one for Arlington frosh-sophs Saturday night as the young Cardinals had a rough night, but won, 45-41, over Riverside-Brookfield. Just out of reach is Sam Caltagirone (20) for Arlington. Missing the rebound for Riverside are Denker (10) and Marton (6). —Staff Photo

Hopes for a championship were dimmed Friday night as Arlington's frosh-sophs suffered a 62-48 loss to Glenbard. The home team led all the way, their excellent shooting enabling them to put down all Cardinal threats.

BETTER REBOUNDING brought the locals into contention in the second period. But just when it appeared the Cards would catch the leaders, the Ponies scored and widened the lead. A late flurry gave the home team a 7 point edge at the intermission.

Third period saw the Glen Ellyn 5 holding a lead that ranged from 8 to 10 markers most of the time. The Ponies continued to shoot well, while the Cards were cold in the middle of the quarter. Two baskets in the final minute reduced the lead to 46-40 entering the final seven minutes.

EARLY in the last stanza the Cards pulled within 4 points, 48-44. Then Arlington started missing chances, shooting poorly and making mistakes. The young Cards remained cold during the quarter, and the Ponies pulled away. The visitors pressed in the final minutes, but Glenbard overcame this on sleeper plays and by finding holes in a groggy Arlington defense.

Scoring for the winners was balanced. Jim Jordan was tops with 19 markers, while Larry Pieterzak and Skip Domville each added 14. Bob Lockwood with 17 points was the only Arlington player to score consistently. Besides being out-shot from the field, the Cards shot very poorly from the foul line. At times the Cards were dead on their feet and failed to hustle.

A HOME GAME against Riverside-Brookfield Saturday brought poor basketball in both squads. The young Bulldogs had dropped a 33-32 game to LaGrange the previous night, and had they played the same type of ball Saturday night would have beaten the young Cards.

The visitors played a slow, deliberate type of ball game. Arlington started pressing in the opening quarter, and Riverside missed shots and threw the ball away. Bjorklund and Lockwood helped the Cards take the lead midway in the period and surge ahead.

DURING SECOND stanza the young Bulldogs drew close. After both teams played listless ball in the early minutes, the shooting began to pick up. Arlington scored the next basket whenever the lead was challenged and led by five at halftime.

The Cards maintained their margin in the third period as their outside shooting was good. Both teams made defensive lapses, and the Cards led 39-32 entering the final quarter.

ARLINGTON was cold in this period and made a lot of mistakes. Riverside reduced the margin but failed to take advantage of many of their opportunities. The Cards stalled the final 2 minutes to win, 45-41.

The game was marked by mistakes and an absence of fouls, only 5 personals being charged against the visitors. Scoring for Arlington showed Lockwood with 13, Bjorklund with 12, and Weber with 10. Nogal paced Riverside with 13 tallies.

Heights F-S Grapplers Look Good To Beat Oak Lawn

Oak Lawn provided the toughest competition yet for Coach Maurice Kellogg's frosh-soph wrestlers, but didn't have quite enough "stuff." Arlington won, 23-21.

It was a thrilling finish with heavyweight Dean Schneck competing under pressure in final bout of the day. Heights was down 3 points. A decision by Schneck meant a tie for Arlington. A pin meant victory.

First round was scoreless. Webb took 1 point the second round, then Schneck scored 2 on a take down. Dean copped 3 more points the third round before pinning his man with just 20 seconds left.

THE OUTLOOK for frosh-soph wrestling continues to brighten at Arlington. Replacements for the "first string" have been developed all along the line with boys ready to step in and take over for the regulars in event of sickness or other causes.

Clark was moved up to the varsity, for example, for the Oak Lawn meet. John Amann stepped in and took a 9-5 decision at 127 pounds. Ed Schumacher hurt his shoulder at Palatine. Ray Vesillus took over at 133 and did a good job, though losing.

Gaining pins at Oak Lawn were Roger Farleigh, Tom Kennicott and Schneck.

What is the "funeral pre-arrangement plan"?

It is a plan by which a person actually makes arrangements for his own funeral. Done well in advance of need, it helps a family which may at actual time of death be burdened with doctors' bills, hospital fees, nurses' salaries, and perhaps curtailed income.

Just as sensible as making a will, the plan is becoming increasingly popular in large cities throughout the United States.

What is the "funeral pre-arrangement plan"?

It is a plan by which a person actually makes arrangements for his own funeral. Done well in advance of need, it helps a family which may at actual time of death be burdened with doctors' bills, hospital fees, nurses' salaries, and perhaps curtailed income.

Just as sensible as making a will, the plan is becoming increasingly popular in large cities throughout the United States.

Arlington Jr. High 5s Whip Palatine Twice

Arlington Heights junior high school basketball teams whipped Palatine twice Saturday in the Arlington gym, the heavies winning, 32-28, and the lights, 58-21.

The heavies game was a slow scoring affair. Fred Empkie, Mike Kent and Ricky Johnston all dropped in buckets for Coach Bob Spinks to put Heights ahead, 7-4, the opening period, a lead that was stretched to 16-9 by the half.

ARLINGTON widened the margin the third period to 26-16, but Palatine rallied the final stanza to shorten the victory to 6 points. Howland twice hit from the field in the final quarter, with DePue, Foster and Helms each adding 1 for 12 points.

High pointers for the game were Empkie with 12, Kent with 7 and Johnston with 6 for Arlington. Bruce Fichte scored 5, Beckman 1. For Palatine it was Howland with 13, DePue 7, Helms 6, Foster 2.

FOR THE LIGHTS the end was never in doubt. Arlington ran up a 15-2 opening period score, stretched it to 33-7 at the half. Third period was fairly even with Heights outscoring Palatine, 10-5, but final stanza saw the hosts rack in 15 more the final quarter.

Bob Inman was high scorer for Coach Ted Wissen, making 3 buckets the first period, 5 the second and 2 the third. His 20 points were tops for the game. Phil Gustafson tallied 5 baskets for Heights, with Jim Kennedy scoring 10 points. Others included Grant Walhoff with 6, Capt. Bill Lips with 4, Fred Lussow 3, Ken Mueller 2, Bill Spomer 2 and Tom Clark.

Officials for both games included Bill Schmidt scorer and Jerry Kouzmanoff timer.

Heights Wins First Gymnastics Meet; York Next

Arlington Heights high school gymnasts won their first meet in fine style Friday, 83-65, before a crowd of almost 100 adults. This Thursday, Jan. 12, Cardinals will be host in a 4:45 meet with York.

Heights made 4 grand slams on horizontal bar, parallel bar, side horse and rings. Leyden won a surprising 13-9 victory on long horse, won trampoline 13-9, and tumbling on forfeit. Both John and Dick Kimbrough were unable to compete for Coach Gay Hughes because of the flu.

Horizontal bar: John Koeppen, Bob Baas and Bruce Babb finished 1-2-3 for Heights.

PARALLEL BAR: John Koeppen, Bob Baas, Dick Nieland finished 1-2-3 for Arlington.

Side horse: John Koeppen, Fritz Snyder, Tom Pendleton ranked 1-2-3 for the locals.

Rings: Dick Nieland, John Koeppen and Bud Holm finished 1-2-3 for Coach Hughes.

On long horse Dick Nieland was third, John Koeppen fourth, Bob Hawk fifth.

On trampoline Bob Meierhofer second, Dave Peterson fourth and Gary Moreland sixth.

A VARIED lineup will be seen in action against York, in its first year of gymnastics competition. Gary Moreland, Bob Meierhofer and Dave Peterson will compete in tumbling and trampoline.

On horizontal bar will be Dan Schack, Bruce Robb and Marty Green. Mike Spalding, Roger Meyer and Ed Wilson will compete on parallel bar. On side horse will be John Kimbrough, Robb and Wilson.

On long horse will be Spalding, Wilson and Robb. On the rings will be seen John Kimbrough, Robb and Tom Seward.

Red Devils Win

The big game Tuesday evening in the YMCA Church League pitted the Arlington Hi-Y Red Devils vs. the Arlington Hi-Y Bruisers. The league-leading Red Devils came out on top, 53-35, in a hard-fought game.

Accurate shooting, superior rebounding, and better floor play all helped the winners take an early lead and hold it throughout. The victory was the sixth straight for the undefeated Red Devils while the loss, their second against 4 wins, dropped the Bruisers into third place behind Christ E.. and R.

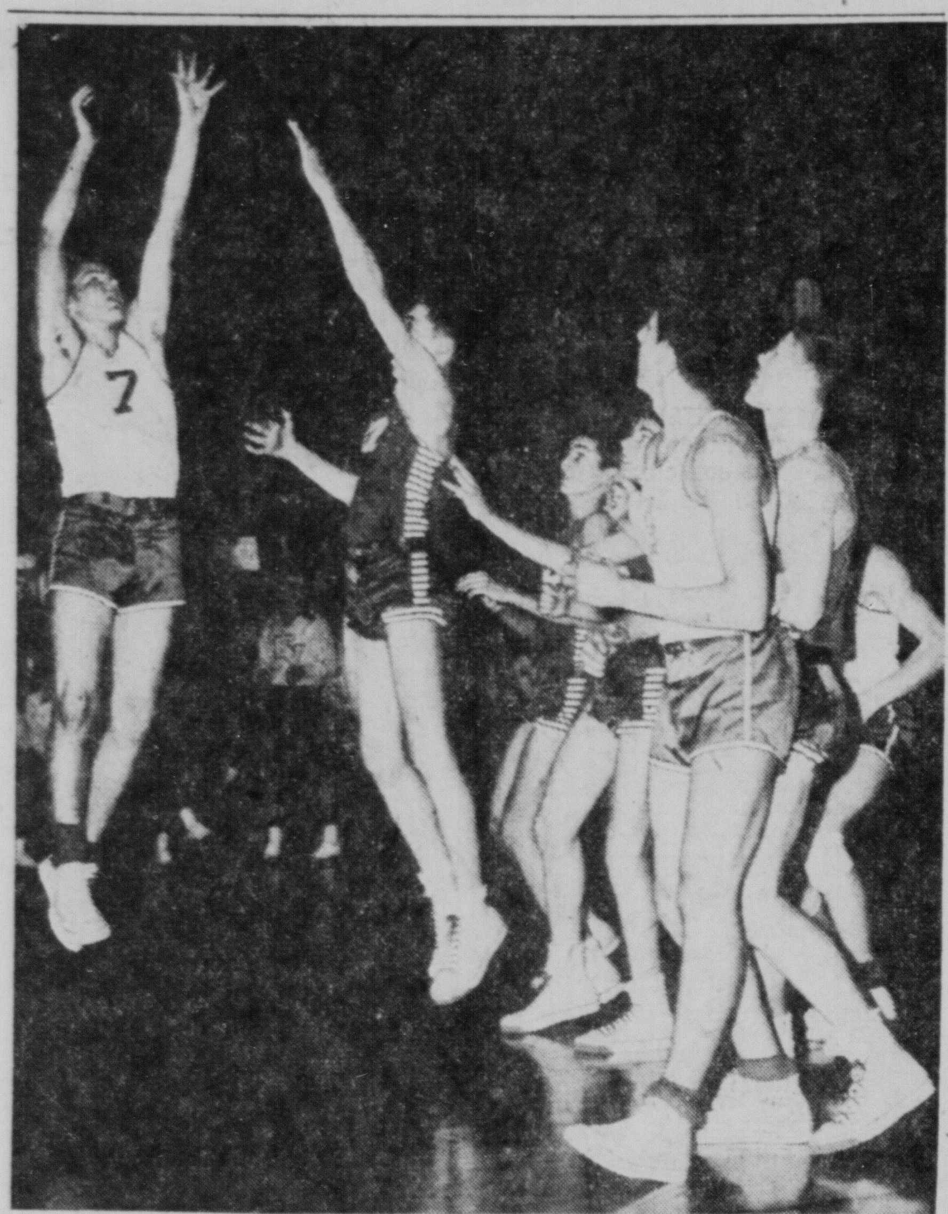
Cards Upset Glenbard, But Lose At Home To Riverside



TERRY BIEFIELD (7) tried to stop this one for Fenton frosh-sophs, but Benjamin (47) of Ela-Vernon made it. Otherwise, though, the locals had things their own way as they whipped the young Bears, 49-38.

The Fenton sophomores are leading the league with a 6-0 record, and play host to Grant Friday night. Also seen for Fenton is Chuck Christiansen (4). —Staff Photo

Arlington traveled to Glenbard Friday and came home victorious over the highly rated Hilltoppers, 73-70. The game was well played and saw both teams shoot well. The Cards rallied to win in the final five minutes.

Entering the final quarter Glenbard led 58-55. After three and a half minutes, the margin was stretched to 68-61. Two jump shots by Ashley and a set shot by Sujack quickly reduced the margin to a single tally. Arlington got the ball again and Striegel's brace of foul shots put the Cards in the lead 69-68. Sujack's drive in made it 71-68. Glenbard drew within one on two free throws by Pond.

Arlington tried to stall, but missed free throws gave the Hilltoppers opportunities. However, the home team couldn't take advantage of them. The win was iced when Malzahn hit a jump shot with 10 seconds to play.

IN FIRST HALF both teams were hitting well from the field, but the home 5 was off from the foul line. The score was tied 6 times, and the lead changed hands twice in the first 2 periods. The locals opened up a 6 point lead once, but the Hilltoppers came right back.

Glenbard held a short edge throughout the third stanza as Rich Edwards and Bill Biederman scored well from outside. Biederman was especially hot with 6 baskets. Randag and Striegel scored 8 and 7 points respectively for the Cards. The Hilltoppers hit well all period, and the Cards picked up later in the quarter.

IN THE FINAL period the Cards got the important rebounds and had an advantage in rebounding, including 70 per cent of all rebounds during the game. The Lestermen had one of their best nights shooting-wise and showed themselves adept at ball handling in the closing minutes after going ahead.

Scoring was well-balanced for both squads. For Arlington Ashley had 20, Striegel 14, Randag 12, and Sujack 11. For Glenbard Biederman hit 20, Dick Pond 13, R. M. Edwards 11, and John Thomas and Rich Edwards 10 each.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S ball game was ragged on both sides. Cardinal players blew easy shots, threw passes away, and failed to take advantage of many opportunities. It might have been just an off night after a fine performance the previous night. Certainly, however, the same team effort shown against Glenbard did not appear in this game.

The Bulldogs led most of the time during the opening half. Both teams were off in their shooting and made a lot of mistakes. Riverside had a slight advantage on the boards.

A FEW POINTS down most of the time, Arlington tied the score and went ahead in the closing minutes of the second quarter. That the teams were cold and wasted many chances is demonstrated by the fact that each caged just 6 baskets in the first 2 quarters. During the first 6½ minutes of the second quarter, both teams were able to muster just one basket between them.

The Cards led 41-39 entering the final eight minutes. Twice the locals enjoyed five point margins, 45-40 and 47-42. Then the visitors took the lead by registering the next six points, the last two coming on a set shot by Wayne Givens. John Sujack put the home quintet into the lead again, 49-48, with a set shot, But another set shot, this one by Joe Schmidt, put the Bulldogs in front to stay. Arlington had chances left but lost its poise, committing avoidable fouls and making bad passes. Free throws made the game safe for Riverside.

Wayne Givens and John Sujack led the scoring with 21 and 19 points respectively.

Antioch Rolls Over Palatine

by JOE GODDARD

A small but very fast and alert Antioch basketball squad proved their worth Friday night when they ran up a sound 76 to 44 victory over Palatine at Antioch. The Sequoits, in sixth place and defending this position over the threatening Pirates, quickly ran up a 17 to 6 first quarter lead and added 25 points in a red-hot second quarter to give them a satisfying 23 point half time lead. Only three shots were missed during this surge.

An effective full court press employed by Antioch throughout most of the game helped them run up this convincing score.

PARKER and Reckers were the only Sequoits in double figures with 19 and 17 points respectively as the remaining players were bunched together evenly.

Bob Coates, held scoreless in the first half, scored 11 points to lead junior Terry Moore, who came off the bench to score 10 points.

Arlington JVs Beat Niles In 60-57 Tilt

Arlington JV cagers proved greedy hosts Monday by whipping Niles, 60-57. The visitors took an opening period lead, 14-10, but Heights came back strong for an 8 point margin at the half. Niles cut it to 3 points going into the home stretch, but could come no closer.

Arlington scoring was well divided. Pat Brownell and Dan Vittum each scored 6 baskets with Tom Jacobsen carding 5 and Dick Seich 4. Jacobsen and Vittum were high with 15 points.

Van Mersberger was tops for Niles with 6 buckets and 8 of 12 free throws. Neimer tallied 7 buckets for the losers.

Frosh Lose —

by MAX ZOLLNER

Ela-Vernon's frosh trounced Fenton 48-27 on the Bisons court Saturday morning. Luerssern led the Bears with 17 tallies while Chuck Reeves and Don DiOrio paced the losers with 9 pionts apiece.

Fenton outscored the Bears 15-11 in the first period as Don DiOrio and Chuck Reeves hit for 7 and 6 points respectively.

The Bears came to life in the last two minutes of the second quarter scoring six markers to take a 23-21 advantage over the Bisons at halftime.

Fenton's shooting was off in the third stanza as the team notched only 2 points to Ela's 14. The hapless Bisons didn't fare much better in the final period as the Bears outscored them 11-4 to make a final score of Ela 48, Fenton 27.

Arlington Wrestlers Top Palatine, Lose To Oak Lawn

by JOE GODDARD

Palatine's varsity and frosh-soph wrestling teams were defeated by Arlington Heights, 24 to 19 and 45 to 11 in a dual meet at Palatine Friday night.

The neighboring rivalries were both up for the meet as their spirit and style indicated.

Palatine was granted a 5 to 0 lead before the match even began when Rhode at heavyweight drew a forfeit. Bonn officially started the meet for Heights by pinning Sweet to tie the score at five all.

STARTING with Carlino's win over Pollien at 103 for Heights, the lead was lost, tied, lost again and tied again, and finally lost for good when Capt. Ebert and Beier at 133 and 138 respectively won for Heights with a decision and fall.

Denny Lundgren and Dilks pulled the Pirates to within two points but, after Kiraly and Thackery tied, Rose decisioned Richard Lundgren to decide the meet.

IT WAS the second loss inflicted on the Pirates, both by one decision.

Arlington Heights high school varsity wrestlers edged Palatine, 24-19, Friday night, then lost to Oak Lawn Saturday, 32-13. Flu affected results of these 2 meets with Koucek out for Palatine at 95, with Arlington's Jerry Bonn pinning in 35 seconds; Deming out for Arlington at 112 with freshman Mike Zucchero stepping in but losing; and Deming, Neunsinger, Rose and Klehm all unable to travel to Oak Lawn.

Wrestling coaches John Ellis of Palatine and Dick Mudge of Heights played "chess" with their men in an effort to put their best mat forward. The Pirates' Lundgren was shifted to 175 pounds, and so was the Cardinals' Al Rose, instead of the usual 165. It was Thackery of Heights vs. Kiraly of Palatine in a draw at 165.

Arlington Jr. High 5s Whip Palatine Twice

Arlington Heights junior high school basketball teams whipped Palatine twice Saturday in the Arlington gym, the heavies winning, 32-28, and the lights, 58-21.

The heavies game was a slow scoring affair. Fred Empkie, Mike Kent and Ricky Johnston all dropped in buckets for Coach Bob Spinks to put Heights ahead, 7-4, the opening period, a lead that was stretched to 16-9 by the half.

ARLINGTON widened the margin the third period to 26-16, but Palatine rallied the final stanza to shorten the victory to 6 points. Howland twice hit from the field in the final quarter, with DePue, Foster and Helms each adding 1 for 12 points.

High pointers for the game were Empkie with 12, Kent with 7 and Johnston with 6 for Arlington. Bruce Fichte scored 5, Beckman 1. For Palatine it was Howland with 13, DePue 7, Helms 6, Foster 2.

FOR THE LIGHTS the end was never in doubt. Arlington ran up a 15-2 opening period score, stretched it to 33-7 at the half. Third period was fairly even with Heights outscoring Palatine, 10-5, but final stanza saw the hosts rack in 15 more the final quarter.

Bob Inman was high scorer for Coach Ted Wissen, making 3 buckets the first period, 5 the second and 2 the third. His 20 points were tops for the game. Phil Gustafson tallied 5 baskets for Heights, with Jim Kennedy scoring 10 points. Others included Grant Walhoff with 6, Capt. Bill Lips with 4, Fred Lussow 3, Ken Mueller 2, Bill Spomer 2 and Tom Clark.

Officials for both games included Bill Schmidt scorer and Jerry Kouzmanoff timer.

Heights Wins First Gymnastics Meet; York Next

Arlington Heights high school gymnasts won their first meet in fine style Friday, 83-65, before a crowd of almost 100 adults. This Thursday, Jan. 12, Cardinals will be host in a 4:45 meet with York.

Heights made 4 grand slams on horizontal bar, parallel bar, side horse and rings. Leyden won a surprising 13-9 victory on long horse, won trampoline 13-9, and tumbling on forfeit. Both John and Dick Kimbrough were unable to compete for Coach Gay Hughes because of the flu.

Horizontal bar: John Koeppen, Bob Baas and Bruce Babb finished 1-2-3 for Heights.

PARALLEL BAR: John Koeppen, Bob Baas, Dick Nieland finished 1-2-3 for Arlington.

Side horse: John Koeppen, Fritz Snyder, Tom Pendleton ranked 1-2-3 for the locals.

Rings: Dick Nieland, John Koeppen and Bud Holm finished 1-2-3 for Coach Hughes.

On long horse Dick Nieland was third, John Koeppen fourth, Bob Hawk fifth.

On trampoline Bob Meierhofer second, Dave Peterson fourth and Gary Moreland sixth.

A VARIED lineup will be seen in action against York, in its first year of gymnastics competition. Gary Moreland, Bob Meierhofer and Dave Peterson will compete in tumbling and trampoline.

On horizontal bar will be Dan Schack, Bruce Robb and Marty Green. Mike Spalding, Roger Meyer and Ed Wilson will compete on parallel bar. On side horse will be John Kimbrough, Robb and Wilson.

On long horse will be Spalding, Wilson and Robb. On the rings will be seen John Kimbrough, Robb and Tom Seward.

Red Devils Win

The big game Tuesday evening in the YMCA Church League pitted the Arlington Hi-Y Red Devils vs. the Arlington Hi-Y Bruisers. The league-leading Red Devils came out on top, 53-35, in a hard-fought game.

Accurate shooting, superior rebounding, and better floor play all helped the winners take an early lead and hold it throughout. The victory was the sixth straight for the undefeated Red Devils while the loss, their second against 4 wins, dropped the Bruisers into third place behind Christ E., and R.

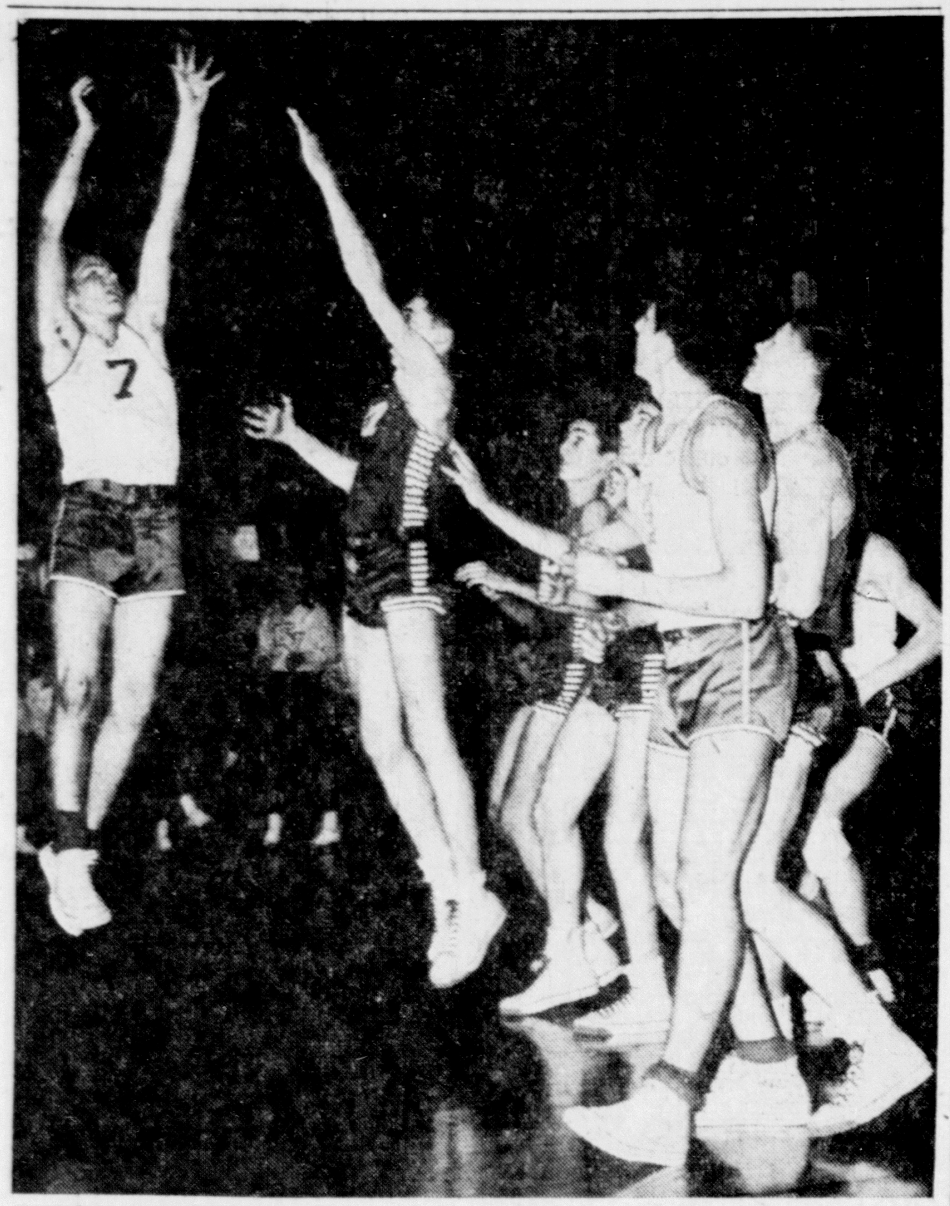
Cards Upset Glenbard, But Lose At Home To Riverside



TERRY BIEFIELD (7) tried to stop this one for Fenton frosh-sophs, but Benjamin (47) of Ela-Vernon made it. Otherwise, though, the locals had things their own way as they whipped the young Bears, 49-38.

The Fenton sophomores are leading the league with a 6-0 record, and play host to Grant Friday night. Also seen for Fenton is Chuck Christiansen (4). —Staff Photo

by PETE SWANSON

Arlington traveled to Glenbard Friday and came home victorious over the highly rated Hilltoppers, 73-70. The game was well played and saw both teams shoot well. The Cards rallied to win in the final five minutes.

Entering the final quarter Glenbard led 58-55. After three and a half minutes, the margin was stretched to 68-61. Two jump shots by Ashley and a set shot by Sujack quickly reduced the margin to a single tally. Arlington got the ball again and Striegel's brace of foul shots put the Cards in the lead 69-68. Sujack's drive in made it 71-68. Glenbard drew within one on two free throws by Pond.

Arlington tried to stall, but missed free throws gave the Hilltoppers opportunities. However, the home team couldn't take advantage of them. The win was iced when Malzahn hit a jump shot with 10 seconds to play.

IN FIRST HALF both teams were hitting well from the field, but the home 5 was off from the foul line. The score was tied 6 times, and the lead changed hands twice in the first 2 periods. The locals opened up a 6 point lead once, but the Hilltoppers came right back.

Glenbard held a short edge throughout the third stanza as Rich Edwards and Bill Biederman scored well from outside. Biederman was especially hot with 6 baskets. Randag and Striegel scored 8 and 7 points respectively for the Cards. The Hilltoppers hit well all period, and the Cards picked up later in the quarter.

IN THE FINAL period the Cards got the important rebounds and had an advantage in rebounding, including 70 per cent of all rebounds during the game. The Lestermen had one of their best nights shooting-wise and showed themselves adept at ball handling in the closing minutes after going ahead.

Scoring was well-balanced for both squads. For Arlington Ashley had 20, Striegel 14, Randag 12, and Sujack 11. For Glenbard Biederman hit 20, Dick Pond 13, R. M. Edwards 11, and John Thomas and Rich Edwards 10 each.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S ball game was ragged on both sides. Cardinal players blew easy shots, threw passes away, and failed to take advantage of many opportunities. It might have been just an off night after a fine performance the previous night. Certainly, however, the same team effort shown against Glenbard did not appear in this game.

The Bulldogs led most of the time during the opening half. Both teams were off in their shooting and made a lot of mistakes. Riverside had a slight advantage on the boards.

A FEW POINTS down most of the time, Arlington tied the score and went ahead in the closing minutes of the second quarter. That the teams were cold and wasted many chances is demonstrated by the fact that each caged just 6 baskets in the first 2 quarters. During the first 6½ minutes of the second quarter, both teams were able to muster just one basket between them.

The Cards led 41-39 entering the final eight minutes. Twice the locals enjoyed five point margins, 45-40 and 47-42. Then the visitors took the lead by registering the next six points, the last two coming on a set shot by Wayne Givens. John Sujack put the home quintet into the lead again, 49-48, with a set shot. But another set shot, this one by Joe Schmidt, put the Bulldogs in front to stay. Arlington had chances left but lost its poise, committing avoidable fouls and making bad passes. Free throws made the game safe for Riverside.

Wayne Givens and John Sujack led the scoring with 21 and 19 points respectively.

Antioch Rolls Over Palatine

by JOE GODDARD

A small but very fast and alert Antioch basketball squad proved their worth Friday night when they ran up a sound 76 to 44 victory over Palatine at Antioch. The Sequoits, in sixth place and defending this position over the threatening Pirates, quickly ran up a 17 to 6 first quarter lead and added 25 points in a red-hot second quarter to give them a satisfying 23 point half time lead. Only three shots were missed during this surge.

An effective full court press employed by Antioch throughout most of the game helped them run up this convincing score.

PARKER and Reckers were the only Sequoits in double figures with 19 and 17 points respectively as the remaining players were bunched together evenly.

Bob Coates, held scoreless in the first half, scored 11 points to lead junior Terry Moore, who came off the bench to score 10 points.

Arlington JVs Beat Niles In 60-57 Tilt

Arlington JV cagers proved greedy hosts Monday by whipping Niles, 60-57. The visitors took an opening period lead, 14-10, but Heights came back strong for an 8 point margin at the half. Niles cut it to 3 points going into the home stretch, but could come no closer.

Arlington scoring was well divided. Pat Brownell and Dan Vittum each scored 6 baskets with Tom Jacobsen carding 5 and Dick Seich 4. Jacobsen and Vittum were high with 15 points.

Van Mersberger was tops for Niles with 6 buckets and 8 of 12 free throws. Neimer tallied 7 buckets for the losers.

Frosh Lose —

by MAX ZOLLNER

Ela-Vernon's frosh trounced Fenton 48-27 on the Bisons court Saturday morning. Luerssern led the Bears with 17 tallies while Chuck Reeves and Don DiOrio paced the losers with 9 pionts apiece.

Fenton outscored the Bears 15-11 in the first period as Don DiOrio and Chuck Reeves hit for 7 and 6 points respectively.

The Bears came to life in the last two minutes of the second quarter scoring six markers to take a 23-21 advantage over the Bisons at halftime.

Fenton's shooting was off in the third stanza as the team notched only 2 points to Ela's 14. The hapless Bisons didn't fare much better in the final period as the Bears outscored them 11-4 to make a final score of Ela 48, Fenton 27.

Arlington Wrestlers Top Palatine, Lose To Oak Lawn

by JOE GODDARD

Palatine's varsity and frosh-soph wrestling teams were defeated by Arlington Heights, 24 to 19 and 45 to 11 in a dual meet at Palatine Friday night.

The neighboring rivalries were both up for the meet as their spirit and style indicated.

Palatine was granted a 5 to 0 lead before the match even began when Rhode at heavyweight drew a forfeit. Bonn officially started the meet for Heights by pinning Sweet to tie the score at five all.

STARTING with Carlino's win over Pollien at 103 for Heights, the lead was lost, tied, lost again and tied again, and finally lost for good when Capt. Ebert and Beier at 133 and 138 respectively won for Heights with a decision and fall.

Denny Lundgren and Dilks pulled the Pirates to within two points but, after Kiraly and Thackery tied, Rose decisioned Richard Lundgren to decide the meet.

IT WAS the second loss inflicted on the Pirates, both by one decision.

Arlington Heights high school varsity wrestlers edged Palatine, 24-19, Friday night, then lost to Oak Lawn Saturday, 32-13. Flu affected results of these 2 meets with Koucek out for Palatine at 95, with Arlington's Jerry Bonn pinning in 35 seconds; Deming out for Arlington at 112 with freshman Mike Zucchero stepping in but losing; and Deming, Neunsinger, Rose and Klehm all unable to travel to Oak Lawn.

Wrestling coaches John Ellis of Palatine and Dick Mudge of Heights played "chess" with their men in an effort to put their best mat forward. The Pirates' Lundgren was shifted to 175 pounds, and so was the Cardinals' Al Rose, instead of the usual 165. It was Thackery of Heights vs. Kiraly of Palatine in a draw at 165.

ONLY WINNERS for Arlington against Oak Lawn were Ralph Carlino on a pin at 103, Jack Ebert at a decision at 133, Ed Beier in a draw at 138, Fred Steingraber in a decision at 154.

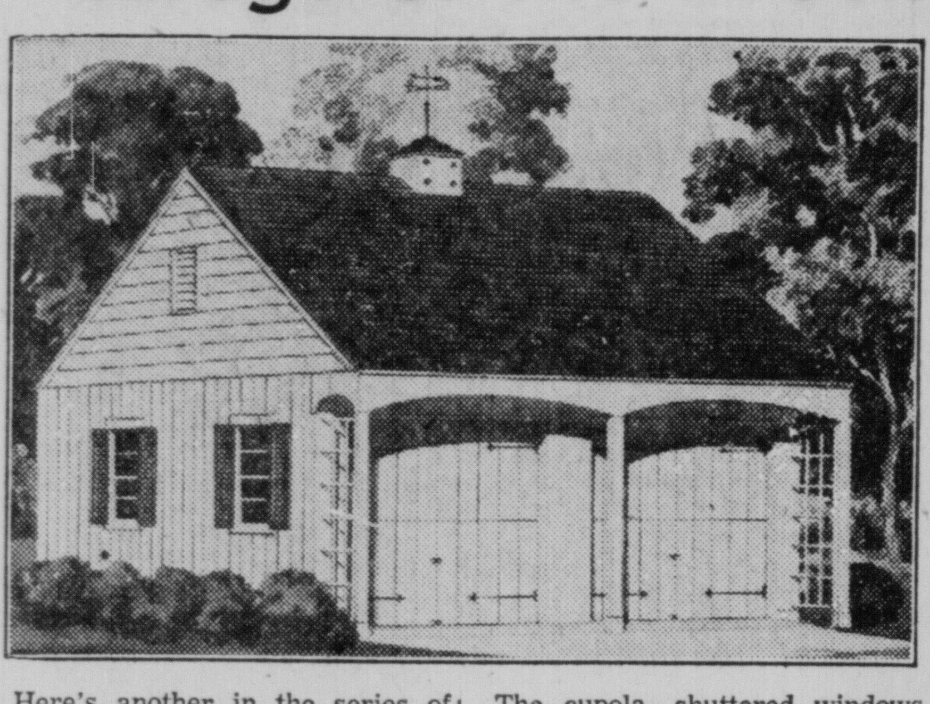
Garage of the Week



Here's another in the series of garage designs proving so popular, as submitted by National plan service. Complete blueprints are available from many local lumber dealers. This is a 2-car model.

The cupola, shuttered windows, decorative hardware on the doors, the trellis and the roof overhang at the entrance are all attractive features of this 2-car garage. (DL

Carpenters And Do-It-Yourself Fans Get Break In New Rules

Do-it-yourself converts and the nation's millions of carpenters and lumber users will welcome this news from west coast lumber mill

Early in the spring, a new set of grading rules will become effective for Douglas fir, west coast hemlock, western red cedar and Sitka spruce lumber.

OUT THE WINDOW go old number designations 1, 2, 3 and 4, according to H. V. Simpson, head of the west coast lumbermen's association. In their place, the construction grades of these species of board and dimension lumber will be named in this order: construction, standard, utility and economy.

Simpson pointed out that the grading rules embody the first major changes in many years and will be as easily understood by the ordinary purchaser of a single board as by a contractor who uses carloads of lumber at a time.

CHANGES in the grading rules of west coast lumber, Simpson explained, make a real contribution to better understanding of one of the country's most commonly bought comodities. He went on to explain that lumber grading has two purposes: 1) to grade a piece of lumber for what it is intended to do, like joist, stud or rafter grades, and 2) to grade lumber for its beauty and appearance as in finish and pattern grades.

The lumber leader said that architects, engineers and lumber specifiers will find in the new rules a more realistic approach and definition of the engineering qualities found in the strong west coast species of fir and hemlock.

At Stephens

Miss Charlene Rehfeldt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rehfeldt 315 N. Pine ave., Arlington Heights, a junior at Stephens college in Columbia, Mo., has been elected to the House Council of Wales Hall, junior residence hall in which she lives. She was also elected secretary for her pledge class of Alpha, Alpha, Alpha, local social sorority on campus.

At Indiana

Indiana university has recently named Pat Watkins of Arlington Heights to the I. U. foundation. The foundation plans and sponsors the Little 500, a 500-lap bicycle race, held in Bloomington, Ind., each spring. Proceeds from the race go for scholarships for working students.

Miss Watkins was also recently elected vice president of Gamma Alpha Chi, national professional honorary for women in advertising. (CC

At Bowling Green

Dale Christensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Christensen of Inverness countryside, Palatine, a sophomore at Bowling Green state university has been elected president of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity pledge class. Dale, a 1954 graduate of Palatine township high school, is majoring in business and physical education. Last year he was a member of the freshman baseball team.

At Marquette

Illinois students attending Marquette university in Milwaukee, Wis., include four residents of Arlington Heights. They are Mary T. Ellis, 401 N. State rd., senior in liberal arts; Geraldine M. Kuhn, 326 E. Cypress st., sophomore in business administration; Bernard J. Malburg, 1502 Kensington rd., junior in law and John P. Milnamow, 212 Derbyshire lane, sophomore in enginering.

Now observing its 75th anniversary with a year-long series of academic and cultural events, Marquette university has the largest enrollment in its history with 9,843 students enrolled during the current semester. (CC

At St. Joseph's

Richard F. Koch, a son of Mrs. Mary Helen Koch of 117 Fairview, Mt. Prospect, has been named to the dean's honor list for the mid-semester grading period at St. Joseph's college. An academic index of 3.5 of a possible 4.0 is necessary for recognition on the dean's list.

Koch, a freshman engineering major, merited an index of 3.88. He is a 1955 graduate of Maryville academy.

About Your Health

Despite medical advances in rehabilitation, wearing glasses to correct defects of vision is still resisted by many persons as a drawback, especially among women. Yet wearing glasses with the proper correction not only gives clear vision, but also has a great effect on one's general health, the educational committee of the Illinois state medical society points out.

The shape of the eyeball has a great bearing on its vision. When the front part of the eyeball is irregular in contour, the condition produced is called astigmatism. All these conditions mean that the sight is impaired, but they can be corrected by a specially trained ophthalmologist or eye specialist. The results of proper treatment are often remarkable.

THE CHILD in school who is considered slow or dull may lead the class if defective vision is his drawback and is corrected. But without well fitted glasses he cannot see. His brain may be good, but the center located there to help him learn by receiving impressions of everything about him is blocked off because the eye itself is not functioning properly as the channel of such impressions. All eye difficulties cannot be corrected with glasses, however.

Many persons are unaware of the great colorful beauties that confront us on all sides because their defective vision goes untreated. Many persons have other diseases of the eye that could be corrected by competent medical care.

In the farsighted eye the rays of light come to a focus behind the retina, the tissue at the back of the eye which receives the light rays. A convex type lens will bring the rays of light to proper focus on the retina. The nearsighted eye focuses the rays in front of the retina, and a concave lens is needed to focus the light properly on the retina.

IF ASTIGMATISM or muscle imbalance is present in either condition, a suitable correction must be included in the lens to correct this defect.

The eye changes as we grow older. Because of this, it is necessary to have a periodical examination of the eyes so that they can be accommodated to the change.

New O'Hare Flights

Direct airline service from O'Hare field, Chicago International airport, to California became available for the first time when United Air Lines transferred 2 DC-6 coach schedules from Midway to the huge new airport January 9.

The new flights which provide evening non-stop service to both Los Angeles and San Francisco, will bring United's O'Hare schedules to 12 arrivals and an equal number of departures daily.

The transferred flights will provide inbound service to O'Hare from New York, Philadelphia and Detroit before departing for California.

'Travel With Rotavator' Could Be Firm's Motto

Going to work for the Howard Rotavator company ranks right along with joining the navy as a way of seeing the world. Dave Ingram, a young Englishman now working at the firm's Arlington Heights office, can offer testimony of that fact.

He is the third in his family, who has crossed oceans and continents for the company. His father visited the United States a decade ago to establish distributorships for the rotavator, a farm implement made in England. A brother later emigrated from England to San Francisco and is now west coast representative for Howard.

Ingram is a modest young man who would much rather talk about farm machinery than himself. But he admitted to being 21-years-old and added that he has been employed by Howard for more than 5 years. He spent 5 years training at the home plant of the worldwide firm. It is in Horndon in Essex, just 6 miles from the Ingram home at Brentwood.

"HOWARD EXPORTS rotavators from that plant to 90 countries," he said proudly.

In his 5 years at the Horndon plant Ingram learned everything there was to know about the mechanical operation and construction of the cultivators. He came to America primarily to put this knowledge to work as a salesman. He feels that there is an almost limitless market in the Midwest for the machines. There is only one product similar to it on the American market and "ours is far superior to it" Ingram smiled.

He explained that the rotavator, though rather new to American farmers, was first sold in Australia by its inventor, Albert C. Howard, in 1923.

The blade on the rotavator is L-shaped and thus radically different from the type of blade used in harrows and discs. The makers claim that their machine "plows, discs and harrows in 1 operation" and point to its successful use on such varied tasks as rice and sugar cane cultivation, land reclamation and weed-cutting. There are some 87 models made, including some that a week-end farmer can use on his 5-acre plot.

THE ARLINGTON HEIGHTS office is the American headquarters of the firm and the only parts depot. Although some 5000 spare parts are carried in stock, the turnover is not large because most distributors receive both parts and implements direct from England.

Ingram is not the only one of his clan working in the local headquarters. A cousin, John Craig, is the chief engineer for the American branch and works down the hall from Ingram in a cubicle crammed with drawing boards and enough odd parts to construct a space satellite. Ingram is staying with Craig and his wife at their home not far from the plant.

Craig's wife is English and around the holidays cooks up English specialities for the small English colony at the office. The English influence has lost out at work however. During the morning break a strong brew of coffee is served, instead of, as might be expected, the traditional tea.

Ingram said that America had made a very favorable impression on him, particularly its great numbers of automobiles.

"At first," he said, "I planned on staying here a month or two. Now I think I may stay a year or two." (BB

Efficiency Key To Food Costs, A&P Head Declares

There should be plentiful supplies of food for America's record level appetites in 1956 with retail prices continuing about as low as in 1955, Ralph W. Burger, president of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea company, said.

Mr. Burger said that food prices in 1955 were 1.5 per cent lower than in 1954 and 5.8 per cent below the post-world war 2 peak reached in 1952. The over-all cost of living in 1955, he noted, was down only four-tenths of one per cent.

"Present forecasts show that food production during the new year will come close to the record 1955 level and that prices to consumers will remain about the same. With average weather there should be adequate food supplies to meet consumer demand," Mr. Burger said.

IN 1955, he said, the nation's families ate better than ever before and made heavier purchases of what were once "luxury foods." Per capita meat consumption, one example he cited, exceeded 160 pounds — this was 5 per cent more than in 1954 and the highest for any year on record since 1908.

"Some price reductions may have gone beyond the point where farmers can get a fair return for their investment and labor. Pork is a dramatic example of a food that got so low in price that the producers actually suffered a loss."

Mr. Burger added that the food industry is aware of the problem and is trying to correct it through drives to move surpluses into consumption. It is also trying to narrow the spread between farm and retail prices through increasing the efficiency of its own operations, he said.

Although retail prices were lower in 1955, said Mr. Burger, people spent more money for food. This was because of the greater demand for higher priced items and for foods with "built-in" services, such as cake mixes, frozen foods and frozen meals, ready-to-cook and pre-cooked items, he explained.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Sees Bright Future In Furniture Outlook

E. H. Lindgren of Arlington Furniture Mart left for Chicago Wednesday to attend the 1956 national home furniture market showings. While at the market, Mr. Lindgren will take part in furniture industry meetings and discussions aimed at finding newer and better ways to serve this area's homemaker in 1956.

As a member of the national retail furniture association he will attend 2 breakfast meetings, at which he will survey the future of the home goods industry with other leading furniture retailers from all parts of the country. One topic for discussion will be an analysis of advantages and disadvantages of downtown shopping area, as compared to the outlying wayside shopping center.

Asked what he thought of the business prospects for 1956, Mr. Lindgren said, "Furniture sales throughout the nation for 1955 were 10 per cent higher than in 1954. I expect this sound business condition should continue into the spring of this year."

Regarding furniture trends, he added, "From all indications, the new furniture for this year will offer a bigger value to this area's homemaker than ever before in design, in construction, an din actual dollar value." He predicted general style trend will be to elegance without ornateness. Blue, he revealed, will be the color news of the year - appearing in many shades in upholstery fabrics and here and there as an accent note in leather trim on occasional tables and as a finish on some bedroom suites. 'Travel With Rotavator' Could Be Firm's Motto

Going to work for the Howard Rotavator company ranks right along with joining the navy as a way of seeing the world. Dave Ingram, a young Englishman now working at the firm's Arlington Heights office, can offer testimony of that fact.

He is the third in his family, who has crossed oceans and continents for the company. His father visited the United States a decade ago to establish distributorships for the rotavator, a farm implement made in England. A brother later emigrated from England to San Francisco and is now west coast representative for Howard.

Ingram is a modest young man who would much rather talk about farm machinery than himself. But he admitted to being 21-years-old and added that he has been employed by Howard for more than 5 years. He spent 5 years training at the home plant of the worldwide firm. It is in Horndon in Essex, just 6 miles from the Ingram home at Brentwood.

"HOWARD EXPORTS rotavators from that plant to 90 countries," he said proudly.

In his 5 years at the Horndon plant Ingram learned everything there was to know about the mechanical operation and construction of the cultivators. He came to America primarily to put this knowledge to work as a salesman. He feels that there is an almost limitless market in the Midwest for the machines. There is only one product similar to it on the American market and "ours is far superior to it" Ingram smiled.

He explained that the rotavator, though rather new to American farmers, was first sold in Australia by its inventor, Albert C. Howard, in 1923.

The blade on the rotavator is L-shaped and thus radically different from the type of blade used in harrows and discs. The makers claim that their machine "plows, discs and harrows in 1 operation" and point to its successful use on such varied tasks as rice and sugar cane cultivation, land reclamation and weed-cutting. There are some 87 models made, including some that a week-end farmer can use on his 5-acre plot.

THE ARLINGTON HEIGHTS office is the American headquarters of the firm and the only parts depot. Although some 5000 spare parts are carried in stock, the turnover is not large because most distributors receive both parts and implements direct from England.

Ingram is not the only one of his clan working in the local headquarters. A cousin, John Craig, is the chief engineer for the American branch and works down the hall from Ingram in a cubicle crammed with drawing boards and enough odd parts to construct a space satellite. Ingram is staying with Craig and his wife at their home not far from the plant.

Craig's wife is English and around the holidays cooks up English specialities for the small English colony at the office. The English influence has lost out at work however. During the morning break a strong brew of coffee is served, instead of, as might be expected, the traditional tea.

Ingram said that America had made a very favorable impression on him, particularly its great numbers of automobiles.

"At first," he said, "I planned on staying here a month or two. Now I think I may stay a year or two." (BB

Tree Stockpiles Seen Improving Home Improving

A new kind of stockpile will help the U. S. beat the dwindling supplies of a great natural resource - mature shade trees for the home landscape.

The stockpile is for home owners who don't want to wait years for saplings to grow up to enjoy the beauty and shade of lush trees.

Davey tree experts now are collecting good-sized trees on a production line basis for stocking on their own tree "preserves." The trees are balled and burlapped and ready for transplanting at any time.

The first of such big tree collection centers has been established in Kent, Ohio, Davey headquarters, to serve the Cleveland, Akron and Youngstown areas. Others are planned for the East, South and Middle West. One big advantage is the home owner can select the tree he wants without having to travel miles into the country to see it or choose it from a group of photographs.

Bigger trees—those with better than three inch trunk diameters —are hard to come by these days. Large estates are broken up and desirable farm trees just off highways have vanished in the main.

Under the new system, tree men open up new sources of supply by collecting from remote areas in early fall before soils become swampy. It is now possible to obtain groups of fine trees at one time. Previously, trees were moved and transplanted immediately on an individual order basis.

Price Supports Costing Farmers

Agriculture is now paying off the mortgage placed on future income by all ill-advised commodity price support program, according to Warren E. Collins, research director for the Illinois agricultural association.

In an article appearing in the January, 1956, issue of the IAA Record, Collins also states that agriculture is paying the price of progress.

"Technological improvements and farmer ingenuity are simply outrunning market development," he points out in the statewide Farm Bureau organization's publication.

"BOTH OF THESE are obligations which must be met just as surely as obligations to the local banker," Collins writes. "The price support obligation is the more painful of the two since it is a known amount and is due for immediate settlement or renewal."

The 1956 installment on this mortgage, he states, will be in the form of lower commodity prices, higher operating costs and declining farm income.

But the research director adds that there appears to be some bright spots in the 1956 outlook for farmers.

These include "a continuing record rate of business activity, increased consumer buying power, improving foreign markets, greater efficiency of agricultural production, and a declining number of people on farms," Collins reports. (Fm

Palatine 4-H Holds Planning Meeting

Newly-elected officers of Palatine township 4-H club met with their leader, Harold Bergman, December 28 to plan the club program for the next 6 months. Officers attending the meeting were Edwin Thurnau, president; Dorothy Plote, vice president; Phyllis Berlin, secretary; Billy Engler, recreation chairman and Steve Bergman, reporter.

A meeting of the club was held at Highland Grove school January 10.

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

Religion in America has become a distinguishing mark of the heritage of the people. Nowhere else in the world has the assumption that people are Protestants, Catholics or Jews grown so strongly into the texture of society. Here we have the emergence of the "triple melting pot."

These are some of the conclusions of Will Herberg in a recent book "Protestant-Catholic-Jew." Although Mr. Herberg is a Jew, he has studied under some of the great Protestant theologians. In addition to writing books of Judaism, he writes frequently on the sociological aspects of religion in the United States.

WITH THE REBELLION that many second-generation Americans felt against the national backgrounds and customs of their parents, there was once a feeling that a new kind of culture would develop in this country. Interestingly, the third generation group, (the fully Americanized group) turned from national customs but held more closely to the religious affiliation of their forebears. Hence, the development of the triple melting pot.

Herberg quotes President Eisenhower in an article on our religious concern, to the effect that everyone ought to be participating in a church, "and I don't care what it is."

But this is not indicative of an indifference to the theological implications of one faith or another. It suggests the common ground of religion, the assumption that all of us ought to be churchmen. Here, as nowhere else, that means Protestant or Catholic or Jew.

Long after the Swedish Methodists and the German Methodists ceased use of the national languages, there were still separate denominations. There is a Methodist church and there are groups that are basically methodist. The same is true of Presbyterian or Reformed churches — although we could point to the interesting and hopeful fact that of the Evangelical and Reformed Church of America (evangelical suggesting its Methodist origin and Reformed suggesting its Presbyterian origin, and nothing suggesting its German origin) which is now moving toward a further union with the Congregational-Christian churches of America (which has nothing in its name suggesting its old-American origin).

THIS NATIONAL origin framework is evident also in the structure of the Roman Catholic church. Here, author Herberg traces the development of predominatly Irish, Italian or Polish churches within the various dioceses. A similar development may be seen in Judaism where the earliest group were chiefly Spanish Jews. Then came the German, Polish and Russian Jews.

Through it all there is growing a predominatly American idea of religion, which has "democracy" as one of its pillars and "tolerance" as another. The sense of religion is frequently general in this context, but at heart it believes firmly that we are all striving for the same thing and that it is a good thing for people to Protestants or Catholics or Jews.

Whether or not it is a good thing depends on a much more careful research into the theology and the sociology of the American people in their religious habits. One impressive statistic is that 96 per cent of the American people believe in God and their prayers (according to the Ladies' Home Journal survey) and more than 80 per cent of these do not believe that their faith has any great effect on their daily lives.

Up And Doing 4-H Holds Yule Dinner

Up and Doing 4-H club held its Christmas party December 27 at the home of Nancy and Sharon Garlisch. Games were played and gifts exchanged. Dinner was served with a nativity scene as the centerpiece.

Members of the group thank the Garlisch family and all who helped make their Christmas party a success.

A meeting of the organization will be held January 17 at the home of Sandra and Merrielie Moehling and a tour is planned for January 25.

Tree Stockpiles Seen Improving Home Improving

A new kind of stockpile will help the U. S. beat the dwindling supplies of a great natural resource - mature shade trees for the home landscape.

The stockpile is for home owners who don't want to wait years for saplings to grow up to enjoy the beauty and shade of lush trees.

Davey tree experts now are collecting good-sized trees on a production line basis for stocking on their own tree "preserves." The trees are balled and burlapped and ready for transplanting at any time.

The first of such big tree collection centers has been established in Kent, Ohio, Davey headquarters, to serve the Cleveland, Akron and Youngstown areas. Others are planned for the East, South and Middle West. One big advantage is the home owner can select the tree he wants without having to travel miles into the country to see it or choose it from a group of photographs.

Bigger trees—those with better than three inch trunk diameters—are hard to come by these days. Large estates are broken up and desirable farm trees just off highways have vanished in the main.

Under the new system, tree men open up new sources of supply by collecting from remote areas in early fall before soils become swampy. It is now possible to obtain groups of fine trees at one time. Previously, trees were moved and transplanted immediately on an individual order basis.

Price Supports Costing Farmers

Agriculture is now paying off the mortgage placed on future income by all ill-advised commodity price support program, according to Warren E. Collins, research director for the Illinois agricultural association.

In an article appearing in the January, 1956, issue of the IAA Record, Collins also states that agriculture is paying the price of progress.

"Technological improvements and farmer ingenuity are simply outrunning market development," he points out in the statewide Farm Bureau organization's publication.

"BOTH OF THESE are obligations which must be met just as surely as obligations to the local banker," Collins writes. "The price support obligation is the more painful of the two since it is a known amount and is due for immediate settlement or renewal."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Man's God-given right to health and healing will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday, January 15, in the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Life."

Christ Jesus' healing of the centurion's servant who "was sick, and ready to die" (Luke 7) will be among the accounts of the life-giving power of God to be read from the King James Version of the Bible.

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (369:16): "Jesus never asked if disease were acute or chronic, and he never recommended attention to laws of health, never gave drugs, never prayed to know if God were willing that a man should live. He understood man, whose Life is God, to be immortal, and knew that man has not two lives, one to be destroyed and the other to be made indestructible."

The long-lost

Key to healing

"If God can heal some things, God can heal anything —and will," says Christian Science. If the sinner's prayer for help is answered, the sick man's prayer also can find the same response. How?

A thankful multitude testify that Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy is the "key" to thiis priceless understanding. It unlocks the Bible promises, opening for all their healing power. This book, the Christian Science textbook, shows you how to turn to God—how to have His help here and now, no matter what the human need may be.

Science and Health may be bought, borrowed, or read at Christian Science Reading Rooms throughout the world.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Man's God-given right to health and healing will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday, January 15, in the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Life."

Christ Jesus' healing of the centurion's servant who "was sick, and ready to die" (Luke 7) will be among the accounts of the life-giving power of God to be read from the King James Version of the Bible.

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (369:16): "Jesus never asked if disease were acute or chronic, and he never recommended attention to laws of health, never gave drugs, never prayed to know if God were willing that a man should live. He understood man, whose Life is God, to be immortal, and knew that man has not two lives, one t- be destroyed and the other to be made indestructible."

The long-lost
Key to healing
"If God can heal some things, God can heal anything—and will," says Christian Science. If the sinner's prayer for help is answered, the sick man's prayer also can find the same response. How?
A thankful multitude testify that Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy is the "key" to thiis priceless understanding. It unlocks the Bible promises, opening for all their healing power. This book, the Christian Science textbook, shows you how to turn to God—how to have His help here and now, no matter what the human need may be.
Science and Health may be bought, borrowed, or read at Christian Science Reading Rooms throughout the world.

Bill Carroll Announces Candidacy for Legislature

John W. (Bill) Carroll of Park Ridge has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination as State Representative in the new 6th district.

Carroll has been administrative assistant to Lieut. Governor John Wm. Chapman during the last two sessions of the legislature. During the months he was serving in Springfield he was in constant contact with members of both houses of the General Assembly and all divisions of the administrative branch of the State Government.

BILL HAS BEEN active in Cook County and State Republican circles for many years and is president of the Maine Township Republican Club. He is known to thousands as a result of that activity and also as publisher of the Park Ridge ADVOCATE and several other newspapers in his immediate area.

Carroll has a record of demonstrated leadership over many years. A former Park Ridge alderman, he is past president of the Park Ridge Kiwanis Club, the Park Ridge Chamber of Commerce, The Suburban Publishers Association (of which he is now a director) and the Illinois Press Association.

Park Ridge Chairman of the March of Dimes for nine years, this year he is County Communities Chairman, and reports he has local Chairmen actively at work in all 96 towns in his area.

He is an active member of Sigma Delta Chi fraternity, the Elks, the Chicago Press club, National Editorial Association and the Holy Name Society of St. Paul of the Cross Church.

"THIS PRIMARY," says Carroll, "will be influenced greatly by the distaff vote. The women's effort is getting out the vote and their action in supporting a candidate or withholding approval will decide the party's nominee in the November election. I am fortunate that my wife, Carole, shares my feelings about public service. While I am busy during January with the Polio drive, Carole will begin the job of helping women in every township in our district to organize to make their voices heard and their wishes felt at the polls."

John W. Carroll resided in Skokie prior to moving to Park Ridge in 1940. He lives in his own home at 26 S. Merrill Avenue with his wife, Carole, and two children, Patricia 9 and Michael 6.

Bill Carroll Announces Candidacy for Legislature

John W. (Bill) Carroll of Park Ridge has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination as State Representative in the new 6th district.

Carroll has been administrative assistant to Lieut. Governor John Wm. Chapman during the last two sessions of the legislature. During the months he was serving in Springfield he was in constant contact with members of both houses of the General Assembly and all divisions of the administrative branch of the State Government.

BILL HAS BEEN active in Cook County and State Republican circles for many years and is president of the Maine Township Republican Club. He is known to thousands as a result of that activity and also as publisher of the Park Ridge ADVOCATE and several other newspapers in his immediate area.

Carroll has a record of demonstrated leadership over many years. A former Park Ridge alderman, he is past president of the Park Ridge Kiwanis Club, the Park Ridge Chamber of Commerce, The Suburban Publishers Association (of which he is now a director) and the Illinois Press Association.

Park Ridge Chairman of the March of Dimes for nine years, this year he is County Communities Chairman, and reports he has local Chairmen actively at work in all 96 towns in his area.

He is an active member of Sigma Delta Chi fraternity, the Elks, the Chicago Press club, National Editorial Association and the Holy Name Society of St. Paul of the Cross Church.

"THIS PRIMARY," says Carroll, "will be influenced greatly by the distaff vote. The women's effort is getting out the vote and their action in supporting a candidate or withholding approval will decide the party's nominee in the November election. I am fortunate that my wife, Carole, shares my feelings about public service. While I am busy during January with the Polio drive, Carole will begin the job of helping women in every township in our district to organize to make their voices heard and their wishes felt at the polls."

John W. Carroll resided in Skokie prior to moving to Park Ridge in 1940. He lives in his own home at 26 S. Merrill Avenue with his wife, Carole, and two children, Patricia 9 and Michael 6.

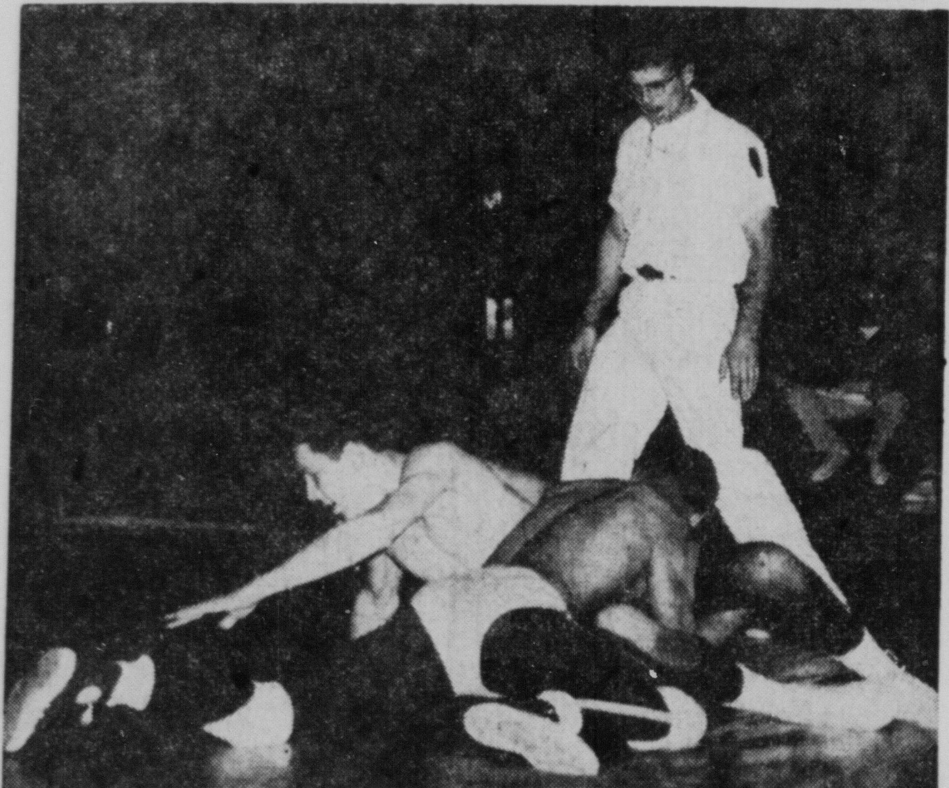
BOB LOCKWOOD (25) tried for this one for Arlington's frosh-sophs Saturday night against Riverside-Brookfield on the Cards' court. Jack Weber's back (15) is seen with several Riverside boys reaching for the ball, including Marton (6), Jorstad () and Pekarek (7). —Staff Photo



WRESTLING IS FAST BECOMING a full-fledged sport at local high schools with Palatine compiling a good record this season, Arlington down a bit but certain to come back strong next season, and Fenton, still awaiting mats. Palatine-Arlington rivalry was intense Friday night on the Pirates' mat, though the Cardinals won, 24-19.

BILL FERRY of Arlington had the advantage in the 103 pound frosh-soph bout at Palatine Friday night and pinned Hamilton to give Heights frosh-sophs their first points. The Heights squad won, 45-11, though it was a tight affair in the varsity half of the meet with Arlington winning, 24-19. —Staff Photo

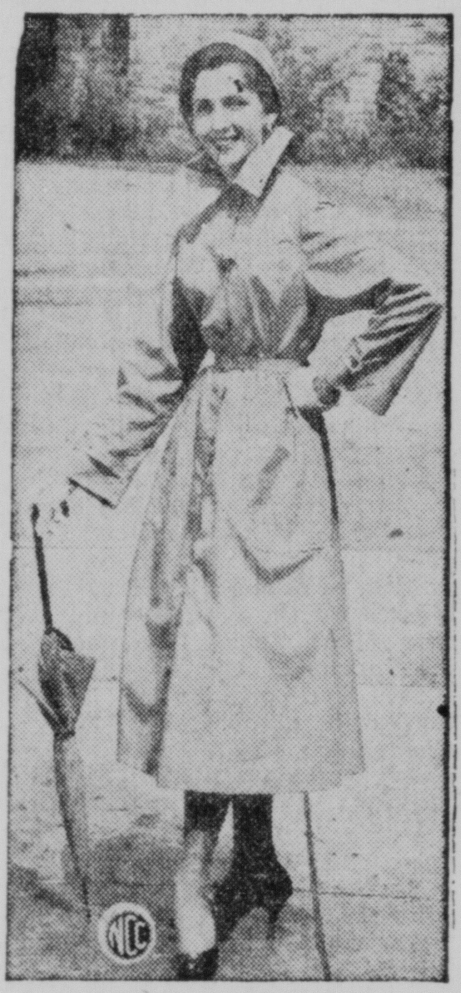
Cotton khaki today is part of the fashion world, as well as an essential fabric for the military. Seventeen magazine reports that cotton khaki is popular in young fashions this winter. This eye-catching outfit pairs a khaki and white blazer of cotton twill with cotton khaki shorts. The hood is an important fashion trend, the National Cotton Council notes.



This pretty miss is set for rainy weather in her Main Street water-repellent town and country coat. The coat has this season's popular slim lines, and her Black Watch plaid lining is the latest word in fashion. The cotton broadcloth coat buttons high at the neck for weather protection.

TURF BILLIARDS copped fifth spot in the Paddock men's tournament Sunday at Beverly Lanes. The fivesome grossed 2893 and will receive a check for $29.80. Smiling in anticipation of the promoter's party immediately following the last shift of bowling are, front row, Herb Luehring and Butts Peters. Back row, Herb Miller, Ed Duenn and Bob Duenn. —Staff Photo

SECOND SQUAD WINNER, but not placing in the money, was Langer Printing team of Palatine Community league. At the time, however, the five led the tournament. Front row, Bob Gubbe and Al Meyer. Back row, Ralph Langhorst, Bill Probst, Ron Probst.

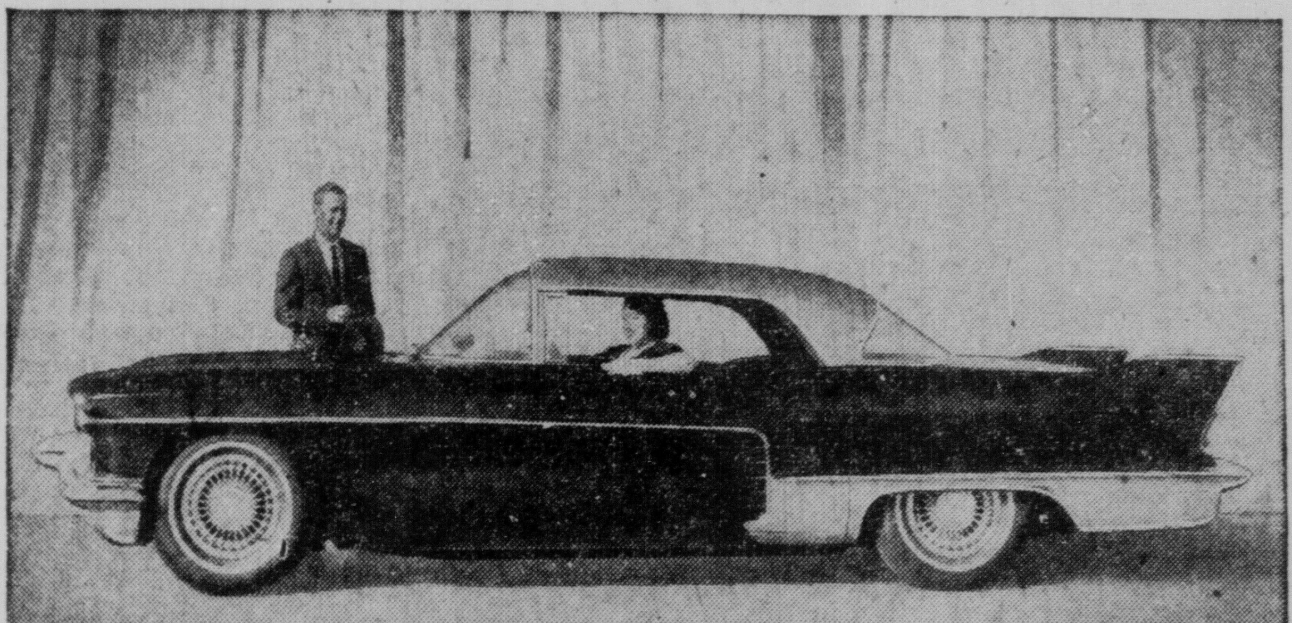
1956 VERSION of the sentimental cedar chest is shown here, with styling that tells you it will fit into any room in your home. Note the parquetry paneled doors. The wood is mahogany.



DREAM CAR BECOMES A REALITY—The Eldorado Brougham, first shown as an experimental dream car last year, is scheduled for limited production by the Cadillac Motor Car Division later this year. According to Cadillac, the car, which will sell for about $8,500, will feature the greatest number of technological advances ever included on a custom built automobile in the history of the automotive industry.

50 Years Ago

January 12, 1906

Every dollar paid to your home paper is a dollar toward community prosperity.

Geo. Kuebler holds the bowling record in this vicinity, with a score of 260. Palatine team defeated the Heights boys again Thursday, by a large score.

A comedy drama entitled "Uncle Josh," fresh from Vermont, will be given by the Woodman Forester team, second week in February.

Mr. Cuthbert Richmond is now a full fledged farmer, having secured a clear title to the Koelle farm of 100 acres. It s a nice place and he will put it under the highest state of cultivation. All he needs is a loving wife who will make a good housekeeper and they can live happy all their days.

Dan Bergman, altho he possesses an ideal dairy farm and has an unsurpassed reputation as a successful farmer started a small zoo at his place last Thursday. A calf was born with 2 heads, 4 eyes 2 mouths, etc. Dan thought it would take twice the amount of food and no increase in milk. He says his regular dairy is good enough.

Cosy and Bowsy have quit smoking and drinking. Bully for them. Cosy, our expert crack shot has quit hunting. He says it's getting too cold.

Rural carrier No. 2 has a new whistle. Open your ears when you see him coming down the road. Rural carrier No. 1 has a cooking stove in his wagon. Just watch the smoke as he goes by.

The Herald wants a good reporter or local editor who will furnish correct unbiased reports of council proceedings and all other public meetings and affairs at Arlington Heights. We want all the latest news and will pay a liberal salary for good service. For particulars apply to Editor H. C. Paddock.

The Poultry Show held in February, 1915 was such a success in arousing interest in high class poultry, that the Arlington Heights Poultry association has decided to hold another exhibit to stimulate further interest.

Mount Prospect: H. H. Chester & Co. are rushed at their onion warehouse and employ all the women and girls they can get to sort onions.

Dr. Abelman states that complying with the insistent demands made upon him and the interfering and losing of much time with his office hours and hospital practice, he has concluded to hold office hours Monday mornings from 9 to 12 and Saturday evenings from 7 to 9. The rooms immediately at the head of the front stairway leading to hall are being remodeled and decorated for him.

H. C. Matthei celebrated his birthday Monday by entertaining the children and the grandchildren.

What is Dr. R. M. Gibbs made of? He seldom, if ever wears an overcoat, but we did suppose that Thursday morning, with the thermometer 10 below would make him put on some outer apparel to keep out the frost. But no siree. We bet that he had to sneak out of the house without his wife knowing it. She would have been justified in shutting him up in a dark closet until he would promise to be a good boy and put on his overcoat.

An ice race is on deck at Wauconda Saturday for a purse of $125, also a free-for-all running race. The winter sport is a great event in the town north of us and many of the local boys attend.

Overheard on the street: P. L. Z. & W. Stockholder — "Well Hiram, we have decided to extend our road to Fox Lake." Hiram — "By gosh, if you'd straighten out what you've already got, you'd have enough to reach there and some."

County Commissioner William Busse of Mt. Prospect is a candidate for the Republican nomination for president of the county board. He will appear upon the Deneen ticket.

The Arlington Heights Poultry association is bending every effort towards the success of their Sixth Annual Poultry show.

The death of Seth Shepard is keenly felt throughout the rural schools of Cook county. From all townships come expressions of regret over his death.

Bensenville village board met in their first session of 1926, Thursday, January 7. President Korthauer presided, with the full membership of the board present. Many things of interest were widely discussed, but probably that of most interest was the flagrant defiance on the part of a few Bensenville citizens in respect to some of the ordinances passed last year.

Once again the Masonic Hall at Jefferson Park was the scene of an enthusiastic gathering of truck gardeners and farmers, members of the Cook County Truck Gardeners' and Farmers' association in their annual meeting January 9. The meeting was opened by President August Geweke.

Jack Johnson's semi-professionals easily defeated a pick-up team captained by Eddie Duenn, also of the Herald force at the Recreational Alleys Wednesday night.

Miss Henriette Klehm who was recently transferred from the Madison university to the Illinois, gives evidence in a recent letter that she is alive and alert in all lines of educational work. We feel sure Miss Henriette will get the best out of her fine opportunities.

Arlington Heights needs a snow plow. So think residents of Stonegate, Scarsdale and others. The clearing of snow from walks by adjoining residents may be all right for those parts of town where there are sidewalks, but those ultra-modern subdivisions of Stonegate and Scarsdale have no sidewalks and with the arrival of every snow storm those residents are snowed in.

A six and a half pound boy who arrived Sunday, Jan. 5 to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lempke of Arlington Heights, has the honor of being the first 1936 Arlington Heights baby and also the first grandchild and first great grandchild on both sides of the house.

The death of Mary Behling, four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Behling of Palatine Tuesday afternoon from spinal meningitis, has alarmed the community. This death followed one from acute meningitis last week that took Jack Heiden. The board of health has placed all homes under quarantine that have been exposed.

January 15, at 8:15 p.m. in Cutting hall, the Girls Glee club, and boys who are interested in music, are presenting a comic operetta in three acts, "The Dream Girl."

Mrs. Laura Kirchhoff, nee Schoppe, was born February 11, 1881, in Leyden Township, Cook county, Ill. Tuesday, Jan. 7, at an age of 54 years, she died.

Friday evening at 8:30 p.m. the Royal Neighbors will have a public installation at Franzen's hall, Bensenville.

After several years of illness which necessitated the constant services of a nurse, Miss Amanda Tiedmann passed away at her home in Bensenville, Thursday.

City wide bus service on a 25 minute schedule during rush periods and hourly service during the rest of the day is a possibility in Arlington Heights. The Arlington Motor Coach Co., of which Andrew Geisen of Des Plaines is president, has filed application asking for a certificate of convenience and necessity to establish four bus routes within the village. In the meantime Harvel Motor Coach Co. has made a similar application except that the service planned is confined to mornings and evening runs to Scarsdale and Stonegate.

A municipal building for the village of Mt. Prospect is a strong probability if general approval to the project is given at an informal meeting to be held next week.

In the recent Community Drive of which Jack Johnston was chairman, Mt. Prospect went over its quota. Mt. Prospect was one of 27 municipalities out of 95 in the county that in each campaign of the past three years, exceeded its quota.

Stockholders of the Palatine National Bank who met Tuesday evening in the banking headquarters re-elected the directors and heard some very fine figures on the progress the bank has made during the first year of its existence.

The Civic Improvement Assn. of Bensenville met Wednesday evening with president Howard Hendricksen presiding. The order for bronze plaque which is to be placed at the beginning of the row of trees at the corner of York st. and Memorial rd. was given. This row of sugar maples was planted in the fall of 1944 as a living memorial to all the men and women of the community who served in the armed forces during World War II and the plaque will be so inscribed.

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

from Patty McArdle

Dear Peg:

An impressive caravan of beggars, poets, caliphs and dancing girls have stepped out of an Arabian night and have pitched tents, put up cardboard mosques and are hawking their wares in the "bargain"-Bazaar from the stage of the Great Northern theatre. The title of this gawdy-bawdy, rowdy-dowdy bit of Arabian lore is "Kismet"—a bauble loaded with bangles and beads.

I suppose the production is harmless enough—that is, if you're broadminded about costuming. All the ladies in the cast wear what Americans imagine Arabian ladies wear, whose main interest is staying in the harem of some ruling caliph of fabulous wealth. However, there is little difference in yardage between the clothing of the rich palace ladies and their poor sisters who are forced to sell wares, beg or steal in the Bazaar.

THE SETTING OF THIS TALE is Baghdad, a jewel-like city of enchantment, untouched by democracy, where the rich stay rich and the poor stay poor and there is no maudlin middle-class to confuse the set-up. However, there is a police magistrate called the Wazir, who is second in command only to the Caliph himself. It's this fat, gruesome old fellow who makes life miserable for everyone in the cast. Into his hands, falls Hajj, magician-disguised poet and main male character of the play.

Through a series of coincidences, Wazir is convinced that he has in his palace a real wizard and then nothing is too good for the wonder-worker whose tricks all benefit the Wazir. However, he almost fails in his biggest trick of all. To prevent the members of his body from becoming dismembers, he has to figure out a way to make the Wazir happy by preventing the marriage of his own beautiful daughter, Marsinah, to the handsome young Caliph and at the same time consider her feelings, as she is madly in love with the Caliph and cannot understand why their meetings in the garden are being constantly frustrated.

THE WAZIR TRIES DESPERATELY to get the Caliph married to three Warrior princesses from neighboring countries, who even at that moment are breathing hotly down the borders of the homeland. The Caliph, being an impractical sort, still prefers the love of a sweet, poet's daughter, which leaves Hajj in the embarrassing position of deciding whether it will be his life or the Wazir's. The Wazir must go and he does. To words and music, he is artfully drowned in a pool on stage, by Hajj during the finale. This leaves Hajj holding the prize plum of the Wazir's harem—the statuesque, blonde Lalume.

The four leading characters have surprisingly good voices. Earle MacVeigh as Hajj is the most relaxed and convincing, as a matter of fact, he holds the story line together. As his daughter, Margot Moser is sweet, pretty and has a gentle, birdlike quality about her voice and manner. The Wazir is amusing in a Groucho Marx-like way, though evil, and sang some amusing songs about his favorite tortures. Marthe Errolle, as Lalune, has little to do but stand or lounge about the stage, interrupting infrequently with a line of ultra-sophisticated humor. She is well cast as a decorative touch. Donald Clarke as the Caliph might just as well have stayed in his hotel room that night. His voice was nice but his manner was anything but regal. He looked more like a scrubbed, barrel-chested member from the chorus of "Oklahoma!"

The music is lovely, the play is funny—but in case you thought it a story from the "Arabian Nights" that your kiddies might enjoy, let me just say that this is not children's fare!

My love,

THE RED TAPE of directing the Paddock tournament was ably handled by this threesome. The minute games were completed Sunday the sheets were given to Al Waltr standing, who started the process of checking and rechecking, posting, adding, typing and satisfying the 255 bowler competing during the day. At the typewriter is seen Irv Kehe with George Kusch reading scores to him.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

As we have said before, there are jobs that we do every day that show. Upon observing these, such as food on the table, dust off the furniture, newspapers taken to the basement, the family is properly appreciative. Sometimes they even say so. We do manage to wring the appreciation out of them by gasping for breath at the end of the day but we get it.

There is one little task of love that no one seems to notice. When we draw it to the mob's attention, we are met with stares that clearly indicate that they think we have flipped our lid to make such a big thing out of it. That is the mending.

As we run our lovely hot iron over the wearing apparel, we are continually running into gaposis of the seams, non-existence of buttons, and acute falling down of hems. As these afflictions do not necessarily occur in every garment that we smooth out, we either start a little pile or do cunning things with safety pins.

We work on the theory that there is no point in hauling out the sewing machine, needles, thread, button box, and other necessary tools for just one or two articles. Let the pile grow to worthwhile proportions. However, there comes the day when the pile is too big and is overflowing the chair allotted to it or there are no more safety pins to be found on the premises.

That is the day that we bend over a hot darning needle and end up with a great feeling of satisfaction. At last, everything is back in wearing order. We feel terribly houswifely and dutiful as we take each redone garment to the owner's room. We expect shrieks of delight and flowery words of praise for our prodigious energy. What do the owners of the refurbished finery do? They just wear it as though nothing had changed. This serves to madden us to the point of infanticide, and husbandcide.

We once had a friend who was so efficient that before she washed, she mended everything that needed same. Need we add that she and yours truly are no longer very friendly. She may wonder what she said to offend us. It wasn't anything she said, it was a sort of combination. She was way too organized for sloppy old us and then she moved out of the country. The combination was too much for us.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

Unfortunately, while man willingly admits the necessity for economic, social and criminal laws, he usually does not admit the necessity for spiritual laws to govern his moral life.

Unfortunately, also while a man readily cooperates with nature's laws in science, agriculture, mining or nature generally, he seldom cooperates with God in spiritual things, but most often ignores Him, or pays His spiritual laws but token respect, and in general feels that Christianity is something he can get along without.

WHY THIS should be is hard to understand, since the spiritual laws exemplified by Jesus Christ and preached by Him throughout His life are necessary to perfect happiness and even eternal life.

The fact that Jesus speaks of faith as a first requisite of obedience to God's new laws and doctrines is often disregarded. Man has not yet developed a sense of faith in God. His sense of spiritual discernment generally lies dormant except when, in some people, it is developed through personal religious experiences or a serious study of Christs teachings which brings about a conversion of faith causing a complete change in their lives and a willing acceptance of and submission to God's spiritual laws.

FOR WHATEVER reason man generally does not believe in or ignors his spiritual nature and readily submit to God's laws which govern spiritual life, the fact remains that by his unbelief and ignorance he is closing his life to the most exhilarating and joyful way of living. Man has long studied the universe, the cause and cure of disease, and other scientific fields. Perhaps it is now time for science to begin a similar study of the effect of spiritual development and Christian faith on the life of man. He is sure to find a marvelous, wonderful force at work in the hearts of those who have found Christ; a force so uplifting and joyous as to transfer men from nervous, worrying fearful creatures to living spirits when men believe in and obey God's spiritual laws.

Arlington Plight

'Twas the Saturday before New Years,
And all through Arlington Heights;
The people were shopping,
With all their mights.
The cars were driven around and around,
In hopes that a parking space soon would be found;
The traffic got thicker and more confused,
'Til a person watching became quite amused.
Thoughts raced through ones mind of what could be done,
To alleviate a problem which was no longer fun;
Should you do your shopping in another place,
Rather than this problem always to face;
On further thought this would not be the best,
For to face a problem squarely is always a test.
When up at the village hall on a Tuesday night,
Many people gathered to discuss this plight;
Thinking and working together as a team,
Resolving that not talk, but action be their theme;
Businessmen, officials, the people were there,
Working together with little fanfare.
Suggestions were forthcoming some of them good,
It wasn't so bad when everyone's mood;
Was of helping and working towards a goal,
Not as individuals, but as a whole.
Shall we purchase the land by the railroad tracks?
Build a multi-tiered garage such as Chicago backs?
The Chamber of Commerce to sponsor a contest
Where the people could offer what they thought best?
As the gathering was dismissed and homeward bound,
Everyone said a new spirit was found;
Overheard were a businessman and official to say,
"Where there's a will there's a way.

No Stickers

This Saturday morning at 10 o'clock I counted 9 cars parked on the north side of the street west of the Mt. Prospect State bank without windshield stickers.

It appears the same cars without vehicle stickers are here every Saturday. They are predominately older cars, one a 1950 or 1951 Buick with only 4 numbers on its plates is a regular "no sticker" parker.

POSSIBLY THESE shoppers are from nearby townships that don't require stickers. However, my unofficial opinion is that these are local residents with 2 cars.

Are Mt. Prospect and other nearby towns losing double revenue? (No vehicle sticker, and evidently no declaration of this second car on their personal property assessment.)

If these people don't like our small vehicle tax, let them go back to Chicago and pay $30 for it.

Kind People

On September 26, two of our 6 children were stricken with polio. Since that time we have been literally overwhelmed with kindness by the people of Arlington and surrounding communities.

After spending 3 months in the hospital, our boys are now home and progressing well.

Needless to say, we are eternally grateful to all who have given us a heping hand during these trying times.

It would be virtually impossible to thank personally all those kind people who have helped us spiritually and materially.

We therefore take this opportunity to thank these people, asking God to look with favor upon their sacrifices.

Consider Facts

As an owner of residential property not zoned for business, who would be affected by a proposed special assessment for street widening and ornamental lighting purposes, I ask you to consider the following facts before coming to any decisions:

(1) Is the street widening as proposed to facilitate more thoroughfare traffic, or to provide additional spaces—or both?

To illustrate this point, observe South Dunton st. between Campbell and Sigwalt—and you will see that the space for thoroughfare traffic is no wider than the unwidened streets—with the differential being made up of parking spaces.

If parking spaces were to be provided on Sigwalt st. (after widening) on the same basis as South Dunton, there would be no speed up of traffic.

Therefore, maybe the need for street widening is not as necessary as the need for off-street parking.

(2) HAVE THERE been any more accidents in the residential area to be affected—than in other rersidential areas? If not, why is it necessary for an expensive expenditure for ornamental lighting?

(3) This past pre-Christmas traffic problem may not be repeated again since the Rolling Meadows and Westgate shopping centers will be completed shortly . . . and every other community was vexed with the same problem.

(4) Gentlemen, place yourself in our position of being asked to contribute more than your proportionate share for the benefit of the whole village and wind up with mercury lights invading your bedrooms; having cars coming directly to your sidewalks and impairing the safety of your children; and envision living in a "South Dunton Street" appearance—and see how you feel!

I feel confident that you will justly consider these points.

Sincerely,
Chester Zimmerman

New Hope

We are happy to inform you that results of the 1955 campaign of the Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America in the Chicago area were very satisfactory.

During the month of November, while the campaign for funds was actually on, and during the many weeks preceding, we sent your newspapers stories and pictures which were, of course, newsworthy but which also had the purpose of enlightening people in general about the purposes of the campaign. Your newspapers without exception were very generous in the amount of space given these stories and pictures, and showed, we felt, excellent judgment in use of them.

We realize that the success of the campaign was, therefore, in no small measure due to the fine cooperation extended by your newspapers and staff members.

Your efforts are deeply appreciated by members of the 2 local chapters of MDA. and by all victims of Muscular Dystrophy . . .who have been given new hope as a result of the research funds obtained in the campaign.

Sincerely yours,
Terence Kane

No Vision

I can't see why the members of the Wheeling school board think the VA should do something about the school situation.

This is a local problem.

The city fathers of Wheeling who issued the building permits knew the school wouldn't be able to handle all of these children coming in now.

So here's how the school board members think we'll cure the situation. An election was held to raise taxes for the school situation. This is just another opening for the city fathers to issue another pile of building permits.

AND WHY should we the people in the unincorporated area be taxed more just because Wheeling is having a building boom?

Why was the school on Dundee rd. sold out?

I think the members of the school board should forget the VA and forget the idea of raising taxes.

But get after the village board that issued the permits. If you have an election on raising taxes, then there should be an election on building permits by the taxpayers.

The trouble with the members of the school board and PTA is too much Doughnut Dunking and Tea Parties and no vision.

Through a series of coincidences, Wazir is convinced that he has in his palace a real wizard and then nothing is too good for the wonder-worker whose tricks all benefit the Wazir. However, he almost fails in his biggest trick of all. To prevent the members of his body from becoming dismembers, he has to figure out a way to make the Wazir happy by preventing the marriage of his own beautiful daughter, Marsinah, to the handsome young Caliph and at the same time consider her feelings, as she is madly in love with the Caliph and cannot understand why their meetings in the garden are being constantly frustrated.

THE WAZIR TRIES DESPERATELY to get the Caliph married to three Warrior princesses from neighboring countries, who even at that moment are breathing hotly down the borders of the homeland. The Caliph, being an impractical sort, still prefers the love of a sweet, poet's daughter, which leaves Hajj in the embarrassing position of deciding whether it will be his life or the Wazir's. The Wazir must go and he does. To words and music, he is artfully drowned in a pool on stage, by Hajj during the finale. This leaves Hajj holding the prize plum of the Wazir's harem—the statuesque, blonde Lalume.

The four leading characters have surprisingly good voices. Earle MacVeigh as Hajj is the most relaxed and convincing, as a matter of fact, he holds the story line together. As his daughter, Margot Moser is sweet, pretty and has a gentle, birdlike quality about her voice and manner. The Wazir is amusing in a Groucho Marx-like way, though evil, and sang some amusing songs about his favorite tortures. Marthe Errolle, as Lalune, has little to do but stand or lounge about the stage, interrupting infrequently with a line of ultra-sophisticated humor. She is well cast as a decorative touch. Donald Clarke as the Caliph might just as well have stayed in his hotel room that night. His voice was nice but his manner was anything but regal. He looked more like a scrubbed, barrel-chested member from the chorus of "Oklahoma!"

The music is lovely, the play is funny—but in case you thought it a story from the "Arabian Nights" that your kiddies might enjoy, let me just say that this is not children's fare!

My love,
Patty

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

As we have said before, there are jobs that we do every day that show. Upon observing these, such as food on the table, dust off the furniture, newspapers taken to the basement, the family is properly appreciative. Sometimes they even say so. We do manage to wring the appreciation out of them by gasping for breath at the end of the day but we get it.

There is one little task of love that no one seems to notice. When we draw it to the mob's attention, we are met with stares that clearly indicate that they think we have flipped our lid to make such a big thing out of it. That is the mending.

As we run our lovely hot iron over the wearing apparel, we are continually running into gaposis of the seams, non-existence of buttons, and acute falling down of hems. As these afflictions do not necessarily occur in every garment that we smooth out, we either start a little pile or do cunning things with safety pins.

We work on the theory that there is no point in hauling out the sewing machine, needles, thread, button box, and other necessary tools for just one or two articles. Let the pile grow to worthwhile proportions. However, there comes the day when the pile is too big and is overflowing the chair allotted to it or there are no more safety pins to be found on the premises.

That is the day that we bend over a hot darning needle and end up with a great feeling of satisfaction. At last, everything is back in wearing order. We feel terribly houswifely and dutiful as we take each redone garment to the owner's room. We expect shrieks of delight and flowery words of praise for our prodigious energy. What do the owners of the refurbished finery do? They just wear it as though nothing had changed. This serves to madden us to the point of infanticide, and husbandcide.

We once had a friend who was so efficient that before she washed, she mended everything that needed same. Need we add that she and yours truly are no longer very friendly. She may wonder what she said to offend us. It wasn't anything she said, it was a sort of combination. She was way too organized for sloppy old us and then she moved out of the country. The combination was too much for us.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

Unfortunately, while man willingly admits the necessity for economic, social and criminal laws, he usually does not admit the necessity for spiritual laws to govern his moral life.

Unfortunately, also while a man readily cooperates with nature's laws in science, agriculture, mining or nature generally, he seldom cooperates with God in spiritual things, but most often ignores Him, or pays His spiritual laws but token respect, and in general feels that Christianity is something he can get along without.

WHY THIS should be is hard to understand, since the spiritual laws exemplified by Jesus Christ and preached by Him throughout His life are necessary to perfect happiness and even eternal life.

The fact that Jesus speaks of faith as a first requisite of obedience to God's new laws and doctrines is often disregarded. Man has not yet developed a sense of faith in God. His sense of spiritual discernment generally lies dormant except when, in some people, it is developed through personal religious experiences or a serious study of Christs teachings which brings about a conversion of faith causing a complete change in their lives and a willing acceptance of and submission to God's spiritual laws.

FOR WHATEVER reason man generally does not believe in or ignors his spiritual nature and readily submit to God's laws which govern spiritual life, the fact remains that by his unbelief and ignorance he is closing his life to the most exhilarating and joyful way of living. Man has long studied the universe, the cause and cure of disease, and other scientific fields. Perhaps it is now time for science to begin a similar study of the effect of spiritual development and Christian faith on the life of man. He is sure to find a marvelous, wonderful force at work in the hearts of those who have found Christ; a force so uplifting and joyous as to transfer men from nervous, worrying fearful creatures to living spirits when men believe in and obey God's spiritual laws.

Arlington Plight

'Twas the Saturday before New Years,
And all through Arlington Heights;
The people were shopping,
With all their mights.
The cars were driven around and around,
In hopes that a parking space soon would be found;
The traffic got thicker and more confused,
'Til a person watching became quite amused.
Thoughts raced through ones mind of what could be done,
To alleviate a problem which was no longer fun;
Should you do your shopping in another place,
Rather than this problem always to face;
On further thought this would not be the best,
For to face a problem squarely is always a test.
When up at the village hall on a Tuesday night,
Many people gathered to discuss this plight;
Thinking and working together as a team,
Resolving that not talk, but action be their theme;
Businessmen, officials, the people were there,
Working together with little fanfare.
Suggestions were forthcoming some of them good,
It wasn't so bad when everyone's mood;
Was of helping and working towards a goal,
Not as individuals, but as a whole.
Shall we purchase the land by the railroad tracks?
Build a multi-tiered garage such as Chicago backs?
The Chamber of Commerce to sponsor a contest
Where the people could offer what they thought best?
As the gathering was dismissed and homeward bound,
Everyone said a new spirit was found;
Overheard were a businessman and official to say,
"Where there's a will there's a way.

No Stickers

This Saturday morning at 10 o'clock I counted 9 cars parked on the north side of the street west of the Mt. Prospect State bank without windshield stickers.

It appears the same cars without vehicle stickers are here every Saturday. They are predominately older cars, one a 1950 or 1951 Buick with only 4 numbers on its plates is a regular "no sticker" parker.

POSSIBLY THESE shoppers are from nearby townships that don't require stickers. However, my unofficial opinion is that these are local residents with 2 cars.

Are Mt. Prospect and other nearby towns losing double revenue? (No vehicle sticker, and evidently no declaration of this second car on their personal property assessment.)

If these people don't like our small vehicle tax, let them go back to Chicago and pay $30 for it.

Kind People

On September 26, two of our 6 children were stricken with polio. Since that time we have been literally overwhelmed with kindness by the people of Arlington and surrounding communities.

After spending 3 months in the hospital, our boys are now home and progressing well.

Needless to say, we are eternally grateful to all who have given us a heping hand during these trying times.

It would be virtually impossible to thank personally all those kind people who have helped us spiritually and materially.

We therefore take this opportunity to thank these people, asking God to look with favor upon their sacrifices.

Good Neighbors

I want to here publicly thank Chief Winkelman and his firemen; Chief Skoog and his policemen and the many friends and neighbors who helped Jean, Dorothy and Howard when fire struck our home New Year's eve.

Our town slogan "city of good neighbors" really stands out to us now.

Consider Facts

As an owner of residential property not zoned for business, who would be affected by a proposed special assessment for street widening and ornamental lighting purposes, I ask you to consider the following facts before coming to any decisions:

(1) Is the street widening as proposed to facilitate more thoroughfare traffic, or to provide additional spaces—or both?

To illustrate this point, observe South Dunton st. between Campbell and Sigwalt—and you will see that the space for thoroughfare traffic is no wider than the unwidened streets—with the differential being made up of parking spaces.

If parking spaces were to be provided on Sigwalt st. (after widening) on the same basis as South Dunton, there would be no speed up of traffic.

Therefore, maybe the need for street widening is not as necessary as the need for off-street parking.

(2) HAVE THERE been any more accidents in the residential area to be affected—than in other rersidential areas? If not, why is it necessary for an expensive expenditure for ornamental lighting?

(3) This past pre-Christmas traffic problem may not be repeated again since the Rolling Meadows and Westgate shopping centers will be completed shortly . . . and every other community was vexed with the same problem.

(4) Gentlemen, place yourself in our position of being asked to contribute more than your proportionate share for the benefit of the whole village and wind up with mercury lights invading your bedrooms; having cars coming directly to your sidewalks and impairing the safety of your children; and envision living in a "South Dunton Street" appearance—and see how you feel!

I feel confident that you will justly consider these points.

Sincerely,
Chester Zimmerman

New Hope

We are happy to inform you that results of the 1955 campaign of the Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America in the Chicago area were very satisfactory.

During the month of November, while the campaign for funds was actually on, and during the many weeks preceding, we sent your newspapers stories and pictures which were, of course, newsworthy but which also had the purpose of enlightening people in general about the purposes of the campaign. Your newspapers without exception were very generous in the amount of space given these stories and pictures, and showed, we felt, excellent judgment in use of them.

We realize that the success of the campaign was, therefore, in no small measure due to the fine cooperation extended by your newspapers and staff members.

Your efforts are deeply appreciated by members of the 2 local chapters of MDA. and by all victims of Muscular Dystrophy . . .who have been given new hope as a result of the research funds obtained in the campaign.

Sincerely yours,
Terence Kane

No Vision

I can't see why the members of the Wheeling school board think the VA should do something about the school situation.

This is a local problem.

The city fathers of Wheeling who issued the building permits knew the school wouldn't be able to handle all of these children coming in now.

So here's how the school board members think we'll cure the situation. An election was held to raise ta xes for the school situation. This is just another opening for the city fathers to issue another pile of building permits.

AND WHY should we the people in the unincorporated area be taxed more just because Wheeling is having a building boom?

Why was the school on Dundee rd. sold out?

I think the members of the school board should forget the VA and forget the idea of raising taxes.

But get after the village board that issued the permits. If you have an election on raising taxes, then there should be an election on building permits by the taxpayers.

The trouble with the members of the school board and PTA is too much Doughnut Dunking and Tea Parties and no vision.

Propose New Features Of Crop Control, Price Support

A federal production control — price support program containing a number of new features has been proposed to administrative officials of the United States department of agriculture by H. C. M. Case of the University of Illinois college of agriculture.

Case was for many years head of the department of agricultural economics of the college of agriculture and served as consultant to the senate committee on agriculture and forestry in 1947-48.

Case's proposed program would provide for (1) increasing the rate of payment for soil conservation in direct proportion to the per cent of tillable land in soil conservation use, and (2) increasing price supports to a farmer for crops to be sold in proportion to the increase in per cent of tillable land in soil conservation use. The top price supports on crops would be below the present high-level supports. Part of the financial benefit of the plan would be in the form of the soil conservation payments.

IN EFFECT, the plan provides the farmer with greater freedom of choice in the crops he can grow, and it provides the double incentive of soil conservation payments and higher crop loans for the farmer who has more land in grass, legume roughage or fallow.

Under Case's plan, conservation payments per acre for land in grass or legume roughage or left fallow would be stepped up as farmers increased the number of acres devoted to these conservation crops to a desired level.

Using central Illinois as an example, Case points out that having 25 per cent of the tillable land in conservation crops is considered a high conservation rotation. Using 100 acres as the base, a central Illinois farmer might get 80 cents an acre for the first acre he put into conservation crops, $1.60 for the second, $2.40 for the third, etc., until for the 25th acre he would receive a payment of $20 an acre.

TOTAL PAYMENTS for the 25 acres in conservation crops would amount to $260. On lower grades of land, the rate of payment would be lower but the principle of accelerated payments would work the same. The actual payment made to farmers for soil conservation land use would be based on a formula including the total net farm income of the preceding year.

Under the second part of the plan, a farmer would receive a price support for his principal crops ranging from 50 per cent up to 70 to 80 per cent of parity. A farmer with only the average amount of land in soil-conserving crops for his county could receive a price support of 50 per cent of parity, but as he doubled the land in soil-conserving use he would earn 70 to 80 per cent.

Limiting the crop loan but making a direct payment for tillable land in soil conservation use, Case points out, would encourage the use of grain crops for feeding livestock and would also make it easier to sell surplus crops in the world market.

AMONG THE SPECIFIC advantages of the plan Case includes the following:

1. The combination of soil conservation payments and variable price supports is a positive means of more nearly rewarding individuals according to their contributions than any previous plans provide.

2. The plan avoids direct acreage control of individual grain crops, which has led to alleged undue regional advantages under the old program.

3. Getting away from established acreage allotments would eliminate attempts by farmers to outguess future farm programs in order to increase individual crop bases before quotas are established.

4. THE PLAN would help to reduce surplus crops.

5. It would tend to avoid discouraging farmers from producing livestock because of high price supports for feed crops.

6. It would preserve the good features of the soil-bank plan.

7. The plan would leave the farmer free to choose the crops he will produce and thus permit him to use his land most economically.

8. It should encourage the shifting of low-producing land to grazing on a permanent basis.

9. IT SHOULD help to discourage the excessive and uneconomic use of fertilizers and other measures designed to increase production in order to get an artificially high price and high income available from high price supports.

10. The plan would be simple to administer. When the amount of available funds had been determined and the base for a farm established, it would be necessary only to calculate the acres of tillable land in grass, legume roughage and fallow in order to determine the payment due or the loan rate applicable on stored crops.

Small Farms Decrease, Large Farms Larger

Dramatic changes continue to characterize the Midwest farm community, the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago reports. Farms in this area are getting fewer, larger, more specialized and better equipped.

In its monthly review, "Business Conditions," the bank analyzes some of the major agricultural changes which have taken place since 1950 in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa and Wisconsin. With more and better tools and greater knowledge of plants, animals and soil, farmers are accomplishing more and more in each hour of work. Thus, bigger farms are in order if farmers and their new machines are to be fully employed.

THE NUMBER of large farms (220 acres and over) has increased about 7 per cent in the past five years, according to preliminary census reports. In the same comparison small farms decreased 16 per cent while the number of medium-sized farms declined 9 per cent in the four-state area. All told, the number of farms in the Midwest dropped 8 per cent since 1950. Reflecting the trend to suburban living, however, tiny farms (less than 3 acres) increased 40 per cent.

Labor-saving equipment and available jobs nearby have made it possible for many farmers to add to their income by work off the farm. The proportion of farm operators with off-farm jobs has increased in each state, with the four-state total rising from 34 per cent to 39 per cent in the five-year span.

Specialization, too, has gained ground on the Midwest agricultural scene since 1950. The proportion of general farms — having less than one-half of their sales in any one type of commodity — declined in each of the four Midwest states. Moreover, the specialized type of "field crop" farm receiving most of its income from the sales of crops gained sharply, increasing from 16 per cent to 25 per cent in the past five years.

Water Systems Can Help Fight Fires On Farms

In case of fire, will your water system be ready to help you fight it?

If your answer is "no" or "maybe," it might pay you to make some changes. Farmers especially need a good water system to control a fire until the fire department arrives, warns O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture.

MOST COMMON cause of water system failure at the time of a fire is failure of the wiring system to the pump, Hogsett says. If the lines carrying electricity to the pump are broken or burned through, you can't fight a fire.

Best way to avoid such failure is to make the pump's power supply independent. If your meter is on a pole, run a separate circuit from the meter pole to the pump pit or house, keeping it away from buildings.

IF YOUR METER is on the house, perhaps you should replan your farmstead wiring. A central distribution pole will probably help you get more uses from the electricity, in addition to making it easier to run an independent circuit to your pumps.

Your local power company service engineer can help you plan to modernize your wiring system.

Heaps of Coal

Among fuels, only coal can be stockpiled for future use, and electric utilities now have reserves in the neighborhood of 39,000,000 tons, or about 57 per cent of all coal stocks above ground.

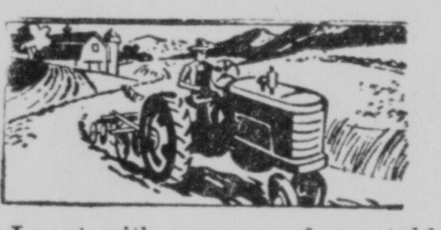
DOWN ON THE FARM



with Your

Farm Adviser

CARL F. MEES

I met with a group of vegetable growers last week and discussed further the possibility of setting up a marketing organization for the marketing of fresh vegetables. A new enterprise of this type is always difficult to start. Many do not know whether it will work or not. To be perfecty frank, no one knows whether it will work. We do know that all businesses are started on the same basis. No one knows how successful they will be until after a trial is given.

What we do know is that this same type of organization has worked in other places for vegetable growers so why should it not work for our growers? At any rate, we have 23 growers that have indicated that they are willing to help form an organization through which they can market their products. If the enterprise is successful there should be two or three times as many growers signed up to go along.

If any vegetable growers would like to know more about the proposed organization, feel free to contact me at my office or Ed Oehlerking, temporary chairman of the group.

SOON THERE will be much discussion in the halls at Washington relative to a farm program. Secretary Benson and President Eisenhower have in mind a proposal. From what I read, the Democratic Party will have another. Major farm organizations have still another. I received a copy of a proposed Price Support Program based on Soil Conservation and and Production controls by H. C. M. Case of the agricultural economics department, University of Illinois.

Without a doubt something must be done about bolstering farm income. It has slipped much too far the past few years.

MANY OF YOU who read this column, who are not farming, may think this does not affect you. Sooner or later it will affect everyone of you. If you will check history you will find that when one segment of economy fails to prosper, sooner or later others will do likewise. If one group of people does not have the buying power they should, they cannot purchase the products others manufacture.

The farm program is of major importance to all of us. President Eisenhower is devoting a special message to Congress about it. Let's hope it will not become a Political football but that Congress will consider it as a bi-partisan issue and with the help of our economists at our great universities and with the help of our farm organization find the best possible solution ot this great problem.

Price Supports Costing Farmers

A new method of selling wool which allows the U. S. product to compete more favorably with foreign wool was explained by William Temple, president of the Illinois wool marketing association.

Temple said Illinois wool is able to grade wool to the narrow limits demanded by mills and to sell on a clean pound basis with the grease price established by core samples.

THE SAMPLES are taken with an electric drill, Temple said, which removes samples from a number of fleeces in a bag. The samples are tested in a laboratory to reveal shrinkage and foreign material content, and a price is set accordingly.

He also reported that with the passage of the national wool act of 1954, which removed support prices from wool, all sales were made on an open market basis for the first time since 1943.

"Selling by core sampling means farmers must keep their wool cleaner, and that will result in U.S. wool being able to compete more favorably with foreign wools," the president said.

"The great improvement in manufacturers' relationship from this type of service has enabled Illinois wool marketing to expand its outlets for wool in the face of a sharp reduction in the number of wool manufacturers," Temple said.

Elk Grove Home Bureau Holds Yule Meeting December 28

Elk Grove unit of Cook County home bureau met December 28 for a Christmas luncheon at the home of Mrs. Marvin Busse. The special committee consisted of Mrs. M. Busse, Mrs. O. Dierking and Mrs. J. Wetterman. Co-hostesses were Mrs. C. Leclerc, Mrs. E. Linneman and Mrs. H. Mahler. Punch was served by the chairman, Mrs. Victor Pohlman.

A farewell gift was presented to charter member, Mrs. John Wetterman. Mrs. Wetterman has had a perfect attendance record for 15 years and is now leaving for California.

The lesson on "Seeing ourselves as our children see us," was given by Mrs. H. Mahler and Mrs. H. Wille. Next meeting of the group will be at the home of Mrs. Fred Busse, Mt. Prospect at 1 p. m., January 25.

Urge Farmers To Handle Insect Sprays With Care

"Follow Directions' ' and "Be Careful," the watchwords of do-it-yourself fans, should also be the watchwords of livestock owners spraying animals in winter for lice and other external parasites, says a University of Illinois Veterinarian.

Dr. Richard E. Bradley of the College of Veterinary Medicine points out that insecticides, carelessly used, can be dangerous to both men and livestock. But if you use them at recommended rates for approved purposes there is little danger.

LINDANE, probably the most common spray for cattle lice, rates about halfway between dangerous and safe on the scale of toxicity for common insect sprays and powders.

If lindane comes into contact with your skin, remove clothing and wash thoroughly. If it is taken internally, induce vomiting to empty the stomach take two tablespoons of Epson salts and call your physician.

Here are some do's and don'ts for using lindane and other insecticides:

DO: 1. READ all labels on packages and follow them exactly.

2. Wear protective clothes and change to clean clothes after a spraying job.

3. Store all insecticides in original packages, away from food and feed stuffs and out of reach of children and animals.

4. Dispose of containers by burning or burying.

5. Call a physician immediately if poisoning is known or suspected. Administer proper antidote.

DON'T: 1. BREATHE insecticide dust, mist or vapors.

2. Spill liquid spray on your skin.

3. Eat or smoke until after you have washed your hands and face.

Forecast Leveling Of Cattle Prices In Coming Year

Live stock producers will enjoy a breathing spell in 1956 during which the giddy spiral of live stock production will let up permitting firmer prices, predicts National Live Stock Producer, the nation's leading live stock magazine.

However, total farm income will drop about 5 per cent below the 1955 level of $10.6 billion with most of the reduction coming in cash receipts from sale of crops.

LARGE FEED supplies and low live stock prices dominate the 1956 outlook. Big harvests of feed crops and lower feed prices encourage production of live stock. However, the low prices for cattle and hogs during the past year will discourage production.

Prices of cattle will average about the same for the coming year. The lower level of feed costs seems to be the cattle feeder's best chance for profit. Gains can be put on below the level of the eventual selling price making favorable price margins unnecessary, although desirable.

HOG PRICES will be lower than in 1955 during the first half of 1956 but should compare more favorably during the last half with much depending on the size of the spring pig crop. A price peak of $14-$16 can be expected in midsummer.

Sheep and lamb prices are also expected to average about the same. The inventory of sheep and lambs is down for the third successive year and the 1955 lamb crop was 1 per cent less than a year earlier. This reduction will curtail slaughter and have a stabilizing influence on prices.

Farm Managers To Meet In February

Farm managers will learn what's new in the farm management field during the annual meeting of the Illinois society of farm managers and rural appraisers February 2 and 3 at the University of Illinois during Farm and Home Week.

"Observations Inside Russia" will be the subject of a talk by W. V. Lambert, Dean of the College of Agriculture, University of Nebraska, at a luncheon Thursday noon.

Program topics on Thursday, Feb. 2, include crop varieties, fertilizers and their use, insects and their control, corn combines, stilbestrol and antibiotics and observations on procedures and practices of professional farm managers.

An election of officers will be held first thing on Friday morning. Topics for that day include what's happening on the Illinois land market, what is happening to farm income, what we can expect in 1956, and government policies and programs.

Presentation of the 1956 Illinois society award will be made at the Friday luncheon.

Economist To Speak At 15th Annual Home Bureau Meeting

D. Gale Johnson, agricultural economist who accompanied the American farm group on its unofficial visit to Russia last summer, will be the principal speaker at Cook county Home Bureau's 15th annual meeting in Chicago January 19. Mr. Johnson will discuss the status of women in the Soviet Union as he observed rural and urban life in 5 weeks of travel throughout the country.

Three hundred fifty of the bureau's 1100 members from suburban and rural Cook county communities are expected to attend the day long meeting. Mrs. H. D. Bowyer of Orland Park, county president, is general chairman for the event scheduled to start at 10 a.m. in the Upper Towers of the Conrad Hilton hotel.

Miss Saphia Fahmey of Cairo, Egypt, will speak during the morning program on "Household Customs of Egypt." There will also be reports from the 29 units of the bureau and members of the executive board. A 'Breath of Spring' luncheon will be served at noon in the Waldorf room.

Home Bureau is a professional organization for homemakers which cooperates with the University of Illinois extension service to bring housewives the latest information in all fields of interest to women. It provides leadership and training for the home economics 4-H clubs in the county which last year had a membership of 786 girls.

Propose New Features Of Crop Control, Price Support

A federal production control — price support program containing a number of new features has been proposed to administrative officials of the United States department of agriculture by H. C. M. Case of the University of Illinois college of agriculture.

Case was for many years head of the department of agricultural economics of the college of agriculture and served as consultant to the senate committee on agriculture and forestry in 1947-48.

Case's proposed program would provide for (1) increasing the rate of payment for soil conservation in direct proportion to the per cent of tillable land in soil conservation use, and (2) increasing price supports to a farmer for crops to be sold in proportion to the increase in per cent of tillable land in soil conservation use. The top price supports on crops would be below the present high-level supports. Part of the financial benefit of the plan would be in the form of the soil conservation payments.

IN EFFECT, the plan provides the farmer with greater freedom of choice in the crops he can grow, and it provides the double incentive of soil conservation payments and higher crop loans for the farmer who has more land in grass, legume roughage or fallow.

Under Case's plan, conservation payments per acre for land in grass or legume roughage or left fallow would be stepped up as farmers increased the number of acres devoted to these conservation crops to a desired level.

Using central Illinois as an example, Case points out that having 25 per cent of the tillable land in conservation crops is considered a high conservation rotation. Using 100 acres as the base, a central Illinois farmer might get 80 cents an acre for the first acre he put into conservation crops, $1.60 for the second, $2.40 for the third, etc., until for the 25th acre he would receive a payment of $20 an acre.

TOTAL PAYMENTS for the 25 acres in conservation crops would amount to $260. On lower grades of land, the rate of payment would be lower but the principle of accelerated payments would work the same. The actual payment made to farmers for soil conservation land use would be based on a formula including the total net farm income of the preceding year.

Under the second part of the plan, a farmer would receive a price support for his principal crops ranging from 50 per cent up to 70 to 80 per cent of parity. A farmer with only the average amount of land in soil-conserving crops for his county could receive a price support of 50 per cent of parity, but as he doubled the land in soil-conserving use he would earn 70 to 80 per cent.

Limiting the crop loan but making a direct payment for tillable land in soil conservation use, Case points out, would encourage the use of grain crops for feeding livestock and would also make it easier to sell surplus crops in the world market.

AMONG THE SPECIFIC advantages of the plan Case includes the following:

1. The combination of soil conservation payments and variable price supports is a positive means of more nearly rewarding individuals according to their contributions than any previous plans provide.

2. The plan avoids direct acreage control of individual grain crops, which has led to alleged undue regional advantages under the old program.

3. Getting away from established acreage allotments would eliminate attempts by farmers to outguess future farm programs in order to increase individual crop bases before quotas are established.

4. THE PLAN would help to reduce surplus crops.

5. It would tend to avoid discouraging farmers from producing livestock because of high price supports for feed crops.

6. It would preserve the good features of the soil-bank plan.

7. The plan would leave the farmer free to choose the crops he will produce and thus permit him to use his land most economically.

8. It should encourage the shifting of low-producing land to grazing on a permanent basis.

9. IT SHOULD help to discourage the excessive and uneconomic use of fertilizers and other measures designed to increase production in order to get an artificially high price and high income available from high price supports.

10. The plan would be simple to administer. When the amount of available funds had been determined and the base for a farm established, it would be necessary only to calculate the acres of tillable land in grass, legume roughage and fallow in order to determine the payment due or the loan rate applicable on stored crops.

Small Farms Decrease, Large Farms Larger

Dramatic changes continue to characterize the Midwest farm community, the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago reports. Farms in this area are getting fewer, larger, more specialized and better equipped.

In its monthly review, "Business Conditions," the bank analyzes some of the major agricultural changes which have taken place since 1950 in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa and Wisconsin. With more and better tools and greater knowledge of plants, animals and soil, farmers are accomplishing more and more in each hour of work. Thus, bigger farms are in order if farmers and their new machines are to be fully employed.

THE NUMBER of large farms (220 acres and over) has increased about 7 per cent in the past five years, according to preliminary census reports. In the same comparison small farms decreased 16 per cent while the number of medium-sized farms declined 9 per cent in the four-state area. All told, the number of farms in the Midwest dropped 8 per cent since 1950. Reflecting the trend to suburban living, however, tiny farms (less than 3 acres) increased 40 per cent.

Labor-saving equipment and available jobs nearby have made it possible for many farmers to add to their income by work off the farm. The proportion of farm operators with off-farm jobs has increased in each state, with the four-state total rising from 34 per cent to 39 per cent in the five-year span.

Specialization, too, has gained ground on the Midwest agricultural scene since 1950. The proportion of general farms — having less than one-half of their sales in any one type of commodity — declined in each of the four Midwest states. Moreover, the specialized type of "field crop" farm receiving most of its income from the sales of crops gained sharply, increasing from 16 per cent to 25 per cent in the past five years.

Water Systems Can Help Fight Fires On Farms

In case of fire, will your water system be ready to help you fight it?

If your answer is "no" or "maybe," it might pay you to make some changes. Farmers especially need a good water system to control a fire until the fire department arrives, warns O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist at the University of Illinois college of agriculture.

MOST COMMON cause of water system failure at the time of a fire is failure of the wiring system to the pump, Hogsett says. If the lines carrying electricity to the pump are broken or burned through, you can't fight a fire.

Best way to avoid such failure is to make the pump's power supply independent. If your meter is on a pole, run a separate circuit from the meter pole to the pump pit or house, keeping it away from buildings.

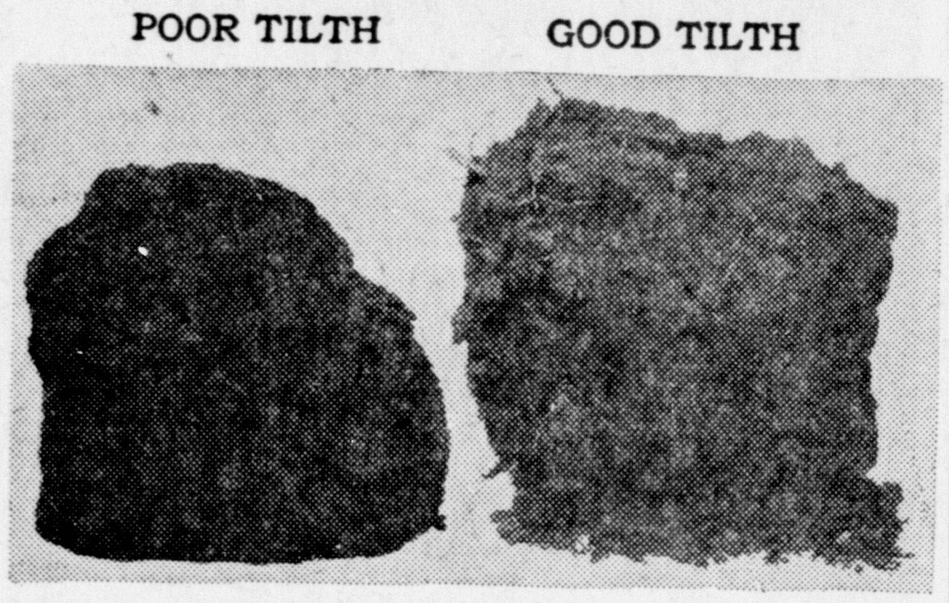
IF YOUR METER is on the house, perhaps you should replan your farmstead wiring. A central distribution pole will probably help you get more uses from the electricity, in addition to making it easier to run an independent circuit to your pumps.

Your local power company service engineer can help you plan to modernize your wiring system.

Heaps of Coal

Among fuels, only coal can be stockpiled for future use, and electric utilities now have reserves in the neighborhood of 39,000,000 tons, or about 57 per cent of all coal stocks above ground.

Crop Rotation Made This Difference



Poor tilth—soil sample from the plow layer of a field farmed to a corn, corn, corn, soybean rotation for almost 50 years.

- This soil is heavy and dense.
- 1/5 of an inch of water will pass through the plow layer in one hour.
- A cubic foot of soil weighs 87 pounds.
- An acre to plow depth weighs 90 tons more than the soil in good tilth.

Good tilth—soil sample from the plow layer of a field farmed to a corn, oats, clover, wheat (clover) rotation for almost 50 years.

- This soil is loose and mellow.
- 3 1/5 inches of water will pass through the plow layer in one hour.
- A cubic foot of soil weighs 80 pounds.

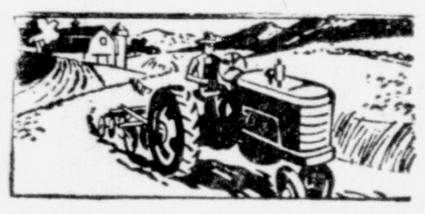
DOWN ON THE FARM



with Your Farm Adviser

CARL F. MEES

I met with a group of vegetable growers last week and discussed further the possibility of setting up a marketing organization for the marketing of fresh vegetables. A new enterprise of this type is always difficult to start. Many do not know whether it will work or not. To be perfecty frank, no one knows whether it will work. We do know that all businesses are started on the same basis. No one knows how successful they will be until after a trial is given.

What we do know is that this same type of organization has worked in other places for vegetable growers so why should it not work for our growers? At any rate, we have 23 growers that have indicated that they are willing to help form an organization through which they can market their products. If the enterprise is successful there should be two or three times as many growers signed up to go along.

If any vegetable growers would like to know more about the proposed organization, feel free to contact me at my office or Ed Oehlerking, temporary chairman of the group.

SOON THERE will be much discussion in the halls at Washington relative to a farm program. Secretary Benson and President Eisenhower have in mind a proposal. From what I read, the Democratic Party will have another. Major farm organizations have still another. I received a copy of a proposed Price Support Program based on Soil Conservation and and Production controls by H. C. M. Case of the agricultural economics department, University of Illinois.

Without a doubt something must be done about bolstering farm income. It has slipped much too far the past few years.

MANY OF YOU who read this column, who are not farming, may think this does not affect you. Sooner or later it will affect everyone of you. If you will check history you will find that when one segment of economy fails to prosper, sooner or later others will do likewise. If one group of people does not have the buying power they should, they cannot purchase the products others manufacture.

The farm program is of major importance to all of us. President Eisenhower is devoting a special message to Congress about it. Let's hope it will not become a Political football but that Congress will consider it as a bi-partisan issue and with the help of our economists at our great universities and with the help of our farm organization find the best possible solution ot this great problem.

Price Supports Costing Farmers

A new method of selling wool which allows the U. S. product to compete more favorably with foreign wool was explained by William Temple, president of the Illinois wool marketing association.

Temple said Illinois wool is able to grade wool to the narrow limits demanded by mills and to sell on a clean pound basis with the grease price established by core samples.

THE SAMPLES are taken with an electric drill, Temple said, which removes samples from a number of fleeces in a bag. The samples are tested in a laboratory to reveal shrinkage and foreign material content, and a price is set accordingly.

He also reported that with the passage of the national wool act of 1954, which removed support prices from wool, all sales were made on an open market basis for the first time since 1943.

"Selling by core sampling means farmers must keep their wool cleaner, and that will result in U.S. wool being able to compete more favorably with foreign wools," the president said.

"The great improvement in manufacturers' relationship from this type of service has enabled Illinois wool marketing to expand its outlets for wool in the face of a sharp reduction in the number of wool manufacturers," Temple said.

Elk Grove Home Bureau Holds Yule Meeting December 28

Elk Grove unit of Cook County home bureau met December 28 for a Christmas luncheon at the home of Mrs. Marvin Busse. The special committee consisted of Mrs. M. Busse, Mrs. O. Dierking and Mrs. J. Wetterman. Co-hostesses were Mrs. C. Leclerc, Mrs. E. Linneman and Mrs. H. Mahler. Punch was served by the chairman, Mrs. Victor Pohlman.

A farewell gift was presented to charter member, Mrs. John Wetterman. Mrs. Wetterman has had a perfect attendance record for 15 years and is now leaving for California.

The lesson on "Seeing ourselves as our children see us," was given by Mrs. H. Mahler and Mrs. H. Wille. Next meeting of the group will be at the home of Mrs. Fred Busse, Mt. Prospect at 1 p. m., January 25.

Urge Farmers To Handle Insect Sprays With Care

"Follow Directions" and "Be Careful," the watchwords of do-it-yourself fans, should also be the watchwords of livestock owners spraying animals in winter for lice and other external parasites, says a University of Illinois Veterinarian.

Dr. Richard E. Bradley of the College of Veterinary Medicine points out that insecticides, carelessly used, can be dangerous to both men and livestock. But if you use them at recommended rates for approved purposes there is little danger.

LINDANE, probably the most common spray for cattle lice, rates about halfway between dangerous and safe on the scale of toxicity for common insect sprays and powders.

If lindane comes into contact with your skin, remove clothing and wash thoroughly. If it is taken internally, induce vomiting to empty the stomach take two tablespoons of Epson salts and call your physician.

Here are some do's and don'ts for using lindane and other insecticides:

DO: 1. READ all labels on packages and follow them exactly.

2. Wear protective clothes and change to clean clothes after a spraying job.

3. Store all insecticides in original packages, away from food and feed stuffs and out of reach of children and animals.

4. Dispose of containers by burning or burying.

5. Call a physician immediately if poisoning is known or suspected. Administer proper antidote.

DON'T: 1. BREATHE insecticide dust, mist or vapors.

2. Spill liquid spray on your skin.

3. Eat or smoke until after you have washed your hands and face.

Forecast Leveling Of Cattle Prices In Coming Year

Live stock producers will enjoy a breathing spell in 1956 during which the giddy spiral of live stock production will let up permitting firmer prices, predicts National Live Stock Producer, the nation's leading live stock magazine.

However, total farm income will drop about 5 per cent below the 1955 level of $10.6 billion with most of the reduction coming in cash receipts from sale of crops.

LARGE FEED supplies and low live stock prices dominate the 1956 outlook. Big harvests of feed crops and lower feed prices encourage production of live stock. However, the low prices for cattle and hogs during the past year will discourage production.

Prices of cattle will average about the same for the coming year. The lower level of feed costs seems to be the cattle feeder's best chance for profit. Gains can be put on below the level of the eventual selling price making favorable price margins unnecessary, although desirable.

HOG PRICES will be lower than in 1955 during the first half of 1956 but should compare more favorably during the last half with much depending on the size of the spring pig crop. A price peak of $14-$16 can be expected in midsummer.

Sheep and lamb prices are also expected to average about the same. The inventory of sheep and lambs is down for the third successive year and the 1955 lamb crop was 1 per cent less than a year earlier. This reduction will curtail slaughter and have a stabilizing influence on prices.

Farm Managers To Meet In February

Farm managers will learn what's new in the farm management field during the annual meeting of the Illinois society of farm managers and rural appraisers February 2 and 3 at the University of Illinois during Farm and Home Week.

"Observations Inside Russia" will be the subject of a talk by W. V. Lambert, Dean of the College of Agriculture, University of Nebraska, at a luncheon Thursday noon.

Program topics on Thursday, Feb. 2, include crop varieties, fertilizers and their use, insects and their control, corn combines, stilbestrol and antibiotics and observations on procedures and practices of professional farm managers.

An election of officers will be held first thing on Friday morning. Topics for that day include what's happening on the Illinois land market, what is happening to farm income, what we can expect in 1956, and government policies and programs.

Presentation of the 1956 Illinois society award will be made at the Friday luncheon.

Economist To Speak At 15th Annual Home Bureau Meeting

D. Gale Johnson, agricultural economist who accompanied the American farm group on its unofficial visit to Russia last summer, will be the principal speaker at Cook county Home Bureau's 15th annual meeting in Chicago January 19. Mr. Johnson will discuss the status of women in the Soviet Union as he observed rural and urban life in 5 weeks of travel throughout the country.

Three hundred fifty of the bureau's 1100 members from suburban and rural Cook county communities are expected to attend the day long meeting. Mrs. H. D. Bowyer of Orland Park, county president, is general chairman for the event scheduled to start at 10 a.m. in the Upper Towers of the Conrad Hilton hotel.

Miss Saphia Fahmey of Cairo Egypt, will speak during the morning program on "Household Customs of Egypt." There will also be reports from the 29 units of the bureau and members of the executive board. A 'Breath of Spring' luncheon will be served at noon in the Waldorf room.

Home Bureau is a professional organization for homemakers which cooperates with the University of Illinois extension service to bring housewives the latest information in all fields of interest to women. It provides leadership and training for the home economics 4-H clubs in the county which last year had a membership of 786 girls.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear husband and our father and grandfather, Alfred J. Meier, who passed away 1 year ago Jan. 13, 1955.

Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days;
Sincere and true in his heart and mind,
A beautiful memory he left behind.
He had a nature you could not help loving
A heart that was purer than gold;
And to those who knew and loved him,
His memory will never grow cold.

His wife, children

Wood Dale Caller Leads USO Dances

Official square dance at the USO, 308—N. Michigan ave., Tuesday, Jan. 17, when Horace Hall, 426 Grove, Wood Dale, Ill. leads the dancing at the club's weekly square dance session for service personnel and junior hostesses.

A well known caller, Hall is a member of the Chicago area callers association.

Square dancing is one of the most popular activities of the club, according to Mrs. Florence G. Heller, club director, and the club is grateful to members of the Chicago area callers association who contribute their services for the enjoyment of the men and women in service. Each Tuesday evening at 8 p.m., a member of the group leads the dancing at the USO.

Additional volunteers are needed at the club to serve as junior hostesses and as chaperones, Mrs. Heller said. Junior hostesses may be between the ages of 18 and 25. Persons interested in becoming USO volunteers are urged to call Mrs. Ethel Getzoff, associate director of the club at RA 6-3082

Hall has participated in the sixth international square dance festival jointly sponsored by the callers association and the Chicago park district. More than 10,000 teachers, leaders and callers from the United States, Canada and Mexico danced in the festival at the International Amphitheatre. (G

'Radioactive Fallout'

Atomic energy commissioner Willard F. Libby will speak Thursday, Jan. 19, at Northwestern university on "Radioactive Fallout."

Tips on Traffic Safety

By
CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

Winter driving, of course, presents the motorist with hazards and problems peculiar to that season. Snow and ice can make driving treacherous. There are certain rules which, if followed, can aid the motorist in avoiding an accident while driving in the winter.

First of all, be alert and prepared to meet any situation. Be sure that your windshield is clear of snow, ice, fog and frost. Windshield wiper blades, defrosters and headlights should be checked to ascertain that they are in good condition.

Make sure that your tires are also in good condition. Relying on worn, smooth tires is taking an unnecessary chance with your life and the lives of others. Tire chains should be used on snow and ice. Chains reduce stopping distance by almost one-half and also greatly increase starting and climbing traction ability.

Determine just how slippery the road is and then adjust your speed to road and weather conditions. To get the "feel" of the road try your brakes occasionally while driving slowly and away from traffic. When slowing down or coming to a stop, pump your brakes. Give yourself plenty of distance to stop by staying well behind the vehicle in front of you.

A copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" booklet will be sent to you free upon request. Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois.

Don't Run Your Dairy Blind

If you are the kind of dairyman who doesn't keep records, you are the kind of person who would drive a car while blindfolded.

With a blindfold over your eyes, you can't see the road or the signs that tell you when to turn. Dairy specialists at the college of agriculture declare that, when you don't keep dairy records, you likewise can't see where you're going or how to get there.

IN BOTH CASES you're free to steer, but you can't know which way to turn.

G. W. Harpestad, extension dairy specialist, points out that you need accurate records in order to cull individual cows from the herd. Your breeding program depends upon your keeping records and analyzing them properly.

You don't need to worry about complicated records, though, Harpestad says.

SOME RECORDS you might keep in order to positively identify your animals include photographs or color markings, tattoos, chains on the neck or around the horns, eartagging and branding.

You need accurate breeding records so that you can be sure that cows get an adequate dry period — which is a must if they are to produce at their best — and also so that you can judge your breeding program on the basis of the sire of each calf and watch the breeding health of the herd.

Contact your Farm Adviser for more information about a record through your Dairy Herd Improvement Association.

Pitching Managers

A recent story in The Sporting News that on the record pitchers don't do too well as managers, got a rise out of Freddie Hutchinson, the new Cardinal manager. Pitching, he said, is 70 per cent of the game, and he argued that a former pitcher therefore is in an ideal position to handle that vital department of the game. The Sporting News story pointed out that since 1876, only five pennants have been won by managers who were former pitchers.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear husband and our father and grandfather, Alfred J. Meier, who passed away 1 year ago Jan. 13, 1955.

Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days;
Sincere and true in his heart and mind,
A beautiful memory he left behind.
He had a nature you could not help loving
A heart that was purer than gold;
And to those who knew and loved him,
His memory will never grow cold.

His wife, children
and grandchildren. (*

Wood Dale Caller Leads USO Dances

Official square dance at the USO, 308—N. Michigan ave., Tuesday, Jan. 17, when Horace Hall, 426 Grove, Wood Dale, Ill. leads the dancing at the club's weekly square dance session for service personnel and junior hostesses.

A well known caller, Hall is a member of the Chicago area callers association.

Square dancing is one of the most popular activities of the club, according to Mrs. Florence G. Heller, club director, and the club is grateful to members of the Chicago area callers association who contribute their services for the enjoyment of the men and women in service. Each Tuesday evening at 8 p.m., a member of the group leads the dancing at the USO.

Additional volunteers are needed at the club to serve as junior hostesses and as chaperones, Mrs. Heller said. Junior hostesses may be between the ages of 18 and 25. Persons interested in becoming USO volunteers are urged to call Mrs. Ethel Getzoff, associate director of the club at RA 6-3082

Hall has participated in the sixth international square dance festival jointly sponsored by the callers association and the Chicago park district. More than 10,000 teachers, leaders and callers from the United States, Canada and Mexico danced in the festival at the International Amphitheatre. (G

'Radioactive Fallout'

Atomic energy commissioner Willard F. Libby will speak Thursday, Jan. 19, at Northwestern university on "Radioactive Fallout."

Tips on Traffic Safety

By
CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

Winter driving, of course, presents the motorist with hazards and problems peculiar to that season. Snow and ice can make driving treacherous. There are certain rules which, if followed, can aid the motorist in avoiding an accident while driving in the winter.

First of all, be alert and prepared to meet any situation. Be sure that your windshield is clear of snow, ice, fog and frost. Windshield wiper blades, defrosters and headlights should be checked to ascertain that they are in good condition.

Make sure that your tires are also in good condition. Relying on worn, smooth tires is taking an unnecessary chance with your life and the lives of others. Tire chains should be used on snow and ice. Chains reduce stopping distance by almost one-half and also greatly increase starting and climbing traction ability.

Determine just how slippery the road is and then adjust your speed to road and weather conditions. To get the "feel" of the road try your brakes occasionally while driving slowly and away from traffic. When slowing down or coming to a stop, pump your brakes. Give yourself plenty of distance to stop by staying well behind the vehicle in front of you.

A copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" booklet will be sent to you free upon request Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois.

Don't Run Your Dairy Blind

If you are the kind of dairyman who doesn't keep records, you are the kind of person who would drive a car while blindfolded.

With a blindfold over your eyes, you can't see the road or the signs that tell you when to turn. Dairy specialists at the college of agriculture declare that, when you don't keep dairy records, you likewise can't see where you're going or how to get there.

IN BOTH CASES you're free to steer, but you can't know which way to turn.

G. W. Harpestad, extension dairy specialist, points out that you need accurate records in order to cull individual cows from the herd. Your breeding program depends upon your keeping records and analyzing them properly.

You don't need to worry about complicated records, though, Harpestad says.

SOME RECORDS you might keep in order to positively identify your animals include photographs or color markings, tattoos, chains on the neck or around the horns, eartagging and branding.

You need accurate breeding records so that you can be sure that cows get an adequate dry period — which is a must if they are to produce at their best — and also so that you can judge your breeding program on the basis of the sire of each calf and watch the breeding health of the herd.

Contact your Farm Adviser for more information about a record through your Dairy Herd Improvement Association.

Pitching Managers

A recent story in The Sporting News that on the record pitchers don't do too well as managers, got a rise out of Freddie Hutchinson, the new Cardinal manager. Pitching, he said, is 70 per cent of the game, and he argued that a former pitcher therefore is in an ideal position to handle that vital department of the game. The Sporting News story pointed out that since 1876, only five pennants have been won by managers who were former pitchers.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS HERALD

[ROLLING MEADOWS EDITION]

VOLUME 29, NUMBER 21 | Published Every Thursday By PADDOCK PUBLICATIONS, Inc. | Entered as second class matter under act of March 3, 1879, at Arlington Heights, Ill. | ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILLINOIS | THURSDAY, JAN. 12, 1956 | 5 SECTIONS, 36 PAGES | $4.00 PER YEAR | 10c PER COPY

The Editor's column

When an editor is on vacation 3,000 miles away from his desk and has received no word of what is happening back home, he can do nothing other than to say something about his impressions of a week spent near San Diego, the oldest U. S. community on the Pacific Coast.

Spending a week in such a city, sleeping, eating and relaxing in a hotel that was the world's largest when it was built in 1886, we became an honorary member of the "Heaven on Earth Club" which issued us a million dollar bond that guaranteed its payment in golden sunshine, 357 days of every year.

There were a lot of interest coupons on that bond, but we will not be able to collect on them because an editor working in Illinois cannot collect the daily sunshine in San Diego. That million dollar bond is an example of good salesmanship on the part of a Chamber of Commerce of that city.

Illinois may have a few cloudy days, but we think that living in northwest Cook county is worth a million dollars. We just need a local Chamber of Commerce to let the world know.

To thousands of Americans, San Diego is the jumping-off place to Tijuana where bullfights are classed as an art, not a sport; where the fastest and most dangerous sport on earth, Jai Alai, is played by teams who hurl a granite ball at speeds of 100 miles an hour; the home of the Caliente race track, and where it is as easy to get a divorce as to get married. Large signs inform the incoming visitors that both are easily obtained.

Tijuana lives off the 10 million visitors from the U. S. — the more cars, the more visitors, the more money for the hundreds of small shops that offer everything from small trinkets to diamonds.

Every Sunday is a race day with a parking lot as crowded with cars bearing U. S. license plates as is Arlington Park.

Illinois has its Great Lakes and Ft. Sheridan, but they are insignificant compared to what is to be found in the harbor of San Diego. The hundreds of ships in mothballs are only a small part of the fighting power that the U. S. Navy stores up in the natural harbor of San Diego.

We saw everything from submarines to 6 giant carriers, visiting one of them, the Hornet. It is our opinion that an enemy would have a lot to shoot at if he attempted to stage a second Pearl Harbor.

We saw floating dry docks in operation and more classes of fighting and attacking boats than we knew existed.

We rather enjoyed associating with mink coats and diamonds in the Hotel del Coronado. No such camouflage was necessary for us to enjoy the hospitality of the management who welcomed us with a bouquet of long stemmed roses and a bottle of champagne.

The hotel when built in 1886 was the largest in the world. Its spaciousness, ornate ceilings and walls are the same today as when among its guests were Thomas Edison, Henry Ford, Harvey Firestone and Presidents Benjamin Harrison, William McKinley, Howard Taft and Franklin Roosevelt. Its lobby and grand stairway are constructed of solid Illinois oak. Individual bathrooms and other modern facilities have replaced the wall safes that were originally in every room.

A GI home could be placed inside one of the bedrooms. The Crown dining room seated 700; the Cornet room an additional 300 diners; the ballroom is 5 stories high; 400 outside rooms facing either the gardens, the ocean or the bay bespoke of luxury that the public expected in a resort hotel 60 years ago.

It was in the midst of such atmosphere that the editor was able to forget such problems as newsprint shortages, editor's columns and deadlines.

We did not spend all our time in the swimming pool, tennis courts, gardens and the ocean beach. We marveled at some of the services that San Diego county the size of the state of Connecticut, is able to give its residents until we were told how they do it.

The income tax graduating from the 1 to 6 per cent helps a bit. Auto owners pay their personal property tax when they purchase license plates in January. The realty tax rate is $5.79 for every $100 assessment, which in turn is based on 34 per cent of market value.

The California resident does not have to lie about personal property taxes on stocks and bonds because they are not taxable.

The marvelous highways are partly made possible by the state 8 cents a gallon gas tax. There is a sales tax of 3 per cent plus one-half per cent that can be levied by a municipality.

We rang the chimes on the historic old mission where Ramona was married. We visited Balboa park. The zoo located in ravines has a year round setting not found in other parts of the country. Within the park are buildings originally constructed for the 1915 and 1935 international expositions, some of them used as permanent art galleries and museums.

MAYOR JOHN NORTHCOTE of Rolling Meadows signs the polio drive proclamation as Mrs. Jean Katkus, chairman (left seated), looks on. Standing are Mrs. Marge Schmidt, Mrs. Donna Phiel, and Mrs. Donna Anderson.

Junior Woman's Club Welcomes New Members

Four new members of the Rolling Meadows Junior Womans club were welcomed into the club Monday night.

New members, Ida Lou Emory, Eileen Spera, Barbara Fahn and Alice Boyle, in addition to club president Sue Schultz, acted as models for fur capes and stoles. The fur garments were used as visible illustrations of the possibilities of fur as a part of the evening's program on "Fur Facts" presented by I. Himmel & Sons of Chicago.

IN ADDITION to their modeling stint, the new members were presented with the customary flower corsages as a welcome from the club. Another presentation during the evening was to Annette Guaglianone, the club's Americanism chairman, who won the door prize of a mink collar.

The members were reminded by Zada Cahill, contact chairman, of the 7th district junior meeting on Tuesday, January 17, at St. Martin Episcopal church in Des Plaines. Since all members are required to attend at least one district meeting each year, members were urged to take advantage of the outstanding program being offered at this particular meeting.

The program will feature presentations and illustrative slides by the district chairman of the Womens clubs "Marquette School for Boys" committee on the school, and by Dr. Elfriede Horst on the clinic and school for migrant workers' children in Des Plaines with which she is associated.

The success of several recent fund-raising projects was also announced to the junior women. Club members were informed that a profit of $366.82 had been received from the November card party and fashion show, the major part of which has been turned over to the city for the purchase of a pulmotor and oxygen tanks.

The Christmas candle sale for the benefit of Lawrence Hall Boys in Chicago amounted to $25.30. In addition the club tinsel sale amounted to $72, the profit of which was used to provide the recent club Christmas party for Ridge Farm for emotionally disturbed children.

MEMBERS WERE reminded that yearly dues are now past due. Old members who do not wish to continue their membership this year must submit a letter of resignation to the club membership chairman Jean Ehard before their name can be removed from the membership list. This is a Federated Womans club rule which must be followed by the local club.

All members were reminded to save their old stamps and bring them to the next meeting as a part of the club "Stamps for the Wounded" project. Members were also reminded to save men's old shirts, both dress and sport type, to be brought to the next meeting as well. The shirts will be remade by the women into coverall type aprons for donation to the Lutheran Day Nursery in Chicago.

Junior Hi Business Meeting Is Monday

Planning the club's activities for the next month will be the main item on the agenda of the Junior Hi Fellowship at their business meeting next Monday evening at the Kimball Hill school.

The meeting which will start at 7 p.m. sharp will be supervised by the clubs executive advisor John Woods. Starting with Friday, January 20, events for club participation will be planned for the next four weeks.

Membership in the club is open to all teenagers of the community between the ages of 10 and 14. Prospective members may join the club at any function or may contact the executive advisor at his home, 2303 Dove st.

Additional advisors are needed to assist with club activities. While many volunteers assist at individual functions as requested, the club has only one advisor who serves on a "full time" basis. Additional help is vital to the continued success of the club, and any volunteer would find the work stimulating and interesting.

Arrest Driver

An accident at the corner of Wilke and Campbell in the city has brought the arrest of the responsible driver. The driver responsible for the collision was booked by the police department for driving under the influence of alcohol. No personal injuries were suffered in the accident. The driver will appear in Rolling Meadows police magistrate court.

Scouts, Teens Collect Paper Saturday A.M.

Saturday will give all city residents the opportunity to rid themselves of those piles of old newspapers and magazines.

On that day Rolling Meadows boy scouts and Junior Hi fellowship will hold their second joint paper drive. The drive will start at 9 a.m. and bundles of paper left at the curb at that hour will be picked up by truck.

Residents have been asked by the youth groups to bundle their old newspapers and magazines separately. The youngsters also ask that as many residents as possible bring their paper to the central collection point to make their pick-up task easier. Central collection point will be a large truck-trailer parked at the Kimball Hill school driveway.

MONEY raised by the boy scouts will be used to purchase much-needed equipment. The proceeds received by the Junior Hi will be used to support their planned summer recreation program.

Members of the Junior Hi Mothers club will provide luncheon for the boys and their adult volunteer co-workers. The lunch will be served at the community Barn.

Cooperation of residents is asked by the groups. In previous paper drives bundles of paper have been brought to the collection points after the drive has been closed. All paper should be placed at the curb or brought to the collection point early to assure its being included in the drive.

Police Seek Aid Of Parents To Squelch Extortion Plots

Reports have been received from Kimball Hill school of instances where older children are threatening smaller youngsters in efforts to get money or possessions.

Police have asked parents to carefully question their children if they find them suddenly in possession of unexplained money or articles of value. Only by parent cooperation can many of these practices be stopped as often the smaller children are too frightened to tell an accurate or complete story.

Last Monday a 4-year old boy from Rolling Meadows was reported missing after an absence of 3 hours.

Luckily, police chief Tom Ullock at the moment he received the call from city clerk Eda Zimmerman informing him of the missing child, was at the Arlington Heights police station talking to the child in cooperation with the Arlington police to discover his name and address. He was promptly returned to his home in the Meadows. He had walked the entire distance to the down-town section of Arlington Heights before being picked up by the police department.

Local police have asked that parents keep a more careful check on their small children, promptly reporting their absence, in order to permit the police to assist residents find missing youngsters before any harm may come to them.

Zone Hearing Wednesday

The Rolling Meadows Zoning commission will hold a public hearing on the proposed zoning ordinance for the city at the Kimball Hill school next Wednesday, January 18, at 8 p.m.

Acting as chairman of the meeting will be commission chairman Bob Sales. Main purpose of the hearing is to give all residents of the city an opportunity to express their desires to the commission and to guide the commission in establishing zoning areas within the city.

The proposed 80-page zoning ordinance and zoning map are currently at the city hall, 2207 Campbell st., and may be inspected by any interested parties.

ALL MEMBERS of the Zoning commission will be present at the hearing. In addition to Sales, the members are Tom Waldron, Dick Zmich, Joe Stapleton, Harry Spears, Boubene Jaremus and Gene Farrell.

Zoning areas set up by the commission will divide the city into residential, special purpose, two-family residential, multiple family residential, neighborhood shopping, community shopping and light industrial.

The zoning ordinance is the result of action by the city council creating the zoning commission and more than 15 meetings of the commission itself in months of study on the problem.

New Ice Skating Rink Now Ready

Under the sponsorship of Rolling Meadows Lions club, an ice skating rink has been created for youngsters and adults. Located on Meadow drive between Kirchhoff rd. and Park st. the rink should be ready for operation today provided the weather is favorable.

The Lions club plans to erect lights and benches, and possibly a shelter of some type in the near future. The rink measures approximately 300x100 feet, making it one of the largest rinks in the area.

Banks for the skating rink were erected through the courtesy of Kimball Hill & Associates. The necessary water for the rink was donated by the Arlington Water company. Jim McFeggan supervised the flooding of the rink as he did for the rink used last year.

Vandalism In City!

Two instances of vandalism have been reported by the Rolling Meadows police this past week.

Approximately $150 damage was discovered Friday by the owner of a Ford tractor parked on Hawk lane in the new construction area. The tractor, owned by a Kimball Hill sub-contractor Eldon Marple, had a smashed radiator, broken dial indicators, as well as a broken distributor and ruined battery. While many children in the area have admitted playing on the tractor, no one responsible for the damage has been found.

More extensive damage was suffered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Berggren on route 53 north of Kirchoff rd.

The new home which is being built by Mr. and Mrs. Berggren had screens and windows broken, holes punched in the walls, and the landscaping was damaged almost beyond repair. The Berggrens are presently residents of Antioch, planning to move to their new home upon its completion. A juvenile suspect was apprehended by one of the neighbors in this instance. A hearing on the case was held on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Rolling Meadows city hall.

Council Acts On Water System, Police Fund

1956 March of Dimes On It's Way in City!

Under the sponsorship of Rolling Meadows Junior Womans club, the 1956 March of Dimes campaign has been officially opened in the city.

A proclamation announcing the drive was signed by Mayor John Northcote last week. Acting as chairman of the polio fund drive is Mrs. Joseph Katkus, club welfare ocmmittee chairman.

Coin cards were mailed to all residents last Saturday. One home owner was so anxious to complete his contribution he personally delivered his card with $2 in cash to Mrs. Katkus on Saturday morning.

Other features of the March of Dimes drive in the city will be the sale of polio balloons by members of the Guys and Dolls teen club Saturday. The Mothers March on Polio has been set for Tuesday evening, January 31. Participating in the Mothers March will be members of the Junior Womans club and additional volunteers as needed.

Reminding Rolling Meadows residents of the necessity to support the polio fund, Mrs. Katkus this week reported while the Salk vaccine has been very successful even more research is still needed. The success of the past polio drives was proved last year, however, when polio was reduced 50 per cent in Illinois–2,212 cases in 1954 and 1,394 cases in 1955. Money is still needed to provide help for victims of past polio epidemics. There are still 1,001 cases in Cook County receiving help from the foundation.

There have been two cases of polio in Rolling Meadows, both mothers. Fortunately the local cases were cured.

Home Owners Group Seeks To Put Bugs On The Run

Petitions will soon be circulated by representatives of the Rolling Meadows Home Owners association asking for a referendum on a mosquito abatement district.

These petitions are the result of many months of study by the ways and means committee chairman of the association George Kitterman, working in cooperation with the Northwest Cook County Mosquito Abatement committee.

Members of this committee are from all of the northwest suburban communities from Park Ridge to Palatine.

The petition is necessary to authorize a referendum vote for the establishment of the mosquito district as a legal tax assessing body. The signatures of 5 per cent of all registered voters in the incorporated and unincorporated areas of the proposed district are needed before the referendum can be authorized by the county judge. It is hoped to have the referendum at the time of the spring primaries.

THE ULTIMATE additional tax burden for most city residents would not exceed $1 per year. This would provide complete mosquito abatement practices from larvaciding, draining of breeding places to periodic spraying during summer months.

The officers and directors of the Home Owners association and the members of the committee are convinced that such a district is the only way to insure proper mosquito control in the area.

The only alternative is for each individual community to contract for mosquito spraying of a given area with perhaps a house-to-house collection to help defray costs. Since the city government was not established to perform house-to-house collection service, it would be left to some civic organization in the community, none of which are set up to control such a collection. A properly organized and legally constituted taxing body would insure that each home owner would be assessed his fair share.

Flag Ceremony Planned For Local Scouts, Cubs

An impressive lesson in respect for the American flag has been planned for Rolling Meadows boy scouts and cub scouts.

On Sunday, January 29, the boys with their parents and guests, will travel to the Glenview Naval air base. There the base color guard will present scout troop 68 and cub pack 68 with flags for their groups.

The new troop flags have been purchased with the money received from the Rolling Meadows Home Owners association raffle at their annual picnic last September. Cooperating in the flag ceremony will be the Lions club who will provide refreshments for the boys.

All boys will be in full uniform. The color guards of the 2 troops will accept the flags from the naval guard. Following the presentation ceremony, the boys and their guests will be taken on a tour of the base.

A practice session for all cub scouts, with special emphasis on marching, has been set for Saturday, January 14, at 2 p.m. at the Kimball Hill school. This practice session is to prepare the boys to properly conduct themselves at the flag ceremony and at other important functions.

Guys & Dolls Success Party Saturday Night

After selling balloons in support of the March of Dimes fund all day, the members of the Guys and Dolls teen club will relax Saturday night in the Barn at their "Success Party." All members are assured a good time by the club.

The committee in charge has announced the party will feature a scavenger hunt, as well as various games found to be very successful at the club Halloween party. The party marks the "success" of the recent teen-parent banquet held by the club. The party will also honor the 16th birthday of the club treasurer Gloria Amundson. Gloria's parents, Dorothy and Aubrey Amundson, will provide refreshments in their daughter's honor.

The committee planning the party includes Mary Kay Kunz, Micki McClaskey, Mike Zucchero, Barbara Lapinski and Jake Van Jacobs.

A second outstanding event for club members has been set for Sunday, January 22. It will be an ice skating party at Silver lake, near Antioch, Wisconsin. The club has been invited to the lake for the skating event by Youth Council president Ray Walker. The teenagers will use the facilities of the Walker cabin at the lake for their outing. Parents will drive the skaters to Wisconsin. The motorcade, led by Ray and Nora Walker, will leave the Barn promptly at 1 p.m. that day. Cakes and cookies will be brought by mothers of club members, and hot chocolate will be prepared for the cold skaters.

Youth Council Tonight

Representatives of all sponsoring groups have been reminded by Youth Council president Ray Walker of the meeting tonight. Held at the Barn, the meeting will start promptly at 8:30 p.m. Several problems facing the two teen clubs sponsored by the council will be discussed.

The Youth Council is the official sponsor of the Guys and Dolls teen club for 15 to 18 year olds and the Junior Hi Fellowship for teens from 10 to 14. It is composed of all civic, youth and religious groups in the community working in cooperation.

City Meets With Officials Of Arlington Co. Next Week

At the regular council meeting Tuesday night, council members were informed by city attorney John Doyle and finance committee chairman Bi White that preliminary negotiations on the part of the city government for the purchase of the water system have been completed.

A meeting with Benjamin Lewis, president of the Arlington Water company, with city officials and the council has been set up for next week.

Purchase of the water company's option from Kimball Hill & Associates for the water system will be the main topic of discussion and negotiation. The importance of the meeting can be gauged by the fact Lewis is returning from a Florida vacation for the specific purpose of attending the meeting.

ACTION of the council also created a police pension fund for the city.

The fund was established to protect the interest of city policemen and to bring the pension advantage enjoyed by all other police departments in the area to the Rolling Meadows department. It is to be administered by a 5-member board of trustees appointed by the mayor, elected by the police department and the beneficiaries of the fund.

It will require each member of the police force to contribute 5 per cent of his monthly salary to the fund. Proceds of an annaul tax not to exceed .05 per cent will go to the fund, as well as a percentage of funds received for dog licenses, business licenses, police fines and rewards and fines collected for violation of city ordinances.

The council also approved the amendment of the building code to permit the issuance of temporary building permits for winter garage construction.

The amendment adopted would permit garage construction during cold weather when concrete slabs cannot be poured through the posting of a bond equal to 75 cents per square foot of floor area involved. The temporary permit would be for a period of 6 months, after which the bond would be refunded by the city treasurer if all work has been completed on the garage to bring it in conformance with the standard building code. Failure to complete construction within the specified time will bring the forfeiture of the bond as well as placing the home owner and contractor in violation of the building code.

IN SPECIAL ACTION, the council voted to permit the refund of the building permit fee to T. Magiera who had sold his property before erecting his home.

The council voted to refund the permit less 10 per cent for expenses incurred by the city in handling the permit. It was also suggested by Alderman Al Piekarski that his judicial committee prepare an ordinance governing the refund of such money by the city as a guide for future action.

Mayor John Northcote announced he was signing the ordinance covering miscellaneous offenses to place the ordinance in effect. He indicated he was signing the ordinance in spite of greatly objecting to the 18-year-old limit imposed by the curfew law contained in the ordinance.

The mayor accepted the resignation of Alderman Piekarski from the streets, alley and untilities committee. Piekarski indicated the committee meeting night interfered with his regular work.

Alderman Richard Faber stated a meeting had been held with the telephone company representative on the proposed franchise. A second meeting has been arranged.

Alderman Richard Roeing raised the question of dividing the city into wards. City attorney Doyle stated the division into wards should be left until the next election at which time he would suggest an even distribution of population in the various wards created.

Register To Vote

In a major effort to maintain the high reputation of the city in having almost all residents registered for voting, the Rolling Meadows Home Owners association will sponsor a special Voting Registration Day next Saturday, January 14.

Cooperating with the association city clerk Eda Zimmerman will keep her office open from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. Extra volunteer registrars will be on hand to assist Mrs. Zimmerman at the city hall, 2207 Campbell st.

The Home Owners association will send their public-address system through the newer sections of the city Saturday reminding residents of the opportunity created for them to register locally. On January 17 local registration will be closed and residents will thereafter have to register at the county building in Chicago until after the April primary elections.

Speaking on behalf of the association, president Pete Keller stated "Up to now Rolling Meadows has had cause to be proud of its representation of registered voters. Let us continue to maintain these high standards of civic pride and interest."

Balloons Saturday Mark Support Of Fight Against Polio

Every balloon carried by a litle Rolling Meadows child next Saturday will be attractive evidence of the help given by his parents to the current polio drive. The balloons will serve a double purpose in giving the children pleasure as well as indirectly protecting them from the dread disease.

The balloons will be sold by members of the Rolling Meadows Guys & Dolls teen club. The teenagers will be stationed at every important intersection of the city, selling the balloons to all passing motorists and pedestrian. Club chairman for the polio balloon sale is Don Strawald. The teenagers have 1,500 balloons and they hope to end the sale Saturday with the announcement of "sold out."

Cooperating with the youngsters in their service work is the Arlington Body and Fender company who will supply an air compressor to inflate the ballons. The balloon sale is enthusiastically approved by the Rolling Meadows March of Dimes chairman Mrs. Jean Katkus and the county March of Dimes organization.

New Arrivals

December 29, as the old year was nearing its end, a fourth son joined the Kukowinski family. Michael Carl, son of Dorothy and Stanley Kukowinski Jr., 2404 Park st., arrived at St. Mary hospital in Chicago, registering a birth weight of 5 pounds 12½ ounces. Other male members of the family are Stanley III, Carl and Tommy, who anxiously awaited their mother's return home from the hospital with their new brother. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kukowinski Sr., the baby's grandparents, live on Flicker lane in Rolling Meadows, too.

Patricia Lynn, the first girl in the Cardella household, was born January 5, at Resurrection hospital, Chicago. She weighed 6 pounds 4 ounces. Her parents are Joseph and Phyllis Cardella, 2200 Kirchhoff and her big brothers, are Craig and Robert.

Regina, Anna Marie, Arthur and Robert Klein, announce the birth of Susan Carol, their new sister. January 6 was the date of her arrival at Ravenswood hospital in Chicago, "tipping the scales" at 9 pounds, 8 ounces. Reggie and Art Klein, of 2300 Bluebird, are the parents of this little girl. Mrs. Klein of Chicago, Art's mother, has been staying here in Rolling Meadows caring for the children while their mother was in the hospital.

The cigars being passed out by Bill Meyers of 2802 Meadow dr., are in honor of his son's birth. Richard Lee, the name chosen for their first child by Sally and Bill, was born at Resurrection hospital, Chicago, January 8. He registered a birth weight of 6 pounds, 14 ounces.

"It's going to be Michael we think" is the report from Bob and June Hourigan, 3207 Fremont st. Their son arrived at 4 a.m. last Monday at St. Anne hospital in Chicago. Birth weight was 8 pounds 5 ounces. His older brother and sister, Danny and Nancy, are anxiously awaiting his arrival at their home here in the Meadows.

Christening

Kathleen Mary, the infant daughter of Shirley and Tom Cerney, 2405 Park st., was christened January 1, at Our Lady of the Wayside. Father O'Hara officiated at the baptismal ceremony. Acting as godparents were Patricia Wright and John Carman. Following the christening service, a dinner was held at the home for the godparents and relatives. Also enjoying the happy occasion was Donna, the 14-month-old sister of Kathleen.

Club Meeting

The Delta Alpha Sigma club had dinner at Weller's in Morton Grove last Wednesday in honor of Ginny Bickett, who, in the near future, is moving to Carrollton, Ill. Those attending were the honored guest, Ginny Bickett, and Mary Beutler, Noreen Enger, Florence Nyblin, Lorie Stapleton, Pat Phipps and Evelyn Mahoney.

The "33 club", so named because it was originally formed in 1933 by a group of young girls, met last week at the home of Winifred Jones, 3108 Hawk lane. Thirteen of the clubs members who live in Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect, attended the meeting.

Ill

Home from the hospital and on the road to recovery is Bill Lortie, 2306 Sigwalt. Bill went to the hospital New Year's eve and, after a careful examination, the doctor found the cause of Bill's illness to be bursitis. He returned home January 3 and is recuperating nicely. Fran, his wife, and their daughters, Dawn and Nancy, were glad to have him home. His friends and neighbors wish him a speedy recovery.

Vacation

Miami Beach, the playground of America, especially in the cold winter months, was enjoyed by Jim and Albie Service of 2805 Meadow dr. They took their first plane trip, leaving Rolling Meadows Christmas day and returning New Year's eve. The memory of the trip will remain long after the tan they are sporting around has faded away.

Lorie and Jim Curly, 2507 George st., will long remember this year's trip back home. It was the first time in a number of years that the Curly family has been together. Jim's brother, who was stationed in Japan, has returned to the States and was home visiting the family for the holidays. Lorie and Jim spent Christmas and New Year's with the family, returning home last Sunday.

Home Demonstration

Shortly after her husband's recent illness in the hospital ,Charlene Komay, 2605 South st., undertook the task of preparing for this Radelle home demonstration party in her home. Several of her friends from Des Plaines and Rolling Meadows attended. The Radelle demonstration shows every woman how to have beautiful hair, so Rolling Meadows should set a shining example of beautiful hair as there are more parties of this type scheduled in the near future. Charlene is to be the new home demonstrator in this area for this product.

Visitors

Kathy Stewart, who is just 5 years old, from Dallas, Texas, spent a few days in Rolling Meadows visiting her cousins Carol and Linda Sorensen, 2311 Meadow dr. They are the daughters of Ray and Shirlee Sorensen.

Amy Scheffer of New York City, sister of Andre Scheffer, 2105 Wren lane, visited here in Rolling Meadows for the Christmas and New Year's holidays. Two happy children were Kim and Freddy Scheffer, who hadn't visited with Aunt Amy for some time and for whom she brought some beautiful gifts. She flew in to visit the family and some friends of hers who are in Chicago playing in "Anastacia." During the holidays the Scheffers also entertained guests from Waukegan, Skokie and Wheaton.

Christmas proved to be a festive "visiting" occasion for Louise and Erwin Heidin, 2306 Bluebird lane. Their guests for the holidays were Betty and Mac Goldsmith of Des Moines. Betty and Louise have been friends for about 12 years, having met when they both lived in Chicago. The Heidens also entertained Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Haugen of Rogers Park during the holiday season. Their guests insured a happy Christmas and New Years for the Heidens in their second holiday season in their new home.

Marion and Robert Douglas, 2303 Cardinal dr., had recent visitors from Waupaca, Wis. Robert Richards, Marion's son, and his children, Jeffrey, 10, and Jay, 8, spent several days during the holiday season here in Rolling Meadows.

Sympathy

Friends and neighbors were saddened last week to learn of the death of the brother of Ed Considine, 2600 Fremont. Ed's brother, Emmett Considine, 46, died January 3. The funeral was Saturday at St. Sebastian church in Chicago. Mr. Considine is survived by 2 sisters and 2 brothers in addition to Ed Considine. This is the second death in the past few months for the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Considine. Just a few months ago the Considine's and their 4 children were saddened by the death of Mrs. Considine's father.

Chuckie Stowe, son of Chuck and Eleanore Stowe, 2604 Fremont st., found a beautiful white angora cat New Year's day, and it has captured his heart. However, if some one here in Rolling Meadows has lost a cat that answers this description, it will be returned to the owner, if it is claimed. Further information may be had by calling Clearbrook 5-1241.

Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brynelson, 2803 Meadow dr., together with friends and neighbors, welcomed the new year with a New Year's eve party in their home. Rolling Meadowites who attended the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Service, Mr. and Mrs. C. Paeglow, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Meyers, Eda Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. George Almgren, and several friends from Arlington Heights.

Another Rolling Meadows home where a gay time was had by all New Year's eve was at the home of Sheila and Bill Abraham, 2302 Park st. The couples who attended were: George and Dotty Sully, Bob and Betty Seelbach, Bob and Terry Crawford, Angie and Lucille Borgese, all of Rolling Meadows, Bud and Rosemary Lyons of Mt. Prospect and Joe and Eleanor Pykosz of Chicago.

Parties

Larry Jimenez, who was 5 years old December 27, was guest of honor at a party December 28 given by his parents, Bill and Gladys Jimenez, 2611 Park st. Enjoying the party games, ice cream and cake were: Beverly Johnson, Linda Murphy, Lorrie Erickson, Yvonne Sitner, Tony Jungblut, Kenny and Mark Ritzenthaler, all o Rolling Meadows, and 3 cousins and 2 friends from Lombard. Larry's brother, Bobby, 4½ months old, was a little young to join in the festivities.

Linda Marie Langhoff, who was 4 years old January 7, celebrated her birthday at a party on that date. Several of her friends who enjoyed the cake and ice cream and the playing of several party games were Randy Kunz, Linda Kay and Danny Vlaminick, Diane and Carol Poulson, Cindy Golz, Sandra Schinkowsky and Brian Schroeder of Rolling Meadows and Danny and Marie Bauer and Guy Earl Jessogne of Arlington Heights. In the evening her godparents and 5 cousins shared in the birthday cake and ice cream. She is the daughter of Marie and Will Langhoff, 2300 Sigwalt st.

Terry Horn, who was 7 on the seventh, was guest of honor at a party given on that date by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Horn, 2400 Bluebird. Friends who attended the party enjoyed the birthday games played and the refreshments that followed.

Bobby Keller, son of Pete and Eleanor Keller, 2903 Wilke rd., was 9 years old January 8. His birthday guests were members of cub scout den 1 Glen Brighton, Donny Williams and Bobby Pina. Brother Kenny also enjoyed the games played and the ice cream and cake that was served to the guests.

Karen Anderson is now a ripe old age of 2. Her second birthday last Friday was marked with a series of family celebrations. On her actual birthday her aunts, uncle and cousins joined with her and her parents, Donna and Ed Anderson, 2101 Swan lane, for a birthday party. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schramm and their children, Suzy and Hal, and Mrs. Jack Kenny with her daughters, Lynn and Cecilia. Friday evening Karen's grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson, joined the family for a celebration. Saturday her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Nils Hagberg, also visited Rolling Meadows to celebrate the happy event. Joining the birthday festivities was Karen's older sister, Kristy.

Janice Conley, who celebrated her second birthday at an afternoon party January 9, is the daughter of Jim and Rosemary Conley, 2500 Cardinal dr. The mothers and children who shared in the ice cream and cake were Lois Caleva and daughter, Linda; Sue Nunes and son, Steven; and Jeanne Markus and her 3 boys, Jim, Jon and Jerry.

Women's Bowling

The team standing of the Rolling Meadows women's bowling league are as follows:

	Won	Lost
Hedlins Richer Milk	31½	22½
Parkway Liquors	28	26
Jim's Service Station	25½	28½
Bowen Hardware	23	31

High game of 184 is still held by Jo Polan, who bowls on the Jim's Service Station team.

Girl Scout News

There will be music ringing from the Kimball Hill school next Saturday morning when Rolling Meadows Girl Scouts gather there for a song rehearsal. Under the direction of Mrs. Eleanore Waldron, the girls will practice their songs and skit for the Spring Music Rally for all of the Girl Scouts in the district at the Arlington Heights high school on February 26.

The practice session will start at 10 a.m. Since there will be only two rehearsals for the rally and since a skit must be prepared to give before the entire assembled group on February 26, all girls are urged to attend the Saturday practice. The second rehearsal will be held on February 11.

THERE ARE ew officers for troop 357, led by Grace Nordlund and Irene Wever. The young 2nd grade brownies have elected Sandra Hogle as their new troop president. Susan Schlaufman is the new secretary and Judy Berglund is the treasurer. The busy troop of 22 girls is currently working on their brownie scrap books.

* * *

The happy members of the brownie troop led by Donna Alexander and Velma Bozee can at last identify themselves by a troop number. Just received this week, the new troop number is 433. Next Monday at their regular meeting the third grade brownies will hold an Investiture ceremony for two new members, Christine Jungblut and Linda Jalanis. Joining the new brownies in the Investiture will be Donna Alexander who will be invested as a troop leader. Current projects for the brownies of troop 433 includes the collection of playing cards and the making of homemade puzzles for distribution to various institutions at Easter.

Flatterer

Husband: "It's peculiar, but the biggest idiots seem to marry the prettiest women." Wife: Oh, now you're just trying to flatter me."

Mothers Create Party Air For Guys & Dolls Meetings

With the assistance of mothers through the Big Sisters club, the Guys and Dolls teen club meetings have taken on a party atmosphere.

Not only are parents cooperating in the roles of advisors at club meetings, but refreshments of infinite variety have been provided as well.

The meeting Thursday saw Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deering acting as advisors. The devils food cake provided by Mrs. Fred Kunz and the Polish pastry provided by Mrs. Deering were completely consumed, as well as the 3 gallons of milk served.

There will be another regular meeting of the club at the Barn tonight at 8 p.m. Constructive work of the club at the last meeting included the primary painting of the new ping-pong tables donated by the local Lions club. The painting was done by Mike Locascio, Jerry Browning and Bob Karman.

In an effort to make the club even more interesting for the members, an interview project has been set up by the Youth Council. Starting last Tuesday evening, a series of individual interviews is being held for all club members at the home of Youth Council president Ray Walker.

The interviews will deal with finding the main interests of the teenagers, what the members want from the club, what the club feels as its responsibility to the community, and various other problems. K)

Rolling Meadows Nurses Attend Palatine Meeting

A special invitation has been extended to all registered nurses in Rolling Meadows to attend the Palatine Nurses club meeting Monday, January 16, at 8 p.m., in the fire hall, Palatine.

Acting as hostesses for that evening will be a group of Rolling Meadows women, all members of the club. They are Lorraine Van Wazer, Phylis Noet and Ruth Gruenbaum.

Membership in the club is open to any registered nurse in the community. The club programs are generally planned for the interest of nurses or those with medical training. Practical functions of the club include a medical supply lending closet, supplying medical equipment without charge to residents of the area.

Another important work of the club is the school nursing program carried on in cooperation with the local grammar school district and local PTA units. The program this past year has included polio shots, hearing tests, eye tests and general physical examinations. K)

Urge OES Women To Join Together

With the success of the newly-formed Masonic Fellowship group in Rolling Meadows, it has been suggested that members of the Order of Eastern Star might also be interested in joining together in some manner.

All members of the O.E.S. who are residents of the city are invited to contact Mrs. Winifred Jones, 3101 Hawk lane, CLearbrook 5-3827.

It is hoped that response to this invitation will be sufficient to make a meeting of the women possible to acquaint O.E.S. members with other members in the community. K)

Local GOP Women Meet State Prexy

An informal discussion with Mrs. Irl Marshall, president of the Illinois Federation of Republican Womens clubs, was the highlight of the meeting of the Republican Womens club of Rolling Meadows Monday.

The discussion centered on a discussion of the principles of the party, advice on obtaining speakers for meetings, what Republican women can accomplish, and the influences of the Republican womens clubs.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Tony Manago, 2602 George st. The hostess served refreshments following the discussion.

Mrs. Kenneth Gobeyn is new membership chairman. She replaces Mrs. Al Haase who had served as temporary membership chairman. K)

Lions Club Plans Skating Party For All

A novel pre-lenten entertainment for community residents has been planned by the Rolling Meadows Lions club.

A roller skating party has been set by the club for Monday, February 13. The Lions have rented the entire Arlington Roller Rink for that night, and will sell 400 tickets to community residents for the skating party.

Tickets will be 75 cents each. An organist has been engaged by the club to play from 9 p.m. to midnight. Clamp-on skates will be available without charge, and shoe skates may be rented for 25 cents.

Tickets will be limited to the capacity of the rink. Only 400 will be sold. Tickets may be procured from the following club members who live in all areas of the city: Ray Walker, 2400 Park st., Clearbrook 5-1334; Clyde Johnson, 2405 South st., Clearbrook 5-1071; Jack Yarborough, 3310 Fremont st., CLearbrook 3-6000; John Anderson 3404 Campbell st., CLearbrook 5-2165; Fred Hahn, 2202 Bluebird Lane, CLearbrook 5-0795; Bert Trager, 2603 Oriole lane, CLearbrook 3-1022; Tom Bouchard, 2603 Flicker lane, CLearbrook 3-1731; and Paul Fackler, 2402 Wing st., CLearbrook 3-3675. LITTLE LEAGUE

Reports are in from the first 5 ticket sellers who have completed their sales. The 5 sections covered are proof that the "Dreamland Cruise" will be the tremendous success anticipated.

The reports show that none of the areas could be completed, as the allotment of tickets was not sufficient to permit calling on every home.

Tickets can only be purchased from sellers assigned to your st. Residents who wish to be sure of being called on, may contact Steve Bialo, CL. 5-2252; Fred Schultz, CL. 3-8624; or Lola Kolb, CL. 3-7276. They will be happy to have the representative of your street visit you before their tickets are sold out.

TICKET SELLERS are urged to contact all names on their lists as soon as possible. In the event some streets do not require the number of tickets assigned them, the remaining tickets should be immediately turned back to Steve Bialo, who will re-issue them to sellers who could not complete their canvass.

Members of the Rolling Meadows Little League wish to extend their thanks for the warm welcome they are receiving from the residents they have called on. This indicates the great interest in our Little Leaguers, by fellow "Meadowites."

All girls entered in hte Queen contest, are reminded to contact the homes in their area, to inform their friends and neighbors of their entry.

Ticket sellers may not make suggestions, as to whom to vote for. Many residents would welcome the opportunity of meeting a girl from their neighborhood and cast their vote for her.

THE FOLLOWING is a list of the entrants in the Rolling Meadows Little League Queen contest: June Richardson, Barbara Barrett, Gail Lang, Joan Lang, Joan Pedersen, Kathie Grundhoefer, Sue Hibbert, Carol Bycroft, Micki McClaskey, Gloria Amundson, Bobbie Meier, Betty Anne Zimmanck, Lynn Eve Wasko, Barbara Lapinski, Mary Kay Kunz and Pat McFeggan.

The regular monthly meeting of the Little League Auxiliary will be held on Monday, January 16, at 8 p.m., at the Barn.

A special meeting of all dance committee chairmen will take place Monday, January 23, at 8 p.m. at the Barn. The purpose of this meeting will be to hear reports on how each committee is progressing. All members of Little League and the Auxiliary are invited. (K

Junior Women Plan April 'Hoe Down'

A request has come from the Rolling Meadows Junior Womans club for residents to mark their calendars for Saturday, April 14.

On that night, the club has planned a "real old-fashioned Hoe Down" for city residents. The dance will be held at the Arlington Heights VFW hall on Northwest highway. Proceeds will be used for various civic projects including the Northwest Community hospital center.

Chairman of the club committee is Mrs. Joseph Stapleton. Since an old-time type dance has not as yet been held by any group in the city, the club is hopeful residents will find the dance entertaining and novel. Ticket sales will begin in about a month. K)

'Operation Helping Hand' Grows Daily

More than $100 has been received to date, with further donations promised for the "Operation Helping Hand" fund established last week to assist the family of Marshall Hansen who were burned out of their Rolling Meadows home on New Year's Eve.

Many groups in the city are planning further fund-raising efforts or donations to the fund to assist the family who lost most of their personal possessions and furniture in the blaze.

CONTRIBUTIONS to the fund are being accepted at the Rolling Meadows city hall, 2207 Campbell st., Arlington Heights, or at the office of Paddock Publications. Checks should be made payable to "Operation Helping Hand."

Since unofficial estimates of the loss of personal property range as high as $3,000 and since no insurance was carried to cover the loss, the Helping Hand fund will materially assist the family to start anew.

City clerk Eda Zimmerman reports many residents in purchasing their $2 vehicle stickers from the city are automatically turning the $2 change from $5 bills over to the fund.

The "Operation Helping Hand" fund is being handled by a joint disaster committee set up of representatives of the civic groups within the city. (K

Arlington Race Track Gives $100 To Scouts

A further boost to the Rolling Meadows Girl Scout fund drive has been received from the Arlington Park-Washington Park Foundation.

A check for $100 was received last week by Abiathar White Jr., Rolling Meadows Girl Scout fund drive chairman, from Harold H. Anderson, president of the Foundation.

The contribution of the race track brings the total of the Rolling Meadows fund drive to less than $50 less than the high goal of $700 set for the community. Sincere appreciation has been expressed by White as well as other adult members of the scouting organization in Rolling Meadows. (K

Sixty Teens Met Friday For Party

More than 60 members of Junior Hi Fellowship met in the community Barn Friday for the club's movie night and dance party.

The feature film "Mr. Blandings Builds His Dream House" proved to be hilarious comedy for the youngsters as promised. A short subject on husky dogs in the Arctic provided an educational and interesting prelude to the feature.

Free cokes were enjoyed by the young teens during the movie intermission through the courtesy of Rev. Nelson Ringsmuth of the Community church.

The dance session following the movie was scheduled to end at 10 p.m. as usual, but due to the length of the feature the Junior Hi youngsters were permitted to extend their meeting until 10:30 p.m. Music for dancing was the latest hit records from the collection of member Carol Meyer.

Since the club executive advisor John Woods was alone "on the job" last Friday, senior club members Terry Loveless and Don Carlson acted as willing assistants. The boys distributed cokes, played records and presented the movie itself, freeing the only adult advisor present for other duties during the 3½ hour club session. (K

Tree Burning Ends Christmas Season

In a "blaze of glory" Rolling Meadows Jaycees Saturday closed the Christmas season for the city.

Sponsoring the community Christmas tree burning eceremony, the group collected trees throughout the city during the day. Starting promptly at 8:30 p.m. the Jaycees set the torch to the huge pile of trees in the burning area near the water tower.

Many residents were on hand, accompanied by their children, to watch the ceremony. Carols were sung, and Rolling Meadows 12-year-old songstress Merigail Moreland sang 2 songs for those present.

Standing by to assist if needed was the Palatine Rural fire department. Help for the collection of trees was given by Meadows Boy Scouts. Appreciation has also been expressed by the Jaycees to the Home Owners association for the use of their sound system. In addition Kimball Hill & Associates provided a dump truck with a driver to help in the tree collection. Trucks were also provided by Lattof Motor Sales and George C. Poole Ford agency for the tree collection.

Chairman of the Jaycee committee in charge of the tree burning ceremony and collection was Jack Oldenburg. (K

'Come As You Are' Call To Teenagers

Junior Hi club members have been receiving telephone calls stating "Come as you are" all during the past week. The state of attire at the moment of the telephone call is the costume expected to be worn by that member to the club's "Come As You Are" party tomorrow night.

From 7 to 10 p.m. the young teens will enjoy the party festivities at the community Barn. Soda pop will be available at 5 cents per bottle, but other refreshments will be prepared and donated by members of the Junior Hi Mothers club. Mothers serving at the party will be Mrs. Bunn, Mrs. Stork and Mrs. Carozza.

The "come as you are" telehone calls have been made by Joan Pedersen, club secretary, and Gary Moreland, club president. There will be a penalty for any member who appears dressed other than they were when they received their telephone call. (K

Aliens Register

District director Robert H. Robinson of the immigration and naturalization service office in Chicago announced an estimated 15,000 aliens have already filled out address report cards in the Chicago district under the law requiring noncitizens to report their addresses to the Government each January.
